rots and stood at the entrance of the house of E-li'sha. 10 However, E-li'sha sent a messenger to tell him: "Go, wash seven times<sup>a</sup> in the Jordan,<sup>b</sup> and your flesh will be restored, and you will be clean." 11 At this Na'a-man became indignant and started to leave, saying: "Here I said to myself, 'He will come out to me and stand here and call on the name of Jehovah his God, moving his hand back and forth over the leprosy to cure it.' 12 Are not the A'ba'nah and the Phar'par, the rivers of Damascus,<sup>c</sup> better than all the waters of Israel? Can I not wash in them and become clean?" With that he turned and went away in a rage.

13 His servants now approached him and said: "My father, if the prophet had told you to do something extraordinary, would you not do it? How much more, then, since he only said to you, 'Wash and be clean'?" 14 At that he went down and plunged into<sup>d</sup> the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of the true God.<sup>d</sup> Then his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little boy,<sup>e</sup> and he became clean.<sup>f</sup>

15 After that he went back to the man of the true God,<sup>g</sup> he and all his entourage,* and he stood before him and said: "Now I know that there is no God anywhere in all the earth but in Israel.<sup>h</sup> Now accept, please, a gift<sup>i</sup> from your servant." 16 However, E-li'sha said: "As surely as Jehovah whom I serve<sup>j</sup> is living, I will not accept it."<sup>j</sup> He urged him to accept it, but he kept refusing. 17 Finally Na'a-man said: "If not, please, let your servant be given two mule-loads of soil from this land, for your servant will no longer offer a burnt offering or a sacrifice to any gods other than Jehovah. 18 But may Jehovah forgive your servant for this one thing: When my lord goes into the house<sup>k</sup> of Rim'mon to bow down there, he supports himself on my arm, so I have to bow down at the house of Rim'mon. When I bow down at the house of Rim'mon, may Jehovah, please, forgive your servant for this." 19 At this he said to him: "Go in peace." After he departed from him and had traveled for some distance, 20 Ge-ha'zi<sup>a</sup> the attendant of E-li'sha the man of the true God<sup>b</sup> said to himself: 'Here my master has spared this Syrian Na'a-man<sup>c</sup> by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as Jehovah is living, I will run after him and take something from him.' 21 So Ge-ha'zi chased after Na'a-man. When Na'a-man saw someone running after him, he got down from his chariot to meet him and said: "Is everything all right?" 22 To this he said: "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Look! Just now two young men from the mountainous region of E'phra-im from the sons of the prophets came to me. Give them, please, a talent of silver and two changes of garments.'" <sup>d</sup> 23 Na'a-man said: "Go on, take two talents." He kept urging him,<sup>e</sup> and he wrapped up two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and gave them to two of his attendants, who carried them before him.

24 When he reached O'phel,* he took them from their hand and put them in the house and sent the men away. After they left, 25 he went in and stood by his master. E-li'sha now said to him: "Where did you come from, Ge-ha'zi?" But he said: "Your servant did not go anywhere."<sup>a</sup> 26 E-li'sha said to him: "Was my heart not there with you when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept silver or to accept garments or olive groves or vineyards or sheep or cattle or male or female servants?"<sup>b</sup> 27 Now Na'a-man's leprosy<sup>c</sup> will stick to you and your descendants forever." Immediately he went out from before him a leper, white as snow.<sup>d</sup>

6 The sons of the prophets<sup>e</sup> said to E-li'sha: "Look! The place where we are staying with you is too cramped for us. 2 Please let us go to the Jordan. Let each of us take a log from there and make a place there where we can dwell." He said: "Go." 3 One of them said: "Will you please come along with your servants?" At that he said: "I will come." 4 So he went with them, and they came to the Jordan and began to cut down the trees. 5 As one of them was cutting down a tree, the axhead fell into the water, and he cried out: "Alas, my master, it was borrowed!" 6 The man of the true God said: "Where did it fall?" So he showed him the place. He then cut off a piece of wood and threw it there and made the axhead float. 7 He said: "Lift it out." So he reached out his hand and took it.

8 Now the king of Syria went to war against Israel.<sup>f</sup> He consulted with his servants and said: "I will encamp at such and such a place with you." 9 Then the man of the true God<sup>g</sup> sent word to the king of Israel, saying: "Beware of passing by this place, because that is where the Syrians are coming down." 10 So the king of Israel sent word to the place that the man of the true God had warned him about. He kept warning him, and he stayed away from there on several occasions.*<sup>a</sup>

11 This enraged the king* of Syria, so he summoned his servants and said to them: "Tell me! Who among us is on the side of the king of Israel?" 12 Then one of his servants said: "None of us, my lord the king! It is E-li'sha the prophet in Israel who tells the king of Israel the things that you say in your own bedroom."<sup>b</sup> 13 He said: "Go and find out where he is, so that I may send men to capture him." Later the report was made to him: "He is in Do'than."<sup>c</sup> 14 He immediately sent horses and war chariots there, as well as a large army; they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 When the attendant* of the man of the true God rose early and went outside, he saw that an army with horses and war chariots was surrounding the city. At once the attendant said to him: "Alas, my master! What are we to do?" 16 But he said: "Do not be afraid!<sup>d</sup> For there are more who are with us than those who are with them."<sup>e</sup> 17 Then E-li'sha began to pray and say: "O Jehovah, open his eyes, please, that he may see."<sup>f</sup> Immediately Jehovah opened the attendant's eyes and he saw, and look! the mountainous region was full of horses and war chariots of fire<sup>g</sup> all around E-li'sha.<sup>h</sup>

18 When the Syrians came down to him, E-li'sha prayed to Jehovah and said: "Please, strike this nation with blindness."<sup>i</sup> So he struck them with blindness, just as E-li'sha had requested. 19 E-li'sha now said to them:

6:10 *Or "more than once or twice."6:11 *Lit., "the heart of the king."6:15 *Or "minister."

"This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and let me lead you to the man you are looking for." However, he led them to Sa·mar'i·a.<sup>a</sup>

20 When they arrived in Sa·mar'i·a, E·li'sha said: "O Jehovah, open their eyes so that they may see." So Jehovah opened their eyes, and they saw that they were in the middle of Sa·mar'i·a. 21 When the king of Is·rael saw them, he said to E·li'sha: "Should I strike them down, should I strike them down, my father?" 22 But he said: "You must not strike them down. Do you strike down those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Give them bread and water so they may eat and drink<sup>b</sup> and return to their lord." 23 So he spread a great feast for them, and they ate and drank, after which he sent them away to return to their lord. And not once did the marauder bands of the Syrians come again into the land of Is·rael.

She replied: "This woman said to me, 'Hand over your son, and we will eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'<sup>a</sup> 29 So we boiled my son and ate him.<sup>b</sup> The next day I said to her, 'Hand over your son so that we may eat him.' But she hid her son."

30 As soon as the king heard the woman's words, he ripped his garments apart.<sup>c</sup> When he passed by on the wall, the people saw that he was wearing sackcloth under his clothes.* 31 Then he said: "So may God do to me and add to it if the head of E·li'sha the son of Sha'phat remains on him today!"<sup>d</sup>

32 E·li'sha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger arrived, E·li'sha said to the elders: "Have you seen how this son of a murderer<sup>e</sup> has sent to take off my head? Watch when the messenger comes, close the door, and hold the door shut against him. Is not the sound of his lord's footsteps behind him?" 33 While he was still speaking with them, the messenger came to him, and the king said: "This calamity is from Jehovah. Why should I wait any longer for Jehovah?"

7 E·li'sha now said, "Listen to the word of Jehovah. This is what Jehovah says: 'Tomorrow about this time at the gate* of Sa·mar'i·a, a seah measure<sup>g</sup> of fine flour will be worth a shekel,<sup>h</sup> and two seah measures of barley will be worth a shekel.'"<sup>i</sup> 2 At that the adjutant whom the king relied on said to the man of the true God: "Even if Jehovah should open floodgates in the heavens, could this<sup>a</sup> possibly take place?"<sup>a</sup> To that he said: "You will see it with your own eyes,<sup>b</sup> but you will not eat from it."<sup>c</sup>

3 There were four lepers at the entrance of the city gate,<sup>d</sup> and they said to one another: "Why are we sitting here until we die? 4 If we say, 'Let us go into the city,' while the famine is in the city,<sup>e</sup> we would die there. And if we sit here, we will die anyway. So now let us go over to the camp of the Syrians. If they spare our lives, we will live, but if they put us to death, then we will die." 5 They then got up in the evening darkness and entered the camp of the Syrians. When they reached the outskirts of the Syrian camp, there was nobody there.

6 For Jehovah had caused the Syrian camp to hear the sound of war chariots and horses, the sound of a huge army.<sup>f</sup> So they said to one another: "Look! The king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hit'tites and the kings of Egypt to come against us!" 7 They immediately got up and fled in the evening darkness, leaving their tents, horses, donkeys, and the whole camp just as it was, and they fled for their lives.*

8 When these lepers reached the outskirts of the camp, they entered into one of the tents and began to eat and drink. They carried away from there silver, gold, and garments and went and hid them. Then they returned and entered another tent and carried things away from there and went and hid them.

9 Finally they said to one another: "What we are doing is not right. This day is a day of good news! If we hesitate and wait until dawn, we will deserve to be punished. Let us now go and report this at the king's house."

10 So they went and called out to the gatekeepers of the city and reported to them: "We went into the camp of the Syrians, but nobody was there—we did not hear anyone at all. There were only the horses and donkeys tied and the tents left just as they were." 11 At once the gatekeepers called out, and it was reported inside the king's house.

12 Immediately the king got up by night and said to his servants: "Please let me tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry,<sup>a</sup> so they left the camp to hide in the field, saying, 'They will come out of the city, and we will catch them alive and enter into the city.'"<sup>b</sup> 13 Then one of his servants said: "Please, let some men take five of the remaining horses that are in the city. Look! They will end up the same as all the crowd of Israel that remain here. Look! They will end up the same as all the crowd of Israel that perished. Let us then send them out and see." 14 So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them out to the camp of the Syrians, saying: "Go and see." 15 They followed them as far as the Jordan, and the entire way was covered with garments and utensils that the Syrians had thrown away as they fled in panic. The messengers returned and reported it to the king.

16 The people then went out and plundered the camp of the Syrians, so that a seah measure of fine flour came to be worth a shekel, and two seah measures of barley came to be worth a shekel, according to the word of Jehovah.<sup>c</sup> 17 The king had appointed the adjutant whom he relied on to be in charge of the gate, but the people trampled him to death at the gate, just as the man of the true God had told the king when he came down to him. 18 It happened just as the man of the true God had said to the king: “Two seah measures of barley will be worth a shekel, and a seah measure of fine flour will be worth a shekel tomorrow at this time at the gate of Samar’i·a.”<sup>a</sup> 19 But the adjutant had said to the man of the true God: “Even if Jehovah should open floodgates in the heavens, could such a thing<sup>b</sup> take place?” To this E·li’sha had said: “You will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat from it.” 20 That is exactly what happened to him, because the people trampled him to death at the gate.

8 E·li’sha said to the woman whose son he had restored to life:<sup>c</sup> “Rise up and go, you with your household, and live as a foreigner wherever you can, for Jehovah has declared a famine,<sup>c</sup> and it will come on the land for seven years.” 2 So the woman got up and did what the man of the true God said. She went with her household and settled in the land of the Philis’tines<sup>d</sup> for seven years.

3 At the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philis’tines and went to appeal to the king for her house and her field. 4 Now the king was speaking to Ge·ha’zi the attendant of the man of the true God, saying: “Relate to me, please, all the great things that E·li’sha has done.”<sup>e</sup> 5 Just as he was relating to the king how he had restored the dead one to life,<sup>f</sup> the woman whose son he had restored to life came to the king, appealing for her house and her field.<sup>a</sup> At once Ge·ha’zi said: “My lord the king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom E·li’sha restored to life.”

6 At that the king asked the woman, and she related the story to him. Then the king assigned her a court official, telling him: “Return all that belongs to her and all the products of the field from the day she left the land until now.”

7 E·li’sha came to Damascus<sup>b</sup> when Ben-ha’dad<sup>c</sup> the king of Syria was sick. So the report was made to him: “The man of the true God<sup>d</sup> has come here.”

8 At that the king said to Haz’-a-el:<sup>e</sup> “Take a gift with you and go and meet the man of the true God.<sup>f</sup> Inquire of Jehovah through him, asking, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’”

9 Haz’-a-el went to meet him and took a gift with him, every sort of good thing of Damascus, the load of 40 camels. He came and stood before him and said: “Your son, Ben-ha’dad the king of Syria, has sent me to you, asking, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’” 10 E·li’sha replied to him: “Go and tell him, ‘You will certainly recover,’ but Jehovah has shown me that he will certainly die.”<sup>g</sup>

11 And he kept staring at him to the point of embarrassment. Then the man of the true God gave way to weeping. 12 Haz’-a-el asked: “Why is my lord weeping?” He replied: “Because I know what harm you will do to the people of Israel.<sup>h</sup> Their fortified places you will set on fire, their choice men you will kill with the sword, their children you will dash to pieces, and their pregnant women you will rip open.”<sup>i</sup> 13 Haz’-a-el said: “How could your servant, who is a mere dog, do such a deed?” But E·li’sha said: “Jehovah has shown me that you will be king over Syria.”<sup>j</sup>

16 In the fifth year of Je-ho'-ram<sup>d</sup> the son of A'hab the king of Israel, while Je-hosh'a-phat was king of Judah, Je-ho'ram<sup>e</sup> the son of King Je-hosh'a-phat of Judah became king. 17 He was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem. 18 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel,<sup>f</sup> just as those of the house of A'hab had done,<sup>g</sup> for A'hab's daughter had become his wife;<sup>h</sup> and he kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>i</sup> 19 But Jehovah did not want to bring Judah to ruin for the sake of David his servant,<sup>j</sup> since he had promised him to give a lamp to him<sup>k</sup> and to his sons always.

20 In his days E'dom revolted against Judah<sup>l</sup> and then set up its own king.<sup>m</sup> 21 So Je-ho'-ram crossed over to Za'ir with all his chariots, and he rose up by night and defeated the E'domites who were surrounding him and the chariot commanders; and the troops fled to their tents. 22 But E'dom has kept up its revolt against Judah to this day. Lib'nah<sup>n</sup> also revolted at that time.

23 And the rest of the history of Je-ho'ram, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 24 Then Je-ho'ram was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David.<sup>o</sup> And his son A-ha-z'i'ah<sup>p</sup> became king in his place.

25 In the 12th year of Je-ho'-ram the son of A'hab the king of Israel, A-ha-z'i'ah the son of King Je-ho'ram of Judah became king.<sup>a</sup> 26 A-ha-z'i'ah was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ath-a-li'ah<sup>b</sup> the granddaughter* of King Om'ri<sup>c</sup> of Israel. 27 He walked in the way of the house of A'hab<sup>d</sup> and kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, like the house of A'hab, for he was related to the house of A'hab by marriage.<sup>e</sup> 28 So he went with Je-ho'ram the son of A'hab to wage war against King Haz'a-el of Syria at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad,<sup>f</sup> but the Syrians wounded Je-ho'ram.<sup>g</sup> 29 So King Je-ho'ram returned to Jez're-el<sup>h</sup> to recover from the wounds that the Syrians had inflicted on him at Ra'mah when he fought against King Haz'a-el of Syria.<sup>i</sup> A-ha-z'i'ah the son of Je-ho'ram the king of Judah went down to Jez're-el to see Je-ho'ram the son of A'hab, because he had been wounded.*

gil'e-ad. 5 When he arrived, the army chiefs were seated there. He said: "I have a message for you, O chief." Je'hu asked: "For which one of us?" He said: "For you, O chief." 6 So Je'hu got up and went into the house; the attendant poured the oil out on his head and said to him, "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: 'I anoint you as king over Jehovah's people, over Israel.<sup>a</sup> 7 You must strike down the house of A'hab your lord, and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and of all the servants of Jehovah who died at the hands of Jez'e-bel.<sup>b</sup> 8 And the whole house of A'hab will perish; and I will annihilate from A'hab every male,* including the helpless and weak in Israel.<sup>c</sup> 9 And I will make the house of A'hab like the house of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>d</sup> the son of Ne'bat and like the house of Ba'a-sha<sup>e</sup> the son of A-hi'jah. 10 As for Jez'e-bel, the dogs will eat her up in the plot of land at Jez're-el,<sup>f</sup> and no one will bury her."<sup>g</sup> With that he opened the door and fled.<sup>g</sup>

11 When Je'hu went back to the servants of his lord, they asked him: "Is everything all right? Why did this crazy man come to you?" He answered them: "You know that sort of man and his sort of talk." 12 But they said: "That is not true! Tell us, please." Then he said: "This is what he said to me, and then he added, 'This is what Jehovah says: 'I anoint you as king over Israel.''"<sup>h</sup> 13 At this each of them quickly took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps,<sup>i</sup> and they blew the horn and said: "Je'hu has become king!"<sup>j</sup> 14 Then Je'hu<sup>k</sup> the son of Je-hosh'a-phat the son

Je-ho'ram had been on guard at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad,<sup>a</sup> he with all Israel, because of King Haz'a-el<sup>b</sup> of Syria. 15 King Je-ho'ram later returned to Jez're-el<sup>c</sup> to recover from the wounds that the Syrians inflicted on him when he fought King Haz'a-el of Syria.<sup>d</sup>

Je'hu now said: "If you agree,* do not let anyone escape from the city to go and report this in Jez're-el." 16 Then Je'hu mounted his chariot and went to Jez're-el, for Je-ho'ram was lying there wounded, and King A-ha-ziz'ah of Judah had gone down to see Je-ho'ram. 17 As the watchman was standing on the tower in Jez're-el, he saw the throng of Je'hu's men approaching. At once he said: "I see a throng of men." Je-ho'ram said: "Take a cavalryman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Are you coming in peace?'" 18 So a horseman went to meet him and said: "This is what the king says, 'Are you coming in peace?'" But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'? Fall in behind me!"

The watchman then reported: "The messenger reached them, but he has not returned." 19 So he sent out a second horseman, who said when he came to them: "This is what the king says, 'Are you coming in peace?'" But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'? Fall in behind me!"

20 The watchman then reported: "He reached them, but he has not returned, and the driving is like the driving of Je'hu the grandson* of Nim'shi, for he drives like a madman." 21 Je-ho'ram said: "Hitch up!" So his war chariot was hitched up and King Je-ho'ram of Israel and King A-ha·zi'ah<sup>a</sup> of Judah each went out in his own war chariot to meet Je'hu. They encountered him in the plot of land of Na'both<sup>b</sup> the Jez're-el-ite.

22 As soon as Je-ho'ram saw Je'hu, he said: "Are you coming in peace, Je'hu?" But he said: "What peace could there be as long as there is the prostitution of Jez'e-bel<sup>c</sup> your mother and her many sorceries?"<sup>d</sup> 23 At once Je-ho'ram turned his chariot to flee, and he said to A-ha·zi'ah: "We have been tricked, A-ha·zi'ah!" 24 Je'hu took his bow in hand and shot Je-ho'ram between the shoulders, and the arrow came out at his heart, and he collapsed in his war chariot. 25 He then said to Bid'kar his adjutant: "Pick him up and throw him into the field of Na'both the Jez're-el-ite.<sup>e</sup> Remember, you and I were riding together* behind A'hab his father when Jehovah himself made this pronouncement against him:<sup>f</sup> 26 "As surely as I saw the blood of Na'both<sup>g</sup> and the blood of his sons yesterday," declares Jehovah, "I will repay<sup>h</sup> you in this very plot of land," declares Jehovah.' So now pick him up and throw him into the plot of land, according to the word of Jehovah."<sup>i</sup>

27 When King A-ha·zi'ah<sup>j</sup> of Judah saw what was happening, he fled by way of the garden house. (Later Je'hu pursued him and said: "Strike him down also!" So they struck him down in the chariot on his way up to Gur, which is by Ib'le-am.<sup>k</sup> But he continued his flight to Me-gid'do and died there. 28 Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and they buried him in his grave with his forefathers in the City of David.<sup>l</sup> 29 It was in the 11th year of Je-ho'ram the son of A'hab that A-ha·zi'ah<sup>a</sup> had become king over Judah.)

30 When Je'hu came to Jez're-el,<sup>b</sup> Jez'e-bel<sup>c</sup> heard of it. So she painted her eyes with black paint* and adorned her head and looked down through the window. 31 As Je'hu came in through the gate, she said: "Did it go well with Zim'ri, the killer of his lord?"<sup>d</sup> 32 Looking up to the window, he said: "Who is on my side? Who?"<sup>e</sup> Immediately two or three court officials looked down at him. 33 He said: "Throw her down!" So they threw her down, and some of her blood splattered on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her. 34 After that he went in and ate and drank. He then said: "Please, take care of this accursed woman and bury her. After all, she is the daughter of a king."<sup>f</sup> 35 But when they went to bury her, they did not find anything but her skull and her feet and the palms of her hands.<sup>g</sup> 36 When they returned and told him, he said: "This fulfills the word of Jehovah<sup>h</sup> that he spoke through his servant E-li'jah the Tish'bite, saying, 'In the plot of land of Jez're-el, the dogs will eat the flesh of Jez'e-bel.'<sup>i</sup> 37 And the dead body of Jez'e-bel will become as manure on the surface of the field in the plot of land of Jez're-el, so that they may not say: "This is Jez'ebel."'"

10 Now A'hab<sup>j</sup> had 70 sons in Sa-mar'i-a. So Je'hu wrote letters and sent them to Sa-mar'i-a, to the princes of Jez're-el, the elders,<sup>k</sup> and the guardians of A'hab's children,* saying: 2 "Now when this letter comes to you, the sons of your lord will be with you, as well as the

4 But they were overcome with fear and said: "Look! If two kings could not stand before him,<sup>a</sup> how can we stand?" 5 So the overseer of the palace,* the governor of the city, the elders, and the guardians sent this message to Je'hu: "We are your servants, and we will do everything that you tell us. We will not make anyone king. Do whatever seems good in your eyes."

6 Then he wrote them a second letter, saying: "If you belong to me and are willing to obey me, bring the heads of the sons of your lord and come to me tomorrow at this time at Jez're-el."

Now the 70 sons of the king were with the distinguished men of the city who were raising them. 7 As soon as the letter came to them, they took the sons of the king and slaughtered them, 70 men,<sup>b</sup> and they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jez're-el. 8 The messenger came in and told him: "They have brought the heads of the sons of the king." So he said: "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the city gate until morning." 9 When he went out in the morning, he stood before all the people and said: "You are innocent.* Yes, I conspired against my lord, and I killed him,<sup>c</sup> but who struck down all of these? 10 Know, then, that not a single word of Jehovah's that Jehovah has spoken against the house of A'hab will go unfulfilled,*<sup>d</sup> and Jehovah has

12 Then he got up and went on his way to Sa-mar'i-a. The binding house* of the shepherds was on the way. 13 There Je'hu encountered the brothers of King A-ha-z'i'ah<sup>d</sup> of Judah, and he said to them, "Who are you?" They said: "We are the brothers of A-ha-z'i'ah, and we are on our way down to ask if all is well with the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."<sup>e</sup> 14 Immediately he said: "Capture them alive!" So they captured them alive and slaughtered them at the cistern of the binding house, 42 men. He did not let a single one of them survive.<sup>e</sup>

15 As he went from there, he encountered Je-hon'a-dab<sup>f</sup> the son of Re'chab,<sup>g</sup> who was coming to meet him. When he greeted* him, he said to him: "Is your heart fully<sup>h</sup> with me, just as my heart is with your heart?"

Je-hon'a-dab replied: "It is." "If so, give me your hand."

So he gave him his hand, and Je'hu pulled him up into the chariot with him. 16 Then he said: "Come along with me, and see my toleration of no rivalry toward* Jehovah."<sup>h</sup> So they had him ride with him in his war chariot. 17 Then he came to Sa-mar'i-a, and he struck down all who were left over of A'hab's house in Sa-mar'i-a until he had annihilated them,<sup>i</sup> according to 18 Further, Je'hu collected all the people together and said to them: "A'hab worshipped Ba'-al a little,<sup>b</sup> but Je'hu will worship him much more. 19 So summon all the prophets of Ba'al,<sup>c</sup> all his worshippers, and all his priests<sup>d</sup> to me. Do not let a single one be absent, because I have a great sacrifice for Ba'al. Any-one who is absent will not live." But Je'hu was acting with cunning to destroy the worshippers of Ba'al.

20 Je'hu continued: "Declare* a solemn assembly for Ba'al." So they proclaimed it. 21 After that Je'hu sent word throughout Israel, and all the worshippers of Ba'al came. Not a single one was left out who did not come. They entered the house* of Ba'al,<sup>e</sup> and the house of Ba'al was filled from end to end. 22 He said to the one who was in charge of the wardrobe: "Bring out garments for all the worshippers of Ba'al." So he brought out the clothing for them. 23 Then Je'hu and Je-hon'a-dab<sup>f</sup> the son of Re'chab went into the house of Ba'al. He now said to the worshippers of Ba'al: "Search carefully and see that there are no worshippers of Jehovah here, only worshippers of Ba'al." 24 Finally they came in to offer up sacrifices and burnt offerings. Je'hu had stationed 80 of his men outside and said: "If any one of the men I am putting into your hands escapes, it will be your life for his."<sup>g</sup>

25 As soon as he finished offering up the burnt offering, Je'hu said to the guards* and the adjutants: "Come in and strike them down! Do not let a single one escape!"<sup>a</sup> So the guards and the adjutants struck them down with the sword and threw them out, and they kept going as far as the inner sanctuary* of the house of Ba'al. 26 Then they brought out the sacred pillars<sup>b</sup> of the house of Ba'al and burned each one.<sup>c</sup> 27 They tore down the sacred pillar<sup>d</sup> of Ba'al, and they tore down the house of Ba'-al<sup>e</sup> and turned it into latrines, as it remains to this day.

28 Thus Je'hu annihilated Ba'al out of Israel. 29 However, Je'hu did not turn away from the sins that Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat had caused Israel to commit as regards the golden calves that were in Beth'el and in Dan.<sup>f</sup> 30 So Jehovah said to Je'hu: "Because you have acted well and have done what is right in my eyes by carrying out all that was in my heart to do to the house of A'hab,<sup>g</sup> four generations of your sons will sit on the throne of Israel."<sup>h</sup> 31 But Je'hu did not take care to walk in the Law of Jehovah the God of Israel with all his heart.<sup>i</sup> He did not turn away from the sins that Jer-o-bo'am had caused Israel to commit.<sup>j</sup>

32 In those days Jehovah started to cut off* Israel piece by piece. Haz'a-el kept attacking them throughout the territory of Israel,<sup>k</sup> 33 from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gil'e-ad—of the Gad'ites, the Re'u-ben-ites, and the Ma-nas'-sites<sup>l</sup>—from A-ro'er, which is by the Ar'non Valley,* to Gil'e-ad and Ba'shan.<sup>m</sup>

35 Then Je'hu was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in Sa·mar'i·a; and his son Je·ho'a-haz<sup>a</sup> became king in his place. 36 The length<sup>b</sup> of Je'hu's reign over Israel was 28 years in Sa·mar'i·a.

4 In the seventh year, Je·hoi'a·da sent for the chiefs of hundreds of the Ca·ri·an bodyguard and of the palace guards<sup>*f</sup> and had them come to him at the house of Jehovah. He made a pact<sup>g</sup> with them and had them swear to it at the house of Jehovah, and then he showed them the son of the king.<sup>g</sup> 5 He ordered them: "This is what you are to do: One third of you will be on duty on the Sabbath and will keep strict watch over the king's house,<sup>*h</sup> 6 another third will be at the Gate of the Foundation, and another third will be at the gate behind the palace guards. 9 The chiefs of hundreds<sup>a</sup> did exactly what Je·hoi'a·da the priest had commanded. So each one took his men who were on duty on the Sabbath, together with those who were off duty on the Sabbath, and they came in to Je·hoi'a·da the priest.<sup>b</sup> 10 The priest then gave the chiefs of hundreds the spears and the circular shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the house of Jehovah. 11 And the palace guards<sup>c</sup> took their positions, each with his weapons in hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altard and by the house, all around the king. 12 Then Je·hoi'a·da brought the king's son<sup>e</sup> out and put on him the crown<sup>f</sup> and the Testimony,<sup>ff</sup> and they made him king and anointed him. They began to clap their hands and say: "Long live the king!"<sup>g</sup>

13 When Ath·a·li'ah heard the sound of the people running, she immediately came to the people at the house of Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> 14 Then she saw the king standing there by the pillar according to the custom.<sup>i</sup> The chiefs and the trumpeters<sup>j</sup> were with the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing the trumpets. 17 Then Je-ho’ā-da made a covenant between Jehovah and the king and the people,<sup>c</sup> that they would continue as the people of Jehovah, and he also made a covenant between the king and the people.<sup>d</sup> 18 After that all the people of the land came to the house<sup>e</sup> of Ba’al and tore down his altars,<sup>f</sup> completely smashed his images,<sup>f</sup> and killed Mat’tan the priest of Ba’al<sup>g</sup> in front of the altars.

Then the priest appointed overseers over the house of Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> 19 Further, he took the chiefs of hundreds,<sup>i</sup> the Ca’ri-an bodyguard, the palace guards,<sup>j</sup> and all the people of the land to escort the king down from the house of Jehovah, and they came to the king’s house<sup>k</sup> by the way of the gate of the palace guard. He then sat on the throne of the kings.<sup>k</sup> 20 So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet, for they had put Ath-a-li’ah to death with the sword at the king’s house.

that Je-ho’ā-da the priest instructed him. 3 However, the high places<sup>a</sup> were not removed, and the people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.

4 Je-ho’ash said to the priests: “Take all the money that is brought to the house of Jehovah for the holy offerings,<sup>b</sup> the money for which each one is assessed,<sup>c</sup> the money given as an estimated value for a person,* and all the money that each person’s heart is moved to bring to the house of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 5 The priests will personally take it from their donors* and use it to repair the house, wherever any damage is<sup>e</sup> found.”<sup>e</sup>

6 By the 23rd year of King Je-ho’ash, the priests had not yet repaired the damage to the house.<sup>f</sup> 7 So King Je-ho’ash called Je-ho’ā-da<sup>g</sup> the priest and the other priests and said to them: “Why are you not repairing the damage to the house? Therefore, do not take any more money from your donors unless it is used to repair the house.”<sup>h</sup> 8 At that the priests agreed not to take any more money from the people and not to be responsible for repairing the house.

9 Je-ho’ā-da the priest then took a chest<sup>i</sup> and bored a hole in its lid and put it next to the altar on the right as one enters the house of Jehovah. That is where the priests who served as doorkeepers would put all the money that was brought into the house of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 10 Whenever they saw that there was a great deal of money in the chest, the secretary of the king and the high priest would come up and collect* and count the money that had been brought to the house of Jehovah.<sup>a</sup> 11 They would give the money that had been counted to those appointed over the work being done in the house of Jehovah. They, in turn, paid it to the woodworkers and to the builders who were working at the house of Jehovah,<sup>b</sup> 12 as well as to the masons and the stonecutters. They also bought timbers and hewn stones for repairing the damage to the house of Jehovah and used the money for all the other expenses incurred in repairing the house.

13 However, none of the money brought to the house of Jehovah was used to make basins of silver, extinguishers, bowls, trumpets,<sup>c</sup> or any sort of gold or silver article for the house of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 14 They would give it only to those who did the work, and with it they repaired the house of Jehovah. 15 They would not call for an accounting from the men to whom they gave the money to give to the workers, for they were trustworthy.<sup>e</sup> 16 However, the money for guilt offerings<sup>f</sup> and the money for sin offerings was not brought to the house of Jehovah; it belonged to the priests.<sup>g</sup>

17 It was then that Haz'a-el<sup>h</sup> the king of Syria went up to fight against Gath,<sup>i</sup> and he captured it, after which he decided to attack<sup>j</sup> Jerusalem.<sup>j</sup> 18 At that King Je-ho'ash of Judah took all the holy offerings that his forefathers Je-hosh'a-phat, Je-ho'ram, and A-ha-z'i'ah, the kings of Judah, had sanctified, as well as his own holy offerings and all the gold to be found in the treasuries of the house of Jehovah and the king's house,<sup>k</sup> and sent them to Haz'a-el the king of Syria.<sup>k</sup> So he withdrew from Jerusalem.

19 As for the rest of the history of Je-ho'ash, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 20 However, his servants joined in a conspiracy against him<sup>a</sup> and struck Je-ho'ash down at the house of the Mound,<sup>*b</sup> on the way that goes down to Sil'la. 21 His servants Jo'za-car the son of Shim'e-ath and Je-hoz'a-bad the son of Sho'mer were the ones who struck him and put him to death.<sup>c</sup> They buried him with his forefathers in the City of David, and his son Am-a-z'i'ah became king in his place.<sup>d</sup>

13 In the 23rd year of Je-ho'ash<sup>e</sup> the son of A-ha-z'i'ah<sup>f</sup> the king of Judah, Je-ho'a-haz the son of Je'hug<sup>g</sup> became king over Israel in Sa-mar'i'a, and he reigned for 17 years. 2 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, and he persisted in the sin that Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat had caused Israel to commit.<sup>h</sup> He did not turn away from it. 3 So Jehovah's anger<sup>i</sup> grew hot against Israel,<sup>j</sup> and he gave them into the hand of King Haz'a-el<sup>k</sup> of Syria and into the hand of Ben-ha'dad<sup>l</sup> the son of Haz'a-el all their days.

4 In time Je-ho'a-haz begged for the favor* of Jehovah, and Jehovah listened to him, for he had seen the oppression the king of Syria had inflicted on Israel.<sup>m</sup> 5 So Jehovah provided Israel with a savior<sup>n</sup> to free them from Syria's grip, and the Israelites were able to dwell in their homes as before.* 6 (However, they did not depart from the sin of the house of Jer-o-bo'am that he had caused Israel to commit.<sup>o</sup> They continued in this sin,* and the sacred pole<sup>a</sup> continued to stand in Sa·mar'i·a.) 7 Je·ho'a-haz was left with an army of only 50 horsemen, 10 chariots, and 10,000 foot soldiers, because the king of Syria had destroyed them,<sup>b</sup> trampling them like the dust at threshing time.<sup>c</sup>

8 As for the rest of the history of Je·ho'a-haz, all that he did and his mightiness, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 9 Then Je·ho'a-haz was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in Sa·mar'i·a;<sup>d</sup> and his son Je·ho'ash became king in his place.

10 In the 37th year of King Je·ho'ash of Judah, Je·ho'ash<sup>e</sup> the son of Je·ho'a-haz became king over Israel in Sa·mar'i·a, and he reigned for 16 years. 11 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, not departing from all the sins that Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat had made Israel commit.<sup>f</sup> He continued* in these sins.

12 As for the rest of the history of Je·ho'ash, all that he did and his mightiness and how he fought against King Am·a·zi'ah of Judah,<sup>g</sup> is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 13 Then Je·ho'ash was laid to rest with his forefathers, and Jer·o·bo'am<sup>h</sup> sat on his throne. And Je·ho'ash was buried in Sa·mar'i·a with the kings of Israel.<sup>i</sup>

14 Now when E·li'sha<sup>j</sup> became ill with the sickness from which he eventually died, Je·ho'ash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over him, saying: "My father, my father! The chariot of Israel and his horsemen!"<sup>k</sup> 15 E·li'sha then said to him: "Take a bow and arrows." So he took a bow and arrows.

16 Then he said to the king of Israel: "Put your hand to the bow." So he put his hand to it, after which E·li'sha laid his hands on the king's hands. 17 Then he said: "Open the window toward the east." So he opened it. E·li'sha said: "Shoot!" So he shot. He now said: "Jehovah's arrow of victory,* the arrow of victory over<sup>b</sup> Syria! You will strike down<sup>c</sup> Syria at A'phek<sup>d</sup> until you finish it off."

18 He continued: "Take the arrows," and he took them. Then he said to the king of Israel: "Strike the ground." So he struck the ground three times and stopped. 19 At that the man of the true God grew indignant at him and said: "You should have struck the ground five or six times! Then you would have struck down Syria until you finished it off, but now you will strike down Syria only three times."<sup>b</sup>

20 After that E·li'sha died and was buried. There were Mo'abite marauder bands<sup>c</sup> that would come into the land at the beginning of the year.* 21 As some men were burying a man, they saw the marauder band, so they quickly threw the man into E·li'sha's burial place and ran off. When the man touched the bones of E·li'sha, he came to life<sup>d</sup> and stood on his feet.

Three times Je-ho'ash struck him down,<sup>a</sup> and he recovered the cities of Israel.

14 In the second year of Je-ho'ash<sup>b</sup> the son of Je-ho'a-haz the king of Israel, Am-a-z'i-ah the son of King Je-ho'ash of Judah became king. 2 He was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je-ho-ad'din of Jerusalem.<sup>c</sup> 3 He continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes, but not like David<sup>d</sup> his forefather. He did everything as Je-ho'ash his father had done.<sup>e</sup> 4 However, the high places were not removed,<sup>f</sup> and the people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.<sup>g</sup> 5 As soon as he had the kingdom firmly in his control, he struck down his servants who had struck down his father the king.<sup>h</sup> 6 But he did not put the sons of the murderers to death, in harmony with Jehovah's commandment written in the book of Moses' Law: "Fathers should not be put to death for their sons, and sons should not be put to death for their fathers; but each one should be put to death for his own sin."<sup>i</sup> 7 He struck down the E'dom-ites<sup>j</sup> in the Valley of Salt,<sup>k</sup> 10,000 men, and captured Se'la in the war,<sup>l</sup> and its name became Jok-the-el to this day.

ten in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days Jehovah began sending Re'zin the king of Syria and Pe'kah<sup>a</sup> the son of Rem·a·li'ah against Judah.<sup>b</sup> 38 Then Jo'tham was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of Da-vid his forefather. And his son A'haz became king in his place.

16 In the 17th year of Pe'kah the son of Rem·a·li'ah, A'haz<sup>c</sup> the son of King Jo'tham of Judah became king. 2 A'haz was 20 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 16 years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the eyes of Jehovah his God as Da-vid his forefather had done.<sup>d</sup> 3 Instead, he walked in the way of the kings of Israel,<sup>e</sup> and he even made his own son pass through the fire,<sup>f</sup> following the detestable practices of the nations<sup>g</sup> that Jehovah had driven out from before the Israelites. 4 He also kept sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places,<sup>h</sup> on the hills, and under every luxuriant tree.<sup>i</sup>

5 It was then that King Re'zin of Syria and Pe'kah son of Rem·a·li'ah the king of Israel came up to wage war against Jerusalem.<sup>j</sup> They laid siege against A'haz but were not able to capture the city. 6 At that time King Re'zin of Syria restored E'lath<sup>k</sup> to E'dom, after which he drove the Jews<sup>l</sup> out of E'lath. And the E'dom-ites entered E'lath, and they have occupied it down to this day. 7 So A'haz sent messengers to King Tig'lath-pil·e'ser<sup>c</sup> of As-syr·i·a, saying: "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and the hand of the king of Israel, who are attacking me." 8 A'haz then took the silver and the gold that was to be found at the house of Jehovah and in the treasures of the king's house<sup>a</sup> and sent the king of As-syr'i-a a bribe.<sup>a</sup> 9 The king of As-syr'i-a responded to his request, and he went up to Damascus and captured it and led its people into exile to Kir,<sup>b</sup> and he put Re'zin to death.<sup>c</sup>

10 Then King A'haz went to meet King Tig'lath-pil-e'ser of As-syr'i-a at Damascus. When he saw the altar that was in Damascus, King A'haz sent U-ri'jah the priest a plan of the altar, showing its pattern and how it was made.<sup>d</sup> 11 U-ri'jah<sup>e</sup> the priest built an altar<sup>f</sup> according to all the directions that King A'haz had sent from Damascus. U-ri'jah the priest finished building it before King A'haz returned from Damascus. 12 When the king returned from Damascus and saw the altar, he approached the altar and made offerings on it.<sup>g</sup> 13 And on that altar he continued to make his burnt offerings and his grain offerings smoke; he also poured out his drink offerings and sprinkled the blood of his communion sacrifices on it. 14 Then he moved the copper altar<sup>h</sup> that was before Jehovah from its place in front of the house, from between his own altar and the house of Jehovah, and he put it at the north side of his own altar. 15 King A'haz commanded U-ri'jah<sup>i</sup> the priest: "Make the morning burnt offering smoke on the great altar,<sup>j</sup> also the evening grain offering,<sup>k</sup> the king's burnt offering, and his grain offering, as well as the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings of all the people. You should also sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offerings and all the blood of the other sacrifices. As for the copper altar, let me decide what to do with it." 16 And

U-ri'jah the priest did everything that King A'haz had commanded.<sup>a</sup>

19 As for the rest of the history of A'haz, what he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah?<sup>f</sup> 20 Then A'haz was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David; and his son Hez-e-ki'ah<sup>g</sup> became king in his place.

17 In the 12th year of King A'haz of Judah, Ho-she'a<sup>h</sup> the son of E'lah became king over Israel in Sa-mar'i-a; he ruled for nine years. 2 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, only not to the extent of the kings of Israel prior to him. 3 King Shal-man-e'ser of As-syr'i-a came up against him,<sup>i</sup> and Ho-she'a became his servant and began to pay tribute to him.<sup>j</sup> 4 However, the king of As-syr'i-a learned that Ho-she'a was involved in a conspiracy, for he had sent messengers to King So of Egypt<sup>k</sup> and did not bring the tribute up to the king of As-syr'i-a as in former years. Therefore, the king of As-syr'i-a kept him confined and bound in prison.

5 The king of As-syr'i-a invaded the entire land, and he came to Sa-mar'i-a and laid siege to it for three years. 6 In the ninth year of Ho-she'a, the king of As-syr'i-a captured Sa-mar'i-a.<sup>a</sup> He then led the people of Israel into exile<sup>b</sup> in As-syr'i-a and made them dwell in Ha'lah and in Ha'-bor at the river Go'zan<sup>c</sup> and in the cities of the Medes.<sup>d</sup>

7 This happened because the people of Israel had sinned against Jehovah their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the control of Phar'aoh king of Egypt.<sup>e</sup> They worshipped<sup>f</sup> other gods,<sup>f</sup> 8 they followed the customs of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the Israelites, and they followed the customs that the kings of Israel had established.

9 The Israelites were pursuing the things that were not right according to Jehovah their God. They kept building high places in all their cities,<sup>g</sup> from watchtower to fortified city.* 10 They kept setting up for themselves sacred pillars and sacred poles<sup>h</sup> on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree;<sup>i</sup> 11 and on all the high places they would make sacrificial smoke just as the nations did that Jehovah had driven into exile from before them.<sup>j</sup> They kept doing wicked things to offend Jehovah.

12 They continued to serve disgusting idols,*<sup>k</sup> about which Jehovah had told them: "You must not do this!" 13 Jehovah kept warning Israel and Judah through all his prophets and every visionary,<sup>m</sup> saying: "Turn back from your wicked ways!<sup>n</sup> Keep my commandments and my

16 They kept leaving all the commandments of Jehovah their God, and they made metal statutes<sup>g</sup> of two calves<sup>g</sup> and a sacred pole,<sup>h</sup> and they bowed down to all the army of the heavens<sup>i</sup> and served Ba'al.<sup>j</sup> 17 They also made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire,<sup>k</sup> they practised divination<sup>l</sup> and looked for omens, and they kept devoting<sup>m</sup> themselves to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, to offend him.

18 So Jehovah was very angry with Israel, so that he removed them from his sight.<sup>m</sup> He did not let any remain but the tribe of Judah alone.

19 Even Judah did not keep the commandments of Jehovah their God,* they also walked in the customs that Israel followed.<sup>o</sup> 20 Jehovah rejected all the descendants of Israel and humiliated them and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until he had cast them away from before him. 21 He ripped Israel away from the house of David, and they made

Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat king.<sup>a</sup> But Jer-o-bo'am caused Israel to stray from following Jehovah, and he caused them to commit a great sin. 22 And the people of Israel kept walking in all the sins that Jer-o-bo'am had committed.<sup>b</sup> They did not depart from them 23 until Jehovah removed Israel from his sight, just as he had declared through all his servants the prophets.<sup>c</sup> So Israel was taken into exile from its land to As-syr'i-a,<sup>d</sup> where they remain to this day.

24 The king of As-syr'i-a then brought people from Babylon, Cu'thah, Av've, Ha'math, and Seph-ar-va'im<sup>e</sup> and settled them in the cities of Sa-mar'i-a in place of the Israelites; they took possession of Sa-mar'i-a and lived in its cities. 25 When they first began dwelling there, they did not fear* Jehovah. So Jehovah sent lions among them,<sup>f</sup> and they killed some of the people. 26 It was reported to the king of As-syr'i-a: "The nations that you have taken into exile and resettled in the cities of Sa-mar'i-a do not know the religion* of the God of the land. So he keeps sending lions among them, which are putting them to death, because none of them know the religion of the God of the land."

27 At that the king of As-syr'i-a commanded: "Have one of the priests whom you took into exile from there return to live there and to teach them the religion of the God of the land." 28 So one of the priests whom they had taken into exile from Sa-mar'i-a came back to live in Beth'el,<sup>g</sup> and he began to teach them how they should fear* Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> which they placed in the houses of worship on the high places that the Sa-mar'i-tans had made; each different nation did so in their cities where they were living. 30 So the men of Babylon made Suc'coth-be'noth, the men of Cuth made Ner'gal, the men of Ha'math<sup>a</sup> made A-shi'-ma, 31 and the Av'vites made Nib'haz and Tar'tak. The Se-phar-vites would burn their sons in the fire to A-dram'me-lech and A-nam'me-lech, the gods of Seph-ar-va'im.<sup>b</sup> 32 Although they feared Jehovah, they appointed priests for the high places from the people in general, and these officiated for them at the houses of worship on the high places.<sup>c</sup> 33 Thus, they feared Jehovah, but they worshipped their own gods according to the religion* of the nations from which they had been deported.<sup>d</sup> not forget the covenant that I made with you,<sup>a</sup> and you must not fear other gods. 39 But it is Jehovah your God whom you should fear, as he is the one who will rescue you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 But they did not obey, and they followed their former religion.<sup>*b</sup> 41 So these nations came to fear Jehovah,<sup>c</sup> but they were also serving their own graven images. Both their sons and their grandsons have done just as their forefathers did, down to this day.

13 In the 14th year of King Hez-e-ki'ah, Sen-nach'erib the king of As-syr-i-a<sup>i</sup> came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.<sup>j</sup> 14 So King Hez-e-ki'ah of Judah sent word to the king of As-syr-i-a at La'chish: "I am at fault. of Jehovah and the doorposts that King Hez·e·ki'ah of Judah himself had overlaid,<sup>a</sup> and he gave them to the king of As-syr'i-a.

Jehovah himself said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.'"

26 At this E-li'a·kim son of Hil·ki'ah, and Sheb'nah<sup>b</sup> and Jo'ah said to the Rab'sha·keh:<sup>c</sup> "Speak to your servants, please, in the Ar·a·ma'ic<sup>b</sup> language,<sup>d</sup> for we can understand it; do not speak to us in the language of the Jews in the hearing of the people on the wall."<sup>e</sup> 27 But the Rab'sha·keh said to them: "Is it just to your lord and to you that my lord sent me to speak these words? Is it not also to the men who sit on the wall, those who will eat their own excrement and drink their own urine along with you?"

28 Then the Rab'sha·keh stood and called out loudly in the language of the Jews, saying: "Hear the word of the great king, the king of As-syr'i-a.<sup>f</sup> 29 This is what the king says, 'Do not let Hez·e·ki'ah deceive you, for he is not able to rescue you out of my hand.'<sup>g</sup> 30 And do not let Hez·e·ki'ah cause you to trust in Jehovah by saying: "Jehovah will surely rescue us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of As-syr'i-a.'<sup>h</sup> 31 Do not listen to Hez·e·ki'ah, for this is what the king of As-syr'i-a says: "Make peace with me and surrender," and each of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree and will drink the water of his own cistern, 32 until I come and take you to a land like your own land,<sup>i</sup> a land of grain and

Have they rescued Sa-mar'i-a out of my hand?<sup>c</sup> 35 Who among all the gods of the lands have rescued their land out of my hand, so that Jehovah should rescue Jerusalem out of my hand?""<sup>d</sup>

36 But the people kept silent and did not say a word to him in reply, for the order of the king was, "You must not answer him."<sup>e</sup> 37 But E-li'a-kim son of Hil-ki'ah, who was in charge of the household,<sup>f</sup> Sheb'-nah the secretary, and Jo'ah son of A'saph the recorder came to Hez-e-ki'ah with their garments ripped apart and told him the words of the Rab'sha-keh.

19 As soon as King Hez-e-ki'-ah heard this, he ripped his garments apart and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 2 Then he sent E-li'a-kim, who was in charge of the household,<sup>g</sup> Sheb'nah the secretary, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah,<sup>g</sup> the son of A'moz. 3 They said to him: "This is what Hez-e-ki'ah says, 'This day is a day of distress, of rebuke,<sup>h</sup> and of disgrace; for the children are ready to be born,<sup>i</sup> but there is no strength to give birth.'<sup>h</sup> 4 Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear all the words of the Rab'sha-keh, whom the king

5 So the servants of King Hez-e-ki'ah went in to Isaiah,<sup>c</sup> 6 and Isaiah said to them: "This is what you should say to your lord, 'This is what Jehovah says: 'Do not be afraid<sup>d</sup> because of the words that you heard, the words with which the attendants of the king of As-syr'i-a blasphemed me.'<sup>e</sup> 7 Here I am putting a thought in his mind,* and he will hear a report and return to his own land; and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.""<sup>f</sup>

8 After the Rab'sha-keh heard that the king of As-syr'i-a had pulled away from La'chish,<sup>g</sup> he returned to him and found him fighting against Lib'nah.<sup>h</sup>

Hear the words that Sen-nach'er-ib has sent to taunt the living God. 17 It is a fact, O Jehovah, that the kings of As-syr'i-a have devastated the nations and their lands.<sup>g</sup> 18 And they have thrown their gods into the fire, because they were not godsh<sup>h</sup> but the work of human hands,<sup>i</sup> wood and stone. That is why they could destroy them. 19 But now, O Jehovah our God, please save us out of his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are God, O Jehovah.”<sup>j</sup>

20 Isaiah son of A'moz then sent this message to Hez-e-ki'ah: “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, ‘I have heard your prayer<sup>k</sup> to me concerning King Sen-nach'er-ib of As-syr'i-a.’ 21 This is the word that Jehovah has spoken against him:

- 27 But I well know when you sit, when you go out, when you come in,<sup>i</sup> And when you are enraged against me,<sup>j</sup>

The zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.<sup>g</sup>

32 “Therefore this is what Jehovah says about the king of As-syr'i-a:<sup>h</sup> sword<sup>a</sup> and then escaped to the land of Ar'a·rat.<sup>b</sup> And his son E'sar-had'don<sup>c</sup> became king in his place.

20 In those days Hez-e-ki'ah became sick and was at the point of death.<sup>d</sup> The prophet Isaiah the son of A'moz came and said to him, “This is what Jehovah says: ‘Give instructions to your household, for you will die; you will not recover.’”<sup>e</sup> 2 At that he turned his face to the wall and began to pray to Jehovah: 3 “I beg you, O Jehovah, remember, please, how I have walked before you faithfully and with a complete heart, and I have done what was good in your eyes.”<sup>f</sup> And Hez-e-ki'ah began to weep profusely.

4 Isaiah had not yet gone out to the middle courtyard when Jehovah's word came to him, saying:<sup>g</sup> 5 “Go back and say to Hez-e-ki'ah, the leader of my people, ‘This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather says: “I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears.<sup>h</sup> Here I am healing you.<sup>i</sup> On the third day you will go up to the house of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 6 I will add 15 years to your life,* and I will rescue you and this city out of the hand of the king of As-syr'i-a,<sup>k</sup> and I will defend this city for my own sake and for the sake of David my servant.’”<sup>l</sup>

7 Isaiah then said: “Bring a cake of pressed dried figs.” So they brought it and applied it to the boil, after which he gradually recovered.<sup>m</sup>

8 Hez-e-ki'ah had asked Isaiah: “What is the sign<sup>n</sup> to show that Jehovah will heal me and that I will go up on the third day to the house of Jehovah?”<sup>o</sup>

9 Isaiah replied: “This is the sign from Jehovah to show you that Jehovah will carry out the word that he has spoken: Do you want the shadow on the stairway* to move forward ten steps or back ten steps?"<sup>a</sup> 10 Hez-e-ki'ah said: "It is an easy thing for the shadow to extend itself ten steps but not to go back ten steps." 11 So Isaiah the prophet called out to Jehovah, and He made the shadow on the stairway of A'had go back ten steps after it had already descended the steps.<sup>b</sup>

12 At that time the king of Babylon, Be-ro'dach-bal'a-dan son of Bal'a-dan, sent letters and a gift to Hez-e-ki'ah, for he had heard that Hez-e-ki'ah had been sick.<sup>c</sup> 13 Hez-e-ki'ah welcomed* them and showed them his entire treasure-house<sup>d</sup>—the silver, the gold, the balsam oil and other precious oil, his armory, and everything that was to be found in his treasuries. There was nothing that Hez-e-ki'ah did not show them in his own house* and in all his dominion.

14 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez-e-ki'ah and asked him: "What did these men say, and where did they come from?" So Hez-e-ki'ah said: "They came from a distant land, from Babylon."<sup>e</sup> 15 Next he asked: "What did they see in your house?"<sup>f</sup> Hez-e-ki'ah replied: "They saw everything in my house."<sup>g</sup> There was nothing that I did not show them in my treasures."

16 Isaiah now said to Hez-e-ki'ah: "Hear the word of Jehovah,<sup>f</sup> 17 'Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your house* and all that your forefathers have stored up to this day will be carried off to Babylon.<sup>g</sup> Nothing will be left,' says Jehovah.

7 He put the carved image of the sacred pole<sup>*b</sup> that he made into the house about which Jehovah had said to David and to his son Sol'o-mon: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will permanently put my name.<sup>c</sup> 8 And I will never again make the feet of Israel wander from the land that I gave to their forefathers,<sup>d</sup> provided they carefully observe all that I have commanded them,<sup>e</sup> the entire Law that my servant Moses ordered them to follow." 9 But they did not obey, and Ma·nas'eh kept leading them astray, causing them to do greater evil than the nations that Jehovah had annihilated from before the Israelites.<sup>f</sup>

16 Ma·nas'eh also shed innocent blood in very great quantity until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to the other,<sup>c</sup> besides his sin of causing Judah to sin by doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah. 17 As for the rest of the history of Ma·nas'eh and all that he did and the sins that he committed, are they not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 18 Then Ma·nas'eh was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uz'-za;<sup>d</sup> and his son A'mon became king in his place.

19 A'mon<sup>e</sup> was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup> His mother's name was Me·shul'e-meth the daughter of Ha'ruz from Jot'bah. 20 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Ma·nas'eh had done.<sup>g</sup> 21 He kept walking in all the ways that his father walked, and he continued serving and bowing down to the disgusting idols that his father had served.<sup>h</sup> 22 So he abandoned Jehovah the God of his forefathers, and he did not walk in the way of Jehovah.<sup>i</sup> 23 Eventually A'mon's servants conspired against him and put the king to death in his own house. 24 But the people of the land struck down all those who conspired against King A'mon, and they made his son Jo·si'ah king in his place.<sup>j</sup> 25 As for the rest of the history of A'mon, what he did, is it not written in the book of the history

22 Jo·si'ah<sup>c</sup> was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for 31 years in Jerusalem.<sup>d</sup> His mother's name was Je·di'dah the daughter of A·dal·ah from Boz'kath.<sup>e</sup> 2 He did what was right in Jehovah's eyes and walked in all the ways of David his forefather,<sup>f</sup> and he did not deviate to the right or to the left.

3 In the 18th year of King Jo·si'ah, the king sent Sha'phan the secretary, the son of Az·a·li'ah the son of Me·shul'lam, to the house of Jehovah,<sup>g</sup> saying: 4 "Go up to Hil·ki'ah<sup>h</sup> the high priest, and let him collect all the money that is being brought into the house of Jehovah,<sup>i</sup> which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.<sup>j</sup> 5 Have them give it to those appointed over the work in the house of Jehovah who, in turn, will give it to the workers in the house of Jehovah who are to repair the damage to<sup>k</sup> the house,<sup>l</sup> 6 that is, to the craftsmen, the builders, and the masons; and they are to use it to buy timbers and hewn stones to repair the house.<sup>m</sup> 7 But no accounting should be required of them for the money that they are given, because they are trustworthy."<sup>n</sup>

8 Later Hil·ki'ah the high priest said to Sha'phan the secretary:<sup>o</sup> "I have found the book of the Law in the house of Jehovah." So Hil·ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan, who began to read it.<sup>p</sup> 9 Then Sha'phan the secretary went to the king and told him: "Your servants have poured out the money that was found in the house, and they have handed it over to those appointed over the work in the house of Jehovah."<sup>a</sup> 10 Sha'phan the secretary also told the king: "There is a book<sup>b</sup> that Hil·ki'ah the priest has given me." Then Sha'phan began to read it before the king.

11 As soon as the king heard the words of the book of the Law, he ripped his garments apart.<sup>c</sup> 12 Then the king gave this order to Hil·ki'ah the priest, A·hi'kam<sup>d</sup> the son of Sha'phan, Ach'bor the son of Mi·ca'i'ah, Sha'phan the secretary, and A·sa'i'ah the king's servant: 13 "Go, inquire of Jehovah in my behalf, in behalf of the people, and in behalf of all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found; for Jehovah's rage that has been set ablaze against us is great,<sup>e</sup> because our forefathers did not obey the words of this book by observing all that is written concerning us."

14 So Hil·ki'ah the priest, A·hi'kam, Ach'bor, Sha'phan, and A·sa'i'ah went to Hul'dah the prophetess.<sup>f</sup> She was the wife of Shal'lum son of Tik'vah son of Har'has, the caretaker of the wardrobe, and she was dwelling in the Second Quarter of Jerusalem; and they spoke to her there.<sup>g</sup> 15 She said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'Tell the man who sent you to me: 16 "This is what Jehovah says, 'I will bring calamity on this place and its inhabitants, all the words of the book that the king of Judah has read.'<sup>h</sup> 17 Because they have abandoned me and are making sacrifices smoke to other gods<sup>i</sup> in order to offend me with all the work of their hands,<sup>j</sup> my rage will be set ablaze against this place and it will not be extinguished."<sup>k</sup> 18 But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, this is what you

23 So the king sent word, and they summoned all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>e</sup> 2 After that the king went up to the house of Jehovah with all the men of Judah, all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, and the prophets—all the people, from small to great. He read in their hearing all the words of the book<sup>f</sup> of the covenant<sup>g</sup> that had been found in the house of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 3 The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant<sup>h</sup> before Jehovah,<sup>g</sup> that he would follow Jehovah and keep his commandments, his reminders, and his statutes with all his heart and with all his soul<sup>i</sup> by carrying out the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people agreed to the covenant.<sup>h</sup>

4 The king then ordered Hilk'iah<sup>j</sup> the high priest, the priests of the second rank, and the doorkeepers to bring out from the temple of Jehovah all the utensils made for Ba'al, for the God who foretold that these things would happen.<sup>a</sup> 17 Then he said: "What is the gravestone over there that I am looking at?" At this the men of the city said to him: "It is the grave of the man of the true God from Ju-dah<sup>b</sup> who foretold these things that you have done against the altar of Beth'el." 18 So he said: "Let him rest. Do not let anyone disturb his bones." So they left his bones undisturbed, as well as the bones of the prophet who had come from Sa-mar'i-a.<sup>c</sup>

19 Jo-si'ah also removed all the houses of worship on the high places that were in the cit-ies of Sa-mar'i-a,<sup>d</sup> which the kings of Israel had built to offend God, and he did the same thing to them that he had done at Beth'el.<sup>e</sup> 20 So he sacrificed on the altars all the priests of the high places who were there, and he burned human bones on them.<sup>f</sup> After that he returned to Jerusalem.

21 The king now com-manded all the people: "Hold a Pass-over<sup>g</sup> to Jehovah your God as is written in this book of the covenant."<sup>h</sup> 22 No Passover like this had been held since the days when the judges had judged Is-rael or in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Ju-dah.<sup>i</sup> 23 But in the 18th year of King Jo-si'ah, this Passover to Jehovah was held in Jerusalem.

24 Jo-si'ah also cleared out the spirit mediums, the fortunetellers,<sup>j</sup> the teraphim statues,<sup>k</sup> the disgusting idols,<sup>l</sup> and all the disgusting things that had ap-peared in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, in order to carry out the words of the Law<sup>m</sup> that were written in the book that Hil-ki'ah the priest had

26 Nevertheless, Jehovah did not turn away from his burning anger that blazed against Judah because of all the offensive things that Ma·nas'eh had done to offend Him.<sup>c</sup> 27 Jehovah said: "I will also remove Judah from my sight,<sup>d</sup> just as I removed Israel;<sup>e</sup> and I will reject this city that I chose, Jerusalem, and the house about which I said, 'My name will continue there.'"<sup>f</sup>

28 As for the rest of the history of Jo·si'ah, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 29 In his days Phar'aoh Ne'choh the king of Egypt came to meet the king of As·syri·a by the Eu·phra'tes River, and King Jo·si'ah went out to confront him; but when Ne'choh saw him, he put him to death at Me·gid'do.<sup>g</sup> 30 So his servants transported his dead body in a chariot from Me·gid'do and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave. Then the people of the land took Jo·si'ah's son Je·ho'a·haz and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.<sup>h</sup>

He kept sending them against Judah to destroy it, according to Jehovah's word<sup>j</sup> that he had spoken through his servants the prophets. 3 Surely it was by the order of Jehovah that this happened to Judah, to remove them from his sight<sup>k</sup> because of all the sins that Ma·nas'eh had committed,<sup>l</sup> 4 and also the innocent blood that he had shed,<sup>m</sup> for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood and Jehovah was not willing to forgive.<sup>n</sup>

18 Zed-e-ki'ah was 21 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ha-mu'tal<sup>g</sup> the daughter of Jeremiah from Lib'nah. 19 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that Je-hoi'a-kim had done.<sup>h</sup> 20 It was because of Jehovah's anger that these things took place in Jerusalem and in Judah, until he cast them out of his sight.<sup>i</sup> And Zed-e-ki'ah rebelled against the king of Babylon.<sup>j</sup>

was broken through,<sup>a</sup> and all the soldiers fled by night through the gate between the double wall near the king's garden, while the Chal-de'ans were surrounding the city; and the king went by the way of the Ar'a-bah.<sup>b</sup> 5 But the Chal-de'an army pursued the king, and they overtook him in the desert plains of Jer'i-cho, and all his troops were scattered from his side. 6 Then they seized the king<sup>c</sup> and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Rib'-lah, and they passed sentence on him. 7 They slaughtered Zed-e-ki'ah's sons before his eyes; then Neb-u-chad-nez'zar blinded Zed-e-ki'ah's eyes, bound him with copper fetters, and brought him to Babylon.<sup>d</sup>

8 In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, that is, in the 19th year of King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar the king of Babylon, Neb-u'zar-ad'an<sup>e</sup> the chief of the guard, the servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup> 9 He burned down the house of Jehovah,<sup>g</sup> the king's house,<sup>*h</sup> and all the houses of Jerusalem;<sup>i</sup> he also burned down the house of every prominent man.<sup>j</sup> 10 And the walls surrounding Jerusalem were pulled down by the entire Chal-de-an army that was with the chief of the guard.<sup>k</sup> 11 Neb-u'zar-ad'an the chief of the guard took into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city, the deserters who had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the population.<sup>l</sup> 12 But the chief of the guard left some of the poorest people of the land to serve as vinedressers and as compulsory laborers.<sup>m</sup> 13 And the Chal-de'ans broke into pieces the copper pillars<sup>n</sup> of the house of Jehovah and the carriages<sup>o</sup> and the copper Sea<sup>p</sup> that were in the house of Jehovah, and they carried the copper away to Babylon.<sup>a</sup> 14 They also took the cans, the shovels, the extinguishers, the cups, and all the copper utensils used in the temple service. 15 The chief of the guard took the fire holders and the bowls that were of genuine gold<sup>b</sup> and silver.<sup>c</sup> 16 As for the two pillars, the Sea, and the carriages that Sol'o-mon had made for the house of Jehovah, the copper of all these articles was beyond weighing.<sup>d</sup> 17 Each pillar was 18 cubits* high,<sup>e</sup> and the capital on it was of copper; and the height of the capital was three cubits, and the network and pomegranates all around on the capital were all made of copper.<sup>f</sup> The second pillar with its network was like it.

18 The chief of the guard also took Se-rai'ah<sup>g</sup> the chief priest, Zeph-a-ni'ah<sup>h</sup> the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.<sup>i</sup>

19 And he took from the city one court official who was the commissioner over the soldiers, five close associates of the king who were found in the city, as well as the secretary of the chief of the army, the one mustering the people of the land, and 60 men of the common people of the land who were yet found in the city. 20 Neb-u'zar-ad'an<sup>j</sup> the chief of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Rib'lah.<sup>k</sup> 21 The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Rib'lah in the land of Ha'math.<sup>l</sup> Thus Judah went into exile from its land.<sup>m</sup>

chiefs and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Ged-a-li'ah, they immediately came to Ged-a-li'ah at Miz'pah. They were Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah, Jo-ha'nan the son of Ka-re'ah, Se-rai'ah the son of Tan-hu'meth the Ne-toph'a-thite, and Ja-az-a-ni'ah the son of the Ma-ac'a-thite, together with their men.<sup>a</sup> 24 Ged-a-li'ah swore an oath to them and their men and said to them: "Do not be afraid of being servants to the Chal-de'ans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you."<sup>b</sup>

25 And in the seventh month, Ish'ma-el<sup>c</sup> son of Neth-a-ni'ah son of E-lish'a-ma, who was of the royal line,* came with ten other men, and they struck down Ged-a-li'ah and he died, along with the Jews and the Chal-de'ans

27 And in the 37th year of the exile of King Je-hoi'a-chin<sup>d</sup> of Judah, in the 12th month, on the 27th day of the month, King E-vilmer'o-dach of Babylon, in the year he became king, released* King Je-hoi'a-chin of Judah from prison.<sup>e</sup> 28 He spoke kindly with him and put his throne higher than the thrones of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. 29 So Je-hoi'a-chin took off his prison garments, and he regularly ate before him all the days of his life. 30 A regular allowance of food was given him from the king, day after day, all the days of his life.

23 The descendants of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh<sup>c</sup> lived in the land from Ba'shan to Ba'al-her'mon and Se'nir and Mount Her'mon.<sup>d</sup> They were numerous. 24 These were the heads of their paternal houses: E'pher, Ish'i, E'l-i-el, Az'ri-el, Jermemiah, Hod-a-vi'ah, and Jah'di-el; they were mighty warriors, men of fame, and heads of their paternal houses. 25 But they acted unfaithfully toward the God of their forefathers and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land,<sup>e</sup> whom God had annihilated from before them. 26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of King Pul of As-syr'i-a<sup>f</sup> (that is, King Til'gath-pil-ne'ser<sup>g</sup> of As-syr'i-a) so that he took into exile those of the Reu'ben-ites, the Gad-ites, and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh and brought them to Ha'lah, Ha'bor, Ha'ra, and the river Go'zan,<sup>h</sup> where they are until this day.

11 Az·a·ri'ah became father to Am·a·ri'ah; Am·a·ri'ah became father to A·hi·tub. 12 A·hi·tub became father to Za·dok;<sup>c</sup> Za·dok became father to Shal'lum. 13 Shal'lum became father to Hil·ki'ah;<sup>d</sup> Hil·ki'ah became father to Az·a·ri'ah. 14 Az·a·ri'ah became father to Se·rai'ah;<sup>e</sup> Se·rai'ah became father to Je·hoz'a·dak.<sup>f</sup> 15 And Je·hoz'a·dak went into exile when Jehovah took Ju·dah and Jerusalem into exile by the hand of Neb·u·chad·ne·z'zar.

16 The sons of Le'vi were Ger'shom,<sup>g</sup> Ko'hath, and Me·rar'i. 17 These are the names of the sons of Ger'shom: Lib'ni and Shim'e·i.<sup>g</sup> 18 The sons of Ko'hath were Am'ram, Iz'har, Heb'ron, and Uz'zi·el.<sup>h</sup> 19 The sons of Me·rar'i were Mah'li and Mu'shi.

These were the families of the Levites by their forefathers:

44 A'zel had six sons, and their names were Az·ri'kam, Bo'cheru, Ish'ma-el, She·a·ri'ah, O·ba-di'ah, and Ha'nān. These were the sons of A'zel.

10 Now the Phi·lis'tines were fighting against Israel. And the men of Israel fled from before the Phi·lis'tines, and many fell slain on Mount Gil·bo'a.<sup>a</sup> 2 The Phi·lis'tines kept in close range of Saul and his sons, and the Phi·lis'tines struck down Jon-a-than, A·bin'a-dab, and Mal'chi-shu'a,<sup>b</sup> Saul's sons. 3 The fighting grew fierce against Saul, and the archers found him, and he was wounded by the archers.<sup>c</sup> 4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer: "Draw your sword and run me through with it, so that these uncircumcised men may not come and deal ruthlessly<sup>*d</sup> with me." But his armor-bearer was unwilling, because he was very much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it.<sup>e</sup> 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his own sword and died. 6 Thus Saul and his three sons died, and all those of his house died together.<sup>f</sup> 7 When all the people of Israel in the valley* saw that everyone had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they began to abandon their cities and flee; the Phi·lis'tines then came and occupied them.

8 The next day, when the Phi·lis'tines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gil·bo'a.<sup>g</sup> 9 So they stripped him and took off his head and his armor, and they sent word throughout the land of the Phi·lis'tines to spread the news to their idols<sup>h</sup> and the people. 10 Then they put his armor in the house* of their god and fastened his skull to the house of Da'gon.<sup>a</sup>

11 When all those of Ja'besh<sup>b</sup> in Gil'e-ad heard about all that the Phi-lis'tines had done to Saul,<sup>c</sup> 12 all the warriors rose up and carried off the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons. They brought them to Ja'besh and buried their bones under the big tree in Ja'besh,<sup>d</sup> and they fasted for seven days.

13 Thus Saul died for the unfaithfulness he had shown against Jehovah because he had not obeyed the word of Jehovah,<sup>e</sup> also for consulting a spirit medium<sup>f</sup> 14 instead of inquiring of Jehovah. So He put him to death and turned the kingship over to David the son of Jes'se.<sup>g</sup>

11 In time all the Israelites gathered to David at Heb'-ron<sup>h</sup> and said: "Look! We are your own bone and flesh."<sup>i</sup> 2 In times past while Saul was king, you were the one who was leading Israel on its campaigns.<sup>*j</sup> And Jehovah your God said to you: 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become leader over my people Israel.'<sup>k</sup> 3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Heb'-ron, and David made a covenant with them in Heb'ron before Jehovah. Then they anointed David as king over Israel,<sup>l</sup> according to Jehovah's word through Samuel.<sup>m</sup>

4 Later David and all Israel set out for Jerusalem, that is, Je'bus,<sup>n</sup> where the Jeb'u-sites<sup>o</sup> were inhabiting the land. 5 The inhabitants of Je'bus taunted David: "You will never come in here!"<sup>p</sup> However, David captured the stronghold of Zion,<sup>q</sup> which is now the City of David.<sup>r</sup> 6 So David said: "Whoever is the first to strike the Jeb'u-sites will become chief<sup>s</sup> and prince." And Jo'ab<sup>t</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah went up first, and he became the chief. 7 Then David took up residence in the stronghold. That is why they called it the City of David. 8 He began to build up the city all around, from the Mound<sup>u</sup> to the areas around it, and Jo'ab restored the rest of the city. 9 Thus David became greater and greater,<sup>b</sup> and Jehovah of armies was with him.

10 Now these are the heads of David's mighty warriors, who gave him strong support in his kingship, together with all Israel, to make him king according to Jehovah's word concerning Israel.<sup>c</sup> 11 This is the list of David's mighty warriors: Ja-sho'be-am<sup>d</sup> the son of a Hach'mon-ite, the head of the three.<sup>e</sup> He brandished his spear over 300 slain at one time.<sup>f</sup> 12 Next to him was El-e'a'zar<sup>g</sup> the son of Do'do the A-ho'hite.<sup>h</sup> He was among the three mighty warriors. 13 He was with David at Pas-dam'mim,<sup>i</sup> where the Phi-lis'tines had gathered together for war. Now there was a plot of land full of barley, and the people had fled because of the Phi-lis'tines. 14 But he took his stand in the middle of the field and defended it and kept striking down the Phi-lis'tines, so that Jehovah brought about a great victory.<sup>*j</sup>

15 Three of the 30 headmen went down to the rock, to David at the cave of A-dul'-lam,<sup>k</sup> while a Phi-lis'tine army was camped in the Valley<sup>l</sup> of Reph'a-im.<sup>m</sup> 16 David was then in the stronghold, and a garrison of the Phi-lis'tines was in Beth'lehem. 17 Then David expressed his longing: "If only I could have a drink of the water from the cistern by the gate of Beth'-le-hem!"<sup>a</sup> 18 At that the three forced their way into the camp of the Phi-lis'tines and drew water from the cistern by the gate of Beth'le-hem and brought it to David; but David refused to drink it and poured it out to Jehovah. 19 He said: "It is unthinkable on my part from the standpoint of my God to do this! Should I drink the blood of these men who risked their lives?"<sup>b</sup> For it was at the risk of their lives* that they brought it." So he refused to drink it. These are the things that his three mighty warriors did.

20 A·bi-shai<sup>c</sup> the brother of Jo'ab<sup>d</sup> became head of another three; he brandished his spear over 300 slain, and he had a reputation like the three.<sup>e</sup> 21 Of the other three, he was more distinguished than two of them, and he was their chief; yet he did not attain to the rank of the first three.

22 Be·nai'ah<sup>f</sup> the son of Je-ho'i·da was a courageous man* who performed many exploits in Kab'ze-el.<sup>g</sup> He struck down the two sons of Ar'i·el of Mo'ab, and he descended into a waterpit on a snowy day and killed a lion.<sup>h</sup> 23 He also struck down an Egyptian man of extraordinary size—five cubits* tall.<sup>i</sup> Though the Egyptian had a spear in his hand like the beam of loom workers,<sup>j</sup> he went against him with a rod and snatched the spear away from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.<sup>k</sup> 24 These things Be·nai'ah the son of Je-ho'i·da did, and he had a reputation like that of the three mighty warriors. 25 Although he was disite; 47 E'li-el, O'bed, and Ja-a-si'el the Me-zo'ba-ite.

12 These were the men who came to David at Zik'lag<sup>a</sup> while he was unable to move about freely because of Saul<sup>b</sup> the son of Kish, and they were among the mighty warriors who supported him in battle.<sup>c</sup> 2 They were armed with the bow, and they could use both the right hand and the left hand<sup>d</sup> to sling stones<sup>e</sup> or to shoot arrows with the bow. They were of the brothers of Saul, from Benjamin.<sup>f</sup> 3 The head was A-hi-e'zer, along with Jo'ash, both sons of She-ma'ah the Gib'e-ath-ite;<sup>g</sup> Je'zi-el and Pel'et the sons of Az'ma-veth,<sup>h</sup> Ber'a-cah, Je'hu the An'a-thoth-ite, 4 Ish-ma'iah the Gib'e-on-ite,<sup>i</sup> a mighty warrior among the thirty<sup>j</sup> and over the thirty; also Jeremiah, Ja-ha-zi'el, Jo-ha'nan, Jo'za-bad the Ge-de'rath-ite, 5 E-lu'zai, Jer'i-moth, Be-al'i-ah, Shem-a-ri'ah, Sheph-a-ti'ah the Har'i-phite, 6 El-ka'nah, Is-shi'ah, Az'ar-el, Jo'e-zer, and Ja-sho-be-am, the Kor'ah-ites;<sup>k</sup> 7 and Jo'e-lah and Zeb-a-di'ah the sons of Je-ro'ham of Ge'dor.

8 Some of the Gad'ites went over to David's side at the stronghold in the wilderness;<sup>l</sup> they were mighty warriors, soldiers trained for war, standing ready with the large shield and the lance, whose faces were like those of lions and who were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains. 9 E'zer was the head, O-ba-di'ah the second, E-li'ab the third, 10 Mish-man-nah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 At'tai the sixth, E'l-i-el the seventh, 12 Jo-ha'nan the eighth, El-za'bad the ninth, 13 Jeremiah the tenth, Mach'-ban-nai the eleventh. 14 These were of the Gad'ites,<sup>m</sup> heads of the army. The least one was equal to 100, and the greatest to 1,000.<sup>n</sup> 15 These are the men who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing its banks, and they chased away all those living in the lowlands, to the east and to the west.

16 Some of the men of Benjamin and Judah also came to David at his stronghold.<sup>b</sup> 17 Then David went out before them and said to them: "If you have come to me in peace to help me, my heart will be united with you. But if it is to betray me to my adversaries when my hands have done no wrong, let the God of our forefathers see it and judge."<sup>c</sup> 18 Then the spirit came upon* A-ma'sai,<sup>d</sup> the head of the thirty:

"We are yours, O David, and we are with you, O son of Jes'se.<sup>e</sup>

Peace, peace be yours, and peace to the one helping you,

For your God is helping you."<sup>f</sup>

So David received them and appointed them among the heads of the troops.

19 Some from Ma-nas'seh also deserted to David when he came with the Phi-lis'tines to battle against Saul; but he did not help the Phi-lis'tines, for after consultation, the lords of the Phi-lis'tines<sup>g</sup> sent him away, saying: "He will desert to his lord Saul, and it will cost us our heads."<sup>h</sup> 20 When he went to Zik'lag,<sup>i</sup> these deserted to him from Ma-nas'seh: Ad'nah, Jo'za-bad, Je-di'a-el, Mi'cha-el, Jo'za-bad, E-li'hu, and Zil'le-thai, heads of the thousands of Ma-nas'seh.<sup>j</sup> 21 They helped David against the marauder band, because all of them were mighty, courageous men,<sup>k</sup> and they became chiefs in the army. 22 Day after day people kept coming to David<sup>a</sup> to help him until it was a camp as great as the camp of God.<sup>b</sup>

23 This is the number of the heads of those armed for battle who came to David at Heb'-ron<sup>c</sup> to turn the kingship of Saul over to him according to Jehovah's order.<sup>d</sup> 24 The men of Judah carrying the large shield and the lance were 6,800, armed for battle. 25 Of the Sim'e-on-ites, the mighty, courageous men of the army were 7,100.

26 Of the Levites, 4,600. 27 Je-hoi'a-da<sup>e</sup> was the leader of the sons of Aaron,<sup>f</sup> and with him were 3,700, 28 as well as Za'-dok,<sup>g</sup> a mighty and courageous young man, along with 22 chiefs from his paternal house.

29 Of the Ben'ja-min-ites, the brothers of Saul,<sup>h</sup> there were 3,000, of whom the greater number had previously been guarding the interests of the house of Saul. 30 Of the E'phra-im-ites, there were 20,800 mighty, courageous men of fame among their paternal houses.

31 Of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh, there were 18,000 who had been designated by name to come to make David king.

32 Of the tribe of Is'a-char, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do, there were 200 of their head-men, and all their brothers were under their command. 33 Of Zeb'u-lun, there were 50,000 who could serve in the army, drawing up in battle formation with all the weapons of war, all joining David with undivided loyalty.* 34 Of Naph'ta-li, there were 1,000 chiefs, and with them were 37,000 with the large shield and the spear. 35 Of the Dan'ites, those drawing up in battle formation were 28,600. 36 And of Ash'er, those who could serve in the army for drawing up in battle formation were 40,000.

37 From across the Jordan,<sup>a</sup> of the Reu'ben-ites, the Gad'ites, and the half tribe of Ma-nas'-seh, there were 120,000 soldiers with all kinds of weapons of war. 38 All of these were men of war, joining together in battle line; they came with a complete heart to Heb'ron to make David king over all Israel, and also all the rest of Israel were united in wanting* to make David king.<sup>b</sup>

39 And they remained there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their brothers had made preparation for them. 40 Also those near them, and even those as far as Is'a-char, Zeb'u-lun, and Naph'ta-li, were bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules, and cattle—provisions of flour, cakes of pressed figs and raisins, wine, oil, and cattle and sheep in great quantity, for there was rejoicing in Israel.

13 David consulted with the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds and with every leader.<sup>c</sup> 2 Then David said to all the congregation of Israel: "If it seems good to you and it is acceptable to Jehovah our God, let us send word to our remaining brothers in all regions of Israel and also to the priests and the Levites in their cities<sup>d</sup> with pastures to come and join us. 3 And let us bring back the Ark<sup>e</sup> of our God." For they had not cared for it in the days of Saul.<sup>f</sup> 4 All the congregation agreed to do that, for it seemed right to all the people. 5 So David congregated all Israel, from the river* of

6 David and all Israel went up to Ba'al-ah,<sup>c</sup> to Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the Ark of the true God, Jehovah, who sits enthroned above<sup>d</sup> the cherubs,<sup>d</sup> where his name is called on. 7 However, they placed the Ark of the true God on a new wagon<sup>e</sup> and brought it from the house of A-bin'a-dab, and Uz'zah and A-hi'o were leading the wagon.<sup>f</sup> 8 David and all Israel were celebrating before the true God with all their might, accompanied by songs, harps, other stringed instruments, tambourines,<sup>g</sup> cymbals,<sup>h</sup> and trumpets.<sup>i</sup> 9 But when they came to the threshing floor of Chi'don, Uz'zah thrust his hand out and grabbed hold of the Ark, for the cattle nearly upset it. 10 At that Jehovah's anger blazed against Uz'zah, and He struck him down because he had thrust his hand out to the Ark,<sup>j</sup> and he died there before God.<sup>k</sup> 11 But David became angry<sup>l</sup> because Jehovah's wrath had broken through against Uz'zah; and that place has been called Pe'rez-uz'zah<sup>m</sup> down to this day.

12 So David became fearful of the true God on that day and said: "How can I bring the Ark of the true God to me?" 13 David did not bring the Ark to where he was in the City of David, but he had it taken to the house of O'bed-e'dom the Git-tite. 14 The Ark of the true God was with the household of O'bed-e'dom, remaining at his house for three months, and Jehovah kept blessing the household of O'bed-e'dom and all he had.<sup>a</sup>

8 When the Phi-lis'tines heard that David had been anointed as king over all Israel,<sup>k</sup> all the Phi-lis'tines came up to search for David.<sup>l</sup> When David heard about it, he went out against them. 9 Then the Phi-lis'tines came in and kept making raids in the Valley<sup>m</sup> of Reph'a-im.<sup>m</sup> 10 David inquired of God, saying: "Should I go up against the Phi-lis'tines? Will you give them into my hand?" At this Jehovah said to him: "Go up, and I will surely give them into your hand."<sup>n</sup> 11 So David went up to Ba'al-pe-ra'zim,<sup>o</sup> and he struck them down there. At that David said: "The true God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like a breach made by waters." That is why they named that place Ba'al-pe-ra'zim.* 12 The Phi-lis'tines abandoned their gods there, and when David gave the order, these were burned in the fire.<sup>p</sup>

13 Later the Phi-lis'tines once again made a raid in the valley.<sup>a</sup> 14 David again inquired of God, but the true God said to him: “Do not go directly up after them. Instead, go around behind them, and come against them in front of the ba'ca bushes.<sup>b</sup> 15 And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the ba'ca bushes, launch your attack, for the true God will have gone out before you to strike down the army of the Phi-lis'tines.”<sup>c</sup> 16 So David did just as the true God commanded him,<sup>d</sup> and they struck down the Phi-lis'tine army from Gib'e-on to Ge'zer.<sup>e</sup> 17 And David's fame spread into all the lands, and Jehovah put the dread of him upon all the nations.<sup>f</sup>

15 And he continued building houses for himself in the City of David, and he prepared a place for the Ark of the true God and pitched a tent for it.<sup>g</sup> 2 It was then that David said: “No one is to carry the Ark of the true God except the Levites, for Jehovah has chosen them to carry the Ark of Jehovah and to minister to him always.”<sup>h</sup> 3 Then David congregated all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the Ark of Jehovah up to the place that he had prepared for it.<sup>i</sup>

scendants of Uz'zi·el,<sup>a</sup> Am·min'a-dab the chief and 112 of his brothers. 11 Furthermore, David called the priests Za'dok<sup>b</sup> and A·bi'a-thar<sup>c</sup> and the Le-vites U·ri'el, A·sai'ah, Joel, She·mai'ah, E·li·el, and Am·min'a-dab, 12 and he said to them: “You are the heads of the paternal houses of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, and bring the Ark of Jehovah up to the place that I have prepared for it. 13 Since you did not carry it the first time,<sup>d</sup> the anger of Jehovah our God broke out against us,<sup>e</sup> because we did not search out the proper procedure.”<sup>f</sup> 14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the Ark of Jehovah the God of Is-rael.

15 Then the Levites carried the Ark of the true God on their shoulders with the poles,<sup>g</sup> just as Moses had commanded by Jehovah's word. 16 David then told the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers to sing out joyfully, accompanied by musical instruments: stringed instruments, harps,<sup>h</sup> and cymbals.<sup>i</sup>

25 Then David and the elders of Israel and the chiefs of the thousands were walking along to bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah up from the house of O'bed-e'dom<sup>f</sup> with rejoicing.<sup>g</sup> 26 When the true God helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, they sacrificed seven young bulls and seven rams.<sup>h</sup> 27 Da-vid was dressed in a sleeveless coat of fine fabric, as were all the Levites carrying the Ark, the singers, and Chen-a-ni'ah the chief of the transport and the singers; David was also wearing a linen eph'od.<sup>i</sup> 28 All the Israelites were bringing up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with joyful shouting,<sup>j</sup> with the sound of the horn, with trumpets,<sup>k</sup> with cymbals, playing loudly on stringed instruments and harps.<sup>l</sup>

1 CHRONICLES 15:21-16:11

16 So they brought the Ark of the true God in and placed it inside the tent that David had pitched for it;<sup>a</sup> and they presented burnt offerings and communion sacrifices before the true God.<sup>b</sup> 2 When David finished offering up the burnt offerings<sup>c</sup> and the communion sacrifices,<sup>d</sup> he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah. 3 Further, he distributed to all the Israelites, to each man and woman, a round loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake. 4 Then he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the Ark of Jehovah,<sup>e</sup> to honor,* thank, and praise Jehovah the God of Israel. 5 A'saph<sup>f</sup> was the head, and second to him was Zech-a-ri'ah; and Je-i'el, She-mir'a-moth, Je-hi'el, Mat-ti-thi'ah, E-li'ab, Be-nai'ah, O'bed-e'dom, and Je-i'el<sup>g</sup> played stringed instruments and harps;<sup>h</sup> and A'saph played the cymbals,<sup>i</sup> 6 and Be-nai'ah and Ja-ha-z'i'el the priests blew the trumpets constantly before the ark of the covenant of the true God.

7 It was on that day that David first contributed a song of thanks to Jehovah through A'saph<sup>j</sup> and his brothers:

19 Later Na'hash the king of the Am'mon-ites died, and his son became king in his place.<sup>g</sup> 2 At that Da-vid said: "I will show loyal love<sup>h</sup> toward Ha'nun the son of Na'hash, be-cause his father showed loyal love toward me." So Da-vid sent mes-sen-ger-s to of-fer him com-fort over the loss of his fa-ther. But when Da-vid's ser-vants came into the land of the Am'mon-ites<sup>i</sup> to com-fort Ha'nun, 3 the prin-ces of the Am'mon-ites said to Ha'nun: "Do you think that Da-vid is ho-nor-ing your fa-ther by send-ing com-for-ter-s to you? Is it not to make a thorough search and to over-throw you and to spy out the land that his ser-vants have come to you?" 4 So Ha'nun took the ser-vants of Da-vid and shaved them<sup>j</sup> and cut their garments in half at their but-tocks and sent them away. 5 When Da-vid was told about the men, he at once sent oth-ers to meet them, be-cause the men had been deep-ly humili-ated; and the king told them: "Stay in Jer'i-cho<sup>k</sup> until your beards grow back, and then return."

6 In time the Am'mon-ites saw that they had be-come a stench to Da-vid, so Ha'nun and the Am'mon-ites sent 1,000 sil-ver tal-ents* to hire char-iots

Then they came and camped before Med'e-ba.<sup>b</sup> The Am'mon-ites gathered together from their cities and came out for the battle.

8 When David heard about it, he sent Jo'ab<sup>c</sup> and the entire army, including his mightiest warriors.<sup>d</sup> 9 And the Am'mon-ites went out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance of the city while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open field.

10 When Jo'ab saw that the battle charges were coming against him from the front and the rear, he chose some of the best troops in Israel and drew them up in battle formation to meet the Syrians.<sup>e</sup> 11 He put the rest of the men under the command<sup>f</sup> of his brother A'bish'-ai,<sup>f</sup> in order to draw them up in battle formation to meet the Am'mon-ites. 12 Then he said: "If the Syrians<sup>g</sup> become too strong for me, then you must come to my rescue; but if the Am'mon-ites become too strong for you, I will rescue you. 13 We must be strong and courageous<sup>h</sup> for our people and for the cities of our God, and Jehovah will do what is good in his eyes."

14 Then Jo'ab and his men advanced to meet the Syrians in battle, and they fled from before him.<sup>i</sup> 15 When the Am'mon-ites saw that the Syrians had fled, they also fled from his brother A'bish'ai and went into the city. After that Jo'ab came to Jerusalem.

el, they sent messengers to summon the Syrians in the region of the River,<sup>*a</sup> with Sho'phach the chief of the army of Had-ad-e'zer leading them.<sup>b</sup>

17 When the report was made to David, he immediately gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan and came to them and drew up in battle formation against them. David drew up in battle formation to meet the Syrians, and they fought against him.<sup>c</sup> 18 But the Syrians fled from Israel; and David killed 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers of the Syrians, and he put Sho'phach the chief of the army to death. 19 When the servants of Had-ad-e'zer saw that they had been defeated by Israel,<sup>d</sup> they promptly made peace with David and became his subjects;<sup>e</sup> and Syria did not want to help the Am'mon-ites anymore.

4 After this, war broke out at Ge'zer with the Phi·lis·tines. At that time Sib·be·caia<sup>a</sup> the Hu·shath·ite struck down Sip·pai, who was a descendant of the Reph'a-im,<sup>b</sup> and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Phi·lis·tines, and El·ha·nan the son of Ja'ir struck down Lah·mi the brother of Go·li·ath<sup>c</sup> the Git·tie, whose spear had a shaft like the beam of loom workers.<sup>d</sup>

6 War broke out yet again at Gath,<sup>e</sup> where there was a man of extraordinary size,<sup>f</sup> with 6 fingers on each hand and 6 toes on each foot, 24 in all; and he too was a descendant of the Reph'a-im.<sup>g</sup> 7 He kept taunting<sup>h</sup> Israel. So Jon·a·than the son of Shim'e-a,<sup>i</sup> David's brother, struck him down.

8 These were descendants of the Reph'a-im<sup>j</sup> in Gath,<sup>k</sup> and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

21 Then Satan* stood up against Israel and incited David to number Israel.<sup>l</sup> 2 So David said to Jo'ab<sup>m</sup> and the chiefs of the people: "Go, count Israel from Be'er-she'ba to Dan;<sup>n</sup> then report to me so that I may know their number." 3 But Jo'ab said: "May Jehovah multiply his people 100 times! My lord the king, are not all of them already servants of my lord? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he become a cause of guilt to Israel?"

4 But the king's word prevailed over Jo'ab. So Jo'ab went out and traveled throughout Israel, after which he came to Jerusalem.<sup>o</sup> 5 Jo'ab now gave to David the number of the people who were registered. All Israel amounted to 1,100,000 men armed with swords, and Judah, 470,000 men armed with swords.<sup>a</sup> 6 But Le'vi and Benjamin were not registered among them,<sup>b</sup> because the king's word was detestable to Jo'ab.<sup>c</sup>

7 Now this was very displeasing to the true God, so he struck Israel. 8 David then said to the true God: "I have sinned<sup>d</sup> greatly by doing this. And now, please, forgive your servant's error,<sup>e</sup> for I have acted very foolishly."<sup>f</sup> 9 Jehovah then spoke to Gad,<sup>g</sup> David's visionary, saying: 10 "Go and say to David, 'This is what Jehovah says: 'I am giving you three options. Choose the one that I should bring on you.''" 11 So Gad came in to David and said to him: "This is what Jehovah says, 'Take your pick 12 whether there should be three years of famine,<sup>h</sup> or three months of being swept away by your adversaries while the sword of your enemies overtakes you,<sup>i</sup> or three days of the sword of Jehovah—pestilence in the land—with Jehovah's angel bringing destruction<sup>k</sup> in all the territory of Israel! Now consider what I should reply to the One who sent me.' 13 So David said to Gad: "It is very distressing to me. Please, let me fall into the hand of Jehovah, for his mercy is very great;<sup>l</sup> but do not let me fall into the hand of man."<sup>m</sup>

14 Then Jehovah sent a pestilence<sup>n</sup> on Israel, so that 70,000 people out of Israel fell.<sup>o</sup> 15 Moreover, the true God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but as he was about to do so, Jehovah saw it and felt regret* over the calamity,<sup>p</sup> and he said to the angel bringing destruction: "It is enough!<sup>q</sup> Now let your hand drop." Jehovah's angel was standing close to the threshing floor of Or'nan<sup>r</sup> the Jeb'u-site.<sup>s</sup>

16 When David raised his eyes, he saw Jehovah's angel

21:15 *Or "grieved."

standing between the earth and the heavens with a drawn sword<sup>a</sup> in his hand extended toward Jerusalem. David and the elders, covered with sackcloth,<sup>b</sup> at once threw themselves down with their faces to the ground.<sup>c</sup> 17 David said to the true God: "Was it not I who said to number the people? I am the one who sinned, and I am the one who did wrong;<sup>d</sup> but these sheep—what have they done? O Jehovah my God, let your hand, please, come against me and my father's house; but do not bring this scourge on your people."<sup>e</sup>

18 Jehovah's angel then told Gad<sup>f</sup> to tell David to go up and erect an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Or'-nan the Jeb'u-site.<sup>g</sup> 19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of Jehovah. 20 Meanwhile, Or'-nan turned around and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Or'-nan had been threshing wheat. 21 When David came up to him, Or'-nan looked and saw David, and he immediately went out from the threshing floor and bowed down to David with his face to the ground. 22 David said to Or'-nan: "Sell<sup>h</sup> me the site of the threshing floor, so that I may build an altar to Jehovah on it. Sell it to me for the full price, so that the scourge against the people may be halted."<sup>i</sup> 23 But Or'-nan said to David: "Take it as your own, and let my lord the king do what seems good to him.* Here, I am providing the cattle for burnt offerings and the threshing sledge<sup>j</sup> for the wood and the wheat as a grain offering. I give all of it."

24 However, King David said to Or'-nan: "No, I must buy it

22 David then said: "This is the house of Jehovah the true God, and this is an altar for burnt offering for Israel."<sup>f</sup>

2 David then gave orders to bring together the foreign residents<sup>g</sup> who were in the land of Israel, and he assigned them to be stonemasons to cut and shape stones for building the house of the true God.<sup>h</sup> 3 David also prepared iron in great quantity for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps, and so much copper that it was beyond weighing,<sup>i</sup> 4 and also cedar timbers<sup>j</sup> without number, for the Si-do'ni-ans<sup>k</sup> and the Tyr'i-ans<sup>l</sup> brought great quantities of cedar timbers to David. 5 And David said: "My son Sol'o-mon is young and inexperienced,<sup>*a</sup> and the house to be built for Jehovah is to be exceedingly magnificent,<sup>b</sup> so that its fame and beauty<sup>c</sup> will be known in all lands.<sup>d</sup> Therefore, I will make preparation for him." So David prepared materials in great quantity before his death.

6 Moreover, he summoned his son Sol'o-mon and instructed him to build a house for Jehovah the God of Israel. 7 David told his son Sol'o-mon: "As for me, it was my heart's desire to build a house for the name of Jehovah my God.<sup>e</sup> 8 But Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 'You have shed a great deal of blood, and you have fought great wars. You will not build a house for my name,<sup>f</sup> for you have shed a great deal of blood on the earth before me. 9 Look! You will have a son<sup>g</sup> who will be a man of peace,<sup>h</sup> and I will give him rest from all his enemies who surround him,<sup>i</sup> for Sol'o-mon<sup>j</sup> will be his name and I will grant Israel peace and quiet in his days.<sup>j</sup> 10 He is the one who will build a house for my name.<sup>k</sup> He will become my son, and I will be his father.<sup>l</sup> I will firmly establish the throne of his kingship over Israel forever."<sup>m</sup>

11 "Now, my son, may Jehovah be with you, and may you be successful and build the house of Jehovah your God, just as he has spoken concerning you."<sup>n</sup> 12 Only may Jehovah give you discretion and understanding<sup>o</sup> when he gives you authority over Israel, so that you may keep the law of Jehovah your God.<sup>p</sup> 13 Then you will be successful if you carefully observe the regulations<sup>q</sup> and the judgments that Jehovah ordered Moses to give Israel.<sup>r</sup> Be courageous

17 David then ordered all the princes of Israel to help his son Sol'o-mon: 18 "Is not Jehovah your God with you, and has he not given you rest on every side? For he handed over to me the inhabitants of the land, and the land has been subdued before Jehovah and before his people. 19 Now determine with all your heart and soul<sup>h</sup> to seek Jehovah your God,<sup>h</sup> and start building the sanctuary of Jehovah the true God,<sup>i</sup> in order to bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and the holy utensils of the true God<sup>j</sup> to the house built for the name of Jehovah."<sup>k</sup>

23 When David had grown old and was near the end of his life,* he made his son Sol'o-mon king over Israel.<sup>l</sup> 2 He then gathered all the princes of Israel, the priests,<sup>m</sup> and the Levites.<sup>n</sup> 3 The Levites who were 30 years old and up were numbered;<sup>o</sup> their number, their head count man by man, was 38,000. 4 Of these, 24,000

6 Then David organized* them into divisions<sup>d</sup> according to the sons of Le'vi: Ger'shon, Ko'hath, and Me-rar'i.<sup>e</sup> 7 Of the Ger'shon-ites were La'dan and Shim'e-i. 8 The sons of La'dan were Je-hi'el the headman, Ze'tham, and Joel,<sup>f</sup> three. 9 The sons of Shim'e-i were She-lo'moth, Ha'zi-el, and Ha'r-an, three. These were the heads of the paternal houses for La'dan. 10 And the sons of Shim'e-i were Ja'hath, Zi'na, Je'ush, and Be-ri'ah. These four were the sons of Shim'e-i. 11 Ja'hath was the head and Zi'zah, the second. But since Je'ush and Be-ri'ah did not have many sons, they were counted as one paternal house with one area of responsibility.

12 The sons of Ko'hath were Am'ram, Iz'har,<sup>g</sup> Heb'ron, and Uz'zi-el,<sup>h</sup> four. 13 The sons of Am'ram were Aaron<sup>i</sup> and Mo-ses.<sup>j</sup> But Aaron was permanently set apart<sup>k</sup> to sanctify the Most Holy, he and his sons, to offer sacrifices before Jehovah, to minister to him, and to pronounce blessings in his name always.<sup>l</sup> 14 As for Moses the man of the true God, his sons were named among the tribe of the Levites. 15 The sons of Mo-ses were Ger'shom<sup>m</sup> and E-li'e-zer.<sup>n</sup> 16 Of the sons of Ger'shom, Sheb'u-el<sup>o</sup> was the head. 17 Of the descendants* of E-li'e-zer, Re-ha-bi'ah<sup>p</sup> was the head; E-li'e-zer did not have other sons, but the sons of Re-ha-bi'ah were very many. 18 Of the sons of Iz'har,<sup>a</sup> She-lo'mith<sup>b</sup> was the headman. 19 The sons of Heb'ron were Je-ri'ah the head, Am-a-ri'ah the second, Ja-ha-zi'el the third, and Jek-a-me'am<sup>c</sup> the fourth. 20 The sons of Uz'zi-el<sup>d</sup> were Mi'cah the head and Is-shi'-ah the second.

21 The sons of Me-rar'i were Mah'li and Mu'shi.<sup>e</sup> The sons of Mah'li were El-e'a'zar and Kish. 22 El-e'a'zar died, but he had no sons, only daughters. So the sons of Kish, their relatives,* took them as wives. 23 The sons of Mu'shi were Mah'li, E'der, and Jer'e-moth, three.

24 These were the sons of Le'vi according to their paternal houses, the heads of the paternal houses, by those registered who were counted and listed by their names and who carried out the work for the service of the house of Jehovah, from 20 years old and up. 25 For David had said: "Jehovah the God of Israel has given rest to his people,<sup>f</sup> and he will reside in Jerusalem forever."<sup>g</sup> 26 Also the Levites will not have to carry the tabernacle or any of its equipment for its service."<sup>h</sup> 27 For according to the last instructions of Da-vid, the Levites from 20 years old and up were numbered.

28 Their function was to assist the sons of Aaron<sup>i</sup> for the service of the house of Jehovah, to be in charge of the courtyards,<sup>j</sup> the dining rooms, the purification of every holy thing, and any work needed for the service of the house of the true God. 29 They assisted with the layer bread,*<sup>k</sup> the fine flour for the grain offering, the wafers of unleavened bread,<sup>l</sup> the griddle cakes, the mixed dough,<sup>m</sup> and all measures of quantity and size. 30 They were to stand morning by morning<sup>a</sup> to thank and praise Jehovah and likewise in the evening.<sup>b</sup> 31 They assisted whenever the burnt sacrifices were offered to Jehovah on the Sabbaths,<sup>c</sup> the new moons,<sup>d</sup> and during the festival seasons,<sup>e</sup> according to the number required by the rules concerning them, doing so regularly before Jehovah. 32 They also took care of their responsibilities toward the tent of meeting, toward the holy place, and toward their brothers the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Jehovah.

24 Now the divisions of the descendants of Aaron were these: The sons of Aaron were Na'dab, A·bi'hu,<sup>f</sup> El-e·a'zar, and Ith'a-mar.<sup>g</sup> 2 However, Na'dab and A·bi'hu died before their father,<sup>h</sup> and they did not have any sons; but El-e·a'zar<sup>i</sup> and Ith'a-mar continued to serve as priests. 3 David, along with Za'dok<sup>k</sup> from the sons of El-e·a'zar and A·him'e-lech from the sons of Ith'a-mar, made divisions of them for the office of their service. 4 Since the sons of El-e·a'zar had more headmen than the sons of Ith'a-mar had, they divided them accordingly: The sons of El-e·a'zar had 16 as heads of their paternal houses, and the sons of Ith'a-mar had 8 as heads of their paternal houses.

5 Further, they divided them by lots,<sup>k</sup> the one group along with the other, for there were chiefs of the holy place and chiefs of the true God from both the sons of El-e·a'zar and the sons of Ith'a-mar. 6 Then She-mai'ah the son of Ne·than'el the secretary of the Levites recorded their names before the king, the princes, Za'dok<sup>l</sup> the priest, A·him'e-lech<sup>m</sup> the son of A·bi'a-thar,<sup>n</sup> and the heads of the paternal houses of the priests and of the Levites, one paternal house

20 And of the rest of the Le-vites: of the sons of Am'-ram,<sup>c</sup> there was Shu'ba-el:<sup>d</sup> of the sons of Shu'ba-el, Jeh-de'iah; 21 of Re·ha·bi'ah:<sup>e</sup> of the sons of Re·ha·bi'ah, Is·shi'ah the head; 22 of the Iz'hari-tes, She-lo'moth;<sup>f</sup> of the sons of She-lo'moth, Ja'hath; 23 and of the sons of Heb'ron, Je·ri'ah<sup>g</sup> the head, Am·a·ri'ah the second, Ja·ha·zi'el the third, Jek·a·me'am the fourth; 24 of the sons of Uz'zi'el, Mi'cah; of the sons of Mi'cah, Sha'mir. 25 The brother of Mi'cah was Is·shi'ah; of the sons of Is·shi'ah, Zech·a·ri'ah.

26 The sons of Me·rar'i<sup>h</sup> were Mah'li and Mu'shi; of the sons of Ja·a·zi'ah, Be'no. 27 The sons of Me·rar'i: of Ja·a·zi'ah, Be'no, Sho'ham, Zac'cur, and Ib'r'i; 28 of Mah'li, El-e·a'zar, who did not have any sons;<sup>i</sup> 29 of Kish: the sons of Kish, Je·rah'me-el;

30 and the sons of Mu'shi were Mah'li, E'der, and Jer'i-moth.

These were the sons of Le'-vi by their paternal houses. 31 And they also cast lots<sup>a</sup> just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did in the presence of King David, Za'dok, A-him'e-lech, and the heads of the paternal houses of the priests and of the Levites. Regarding the paternal houses, the head one was just as his younger brother.

25 Further, David and the chiefs of the groups for the service separated some of the sons of A'saph, He'man, and Je-du'thun<sup>b</sup> to serve by prophesying with the harps, the stringed instruments,<sup>c</sup> and the cymbals.<sup>d</sup> The list of the official men for this service was, 2 of the sons of A'saph: Zac'cur, Joseph, Neth-a-ni'ah, and Ash-a-re'lah, the sons of A'saph under the direction of A'saph, who prophesied under the direction of the king. 3 Of Je-du'thun,<sup>e</sup> the sons of Je-du'thun: Ged-a-li'ah, Ze'ri, Je-sha'iah, Shim'e-i, Hash-a-bi'ah, and Mat-ti-thi'ah,<sup>f</sup> six, under the direction of their father Je-du'thun, who prophesied with the harp, thanking and praising Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> 4 Of He'man,<sup>h</sup> the sons of He'man: Buk-ki'ah, Mat-ta-ni'ah, Uz'zi-el, Sheb'u-el, Jer'i-moth, Han-a-ni'ah, Ha-na'ni, E-li'a-thah, Gid-dal'ti, Ro-mam'ti-e'er, Josh-be-kash'ah, Mal-lo'thi, Ho'thir, and Ma-ha'zi-oth. 5 All of these were sons of He'man, a visionary of the king in matters pertaining to the true God to his glory;* thus the true God gave He'man 14 sons and 3 daughters. 6 All of these were under the direction of their father for singing at the house of Jehovah, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps<sup>i</sup> for the service of the house of the true God.

Under the king's direction were A'saph, Je-du'thun, and He'man.

7 The number of them and their brothers who were trained in song to Jehovah, all experts, was 288. 8 So they cast lots<sup>a</sup> for their duties, the small and the great alike, the expert along with the learner.

9 The first lot to come out belonged to A'saph for Joseph,<sup>b</sup> the second for Ged-a-li'ah<sup>c</sup> (he and his brothers and his sons were 12); 10 the third for Zac'-cur,<sup>d</sup> his sons and his brothers, 12; 11 the fourth for Iz'-ri, his sons and his brothers, 12; 12 the fifth for Neth-a-ni'ah,<sup>e</sup> his sons and his brothers, 12; 13 the sixth for Buk-ki'ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 14 the seventh for Jesh-a-re'lah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 15 the eighth for Je-sha'iah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 16 the ninth for Mat-ta-ni'ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 17 the tenth for Shim'e-i, his sons and his brothers, 12; 18 the 11th for Az'ar-el, his sons and his brothers, 12; 19 the 12th for Hash-a-bi'ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 20 for the 13th, Shu'ba-el,<sup>f</sup> his sons and his brothers, 12; 21 for the 14th, Mat-ti-thi'ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 22 for the 15th, for Jer'e-moth, his sons and his brothers, 12; 23 for the 16th, for Han-a-ni'ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 24 for the 17th, for Josh-be-kash'ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 25 for the 18th, for Ha-na'ni, his sons and his brothers, 12; 26 for the 19th, for Mal-lo'thi, his sons and his brothers, 12; 27 for the 20th, for E-li'a-thah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 28 for the 21st, for Ho'thir, his sons and his brothers, 12; 29 for the 22nd, for Gid-dal'ti,<sup>g</sup> his sons and his brothers, 12; 30 for the 23rd, for Ma-ha'zi-oth,<sup>a</sup> his sons and his brothers, 12; 31 for the 24th, for Ro-mam'ti-e'zer,<sup>b</sup> his sons and his brothers, 12.

26 The divisions of gatekeepers<sup>c</sup> were as follows: of the Kor'ah-ites, Me-shel-e-mi'ah<sup>d</sup> the son of Ko're of the sons of A'saph. 2 And Me-shel-e-mi'ah had sons: Zech-a·ri'ah the first-born, Je-di'a-el the second, Zeb-a·di'ah the third, Jath'ni-el the fourth, 3 E'l'am the fifth, Je-ho-ha'nan the sixth, El-ie·ho·e'nai the seventh. 4 And O'bed-e'dom had sons: She-mai'ah the firstborn, Je-hoz'a·bad the second, Jo'ah the third, Sa'car the fourth, Ne·than'el the fifth, 5 Am'mi-el the sixth, Is'sa·char the seventh, and Pe-ul'e-thai the eighth; for God had blessed him.

6 And to his son She-mai'ah, there were sons born who were rulers of their paternal house, for they were mighty, capable men. 7 The sons of She-mai'ah: Oth'ni, Reph'a-el, O'bed, and El-za'bad; and his brothers E·li'hu and Sem·a·chi'ah were also capable men. 8 All of these were of the sons of O'bed-e'dom; they and their sons and their brothers were capable men and qualified for the service, 62 belonging to O'bed-e'dom. 9 And Me-shel-e-mi'ah<sup>e</sup> had sons and brothers, 18 capable men. 10 And Ho'sah of the sons of Me-rar'i had sons. Shim'ri was the head, for although he was not the first-born, his father appointed him as head, 11 Hil·ki'ah the second, Teb-a·li'ah the third, Zech-a·ri'ah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Ho'sah were 13.

12 Of these divisions of the gatekeepers, the headmen had duties just as their brothers did, to minister at the house of Jehovah. 13 So they cast lots,<sup>f</sup> the small and the great alike by their paternal houses, for the different gates. 14 Then the lot to the east fell to Shel-e-mi'ah. For Zech-a·ri'ah his son, a discreet adviser, they cast the lots, and his lot came out to the north. 15 O'bed-e'dom had his to the south, and his sons<sup>a</sup> were assigned the storehouses. 16 Shup'pim and Ho'sah<sup>b</sup> had theirs to the west, near the Shal'lech-eth Gate by the highway that goes up, guard group corresponding to guard group; 17 there were six Levites to the east; to the north, four each day and to the south, four each day; and for the storehouses,<sup>c</sup> two by two; 18 for the portico to the west, there were four at the highway<sup>d</sup> and two at the portico. 19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers from the sons of the Kor'ah-ites and of the Me-rar'ites.

20 As regards the Levites, A·hi'jah was in charge of the treasuries of the house of the true God and the treasuries of the things made holy.<sup>e</sup> 21 The sons of La'dan: the sons of the Ger'shon-ite belonging to La'dan the Ger'shon-ite, Je·hi'e-li'<sup>f</sup> 22 and the sons of Je·hi'e-li, Ze'tham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the treasuries of the house of Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> 23 From the Am'ram-ites, the Iz'har-ites, the Heb'ron-ites, and the Uz·zi'el-ites,<sup>h</sup> 24 Sheb'u-el son of Ger'shom son of Moses was a leader in charge of the storehouses. 25 As regards his brothers, of E·li'e-zer,<sup>i</sup> there was Re·ha·bi'ah his son, Je·sha'iah his son, Jo'ram his son, Zich'ri his son, and She-lo'moth his son. 26 This She-lo'moth and his brothers were in charge of all the treasures of the things made holy,<sup>a</sup> which King David,<sup>b</sup> the heads of the paternal houses,<sup>c</sup> the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds, and the chiefs of the army had made holy. 27 From the wars<sup>d</sup> and from the spoil,<sup>e</sup> they had made things holy to maintain the house of Jehovah; 28 also, all that Samuel the seer,<sup>f</sup> Saul the son of Kish, Ab'ner<sup>g</sup> the son of Ner, and Jo'ab<sup>h</sup> the son of Ze-ru'i'ah<sup>i</sup> had made holy. Whatever anyone made holy was put in the care of She-lo'mith and his brothers.

29 Of the Iz'har-ites,<sup>j</sup> Chen-a-ni'ah and his sons were assigned outside administrative duties as officers and as judges<sup>k</sup> over Israel.

30 Of the Heb'ron-ites,<sup>l</sup> Hash-a-bi'ah and his brothers, 1,700 capable men, were over the administration of Israel in the region west of the Jordan for all the work of Jehovah and for the king's service. 31 Of the Heb'ron-ites, Je-ri'jah<sup>m</sup> was the head of the Heb'ron-ites by line of descent of their paternal house. In the 40th year of David's kingship,<sup>n</sup> they were sought out, and mighty, capable men were found among them in Ja'zer<sup>o</sup> in Gil'e-ad. 32 And his brothers numbered 2,700 capable men, heads of the paternal houses. So King David assigned them over the Reu'ben-ites, the Gad'ites, and the half tribe of the Manas'sites, for every matter of the true God and matter of the king.

27 This is the number of Israelites, the heads of the paternal houses, the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds,<sup>p</sup> and their officers who ministered to the king<sup>q</sup> in every matter of the divisions that would come in and go out month by month during all the months of the year; there were 24,000 in each division.

28 Over the olive groves and the sycamore trees<sup>a</sup> in the She-phe'lah<sup>b</sup> was Ba'al-ha'nan the Ged'e-rite; over the oil supplies was Jo'ash. 29 Over the herds that grazed in Shar'on<sup>c</sup> was Shit'-rai the Shar'on-ite, and Sha'-phat the son of Ad'lai was over the herds in the valley plains.* 30 Over the camels was O'b'il the Ish'ma-el-ite; over the donkeys* was Jeh-de'iah the Me-ron'-o-thite. 31 Over the flocks was Ja'ziz the Hag'rite. All of these were the chiefs of King David's property.

28 David then congregated all the princes of Israel to Jerusalem: the princes of the tribes, the chiefs of the divisions<sup>k</sup> ministering to the king, the chiefs of thousands and the chiefs of hundreds,<sup>l</sup> the chiefs of all the property and livestock of the king<sup>m</sup> and of his sons,<sup>n</sup> together with the court officials and every mighty and capable man.<sup>o</sup> 2 Then King David rose to his feet and said:

"Hear me, my brothers and my people. It was my heart's desire to build a house as the resting-place for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and as the footstool of our God,<sup>p</sup> and I made preparations to build.<sup>q</sup> 3 But the true God told me,

27:29 *Or "low plains." 27:30 *Lit., "female donkeys." 27:33 *Or "confidant."

'You will not build a house for my name,<sup>a</sup> for you are a man of wars, and you have shed blood.<sup>b</sup>

4 However, Jehovah the God of Israel chose me out of all the house of my father to become king over Israel forever,<sup>c</sup> for he chose Judah as leader<sup>d</sup> and of the house of Judah, my father's house,<sup>e</sup> and of my father's sons, I was the one whom he approved, to make me king over all Israel.<sup>f</sup>

5 And of all my sons—for Jehovah has given me many sons<sup>g</sup>—he chose my son Sol'o-mon<sup>h</sup> to sit on the throne of the kingship of Jehovah over Israel.<sup>i</sup>

6 "He said to me, 'Your son Sol'o-mon is the one who will build my house and my court-yards, for I have chosen him as my son and I will become his father.'<sup>j</sup>

7 I will firmly es-tablish his kingship forever<sup>k</sup> if he resolutely observes my com-mandments and my judicial decisions,<sup>l</sup> as he is now doing.<sup>m</sup>

8 So I say before the eyes of all Isra-el, Jehovah's con-gregation, and in the ears of our God: Care-fully ob-serve and search for all the com-mandments of Jehovah your God, so that you may possess the good land<sup>n</sup> and pass it on as a permanent inheritance to your sons after you.

9 "And you, Sol'o-mon my son, know the God of your fa-ther and serve him with a com-plete* heart<sup>o</sup> and with a delight-ful* soul,<sup>p</sup> for Jehovah searches through all hearts,<sup>q</sup> and he dis-cerns every inclination of the thoughts.<sup>r</sup> If you search for him, he will let himself be found by you,<sup>s</sup> but if you leave him, he will reject you forever.<sup>t</sup>

10 See, now, for Jehovah has chosen you to build a house as a sanctu-ary. Be courageous and go to work."

3,000 talents* of gold from O’phir<sup>a</sup> and 7,000 talents of refined silver, for coating the walls of the houses, 5 the gold for the goldwork and the silver for the silverwork, and for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now who volunteers to come forward today with a gift in hand for Jehovah?”<sup>b</sup>

6 So the princes of the paternal houses, the princes of the tribes of Israel, the chiefs of thousands and of hundreds,<sup>c</sup> and the chiefs of the business of the king<sup>d</sup> came forward voluntarily. 7 And they gave to the service of the house of the true God: 5,000 talents of gold, 10,000 darics,* 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of copper, and 100,000 talents of iron. 8 Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of Jehovah, under the care of Je-hi’el<sup>e</sup> the Ger-shon-ite.<sup>f</sup> 9 The people rejoiced over making these voluntary offerings, for they made the voluntary offerings to Jehovah with a complete heart,<sup>g</sup> and David the king also rejoiced greatly.

10 Then David praised Jehovah before the eyes of all the congregation. David said: “May you be praised, O Jehovah the God of Israel our father, throughout all eternity.*

everything,<sup>a</sup> and in your hand there are power<sup>b</sup> and mightiness,<sup>c</sup> and your hand is able to make great<sup>d</sup> and to give strength to all.<sup>e</sup> 13 And now, O our God, we thank you and praise your beautiful name.

14 "And yet, who am I and who are my people that we should be in a position to make voluntary offerings like this? For everything is from you, and we have given to you what comes from your own hand. 15 For we are foreign residents in your presence and settlers, just like all our forefathers.<sup>f</sup> For our days on the earth are like a shadow<sup>g</sup>—without hope. 16 O Jehovah our God, all this wealth that we have prepared to build for you a house for your holy name is from your own hand, and it all belongs to you. 17 I well know, O my God, that you examine the heart<sup>h</sup> and that you take pleasure in integrity.<sup>i</sup> In the uprightness<sup>j</sup> of my heart, I have voluntarily offered all these things, and I am overjoyed to see your people who are present here make voluntary offerings to you. 18 O Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our forefathers, keep these inclinations and thoughts in the hearts of your people forever, and direct their hearts to you.<sup>j</sup> 19 And give a complete<sup>k</sup> heart<sup>k</sup> to my son Sol'o-mon, so that he may observe your commandments,<sup>l</sup> your reminders, and your regulations and do all these things and build the temple<sup>m</sup> for which I have made preparation."<sup>m</sup>

bowed low and prostrated themselves to Jehovah and to the king. 21 And they continued to offer sacrifices to Jehovah and to offer up burnt offerings<sup>a</sup> to Jehovah on the following day, 1,000 young bulls, 1,000 rams, 1,000 male lambs, and their drink offerings;<sup>b</sup> they offered sacrifices in great number for all Israel.<sup>c</sup> 22 They continued eating and drinking before Jehovah on that day with great rejoicing,<sup>d</sup> and for a second time they made Sol'o-mon the son of David king and anointed him before Jehovah as leader,<sup>e</sup> and also Za'dok as priest.<sup>f</sup> 23 And Sol'o-mon sat on Jehovah's throne<sup>g</sup> as king in place of David his father, and he was successful, and all the Israelites were obedient to him. 24 All the princes,<sup>h</sup> the mighty warriors,<sup>i</sup> and also all the sons of King David<sup>j</sup> submitted themselves to Sol'o-mon the king. 25 And Jehovah made Sol'o-mon exceedingly great before the eyes of all Israel and bestowed on him royal majesty such as no king over Israel ever had before.<sup>k</sup>

1 Sol'o-mon the son of David grew ever stronger in his kingship, and Jehovah his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.<sup>a</sup>

2 Sol'o-mon sent for all Israel, the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds, the judges, and all the chieftains of all Israel, the heads of the paternal houses. 3 Then Sol'o-mon and all the congregation went to the high place at Gib'e-on,<sup>b</sup> for that was where the tent of meeting of the true God was, which tent Moses the servant of Jehovah had made in the wilderness. 4 However, David had brought the Ark of the true God up from Kir'i-athe-je'a-rim<sup>c</sup> to the place that David had prepared for it; he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.<sup>d</sup> 5 And the copper altar<sup>e</sup> that Bez'al-el<sup>f</sup> the son of U'ri the son of Hur had made had been put before the tabernacle of Jehovah; and Sol'o-mon and the congregation would pray before it.* 6 Sol'o-mon now made

7 That night God appeared to Sol'o-mon and said to him: "Ask what you would like me to give you."<sup>b</sup> 8 At this Sol'o-mon said to God: "You have shown great loyal love toward my father David,<sup>c</sup> and you have made me king in his place.<sup>d</sup> 9 Now, O Jehovah God, let your promise to David my father prove faithful,<sup>e</sup> for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust particles of the earth.<sup>f</sup> 10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge<sup>g</sup> to lead this people,* for who can possibly judge this great people of yours?"<sup>h</sup>

11 Then God said to Sol'o-mon: "Because this is your heart's desire and you have not asked for wealth, riches, and honor or for the death* of those hating you, nor have you asked

13 So Sol'o-mon came from the high place at Gib'e-on,<sup>c</sup> from before the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel. 14 Sol'o-mon kept accumulating chariots and horses;<sup>d</sup> he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses,<sup>e,d</sup> and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities<sup>e</sup> and close by the king in Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup> 15 The king made the silver and the gold in Jerusalem as plentiful as the stones,<sup>g</sup> and cedarwood as plentiful as the sycamore trees in the Shephe'lah.<sup>h</sup> 16 The horses of Sol'o-mon had been imported from Egypt,<sup>i</sup> and the company of the king's merchants would obtain the horses in droves<sup>j</sup> for one price.<sup>j</sup> 17 Each chariot imported from Egypt cost 600 silver pieces, and a horse cost 150; in turn, they would export them to all the kings of the Hit'tites and the kings of Syria.

This is a lasting obligation for Israel. 5 The house that I am building will be great, for our God is greater than all the other gods. 6 And who is up to the task of building him a house? For the heavens and the heaven of the heavens cannot contain him,<sup>h</sup> so who am I that I should build him a house except as a place for making sacrifices smoke before him? 7 Now send me a craftsman who is skilled in working in gold, silver, copper,<sup>i</sup> iron, purple wool, crimson, and blue thread and who knows how to cut engravings. He will work in Judah and in Jerusalem with my skilled craftsmen, whom David my father has provided.<sup>j</sup> 8 And send me timbers of cedar, juniper,<sup>k</sup> and alrum<sup>l</sup> from Leb'a-non, for I well know that your servants are experienced at cutting down the trees of Leb'a-non.<sup>m</sup> My servants will work along with your servants<sup>n</sup> 9 to prepare for me great quantities of timber, for the house that I am to build will be extraordinarily great. 10 Now look! 11 At that Hi'ram the king of Tyre sent this written message to Sol'o-mon: "Because Jehovah loves his people, he has made you their king." 12 Hi'ram then said: "May Jehovah the God of Israel be praised, who made the heavens and the earth, because he has given to King David a wise son,<sup>a</sup> endowed with discretion and understanding,<sup>b</sup> who will build a house for Jehovah and a house for his kingdom. 13 Now I am sending a skilled craftsman, endowed with understanding, Hi'ram-a'bi,<sup>c</sup> 14 who is the son of a Dan'ite woman but whose father was a man of Tyre; he has experience in working in gold, silver, copper, iron, stones, timbers, purple wool, blue thread, fine fabric, and crimson.<sup>d</sup> He can do every sort of engraving and make any design he is given.<sup>e</sup> He will work with your own skilled craftsmen and the skilled craftsmen of my lord David your father. 15 Now let my lord send the wheat, barley, oil, and wine he has promised to his servants.<sup>f</sup> 16 And we will cut down trees from Leb'a-non,<sup>g</sup> as many as you need, and we will bring them to you as rafts by sea to Jop'pa;<sup>h</sup> and you will take them up to Jerusalem."<sup>i</sup>

17 Sol'o-mon then took a count of all the men who were foreign residents in the land of Israel,<sup>j</sup> after the census taken by David his father,<sup>k</sup> and there were found 153,600. 18 So he assigned 70,000 of them as common laborers,<sup>l</sup> 80,000 as stone-cutters<sup>m</sup> in the mountains, and 3,600 as overseers for putting the people to work.<sup>n</sup>

Jeb'u-site. 2 He started to build on the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign. 3 And the foundation that Sol'o-mon laid for building the house of the true God was 60 cubits long and 20 cubits wide,<sup>a</sup> according to the former measurement.* 4 The porch in front was 20 cubits long, corresponding to the width of the house,* and its height was 20 cubits;<sup>b</sup> and he overlaid it inside with pure gold.<sup>b</sup> 5 He paneled the great house with juniper wood, after which he covered it with fine gold,<sup>c</sup> and then he decorated it with palm-tree figures<sup>d</sup> and chains.<sup>e</sup> 6 Further, he overlaid the house with beautiful precious stones;<sup>f</sup> and the gold<sup>g</sup> he used was gold from Par·va'im. 7 He covered the house, the rafters, the thresholds, its walls, and its doors with gold;<sup>h</sup> and he engraved cherubs on the walls.<sup>i</sup>

8 He now made the Most Holy compartment;*<sup>j</sup> its length matched the width of the house, 20 cubits, and its width was 20 cubits. He covered it with 600 talents<sup>k</sup> of fine gold.<sup>k</sup> 9 The weight of the gold for the nails was 50 shekels;* and he covered the roof chambers with gold.

10 Then he made in the Most Holy compartment* two cherub sculptures, and he overlaid them with gold.<sup>l</sup> 11 The overall length of the wings of the cherubs<sup>m</sup> was 20 cubits; one wing

14 He also made the curtain<sup>a</sup> of blue thread, purple wool, crimson, and fine fabric, and incorporated cherub designs into it.<sup>b</sup>

15 Then he made two pillars<sup>c</sup> at the front of the house, 35 cubits in length, and the capital on top of each pillar was five cubits.<sup>d</sup> 16 And he made chains, like necklaces, and put them on the tops of the pillars, and he made 100 pomegranates and put them on the chains. 17 He set up the pillars in front of the temple, one to the right<sup>e</sup> and one to the left;<sup>f</sup> he named the one on the right Ja'chin<sup>g</sup> and the one on the left Bo'az.<sup>h</sup>

4 Then he made the copper al-tar,<sup>i</sup> 20 cubits long, 20 cubits wide, and 10 cubits high.

2 He made the Sea<sup>j</sup> of cast metal. It was circular in shape, 10 cubits from brim to brim and 5 cubits high, and it took a measuring line 30 cubits long to encircle it.<sup>k</sup> 3 And there were ornamental gourds<sup>l</sup> under it, completely encircling it, ten to a cubit all around the Sea. The gourds were in two rows and were cast in one piece with it. 4 It stood on 12 bulls,<sup>m</sup> 3 fac-

The reservoir could hold<sup>n</sup> 3,000 bath measures.^

6 Further, he made ten basins for washing and put five to the right and five to the left.<sup>a</sup> They would rinse in them the things used for the burnt offering.<sup>b</sup> But the Sea was for the priests for washing.<sup>c</sup>

7 He then made ten lampstands of gold,<sup>d</sup> as specified,<sup>e</sup> and put them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.<sup>f</sup>

8 He also made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left;<sup>g</sup> and he made 100 golden bowls.

11 Hi'ram also made the cans, the shovels, and the bowls.<sup>l</sup>

So Hi'ram finished the work that he did for King Sol'o-mon on the house of the true God:<sup>m</sup> 12 the two pillars<sup>n</sup> and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks<sup>o</sup> to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars; 13 the 400 pomegranates<sup>p</sup> for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars;<sup>q</sup> 14 the ten carriages<sup>r</sup> and the ten basins on

19 Sol'o-mon made all the utensils<sup>g</sup> for the house of the true God: the altar of gold;<sup>h</sup> the tables<sup>i</sup> with the showbread on them;<sup>j</sup> 20 the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold,<sup>k</sup> to burn before the innermost room according to the requirements; 21 and the blossoms, the lamps, and the snuffers,* of gold, the purest gold; 22 the extinguishers, the bowls, the cups, and the fire holders, of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, its inner doors for the Most Holy,<sup>l</sup> and the doors of the house of the temple, of gold.<sup>m</sup>

5 So Sol'o-mon completed all the work he had to do for the house of Jehovah.<sup>n</sup> Sol'o-mon then brought in the things that David his father had made holy,<sup>o</sup> and he put the silver, the gold, and all the articles into the treasuries of the house of the true God.<sup>p</sup> 2 At that time Sol'o-mon congregated the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes, the chieftains of the paternal houses of Israel. They came to Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the City of David,<sup>q</sup> that is, Zion.<sup>r</sup> 3 All the men of Israel assembled before the king at the festival* that is held in the seventh month.<sup>s</sup>

4 So all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites lifted up the Ark.<sup>a</sup> 5 They brought up the Ark, the tent of meeting,<sup>b</sup> and all the holy utensils that were in the tent. The priests and the Levites* brought them up. 6 King Sol'o-mon and the entire assembly of Israel who had been summoned to meet with him were before the Ark. So many sheep and cattle were being sacrificed<sup>c</sup> that they could not be counted or numbered. 7 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the innermost room of the house, the Most Holy, underneath the wings of the cherubs.<sup>d</sup> 8 Thus the wings of the cherubs were spread out over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubs covered over the Ark and its poles<sup>e</sup> from above. 9 The poles were so long that the tips of the poles were visible from the Holy in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible from outside. And they are there to this day. 10 There was nothing in the Ark but the two tablets that Moses placed in it at Hor'eb,<sup>f</sup> when Jehovah made a covenant<sup>g</sup> with the people of Israel while they were coming out of Egypt.<sup>h</sup>

were praising and thanking Jehovah in unison, and as the sound ascended from the trumpets, the cymbals, and the other musical instruments as they were praising Jehovah, “for he is good; his loyal love endures forever,”<sup>a</sup> then the house, the house of Jehovah, was filled with a cloud.<sup>b</sup> 14 The priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of Jehovah filled the house of the true God.<sup>c</sup>

6 At that time Sol’o-mon said: 6 “Jehovah said he would reside in the thick gloom.<sup>d</sup> 2 Now I have built a lofty house for you, an established place for you to dwell in forever.”<sup>e</sup>

3 Then the king turned around and began to bless all the congregation of Israel while all the congregation of Israel stood.<sup>f</sup> 4 He said: “May Jehovah the God of Israel be praised, the one who by his own mouth promised my father David and by his own hands has given fulfillment, saying, 5 ‘From the day I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house for my name to remain there,<sup>g</sup> and I have not chosen a man to become leader over my people Israel. 6 But I have chosen Jerusalem<sup>h</sup> for my name to remain there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.’<sup>i</sup> 7 And it was the heart’s desire of my father David to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.<sup>j</sup> 8 But Jehovah said to my father David, ‘It was your heart’s desire to build a house for my name, and you did well to desire this in your heart. 9 However, you will not build the house, but your own son who is to be born to you* is

7 Now as soon as Sol'o-mon had finished praying,<sup>g</sup> fire came down from the heavens<sup>h</sup> and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and Jehovah's glory filled the house.<sup>i</sup>

2 The priests were unable to enter the house of Jehovah because Jehovah's glory had filled the house of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 3 And all the people of Israel were looking on when the fire came down and the glory of Jehovah was upon the house, and they bowed low with their faces to the ground on the pavement and prostrated themselves and thanked Jehovah, "for he is good; his loyal love endures forever."

4 Now the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Jehovah.<sup>k</sup> 5 King Sol'o-mon offered the sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the people inaugurated the house of the true God.<sup>l</sup> 6 The priests were standing at their posts of duty, as were the Levites who had the instruments used to accompany the song to Jehovah.<sup>m</sup> (King David had made these instruments for giving thanks to Jehovah—"for his loyal love endures forever"—when David would offer praise with them.<sup>a</sup>) And the priests were loudly sounding the trumpets<sup>a</sup> in front of them, while all the Israelites were standing.

7 Then Sol'omon sanctified the middle of the courtyard that was before the house of Jehovah, for there he had to offer up the burnt offerings<sup>b</sup> and the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices, because the copper altar<sup>c</sup> that Sol'omon had made could not contain the burnt sacrifices, the grain offerings,<sup>d</sup> and the fat pieces.<sup>e</sup> 8 At that time Sol'omon held the festival for seven days<sup>f</sup> together with all Israel, a very great congregation from Le'bo-ha'math<sup>g</sup> down to the Wadi<sup>h</sup> of Egypt.<sup>g</sup> 9 But on the eighth day<sup>i</sup> they held a solemn assembly,<sup>h</sup> because they had held the inauguration of the altar for seven days and the festival for seven days. 10 Then on the 23rd day of the seventh month, he sent the people away to their homes rejoicing and feeling glad of heart over the goodness that Jehovah had shown to David and Sol'omon and Israel his people.<sup>j</sup>

11 Thus Sol'omon finished the house of Jehovah and the house<sup>k</sup> of the king,<sup>k</sup> and everything that came into Sol'omon's heart to do regarding the house of Jehovah and his own house he accomplished successfully.<sup>l</sup> 12 Jehovah then appeared to Sol'omon<sup>m</sup> during the night and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.<sup>n</sup> 13 When I shut up

he said: “Although she is my wife, she should not dwell in the house of King David of Israel, for the places to which the Ark of Jehovah has come are holy.”<sup>a</sup>

16 So Sol’o-mon’s work was all well-organized,* from the day the foundation of the house of Jehovah was laid<sup>n</sup> until it was finished. So the house of Jehovah was completed.<sup>o</sup>

17 It was then that Sol’o-mon went to E’zi-on-ge’ber<sup>p</sup> and to E’loth<sup>q</sup> on the seashore in the land of E’dom.<sup>r</sup> 18 Hi’ram<sup>s</sup> sent him ships and experienced seamen by means of his own servants. gold<sup>a</sup> and brought it to King Sol'o-mon.<sup>b</sup>

9 Now the queen of She'ba heard the report about Sol'o-mon, so she came to Jerusalem to test Sol'o-mon with perplexing questions.* She was accompanied by a very impressive entourage,<sup>c</sup> with camels carrying balsam oil and great quantities of gold<sup>d</sup> and precious stones. She went in to Sol'o-mon and spoke to him about everything that was close to her heart.<sup>e</sup> 2 Sol'o-mon then answered all her questions. There was nothing too difficult for* Sol'o-mon to explain to her.

5 So she said to the king: "The report that I heard in my own land about your achievements* and about your wisdom was true. 6 But I did not put faith in the reports until I had come and had seen it with my own eyes.<sup>j</sup> And look! 17 The king also made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold.<sup>b</sup> 18 There were six steps to the throne, and there was a gold footstool attached to the throne, and there were armrests on both sides of the seat, and two lions<sup>c</sup> were standing beside the armrests. 19 And there were 12 lions<sup>d</sup> standing on the six steps, one at each end of the six steps. No other kingdom had made anything like it. 20 All the drinking vessels of King Sol'o-mon were of gold, and all the utensils of the House of the Forest of Leb'a-non were of pure gold. There was nothing made of silver, for silver was considered as nothing in the days of Sol'o-mon.<sup>e</sup> 21 For the king's ships would go to Tar'-shish<sup>f</sup> with the servants of Hi'-ram.<sup>g</sup> Once every three years, the ships of Tar'shish would come loaded with gold and silver, ivory,<sup>h</sup> apes, and peacocks.

22 So King Sol'o-mon was greater than all the other kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.<sup>i</sup> 23 And the kings of all the earth sought an audience with* Sol'o-mon to hear his wisdom that the true God had put in his heart.<sup>j</sup> 24 They would each bring a gift—articles of silver, articles of gold, garments,<sup>k</sup> armor, balsam oil, horses, and mules—and this continued year after year. 25 And Sol'o-mon had 4,000 stalls for his horses and chariots and 12,000 horses,<sup>l</sup> and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities and close by the king in Jerusalem.<sup>m</sup> 26 And he ruled over all the kings from the River* to the land of the Phi-lis'tines and to the boundary of Egypt.<sup>a</sup> 27 The king made the silver in Jerusalem as plentiful as the stones, and cedar-wood as plentiful as the sycamore trees in the She-phe'lah.<sup>b</sup> 28 And they would bring horses to Sol'o-mon from Egypt<sup>c</sup> and from all the other lands.

29 As for the rest of the history of Sol'o-mon,<sup>d</sup> from beginning to end, is it not written among the words of Nathan<sup>e</sup> the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahi'-jah<sup>f</sup> the Shi'lo-nite, and in the record of visions of Id'do<sup>g</sup> the visionary concerning Jer-o-bo'am<sup>h</sup> the son of Ne'bat? 30 Sol'o-mon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years. 31 Then Sol'o-mon was laid to rest with his forefathers. So they buried him in the City of David his father;<sup>i</sup> and his son Re-ho-bo'am became king in his place.<sup>j</sup>

10 Re-ho-bo'am went to She'-chem,<sup>k</sup> for all Israel had come to She'chem to make him king.<sup>l</sup> 2 As soon as Jer-o-bo'am<sup>m</sup> the son of Ne'bat heard of it (he was still in Egypt because he had fled on account of King Sol'o-mon),<sup>n</sup> Jer-o-bo'am came back from Egypt. 3 Then they sent for him, and Jer-o-bo'am and all Israel came to Re-ho-bo'am and said: 4 "Your father made our yoke harsh.<sup>o</sup> But if you make the harsh service of your father easier and you lighten the heavy* yoke he put on us, we will serve you."

5 At this he said to them: "Return to me after three days." So the people went away.<sup>p</sup> 6 King Re-ho-bo'am then consulted with the older men* who had served his father Sol'o-mon while he was alive, saying: "What advice would you give on how to reply to this people?" 7 They answered him: "If you are good to this people and please them and give them a favorable answer, they will always be your servants."

8 However, he rejected the advice that the older men<sup>a</sup> gave him, and he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and who were now his attendants.<sup>a</sup> 9 He asked them: "What advice do you offer on how we should reply to this people who have said to me, 'Make the yoke your father put on us lighter'?" 10 The young men who had grown up with him said to him: "This is what you should say to the people who have said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you should make it lighter for us'; this is what you should tell them, 'My little finger will be thicker than my father's hips. 11 My father imposed a heavy yoke on you, but I will add to your yoke. My father punished you with whips, but I will do so with scourges.'"

12 Jer-o-bo'am and all the people came to Re-ho-bo'am on the third day, just as the king had said: "Return to me on the third day."<sup>b</sup> 13 But the king answered them harshly. Thus King Re-ho-bo'am rejected the advice of the older men.* 14 He spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying: "I will make your yoke heavier, and I will add to it. My father punished you with whips, but I will do so with scourges." 15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was caused by the true God,<sup>c</sup> in order to carry out the word that Jehovah had spoken through A-hi-jah<sup>d</sup> the Shi-lo-nite to Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat.

16 As for all Israel, because the king refused to listen to them, the people replied to the king: "What share do we have in

17 But Re-ho-bo'am continued to reign over the Israelites living in the cities of Judah.<sup>c</sup>

18 Then King Re-ho-bo'am sent Ha-do'ram,<sup>d</sup> who was in charge of those conscripted for forced labor, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Re-ho-bo'am managed to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.<sup>e</sup> 19 And the Israelites have been in revolt against the house of David down to this day.

11 When Re-ho-bo'am arrived in Jerusalem, he immediately congregated the house of Judah and Benjamin,<sup>f</sup> 180,000 trained* warriors, to fight against Israel in order to restore the kingdom to Re-ho-bo'am.<sup>g</sup> 2 Then the word of Jehovah came to She-mai'ah<sup>h</sup> the man of the true God, saying: 3 "Say to Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol-o-mon the king of Judah and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, 4 'This is what Jehovah says: "You must not go up and fight against your brothers. Each of you return to his house, for I have caused this to happen.'"<sup>h</sup> So they obeyed the word of Jehovah and returned and did not go against Jer-o-bo'am.

13 And the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him, coming out of all their territories. 14 The Levites left their pastures and their possession<sup>a</sup> and came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jer-o-bo'am and his sons had dismissed them from serving as priests to Jehovah.<sup>b</sup> 15 Jer-o-bo'am then appointed his own priests for the high places<sup>c</sup> and for the goatlike demons<sup>*d</sup> and for the calves that he had made.<sup>e</sup> 16 And those from all the tribes of Israel who had their heart set on seeking Jehovah the God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.<sup>f</sup> 17 For three years they strengthened the kingship of Judah and supported Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon, for they walked in the way of David and Sol'o-mon for three years.

18 Then Re-ho-bo'am took as his wife Ma'ha-lath the daughter of David's son Jer'i-moth and of Ab'i-ha-il the daughter of Jes'se's son E-li'ab.<sup>g</sup> 19 In time she bore him sons: Je'u-sh, Shem-a-ri'ah, and Za'ham. 20 After her, he married Ma'a-cah the granddaughter of Ab'sa-lom.<sup>h</sup> In time she bore him A-bi'jah,<sup>i</sup> At'tai, Zi'za, and She-lo'mith. 21 Re-ho-bo'am loved Ma'a-cah the granddaughter of Ab'sa-lom more than all his other wives and concubines,<sup>j</sup> for he took 18 wives and 60 concubines, and he became father to 28 sons and 60 daughters. 22 So Re-ho-bo'am appointed A-bi'jah the son of Ma'a-cah as head and leader among his brothers, for he intended to make him king. 23 However, he acted with understanding and sent* some of his sons to all the regions of Judah and Benjamin, to all the fortified cities,<sup>a</sup> and gave them abundant provisions and acquired many wives for them.

12 Soon after the kingship of Re-ho-bo'am was firmly established<sup>b</sup> and he had become strong, he abandoned the Law of Jehovah,<sup>c</sup> and also all Israel with him. 2 In the fifth year of King Re-ho-bo'am, King Shi'shak<sup>d</sup> of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, for they had behaved unfaithfully toward Jehovah. 3 He had 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen, and countless troops who came with him from Egypt—Lib'y-ans, Suk'ki-im, and E-thi-o-pi-ans.<sup>e</sup> 4 He captured the fortified cities of Judah and finally reached Jerusalem.

5 She-mai'ah<sup>f</sup> the prophet came to Re-ho-bo'am and the princes of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shi'shak, and he said to them: "This is what Jehovah says, 'You have abandoned me, so I have also abandoned you<sup>g</sup> to the hand of Shi'shak.'" 6 At that the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves<sup>h</sup> and said: "Jehovah is righteous." 7 When Jehovah saw that they had humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to She-mai'ah, saying: "They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them,<sup>i</sup> and in a little while I will rescue them. I will not pour out my wrath on Jerusalem through Shi'shak. 8 But they will become his servants, so that they will know the difference between serving me and serving the kings<sup>a</sup> of other lands.”

9 So King Shi’sak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem. He took the treasures of the house of Jehovah<sup>a</sup> and the treasures of the king’s house.<sup>b</sup> He took everything, including the gold shields that Sol’o·mon had made.<sup>b</sup> 10 So King Re-ho-bo’am made copper shields to replace them, and he entrusted them to the chiefs of the guard,<sup>c</sup> who guarded the entrance of the king’s house. 11 Whenever the king came to the house of Jehovah, the guards would come in and carry them, and then they would return them to the guard chamber. 12 Because the king humbled himself, Jehovah’s anger turned away from him,<sup>c</sup> and he did not destroy them completely.<sup>d</sup> Moreover, there were some good things found in Judah.<sup>e</sup>

13 King Re-ho-bo’am strengthened his position in Jerusalem and continued to reign; Re-ho-bo’am was 41 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 17 years in Jerusalem, the city that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel as the place to put his name. The name of the king’s mother was Na’ama the Am’mon-it-ess.<sup>f</sup> 14 But he did what was bad, for he had not resolved in his heart to search for Jehovah.<sup>g</sup>

15 As for Re-ho-bo’am’s history, from beginning to end, is it not written among the words of She-mai’ah<sup>h</sup> the prophet and of Id’do<sup>i</sup> the visionary in the genealogical record? And there were constant wars between Re-ho-bo’am and Jer-o-bo’am.<sup>j</sup> 16 Then Re-ho-bo’am was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried in the City of David;<sup>k</sup> and his son A·bi’jah<sup>a</sup> became king in his place.

13 In the 18th year of King Jer-o-bo’am, A·bi’jah became king over Judah.<sup>b</sup> 2 He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Mi-cai’ah<sup>c</sup> the daughter of Uri’el of Gib’e·ah.<sup>d</sup> And there was war between A·bi’jah and Jer-o-bo’am.<sup>e</sup>

3 So A·bi’jah went to war with an army of 400,000 mighty, trained<sup>e</sup> warriors.<sup>f</sup> And Jer-o-bo’am drew up in battle formation against him with 800,000 trained<sup>e</sup> men, mighty warriors. 4 A·bi’jah now stood on Mount Zem-a·ra’im, which is in the mountainous region of E’phra-im, and said: “Hear me, O Jer-o-bo’am and all Israel. 5 Do you not know that Jehovah the God of Israel gave to David a kingdom over Israel forever,<sup>g</sup> to him and to his sons,<sup>h</sup> by a covenant of salt?<sup>*i</sup> 6 But Jer-o-bo-am<sup>j</sup> the son of Ne’bat, the servant of David’s son Sol’o·mon, rose up and rebelled against his lord.<sup>k</sup> 7 And idle, worthless men kept gathering to him. And they proved superior to Re-ho-bo’am the son of Sol’o·mon when Re-ho-bo’am was young and fainthearted, and he could not hold his own against them.

8 “And now you think you can hold your own against the kingdom of Jehovah in the hand of the sons of David because you are a large crowd and you have the golden calves that Jer-o-bo’am made as gods for you.<sup>l</sup> 9 Have you not driven out Jehovah’s priests,<sup>m</sup> the descendants of Aaron, and the Levites, and have you not appointed your own priests just like the peoples of the other lands?<sup>n</sup> Any-one who came along with* a young bull and seven rams could become a priest of what are not gods. 10 As for us, Jehovah is our God,<sup>a</sup> and we have not abandoned him; our priests, the descendants of Aaron, are ministering to Jehovah, and the Levites assist in the work. 11 They are making burnt offerings smoke to Jehovah each morning and each evening<sup>b</sup> along with perfumed incense,<sup>c</sup> and the layer bread<sup>*d</sup> is on the table of pure gold, and they light up the golden lampstand<sup>e</sup> and its lamps each evening,<sup>f</sup> because we are caring for our responsibility to Jehovah our God; but you have abandoned him. 12 Now look! the true God is with us, leading us, with his priests and the signal trumpets for sounding the battle alarm against you. O men of Israel, do not fight against Jehovah the God of your forefathers, for you will not be successful."<sup>g</sup>

13 But Jer-o-bo'am dispatched an ambush to come from behind them, so that they were in front of Judah and the ambush was behind them. 14 When the men of Judah turned around, they saw that they had to fight the battle both in front and from behind. So they began to cry out to Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> while the priests were loudly sounding the trumpets. 15 The men of Judah broke out in a war cry, and when the men of Judah shouted the war cry, the true God defeated Jer-o-bo'am and all Israel before A-bi'jah and Judah. 16 The Israelites fled before Judah, and God gave them into their hand. 17 A-bi'jah and his people inflicted a great slaughter on them, and the slain of Israel kept falling, 500,000 trained*

men. 18 Thus the men of Israel were humbled at that time, but the men of Judah proved superior because they relied* on Jehovah the God of their forefathers.<sup>a</sup> 19 A-bi'jah kept chasing after Jer-o-bo'am and captured cities from him, Beth-el<sup>b</sup> and its dependent* towns, Jesh'a-nah and its dependent towns, and E'phra-in<sup>c</sup> and its dependent towns. 20 And Jer-o-bo'am never regained his power during the time of A-bi'jah; then Jehovah struck him down and he died.<sup>d</sup>

21 But A-bi'jah grew in strength. In time he took 14 wives,<sup>e</sup> and he became father to 22 sons and 16 daughters. 22 And the rest of A-bi'jah's history, his deeds and his words, is recorded in the writings* of the prophet Id'do.<sup>f</sup>

14 Then A-bi'jah was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the City of David;<sup>g</sup> and his son A'sa became king in his place. In his days the land had rest for ten years.

2 A'sa did what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. 3 He removed the foreign altars<sup>h</sup> and the high places, smashed the sacred pillars,<sup>i</sup> and cut down the sacred poles.*<sup>j</sup> 4 Further, he told Judah to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers and to observe the Law and the commandment.

5 So he removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense stands,<sup>k</sup> and under him, the kingdom continued without disturbance. 6 He built fortified cities in Judah,<sup>l</sup> since the land had no disturbance and there was no war against him during these years, for Jehovah gave him rest.<sup>a</sup> 7 He said to Judah: "Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers,<sup>b</sup> gates* and bars. For the land is still at our disposal, because we have searched for Jehovah our God. We have searched, and he has given us rest all around." So their building was successful.<sup>c</sup>

8 A'sa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah, equipped with large shields and lances. And out of Benjamin were 280,000 mighty warriors who carried bucklers* and were armed with bows.<sup>#d</sup>

9 Later Ze'rah the E-thi-o'pi-an came against them with an army of 1,000,000 men and 300 chariots.<sup>e</sup> When he reached Ma-re'shah,<sup>f</sup> 10 A'sa went out against him and they drew up in battle formation in the Valley of Zeph'a-thah at Ma-re'shah. 11 A'sa then called to Jehovah his God<sup>g</sup> and said: "O Jehovah, it does not matter to you whether those you help are many or have no power.<sup>h</sup> Help us, O Jehovah our God, for we are relying* on you,<sup>i</sup> and in your name we have come against this crowd.<sup>j</sup> O Jehovah, you are our God. Do not let mortal man prevail against you."<sup>k</sup>

12 So Jehovah defeated the E-thi-o'pi-ans before A'sa and before Judah, and the E-thi-o'pi-ans fled.<sup>l</sup> 13 A'sa and the people with him pursued them as far as Ge'rar,<sup>m</sup> and the E-thi-o'pi-ans continued falling until not one of them was alive, for they were crushed by Jehovah and by his army. Afterward they carried off a very great deal of spoil. 14 Further, they struck all the cities around Ge'rar, for the dread of Jehovah had come upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was much to plunder in them. 15 They also attacked the tents of those with livestock, and they captured a great number of flocks and camels, after which they returned to Jerusalem.

15 Now the spirit of God came upon Az-a-ri'ah the son of O'ded. 2 So he went out to meet A'sa and said to him: "Hear me, O A'sa and all Judah and Benjamin! Jehovah is with you as long as you remain with him;<sup>a</sup> and if you search for him, he will let himself be found by you,<sup>b</sup> but if you abandon him, he will abandon you.<sup>c</sup> 3 For a long time* Israel had been without the true God, without a priest teaching, and without law.<sup>d</sup> 4 But when in their distress they returned to Jehovah the God of Israel and searched for him, he let himself be found by them.<sup>e</sup> 5 In those times no one could travel safely,* for there was much unrest among all the inhabitants of the lands. 6 Nation was being crushed by nation and one city by another city, because God kept them in disorder with every sort of distress.<sup>f</sup> 7 But you, be strong and do not become discouraged,*<sup>g</sup> for your activity will be rewarded."

8 As soon as A'sa heard these words and the prophecy of O'ded the prophet, he took courage and removed the disgusting idols from all the land of Judah<sup>h</sup> and Benjamin and from the cities that he had captured from the mountainous region of E'phraim, and he restored Jehovah's altar that was before the porch of

4 Ben-ha'dad listened to King A'sa and sent the chiefs of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they struck down I'jon,<sup>h</sup> Dan,<sup>i</sup> A'bel-ma'im, and all the storage places of the cities of Naph'ta-li.<sup>j</sup> 5 When Ba'a-sha heard of it, he immediately quit building* Ra'mah and abandoned his work on it. 6 King A'sa then took all Judah, and they carried off the stones and timbers of Ra'mah<sup>k</sup> that Ba'a-sha had been building with,<sup>l</sup> and with them he built up* Ge'ba<sup>m</sup> and Miz'pah.<sup>n</sup>

7 At that time Ha-na'ni<sup>o</sup> the seer came to King A'sa of Ju-dah and said to him: “Because you relied* on the king of Sy-ria and did not rely<sup>p</sup> on Jehovah your God, the army of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand.<sup>p</sup> 8 Were not the E-thi-o-pi-ans and the Lib'y-ans a very great army with many chariots

10 However, A'sa became offended at the seer and put him in prison* because he was enraged at him over this. And A'sa began to mistreat others among the people at that same time. 11 Now the history of A'sa, from beginning to end, is written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.<sup>e</sup>

12 In the 39th year of his reign, A'sa developed an ailment in his feet until he became very sick; and even in his sickness, he turned, not to Jehovah, but to the healers. 13 Then A'sa was laid to rest with his forefathers;<sup>f</sup> he died in the 41st year of his reign. 14 So they buried him in the grand burial place that he had excavated for himself in the City of David,<sup>g</sup> and they laid him on a bier that had been filled with balsam oil and different sorts of ingredients mixed into a specially made ointment.<sup>h</sup> Further, they made an extraordinarily great funeral burning for him.*

17 And his son Je-hosh'a-phat<sup>i</sup> became king in his place, and he strengthened his position over Israel. 2 He stationed military forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and put garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of E'phraim that A'sa his father had captured.<sup>a</sup> 3 Jehovah continued with Je-hosh'a-phat because he walked in the former ways of his forefather David<sup>b</sup> and did not search for the Ba'als. 4 For he searched for the God of his father<sup>c</sup> and followed* his commandment and not the practices of Israel.<sup>d</sup> 5 Jehovah kept the kingdom firmly established in his hand;<sup>e</sup> and all Judah continued to give gifts to Je-hosh'a-phat, and he had riches and glory in abundance.<sup>f</sup> 6 His heart became bold in the ways of Jehovah, and he even removed the high places<sup>g</sup> and the sacred poles<sup>h</sup> from Judah.

7 In the third year of his reign he sent for his princes, Ben-ha'il, O-ba-di'ah, Zech-a-ri'-ah, Ne-than'el, and Mi-ca'i'ah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

8 There were Levites with them: She-mai'ah, Neth-a-ni'ah, Zeb-a-di'ah, As'a-hel, She-mir'a-moth, Je-hon'a-than, Ad-o-ni'jah, To-bi'-jah, and Tob-ad-o-ni'jah, and along with them E-lish'a-ma and Je-ho'ram the priests.<sup>i</sup> 9 They began teaching in Judah, taking with them the book of Jehovah's Law,<sup>j</sup> and they went around through all the cities of Judah teaching among the people.

10 And the dread of Jehovah came upon all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, and they did not fight against Je-hosh'a-phat. 11 And the Phi-lis'tines brought to Je-hosh'a-phat gifts and money as tribute. The Arabs brought him 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats from their flocks.

12 Je-hosh'a-phat grew greater and greater,<sup>k</sup> and he continued building fortified places<sup>l</sup> and storage cities<sup>m</sup> in Judah. 13 He carried out extensive projects in the cities of Judah, and he had soldiers, mighty warriors, in Jerusalem. 14 These were grouped by their paternal houses: of Judah the chiefs of thousands, Ad'nah the chief, and with him were 300,000 mighty warriors.<sup>a</sup> 15 And under his command was Je-ho-ha'nan the chief, and with him were 280,000. 16 And also under his command was Am-a-si'ah the son of Zich'ri, who volunteered for Jehovah's service, and with him were 200,000 mighty warriors. 17 And out of Benjamin<sup>b</sup> was E-li'a-da, a mighty warrior, and with him were 200,000 men equipped with the bow and shield.<sup>c</sup> 18 And under his command was Je-hoz'a-bad, and with him were 180,000 men equipped for the army. 19 These were ministering to the king in addition to those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.<sup>d</sup>

18 Je-hosh'a-phat had riches and glory in abundance,<sup>e</sup> but he made a marriage alliance with A'hab.<sup>f</sup> 2 So years later he went down to A'hab at Sa-mar'i-a,<sup>g</sup> and A'hab sacrificed sheep and cattle in abundance for him and for the people with him. And he urged* him to go up against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad.<sup>h</sup> 3 Then King A'hab of Israel said to King Je-hosh'a-phat of Judah: "Will you go with me to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?" He replied to him: "I am the same as you, and my people are the same as your people and will support you in the war."

4 But Je-hosh'a-phat said to the king of Israel: "First inquire, please, for the word of Jehovah."<sup>i</sup> 5 So the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, 400 men, and said to them: "Should we go to war against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad, or should I re-

6 Je-hosh'a-phat then said: "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah?<sup>a</sup> Let us also inquire through him."<sup>b</sup> 7 At that the king of Israel said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "There is still one more man<sup>c</sup> through whom we can inquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good things concerning me, but always bad.<sup>d</sup> He is Mi-cai'ah the son of Im'lah." However, Je-hosh'a-phat said: "The king should not say such a thing."

8 So the king of Israel called a court official and said: "Bring Mi-cai'ah the son of Im'lah quickly."<sup>e</sup> 9 Now the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah were each sitting on his throne, dressed in royal attire; they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Sa-mar'i-a, and all the prophets were prophesying before them. 10 Then Zed-e-ki'ah the son of Che-na'a-nah made for himself iron horns and said: "This is what Jehovah says, 'With these you will gore* the Syrians until you exterminate them.'" 11 All the other prophets were prophesying the same way, saying: "Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad and you will be successful;<sup>f</sup> Jehovah will give it into the king's hand."

12 So the messenger who went to call Mi-cai'ah said to him: "Look! The words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. Let your word, please, become like theirs,<sup>g</sup> and speak favorably."<sup>h</sup> 13 But Mi-cai'ah said: "As surely as Jehovah is living, whatever my God says is what I will speak."<sup>i</sup> 14 Then he came in to the king, and the king asked him:

"Mi·cai'ah, should we go to war against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad, or should I refrain?" At once he replied: "Go up and you will be successful; they will be given into your hand." 15 At that the king said to him: "How many times must I put you under oath not to speak to me anything but the truth in the name of Jehovah?" 16 So he said: "I see all the Israelites scattered on the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd.<sup>a</sup> Jehovah said: 'These have no master. Let each one go back to his house in peace."

17 Then the king of Israel said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "Did I not tell you, 'He will not prophesy good things concerning me, only bad'?"<sup>b</sup>

18 Mi·cai'ah then said: "Therefore, hear the word of Jehovah: I saw Jehovah sitting on his throne<sup>c</sup> and all the army of the heavens<sup>d</sup> standing at his right and at his left.<sup>e</sup> 19 Jehovah then said, 'Who will fool King A'hab of Israel, so that he will go up and fall at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?' And one was saying one thing while another said something else. 20 Then a spirit* came forward and stood before Jehovah and said, 'I will fool him.' Jehovah asked him, 'How will you do it?' 21 He replied, 'I will go out and become a deceptive spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' So he said, 'You will fool him, and what is more, you will be successful. Go out and do that.' 22 And now Jehovah has put a deceptive spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours,<sup>g</sup> but Jehovah has declared calamity for you."

23 Zed-e-ki'i'ah<sup>h</sup> the son of Che-na'a-nah now approached and struck Mi·cai'ah<sup>i</sup> on the cheek<sup>j</sup> and said: "Which way did

You will see which way on the day when you will enter the innermost room to hide." 25 Then the king of Israel said: "Take Mi·cai'ah and turn him over to A'mon the chief of the city and to Jo'ash the king's son. 26 Tell them, 'This is what the king says: "Put this fellow in the prison<sup>b</sup> and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread and water until I return in peace.'"'" 27 But Mi·cai'ah said: "If you do return in peace, Jehovah has not spoken with me."<sup>c</sup> Then he added: "Take note, all you peoples."

28 So the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Ju-dah went up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad.<sup>d</sup>

29 The king of Israel now said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "I will disguise myself and will go into the battle, but you should put on your royal attire." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they entered the battle. 30 Now the king of Syria had ordered his chariot commanders: "Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel." 31 And as soon as the chariot commanders saw Je-hosh'a-phat, they said to themselves: "It is the king of Israel." So they turned to fight against him; and Je-hosh'a-phat began to cry for help,<sup>e</sup> and Jehovah helped him, and God at once diverted them from him. 32 When the chariot commanders saw that it was not the king of Israel, they immediately turned back from following him.

33 But one man shot his bow at random,* and he struck the king of Israel between the joints of his coat of mail. So the king said to his chariot-er: "Turn around and take me out of the battle," for I have been badly wounded.”<sup>a</sup> 34 The fighting raged throughout that day, and the king of Israel had to be propped up in the chariot, facing the Syrians until the evening; and he died at sunset.<sup>b</sup>

19 Then King Je-hosh'a-phat of Judah returned safely<sup>c</sup> to his own house<sup>d</sup> in Jerusalem. 2 Je'hu<sup>e</sup> the son of Hana'ni<sup>e</sup> the visionary went out to meet him and said to King Je-hosh'a-phat: “Is it the wicked you should be helping,<sup>f</sup> and is it those who hate Jehovah you should love?<sup>g</sup> Because of this the indignation of Jehovah is against you. 3 Nevertheless, there are good things that have been found in you,<sup>h</sup> because you cleared out the sacred poles<sup>i</sup> from the land and you have prepared your heart<sup>j</sup> to search for the true God.”<sup>k</sup>

4 Je-hosh'a-phat continued living in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people from Be'er-she'ba to the mountainous region of E'phra-im,<sup>l</sup> to bring them back to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.<sup>k</sup> 5 He also appointed judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.<sup>m</sup> 6 And he said to the judges: “Pay attention to what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for Jehovah, and he is with you when you pass judgment.”<sup>n</sup> 7 Now let the fear of Jehovah be upon you.<sup>n</sup> Be careful about what you do, for with Jehovah our God there is no injustice,<sup>o</sup> no partiality,<sup>p</sup> no bribe-taking.”<sup>q</sup>

8 In Jerusalem also, Je-hosh'a-phat appointed some of the Levites and the priests and some of the heads of the paternal houses of Israel to serve as judges for Jehovah and to settle legal cases for the inhabitants of Jerusalem.<sup>a</sup> 9 And he commanded them: “This is what you should do in the fear of Jehovah, with faithfulness and a complete* heart: 10 Whenever your brothers living in their cities bring a legal case that involves the shedding of blood<sup>b</sup> or a question about a law, a commandment, regulations, or judgments, you should warn them so that they may not become guilty before Jehovah; otherwise his indignation will come against you and your brothers. This is what you should do, so that you may not incur guilt. 11 Here is Am-a-ri'ah the chief priest who is over you for every matter of Jehovah.<sup>c</sup> Zeb-a-di'ah the son of Ish'ma-el is the leader of the house of Judah for every matter pertaining to the king. And the Levites will serve as officers for you. Be strong and act, and let Jehovah be with those who do what is good.”<sup>*d</sup>

20 Afterward the Mo'ab-ites<sup>e</sup> and the Am'mon-ites,<sup>f</sup> together with some of the Am'mon-im,* came to wage war against Je-hosh'a-phat. 2 So Je-hosh'a-phat was told: “A large crowd has come against you from the region of the sea,* from E'dom,<sup>g</sup> and there they are in Haz'a-zon-ta'mar, that is, Enged'i.”<sup>h</sup> 3 At that Je-hosh'a-phat became afraid, and he resolved* to search for Jehovah.<sup>i</sup> So he proclaimed a fast for all Judah. 4 The people of Judah then gathered together to inquire of Jehovah;<sup>j</sup> they came from all the cities of Judah to consult Jehovah.

5 Then Je-hosh'a-phat stood up in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem in the house of Jehovah before the new court-yard, 6 and he said:

"O Jehovah the God of our forefathers, are you not God in the heavens;<sup>a</sup> do you not have dominion over all the kingdoms of the nations?<sup>b</sup> In your hand are power and might, and no one can stand against you.<sup>c</sup> 7 O our God, did you not drive away the inhabitants of this land from before your people Israel and then give it as a lasting possession to the offspring* of your friend Abraham?<sup>d</sup> 8 And they settled in it, and they built for you there a sanctuary for your name,<sup>e</sup> saying, 9 'If disaster should come on us, whether by sword, adverse judgment, pestilence, or famine, let us stand before this house and before you (for your name is in this house)<sup>f</sup> and call to you for help out of our distress, and may you hear and save us.'<sup>g</sup> 10 Now here are the men of Am'mon, Mo'ab, and the mountainous region of Se'ir,<sup>h</sup> whom you did not allow Israel to invade when they came out of the land of Egypt. They turned away from them and did not annihilate them.<sup>i</sup> 11 Now they are repaying us by coming in to drive us out from your possession that you gave us as an inheritance.<sup>j</sup> 12 O our God, will you not execute judgment on them?<sup>k</sup> For we are powerless before this large crowd that is coming against us; and we do not know what we should do,<sup>l</sup> but our eyes are toward you."<sup>m</sup>

13 Meanwhile, all those of Judah were standing before Jehovah, along with their little ones, their wives, and their children.*

14 Then in the middle of the congregation, the spirit of Jehovah came upon Ja-ha-z'i-el son of Zech-a-ri'ah son of Be-nai'ah son of Je-i'el son of Mat-ta-ni'ah the Levite of the sons of A'saph.

15 He said: "Pay attention, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Je-hosh'a-phat! Here is what Jehovah says to you, 'Do not be afraid or be terrified because of this large crowd, for the battle is not yours but God's.* 16 Tomorrow go down against them. 18 At once Je-hosh'a-phat bowed low with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Jehovah to worship Jehovah. 19 Then the Levites who were descendants of the Ko-hath-ites<sup>f</sup> and the Kor'ah-ites rose up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with a very loud voice.<sup>g</sup>

20 They rose up early the next morning and went out to the wilderness of Te-ko'a.<sup>h</sup> As they went out, Je-hosh'a-phat stood up and said: "Listen to me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Put faith in Jehovah your God so that you may be able to stand firm.* Put faith in his prophets,<sup>i</sup> and you will be successful."

21 After he consulted with the people, he appointed men to sing<sup>j</sup> to Jehovah and to offer praise in holy adornment as they went out ahead of the armed

22 When they began joyfully singing praises, Jehovah set an ambush against the men of Am'mon, Mo'ab, and the mountainous region of Se'ir who were invading Judah, and they struck each other down.<sup>b</sup> 23 And the Am'mon-ites and the Mo'ab-ites turned against the inhabitants of the mountainous region of Se'ir<sup>c</sup> to destroy and annihilate them; and when they finished with the inhabitants of Se'ir, they helped to destroy one another.<sup>d</sup>

24 But when Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness<sup>e</sup> and looked toward the crowd, there they saw their carcasses fallen to the ground; there were no survivors. 25 So Je-hosh'a-phat and his people came to carry off the spoil from them, and they found among them an abundance of goods, clothing, and desirable articles, which they stripped off for themselves until they could carry no more.<sup>g</sup> It took three days to carry off the spoil, for it was abundant. 26 On the fourth day they congregated together at the Valley<sup>h</sup> of Ber'a-cah, for there they praised<sup>i</sup> Jehovah. That is why they named that place Valley of Ber'a-cah<sup>h</sup>—until today.

against the enemies of Israel.<sup>a</sup> 30 Thus the kingdom of Je-hosh'a-phat had no disturbance, and his God continued to give him rest on every side.<sup>b</sup>

31 And Je-hosh'a-phat continued reigning over Judah. He was 35 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was A-zu'bah the daughter of Shil'hi.<sup>c</sup> 32 He kept walking in the way of his father A'sa.<sup>d</sup> He did not deviate from it, and he did what was right in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>e</sup> 33 However, the high places were not removed,<sup>f</sup> and the people had not yet prepared their heart for the God of their forefathers.<sup>g</sup>

34 As for the rest of the history of Je-hosh'a-phat, from beginning to end, there it is written among the words of Je'-hu<sup>h</sup> the son of Ha-na'ni,<sup>i</sup> which were included in the Book of the Kings of Israel. 35 After this King Je-hosh'a-phat of Judah made an alliance with King Aha-z'i'ah of Israel, who acted wickedly.<sup>j</sup> 36 So he made him his partner in making ships to go to Tar'shish,<sup>k</sup> and they built the ships in E'zi-on-ge'ber.<sup>l</sup> 37 However, E-li'e'zer the son of Dod-av'a-hu of Ma-re'sha spoke prophetically against Je-hosh'a-phat, saying: "Because you have made an alliance with A-ha-z'i'ah, Jehovah will destroy your works."<sup>m</sup> So the ships were wrecked,<sup>n</sup> and they were unable to go to Tar'shish.

21 Then Je-hosh'a-phat was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David; and his son Je-ho'ram became king in his place.<sup>o</sup> 2 His brothers, Je-hosh'a-phat's sons, were Aza-ri'ah, Je-hi'el, Zech-a-ri'ah, Aza-ri'ah, Mi'cha-el, and Sheph-a-ti'ah; all of these were the sons of King Je-hosh'a-phat of Israel. 3 And their father had given them many gifts in silver and gold, and valuable things, along with fortified cities in Judah;<sup>a</sup> but he gave the kingdom to Je-ho'ram,<sup>b</sup> for he was the first-born.

4 When Je-ho'ram had taken control of the kingdom of his father, he strengthened his position by killing all his brothers<sup>c</sup> with the sword, as well as some of the princes of Israel. 5 Je-ho'ram was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.<sup>d</sup> 6 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel,<sup>e</sup> just as those of the house of A'hab had done, for A'hab's daughter had become his wife;<sup>f</sup> and he kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. 7 But Jehovah did not want to bring the house of David to ruin for the sake of the covenant that he had made with David,<sup>g</sup> since he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons always.<sup>h</sup>

8 In his days E'dom revolted against Judah<sup>i</sup> and then set up its own king.<sup>j</sup> 9 So Je-ho'ram and his commanders crossed over with all his chariots, and he rose up by night and defeated the E'dom-ites who were surrounding him and the chariot commanders. 10 But E'dom has kept up its revolt against Judah to this day. Lib'nah<sup>k</sup> also revolted against him at that time, because he had abandoned Jehovah the God of his forefathers.<sup>l</sup> 11 He had also made high places<sup>m</sup> on the mountains of Judah to cause the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit spiritual prostitution, and he led Judah astray.

12 Eventually a written message came to him from E-li'-jah<sup>n</sup> the prophet, saying: "This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather says, 'You have not walked in the ways of your father Je-hosh'a-phat<sup>a</sup> or in the ways of King A'sa<sup>b</sup> of Judah. 13 But you walk in the way of the kings of Israel<sup>c</sup> and cause Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit spiritual prostitution<sup>d</sup> like the prostitution of the house of A'hab,<sup>e</sup> and you even killed your own brothers,<sup>f</sup> the household of your father, who were better than you. 14 Therefore, Jehovah is dealing a great blow to your people, to your sons, to your wives, and to all your possessions. 15 And you will suffer with many sicknesses, including a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out because of the disease, day after day."

16 Then Jehovah stirred up<sup>g</sup> against Je-ho'ram the Phi-lis-tines<sup>h</sup> and the Arabs<sup>i</sup> who were near the E-thi-o'pi-ans. 17 So they invaded Judah, forcing their way in, and carried off all the possessions that were found in the king's house,<sup>j</sup> as well as his sons and his wives; and the only son left to him was Je-ho'a-haz,<sup>k</sup> his youngest son. 18 And after all of this, Jehovah afflicted him with an incurable disease in his intestines.<sup>l</sup> 19 Some time later, when two full years had passed, his intestines came out because of his disease, and he died while suffering severely from his disease; and his people did not make a burning for him like the burning that was made for his forefathers.<sup>m</sup> 20 He was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem. No one regretted it when he died. So they buried him in the City of David,<sup>n</sup> but not in the burial places of the kings.<sup>o</sup>

21:16 *Lit., "the spirit of the Philistines." 21:17 *Or "palace." <sup>o</sup>Also called Ahaziah.

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made his youngest son A·ha·zi'ah king in his place, for the marauder band that came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older ones.<sup>a</sup> So A·ha·zi'ah the son of Je·ho'ram began to reign as king of Judah.<sup>b</sup> 2 A·ha·zi'ah was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ath·a·li'ah<sup>c</sup> the granddaughter* of Om'ri.<sup>d</sup>

3 He too walked in the ways of the house of A'hab,<sup>e</sup> for his mother became his adviser in acting wickedly. 4 And he kept doing what was bad in Je-hovah's eyes, like the house of A'hab, for they became his advisers after the death of his father, to his destruction. 5 He followed their advice and went with Je·ho'ram the son of King A'hab of Israel to wage war against King Haz'a-el<sup>f</sup> of Syria at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad,<sup>g</sup> where the archers wounded Je·ho'ram. 6 He returned to Jez'reel<sup>h</sup> to recover from the wounds that they had inflicted on him at Ra'mah when he fought against King Haz'a-el of Syria.<sup>i</sup>

A·ha·zi'ah* the son of Je·ho'ram<sup>j</sup> the king of Judah went down to Jez'reel to see Je·ho'ram<sup>k</sup> the son of A'hab, because he had been wounded.<sup>l</sup> 7 But God brought about the downfall of A·ha·zi'ah by his coming to Je·ho'ram; and when he came, he went out with Je·ho'ram to meet Je'hū<sup>m</sup> the grandson* of Nim'shi, whom Jehovah had anointed to do away with<sup>n</sup> the house of A'hab.<sup>o</sup> 8 When Je'hū began to execute judgment on the house of A'hab, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of A·ha·zi'ah's brothers, ministers of A·ha·zi'ah, and he killed them.<sup>a</sup> 9 Then he looked for A·ha·zi'ah; they captured him where he was hiding in Sa·mar'i-a, and they brought him to Je'hū. Then they put him to death and buried him,<sup>b</sup> for they said: "He is the grandson of Je-hosh'a-phat, who searched for Jehovah with all his heart."<sup>c</sup> There was no one of the house of A·ha·zi'ah who had the power to rule the kingdom.

10 When Ath·a·li'ah,<sup>d</sup> A·ha·zi'ah's mother, saw that her son had died, she rose up and destroyed the entire royal line* of the house of Judah.<sup>e</sup> 11 However, Je·ho·shab'e-ath the daughter of the king took Je·ho'ash<sup>f</sup> the son of A·ha·zi'ah and stole him away from among the sons of the king who were to be put to death, and she put him and his nurse in an inner bedroom. Je·ho·shab'e-ath the daughter of King Je·ho'ram<sup>g</sup> (she was the wife of Je·hoi'a-da<sup>h</sup> the priest and a sister of A·ha·zi'ah) managed to keep him concealed from Ath·a·li'ah, so that she did not put him to death.<sup>i</sup> 12 He remained with them for six years, hidden at the house of the true God, while Ath·a·li'ah was ruling over the land.

23 In the seventh year, Je·hoi'a-da acted courageously and made a pact* with the chiefs of hundreds,<sup>j</sup> namely, Az·a·ri'ah the son of Je·ro'ham, Ish·ma-el the son of Je·ho·ha'nān, Az·a·ri'ah the son of O'bed, Ma·a-sei'ah the son of A·dai'ah, and E·li·sha'phat the son of Zich'ri. 2 Then they went throughout Judah and gathered together the Levites<sup>k</sup> from all the cities of Judah and the heads of the paternal houses of Israel. When they came to Jerusalem, 3 the entire congregation made a covenant<sup>a</sup> with the king in the house of the true God, after which he said to them:

"Look! The king's son will reign, just as Jehovah promised concerning the sons of David.<sup>b</sup> 4 This is what you are to do: One third of the priests and of the Levites who will be on duty<sup>c</sup> on the Sabbath will be door-keepers;<sup>d</sup> 5 another third will be at the house<sup>e</sup> of the king,<sup>f</sup> and the other third will be at the Gate of the Foundation, and all the people will be in the courtyards of the house of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 6 Do not let anyone enter the house of Jehovah except the priests and the Levites who are ministering.<sup>g</sup> These may enter because they are a holy group, and all the people will keep the obligation to Jehovah. 7 The Levites must surround the king on every side, each with his weapons in hand. Anyone entering the house will be put to death. Stay with the king wherever he goes."<sup>h</sup>

8 The Levites and all Judah did exactly what Je-hoi'a-da the priest had commanded. So each one took his men who were on duty on the Sabbath, together with those who were off duty on the Sabbath,<sup>h</sup> for Je-hoi'a-da the priest had not dismissed the divisions<sup>i</sup> from their duty. 9 Je-hoi'a-da the priest then gave the chiefs of hundreds<sup>j</sup> the spears and the bucklers<sup>k</sup> and the circular shields that had belonged to King David,<sup>k</sup> which were in the house of the true God.<sup>l</sup> 10 He then stationed all the people, each with his weapon<sup>m</sup> in hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, all around the king. 11 Then they brought the king's son<sup>a</sup> out and put on him the crown* and the Testimony<sup>#b</sup> and made him king, and Je-hoi'a-da and his sons anointed him. Then they said: "Long live the king!"<sup>c</sup>

12 When Ath-a-li'ah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she immediately came to the people at the house of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 13 Then she saw the king standing there by his pillar at the entrance. The princes<sup>e</sup> and the trumpeters were with the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing<sup>f</sup> and blowing the trumpets, and the singers with musical instruments were leading<sup>g</sup> the praises. At this Ath-a-li'ah ripped her garments apart and cried out: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!"

14 But Je-hoi'a-da the priest brought out the chiefs of hundreds, those appointed over the army, and said to them: "Take her out from among the ranks, and if anyone follows her, put him to death with the sword!" For the priest had said: "Do not put her to death in the house of Jehovah." 15 So they seized her, and when she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king's house,<sup>h</sup> they immediately put her to death there.

16 Then Je-hoi'a-da made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king, that they would continue as the people of Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> 17 After that all the people came to the house<sup>i</sup> of Ba'al and tore it down,<sup>h</sup> and they smashed his altars and his images,<sup>j</sup> and they killed Mat'tan the priest of Ba'al/in front of the altars. 18 Then Je-hoi'a-da put the oversight of the house of Jehovah in the hands of the priests and the Levites, whom David had assigned in divisions over the house of Jehovah to offer up the burnt sacrifices of Jehovah<sup>a</sup> according to what is written in the Law of Moses,<sup>b</sup> with rejoicing and with song, as directed by<sup>c</sup> David. 19 He also stationed the gate-keepers<sup>c</sup> by the gates of the house of Jehovah, so that no one unclean in any respect could enter. 20 He now took the chiefs of hundreds,<sup>d</sup> the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land and escorted the king down from the house of Jehovah. Then they came through the upper gate to the king's house<sup>e</sup> and seated the king on the throne<sup>e</sup> of the kingdom.<sup>f</sup> 21 So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet, for they had put Ath-a-li'ah to death with the sword.

24 Je-ho'ash was seven years old when he became king,<sup>g</sup> and he reigned for 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zib'i-ah from Be'er-she'ba.<sup>h</sup> 2 Je-ho'ash continued doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes all the days of Je-hoi'a-da the priest.<sup>i</sup> 3 Je-hoi'a-da chose two wives for him, and he became father to sons and daughters.

4 Afterward it was the heart's desire of Je-ho'ash to renovate the house of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 5 So he gathered the priests and the Levites together and said to them: "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of your God<sup>k</sup> from year to year; and you should act quickly in the matter." But the Levites did not act quickly.<sup>l</sup> 6 So the king called

Je-hoi'a-da the chief and said to him:<sup>a</sup> "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the sacred tax ordered by Moses<sup>b</sup> the servant of Jehovah, the sacred tax of the congregation of Israel, for the tent of the Testimony?<sup>c</sup> 7 For the sons of Ath-a-li'ah,<sup>d</sup> that wicked woman, had broken into the house of the true God,<sup>e</sup> and they had used all the holy things of the house of Jehovah for the Ba'al's."<sup>f</sup> 8 Then, at the king's order, a chest<sup>g</sup> was made and placed outside at the gate of the house of Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> 9 After that a proclamation was issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the sacred tax<sup>h</sup> that Moses the servant of the true God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness. 10 All the princes and all the people rejoiced,<sup>i</sup> and they kept bringing contributions and dropping them into the chest until it was full.*

11 Whenever the Levites brought the chest in to be turned over to the king and they saw that there was a great deal of money in it, the secretary of the king and the commissioner of the chief priest would come and empty the chest,<sup>j</sup> and then they would take it back to its place. That was what they did from day to day, and they gathered money in abundance. 12 Then the king and Je-hoi'a-da would give it to those supervising the work of the service of Jehovah's house, and they would hire the stonemasons and the craftsmen for renovating Jehovah's house,<sup>k</sup> and also workers in iron and copper to repair Jehovah's house. 13 And those supervising the work got it started, and the repair work progressed under their supervision, and they restored the house of the true God to its proper condition and reinforced it. 14 And as soon as they finished, they brought the money that was left over to the king and Je-hoi'a-da, and they used it to make utensils for the house of Jehovah, utensils for the ministry and for making offerings and cups and utensils of gold and of silver.<sup>a</sup> And they would offer up burnt sacrifices<sup>b</sup> at the house of Jehovah regularly all the days of Je-hoi'a-da.

15 When Je-hoi'a-da was old and satisfied with years, he died; he was 130 years old at his death. 16 So they buried him in the City of David along with the kings,<sup>c</sup> because he had done good in Israel<sup>d</sup> with respect to the true God and His house.

17 After Je-hoi'a-da's death the princes of Judah came and bowed down to the king, and the king listened to them. 18 They abandoned the house of Jehovah the God of their forefathers and began serving the sacred poles* and the idols, so that God's anger came<sup>e</sup> against Judah and Jerusalem because of their guilt. 19 He kept sending prophets among them to bring them back to Jehovah, and they kept warning* them, but they refused to listen.<sup>e</sup>

20 God's spirit came upon* Zech-a-ri'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da<sup>f</sup> the priest, and he stood above the people and said to them: "This is what the true God says, 'Why are you violating the commandments of Jehovah? 23 At the beginning of the year* the Syrian army came up against Je-ho'ash, and they invaded Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>c</sup> Then they did away with all the princes<sup>d</sup> of the people, and they sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus. 24 For although the invading Syrian army had a small number of men, Jehovah handed over to them a very large army,<sup>e</sup> because they had abandoned Jehovah the God of their forefathers; so they* executed judgment on Je-ho'ash.

25 And when they withdrew from him (for they left him severely wounded*), his own servants conspired against him because he had shed the blood of the sons<sup>g</sup> of Je-hoi'a-da<sup>f</sup> the priest. 27 Regarding his sons and the many pronouncements against him<sup>k</sup> and the renovation* of the house of the true God,<sup>l</sup> all these things are recorded in the writings<sup>m</sup> of the Book of the Kings. And his son Am-a-z'i'ah became king in his place.

5 And Am-a·zi'ah gathered Judah together and had them stand according to the paternal houses, by the chiefs of thousands and by the chiefs of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin.<sup>d</sup> He registered them from 20 years old and up,<sup>e</sup> and he found them to be 300,000 trained* warriors to serve in the army, able to handle the lance and the large shield. 6 Further, he hired from Israel 100,000 mighty warriors for 100 silver talents.* 7 But a man of the true God came to him, saying: "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel,<sup>f</sup> not with any of the E'phra-im-ites. 8 But go by yourself, act, and be courageous in battle. However, they were very angry with Judah, so they returned to their own place in the heat of anger.

11 Then Am-a·zi'ah took courage and led his own troops to the Valley of Salt,<sup>b</sup> and he struck down 10,000 men of Se'ir.<sup>c</sup> 12 And the men of Judah captured 10,000 alive. So they brought them to the top of the crag and threw them down from the top of the crag, and they were all dashed to pieces. 13 But the members of the troop whom Am-a·zi'ah had sent back from accompanying him to the war<sup>d</sup> were making raids on the cities of Judah, from Samar'i-a<sup>e</sup> clear to Beth-ho'ron;<sup>f</sup> they struck down 3,000 of them and took much spoil.

14 But after Am-a·zi'ah returned from striking down the E'dom-ites, he brought the gods of the men of Se'ir and set them up for himself as gods,<sup>g</sup> and he began to bow down before them and to make sacrificial smoke to them. 15 So Jehovah grew very angry with Am-a·zi'ah, and he sent a prophet who said to him: "Why are you following the people's gods that did not rescue their own people out of your hand?"<sup>h</sup> 16 As he spoke to him, the king said: "Did we appoint you as an adviser to the king?<sup>i</sup> Stop! Why should they strike you down?" Then the prophet quit, but he added: "I know that God has decided to bring you to ruin, because you have done this and you have not listened to my advice."<sup>k</sup> son of Je-ho'a-haz son of Je'hu the king of Israel, saying: "Come, let us confront each other in battle."<sup>a</sup> 18 King Je-ho'ash of Israel sent this message to King Am-a-z'i'ah of Judah: "The thorny weed in Leb'a-non sent a message to the cedar in Leb'a-non, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' However, a wild beast of Leb'a-non passed by and trampled down the thorny weed. 19 You have said, 'Look! I<sup>i</sup> have struck down E'dom.'<sup>b</sup> So your heart has become arrogant, wanting to be glorified. But now stay in your own house.<sup>c</sup> Why should you provoke disaster and fall, bringing Judah down with you?"

20 But Am-a-z'i'ah did not listen,<sup>c</sup> for this was from the true God to give them into the hand of the enemy,<sup>d</sup> because they had followed the gods of E'dom.<sup>e</sup> 21 So King Je-ho'ash of Israel went up, and he and King Am-a-z'i'ah of Judah confronted each other in battle at Beth-she'mesh,<sup>f</sup> which belongs to Judah. 22 Judah was defeated by Israel, so each one fled to his home.* 23 King Je-ho'ash of Israel captured King Am-a-z'i'ah of Judah, son of Je-ho'ash son of Je-ho'a-haz,* at Beth-she'mesh. Then he brought him to Jerusalem and made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of E'phra-im<sup>g</sup> to the Corner Gate,<sup>h</sup> 400 cubits.* 24 He took all the gold and the silver and all the articles that were found in the house of the true God with* O'bed-e'dom and in the treasuries of the king's house,<sup>h</sup> as well as hostages. 25 Am-a-z'i'ah<sup>a</sup> the son of Je-ho'ash the king of Judah lived for 15 years after the death of Je-ho'ash<sup>b</sup> the son of Je-ho'a-haz the king of Israel.<sup>c</sup> 26 As for the rest of the history of Am-a-z'i'ah, from beginning to end, look! is it not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel? 27 From the time that Am-a-z'i'ah turned away from following Jehovah, they formed a conspiracy<sup>d</sup> against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to La'chish, but they sent men after him to La'chish and put him to death there. 28 So they carried him back on horses and buried him with his forefathers in the city of Judah.

26 Then all the people of Judah took Uz-z'i'ah,<sup>e</sup> who was 16 years old, and made him king in place of his father Am-a-z'i'ah.<sup>f</sup> 2 He rebuilt E'loth<sup>g</sup> and restored it to Judah after the king* was laid to rest with his forefathers.<sup>h</sup> 3 Uz-z'i'ah<sup>i</sup> was 16 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je-co-li'ah of Jerusalem.<sup>j</sup> 4 He continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Am-a-z'i'ah had done.<sup>k</sup> 5 And he kept searching for God in the days of Zech-a-ri'ah, who taught him to fear the true God. During the time he was searching for Jehovah, the true God made him prosper.<sup>l</sup>

u'nim. 8 The Am'mon-ites<sup>a</sup> began to give tribute to Uz·zi'ah. His fame eventually spread as far as Egypt, for he became extremely powerful. 9 Moreover, Uz·zi'ah built towers<sup>b</sup> in Jerusalem by the Corner Gate,<sup>c</sup> the Valley Gate,<sup>d</sup> and the Buttress, and he fortified them. 10 Further, he built towers<sup>e</sup> in the wilderness and dug<sup>f</sup> many cisterns (for he had a great deal of livestock); he also did so in the Shephe'lah and on the plain.<sup>g</sup> He had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Car'mel, for he loved agriculture.

11 Moreover, Uz·zi'ah came to have an army equipped for war. They would go out on military campaigns, organized in divisions. They were numbered and registered<sup>h</sup> by Je'i-el the secretary<sup>i</sup> and Ma-a-sei'ah the officer, under the command of Han-a-ni'ah, one of the king's princes. 12 The entire number of the heads of the paternal houses who were over these mighty warriors was 2,600. 13 The armed forces under their command numbered 307,500 men ready for war, a powerful military force to support the king against the enemy.<sup>j</sup> 14 Uz·zi'ah equipped the entire army with shields, lances,<sup>k</sup> helmets, coats of mail,<sup>l</sup> bows, and slingstones.<sup>k</sup> 15 Further, in Jerusalem he made engines of war designed by engineers; they were set on the towers<sup>l</sup> and on the corners of the walls and could shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he received tremendous help and he became strong.

vah his God by entering the temple of Jehovah to burn incense on the altar of incense.<sup>a</sup> 17 Immediately Az-a-ri'ah the priest and 80 other courageous priests of Jehovah went in after him. 18 They confronted King Uz·zi'ah and said to him: "It is not proper for you, Uz·zi'ah, to burn incense to Jehovah!<sup>b</sup> It is only the priests who should burn incense, for they are the descendants of Aaron,<sup>c</sup> those who have been sanctified. Go out from the sanctuary, for you have acted unfaithfully and you will receive no glory from Jehovah God for this."

19 But Uz·zi'ah, who had a censer in his hand to burn incense, became enraged;<sup>d</sup> and during his rage against the priests, leprosy<sup>e</sup> broke out on his forehead in the presence of the priests in the house of Jehovah next to the altar of incense. 20 When Az-a-ri'ah the chief priest and all the priests turned toward him, they saw that he had been stricken with leprosy in his forehead! So they rushed him out of there, and he himself hurried out, because Jehovah had struck him.

21 King Uz·zi'ah remained a leper until the day of his death, and he kept staying in a separate house as a leper,<sup>f</sup> for he had been excluded from the house of Jehovah. His son Jo'tham was in charge of the king's house,* judging the people of the land.<sup>g</sup>

22 And the rest of the history of Uz·zi'ah, from beginning to end, was recorded by the prophet Isaiah<sup>h</sup> the son of A'moz.

23 Then Uz·zi'ah was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him with his forefathers, but in the burial field that belonged to the kings, for they said: "He is a leper." And his

27 Jo'tham<sup>b</sup> was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je-ru'shah the daughter of Za'dok.<sup>c</sup> 2 He kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Uz-zí'ah had done,<sup>d</sup> except that he did not invade the temple of Jehovah.<sup>e</sup> But the people were still acting ruinously. 3 He built the upper gate of Jehovah's house,<sup>f</sup> and he did much building on the wall of O'phel.<sup>g</sup> 4 He also built cities<sup>h</sup> in the mountainous region of Judah, and he built fortified places<sup>i</sup> and towers<sup>k</sup> in the wooded areas. 5 He waged war against the king of the Am'mon-ites<sup>j</sup> and eventually prevailed against them, so that the Am'mon-ites gave him in that year 100 silver talents,<sup>* 10,000 cor measures<sup>l</sup> of wheat, and 10,000 of barley. The Am'mon-ites also paid this to him in the second and third years.<sup>m</sup> 6 So Jo'tham kept growing strong, for he established<sup>n</sup> his ways before Jehovah his God.</sup>

7 As for the rest of the history of Jo'tham, all his wars and his ways, it is written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and of Judah.<sup>n</sup> 8 He was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 16 years in Jerusalem.<sup>o</sup> 9 Then Jo'tham was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the City of David.<sup>p</sup> And his son A'haz became king in his place.<sup>q</sup>

his forefather had done.<sup>a</sup> 2 Instead, he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel,<sup>b</sup> and he even made metal statues<sup>*c</sup> of the Ba'al's. 3 Moreover, he made sacrificial smoke in the Valley of the Son of Hin'nom* and burned up his sons in the fire,<sup>d</sup> following the detestable practices of the nations<sup>e</sup> that Jehovah had driven out from before the Israelites. 4 He also kept sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places,<sup>f</sup> on the hills, and under every luxuriant tree.<sup>g</sup>

5 So Jehovah his God gave him into the hand of the king of Syria,<sup>h</sup> so that they defeated him and carried off a great number of captives and brought them to Damascus.<sup>i</sup> He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who inflicted on him a great slaughter. 6 For Pe'kah<sup>j</sup> the son of Rem-a-li'ah killed in Judah 120,000 in one day, all brave men, because they had abandoned Jehovah the God of their forefathers.<sup>k</sup> 7 And Zich'ri, an E'phra-im-ite warrior, killed the king's son Ma-a-sei'ah and Az-ri'kam, who was in charge of the palace,<sup>l</sup> and El-ka'nah, who was second to the king. 8 Moreover, the Israelites took 200,000 of their brothers captive—women, sons, and daughters; they also seized a great deal of spoil, and they took the spoil to Sa-mar'i-a.<sup>m</sup>

9 But a prophet of Jehovah named O'ded was there. He went out before the army that was coming to Sa-mar'i-a and said to them: "Look! It was because Jehovah the God of your forefathers was angry with Judah that he gave them into your hand,<sup>m</sup> and you slaughtered them with a fury that has reached clear to the heavens. 10 And now you intend to make the people of Judah and Jerusalem your male and female servants.<sup>a</sup> Nevertheless, are you not also guilty before Jehovah your God? 11 Now listen to me and return the captives whom you took from your brothers, for Jehovah's burning anger is against you."

12 At that some of the chiefs of the E'phra-im-ites, Az·a·ri'ah the son of Je-ho-ha'nan, Ber-e-chi'ah the son of Me-shil'e-moth, Je-hiz-ki'ah the son of Shal'lum, and A·ma'sa the son of Had-lai, confronted those coming in from the military campaign, 13 and they said to them: "Do not bring the captives in here, for it will make us guilty before Jehovah. What you intend to do will add to our sins and to our guilt, for our guilt is already great and there is burning anger against Israel." 14 So the armed soldiers handed over the captives and the plunder<sup>b</sup> to the princes and the entire congregation. 15 Then the men who had been designated by name rose up and took hold of the captives, and they provided clothes from the spoil for all those among them who were naked. So they clothed them and gave them sandals, food and drink, and oil for their skin. Furthermore, they transported the feeble on donkeys and brought them to their brothers in Jer'i-cho, the city of palm trees. After that they returned to Sa-mar'i-a.

16 At that time King A'ha-z asked the kings of As-syr'i-a for help.<sup>c</sup> 17 And once again the E'dom-ites invaded and attacked Judah and carried off captives. 18 The Phi-lis'tines<sup>d</sup> also made a raid on the cities of the She-phe-lah<sup>e</sup> and the Neg'eb of Judah and captured Beth-she'mesh,<sup>f</sup> Ai'ja-lon,<sup>g</sup> Ge-de'rith, So'co and its

20 King Til'gath-pil-ne'ser<sup>b</sup> of As-syr'i-a eventually came against him and caused him distress<sup>c</sup> rather than strengthening him. 21 For A'ha-z had stripped the house of Jehovah and the house<sup>d</sup> of the king<sup>d</sup> and the houses of the princes and made a gift to the king of As-syr'i-a; but it was of no help to him. 22 And during his time of distress, King A'ha-z acted even more unfaithfully toward Jehovah. 23 He began to sacrifice to the gods of Damascus<sup>e</sup> that had defeated him,<sup>f</sup> and he went on to say: "Because the gods of the kings of Syria are helping them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me."<sup>g</sup> But they caused him and all Israel to stumble. 24 Furthermore, A'ha-z collected the utensils of the house of the true God; he then cut to pieces the utensils of the house of the true God,<sup>h</sup> closed the doors of the house of Jehovah,<sup>i</sup> and made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem. 25 And in all the cities of Judah, he made high places for making sacrificial smoke to other gods,<sup>j</sup> and he offended Jehovah the God of his forefathers.

26 As for the rest of his history, all his dealings from beginning to end, there it is written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.<sup>k</sup> 27 Then A'ha-z was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the burial places of the kings of Israel.<sup>a</sup> And his son Hez-e-ki'ah became king in his place.

29 Hez-e-ki'ah<sup>b</sup> became king at the age of 25, and he reigned for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was A·bi'jah the daughter of Zech-a-ri'ah.<sup>c</sup> 2 He kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>d</sup> just as David his forefather had done.<sup>e</sup> 3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of Jehovah and repaired them.<sup>f</sup> 4 Then he brought the priests and the Levites and assembled them in the square to the east. 5 He said to them: "Listen to me, you Levites. Now sanctify yourselves<sup>g</sup> and sanctify the house of Jehovah the God of your forefathers, and remove what is impure from the holy place."<sup>h</sup> 6 For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah our God.<sup>i</sup> They abandoned him and turned their faces away from the tabernacle of Jehovah and turned their back on him.<sup>j</sup> 7 They also closed the doors of the porch<sup>k</sup> and extinguished the lamps.<sup>l</sup> They stopped burning incense<sup>m</sup> and offering up burnt sacrifices<sup>n</sup> in the holy place to the God of Israel. 8 Therefore, Jehovah's indignation came against Judah and Jerusalem,<sup>o</sup> so that he made them an object of horror and astonishment and a cause for whistling,<sup>p</sup> as you can see with your own eyes.<sup>p</sup> 9 Here our forefathers fell by the sword,<sup>q</sup> and our sons, our daughters, and our wives went into captivity for this.<sup>r</sup> 10 Now it is my heart's desire to make a covenant with Jehovah the God of Israel,<sup>s</sup> so that his burning an-

12 At that the Levites rose up: Ma'hath the son of A·ma'sai and Joel the son of Az·a·ri'ah of the Ko'hath·ites;<sup>c</sup> from the Me·rar·ites,<sup>d</sup> Kish the son of Ab'di and Az·a·ri'ah the son of Je·hal·le-lel; from the Ger·shon·ites,<sup>e</sup> Jo'ah the son of Zim'mah and E'den the son of Jo'ah; 13 from the sons of E·li·za'phan, Shim'ri and Je·u'el; from the sons of A'saph,<sup>f</sup> Zech·a-ri'ah and Mat·ta-ni'ah; 14 from the sons of He'man,<sup>g</sup> Je·hi'el and Shim'e-i; from the sons of Je·du'thun,<sup>h</sup> She-mai'ah and Uz'zi-el. 15 Then they gathered their brothers together and sanctified themselves and came, as the king had commanded by the words of Jehovah, to cleanse the house of Jehovah.<sup>i</sup> 16 The priests then went inside the house of Jehovah to do the cleansing and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah and took it to the court-yard<sup>j</sup> of the house of Jehovah. In turn the Levites took it and carried it outside to the Kid'rōn Valley.<sup>k</sup> 17 Thus they began the sanctification on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they reached the porch of Jehovah.<sup>l</sup> They sanctified the house of Jehovah for eight days, and on the 16th day of the first month they finished.

18 After that they went in to King Hez-e-ki'ah and said: "We have cleansed the whole house of Jehovah, the altar of burnt offering<sup>m</sup> and all its utensils,<sup>n</sup> and the table of the layer bread<sup>o</sup> and all its utensils. 19 And all the utensils that King A'had cast aside during his reign when he acted unfaithfully<sup>a</sup> we have made ready and sanctified,<sup>b</sup> and they are before the altar of Jehovah."

20 And King Hez-e-ki'ah got up early and gathered the princes of the city together, and they went up to the house of Jehovah. 21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs, and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah.<sup>c</sup> So he told the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer them up on the altar of Jehovah. 22 Then they slaughtered the cattle,<sup>d</sup> and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar;<sup>e</sup> next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar, and they slaughtered the male lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar. 23 Then they brought the male goats of the sin offering before the king and the congregation and laid their hands on them. 24 The priests slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel, because the king said that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be for all Israel.

burnt offering started, the song of Jehovah started and also the trumpets, following the direction of the instruments of King David of Israel. 28 And the whole congregation bowed down while the song was sung and the trumpets were sounding—all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. 29 And as soon as they finished making the offering, the king and all those with him bowed low and prostrated themselves. 30 King Hez-e-ki'ah and the princes now told the Levites to praise Jehovah with the words of David<sup>a</sup> and of A'saph<sup>b</sup> the visionary. So they offered praise with great rejoicing, and they bowed down and prostrated themselves.

31 Then Hez-e-ki'ah said: "Now that you have been set apart* for Jehovah, come and bring sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings to the house of Jehovah." So the congregation began to bring sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings, and everyone with a willing heart brought burnt offerings.<sup>c</sup> 32 The number of burnt offerings that the congregation brought was 70 cattle, 100 rams, 200 male lambs—all of these as a burnt offering to Jehovah<sup>d</sup>— 33 and the holy offerings were 600 cattle and 3,000 of the flock. 34 But there were not enough priests to skin all the burnt offerings, so their brothers the Levites helped them out<sup>e</sup> until the work was finished and until the priests could sanctify themselves,<sup>f</sup> for the Levites were more conscientious* about sanctifying themselves than the priests were. 35 Also, there were many burnt offerings,<sup>g</sup> as well as the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices<sup>h</sup> and the drink offerings for the burnt offerings.<sup>a</sup> Thus the service of the house of Jehovah was restored.* 36 So Hez-e-ki'ah and all the people rejoiced over what the true God had established for the people,<sup>b</sup> for this had all happened so suddenly.

30 Hez-e-ki'ah sent word to all Israel<sup>c</sup> and Judah, and even wrote letters to E'phra-im and Ma·nas'seh,<sup>d</sup> to come to the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem to observe the Passover to Jehovah the God of Israel.<sup>e</sup> 2 However, the king, his princes, and the whole congregation in Jerusalem decided to observe the Passover in the second month,<sup>f</sup> 3 for they had not been able to observe it at the regular time,<sup>g</sup> because not enough priests had sanctified themselves<sup>h</sup> nor had the people gathered in Jerusalem. 4 This arrangement seemed right in the eyes of the king and the entire congregation. 5 So they decided to make an announcement throughout Israel, from Be'er-she'ba to Dan,<sup>i</sup> that the people should come and observe the Passover to Jehovah the God of Israel at Jerusalem, for as a group they had not observed it according to what is written.<sup>j</sup>

6 Then the couriers* went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his princes, as the king had commanded, saying: “People of Israel, return to Jehovah the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so that he may return to the remnant who escaped out of the hand of the kings of As·sy·ri·a.<sup>k</sup> 7 Do not be like your forefathers and your brothers who acted unfaithfully toward Jehovah the God of their forefathers,

10 So the couriers* went from city to city throughout the land of E'phra-im and Ma·nas'seh,<sup>i</sup> even to Zeb'u-lun, but the people were making fun of them and mocking them.<sup>j</sup> 11 However, some individuals from Ash'er, Ma·nas'seh, and Zeb'u-lun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.<sup>k</sup> 12 The hand of the true God was also in Judah to unite them* to carry out what the king and the princes had commanded by the word of Jehovah.

13 A multitude of people gathered together at Jerusalem to observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread<sup>l</sup> in the second month;<sup>m</sup> it was a very large congregation. 14 They rose up and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem,<sup>n</sup> and they removed all the incense altars<sup>o</sup> and threw them into the Kid'rōn Valley. 15 Then they slaughtered the Passover sacrifice on the 14th day of the second month. The priests and the Levites felt ashamed, so they sanctified themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of Jehovah. 16 They took their customary places, according to the Law of Moses the man of the true God; then the priests sprinkled the blood<sup>a</sup> received from the hand of the Levites. 17 There were many in the congregation who had not sanctified themselves, and the Levites were in charge of slaughtering the Passover sacrifices for all who were not clean,<sup>b</sup> to sanctify them to Jehovah. 18 For a great number of the people, especially those from E'phra-im, Ma-nas'seh,<sup>c</sup> Is-sa-char, and Zeb'u-lun, had not cleansed themselves, but they still ate the Passover, contrary to what is written. But Hez-e-ki'-ah prayed for them, saying: "May Jehovah, who is good,<sup>d</sup> make allowance for 19 everyone who has prepared his heart to search for the true God.<sup>e</sup> Jehovah, the God of his forefathers, although he has not been purified according to the standard of holiness."<sup>f</sup> 20 And Jehovah listened to Hez-e-ki'ah and pardoned* the people.

21 So the Israelites who were in Jerusalem observed the Festival of Unleavened Bread<sup>g</sup> for seven days with great rejoicing,<sup>h</sup> and the Levites and the priests were praising Jehovah day by day, loudly playing their instruments to Jehovah.<sup>i</sup> 22 Moreover, Hez-e-ki'ah spoke to and encouraged* all the Levites who served Jehovah with discretion. And they ate throughout the festival for seven days,<sup>j</sup> sacrificing communion sacrifices<sup>k</sup> and giving thanks to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

ah of Judah contributed for the congregation 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep, and the princes contributed for the congregation 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep;<sup>a</sup> and priests were sanctifying themselves in great number.<sup>b</sup> 25 And all the congregation of Judah, the priests, the Levites, all the congregation that came from Israel,<sup>c</sup> and the foreign residents<sup>d</sup> who came from the land of Israel and those living in Judah continued rejoicing. 26 And there was great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for from the days of Sol'o-mon the son of David the king of Israel, nothing like this had happened in Jerusalem.<sup>e</sup> 27 Finally the Levite priests stood up and blessed the people;<sup>f</sup> and God heard their voice, and their prayer reached his holy dwelling, the heavens.

31 As soon as they had finished all of this, all the Israelites who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and they smashed the sacred pillars,<sup>g</sup> cut down the sacred poles,<sup>h</sup> and tore down the high places<sup>i</sup> and the altars<sup>j</sup> throughout Judah and Benjamin, as well as in E'phra-im and Ma-nas'seh,<sup>k</sup> until they had destroyed them completely, after which all the Israelites returned to their cities, each one to his own possession.

morning and evening offerings,<sup>a</sup> as well as the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths,<sup>b</sup> the new moons,<sup>c</sup> and the festivals,<sup>d</sup> according to what is written in the Law of Jehovah.

4 Furthermore, he commanded the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion due the priests and the Levites,<sup>e</sup> so that they might adhere strictly* to the law of Jehovah. 5 As soon as the order was issued, the Israelites gave in great quantities the firstfruits of the grain, new wine, oil,<sup>f</sup> and honey, and of all the produce of the field;<sup>g</sup> they brought in abundantly the tenth of everything.<sup>h</sup> 6 And the people of Israel and of Judah living in the cities of Judah also brought in the tenth of cattle and sheep and the tenth of the holy things<sup>i</sup> that were sanctified to Jehovah their God. They brought it in and put it in many heaps. 7 In the third month<sup>j</sup> they began laying their contributions in heaps; and in the seventh month<sup>k</sup> they finished. 8 When Hez-e-ki'ah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they praised Jehovah and blessed his people Israel.

9 Hez-e-ki'ah asked the priests and the Levites about the heaps, 10 and Az-a-ri'ah the chief priest of the house of Zadok said to him: "From the time they started bringing the contributions into the house of Jehovah,<sup>l</sup> the people have been eating to satisfaction and there is still an abundant surplus, for Jehovah has blessed his people, and this great plenty is left over."<sup>m</sup>

faithfully bringing in the contributions, the tenth parts,<sup>*a</sup> and the holy things; Con-a-ni'ah the Levite was put in charge of all of this as supervisor, and his brother Shim'e-i was second. 13 Je-hi'el, Az-a-zi'ah, Na'hath, As'a-hel, Jer'i-moth, Jo'za-bad, E'l-i-el, Is-ma-chi'ah, Ma'hath, and Be-na'iah were commissioners assisting Con-a-ni'ah and his brother Shim'e-i, by the order of King Hez-e-ki'ah, and Az-a-ri'ah was supervisor of the house of the true God. 14 And Ko're the son of Im'nah, the Levite gate-keeper on the east side,<sup>b</sup> was in charge of the voluntary offerings<sup>c</sup> of the true God, and he distributed the contribution made to Jehovah<sup>d</sup> and the most holy things.<sup>e</sup> 15 And under his direction were E'den, Mi-ni'a-min, Jesh'u-a, She-mai'ah, Ama-ri'ah, and Shec-a-ni'ah, in the cities of the priests,<sup>f</sup> in their office of trust, to distribute equally to their brothers in the divisions,<sup>g</sup> to great and small alike. 16 This was in addition to the distribution made to the males from three years old and up who were listed in the genealogical enrollment, who came daily to serve in the house of Jehovah and to carry out the duties of their divisions.

17 The genealogical enrollment of the priests was by their paternal house,<sup>h</sup> as was that of the Levites who were 20 years old and up,<sup>i</sup> by the duties of their divisions.<sup>j</sup> 18 The genealogical enrollment included all their children, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, their entire congregation—for they kept themselves sanctified for what was holy because of their office of trust— 19 as well as the descendants of Aaron, the priests who were living in the fields of the pastures surrounding their cities.<sup>a</sup> In all the cities, men had been designated by name to give portions to every male among the priests and to everyone included in the genealogical enrollment of the Levites.

20 Hez-e-ki'ah did this throughout Judah, and he continued to do what was good and right and faithful before Jehovah his God. 21 And every work that he undertook to search for his God, whether in connection with the service of the house of the true God<sup>b</sup> or in the Law and the commandment, he did wholeheartedly, and he was successful.

32 After these things and these acts of faithfulness,<sup>c</sup> King Sen-nach'er-ib of As-syr'i-a came and invaded Judah. He besieged the fortified cities, intent on breaking through and capturing them.<sup>d</sup>

2 When Hez-e-ki'ah saw that Sen-nach'er-ib had come and intended to wage war against Jerusalem, 3 he decided, after consulting with his princes and his warriors, to stop up the waters of the springs outside the city,<sup>e</sup> and they gave him their support. 4 Many people were gathered together, and they stopped up all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land, saying: "Why should the kings of As-syr'i-a come and find plenty of water?"

5 Furthermore, with determination he rebuilt the entire broken-down wall and raised towers on it, and outside he made another wall. He also repaired the Mound<sup>f</sup> of the City of David, and he made a large number of weapons<sup>g</sup> and shields. 6 He then appointed military chiefs over the people and assembled them at the public square of the city gate and encouraged them,<sup>n</sup> saying: 7 "Be courageous and strong. Do not be afraid or be terrified because of the king of As-syr'i-a<sup>o</sup> and all the multitude with him, for there are more with us than there are with him.<sup>p</sup> 8 With him is an arm of flesh,* but with us is Jehovah our God to help us and to fight our battles."<sup>q</sup> And the people were strengthened by the words of King Hez-e-ki'ah of Judah.<sup>r</sup>

9 After this, while King Sen-nach'er-ib of As-syr'i-a was at La'chish<sup>s</sup> with all his imperial might,* he sent his servants to Jerusalem, to King Hez-e-ki'ah of Judah and to all the Ju-de'ans in Jerusalem,<sup>t</sup> saying:

10 "This is what King Sen-nach'er-ib of As-syr'i-a says, 'In what are you trusting that you remain in Jerusalem while it is besieged?<sup>u</sup> 11 Is not Hez-e-ki'ah misleading you and handing you over to die by famine and thirst, saying: "Jehovah our God will rescue us from the hand of the king of As-syr'i-a"?<sup>v</sup> 12 Is this not the same Hez-e-ki'ah who removed your God's* high places<sup>w</sup> and His altars<sup>x</sup> and then said to Judah and Jerusalem: "You should bow down before one altar and on it you should make your sacrifices smoke"?<sup>y</sup> 13 Do you not know what I and my forefathers did to all the peoples of the lands?<sup>z</sup> Were the gods of the nations of the lands able to rescue their land from my hand?<sup>m</sup> 14 Who among all the gods of these nations that my forefathers devoted to destruction was able to rescue his people from my hand, so that your God should be able to rescue you from my hand?<sup>a</sup> 15 Now do not let Hez-e-ki'ah deceive you or mislead you like this!<sup>b</sup> Do not put faith in him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to rescue his people from my hand and from the hand of my forefathers. How much less, then, will your own God rescue you from my hand!"<sup>c</sup>

16 His servants said even more against Jehovah the true God and against Hez-e-ki'ah his servant. 17 He also wrote letters<sup>d</sup> to insult Jehovah the God of Israel<sup>e</sup> and to speak against him, saying: "Like the gods of the nations of the lands who could not rescue their people from my hand,<sup>f</sup> so the God of Hez-e-ki'ah will not rescue his people from my hand." 18 They kept calling loudly in the language of the Jews to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to make them afraid and to terrify them, in order to capture the city.<sup>g</sup> 19 They spoke against the God of Jerusalem the same way as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of man's hands. 20 But King Hez-e-ki'ah and the prophet Isaiah<sup>h</sup> the son of A'moz kept praying about this and crying out to the heavens for help.

21 Then Jehovah sent an angel and wiped out every mighty warrior,<sup>i</sup> leader, and chief in the camp of the king of As-syr'i-a, so that he went back to his own land in disgrace. He later entered the house<sup>j</sup> of his god, and there some of his own sons struck him down with the sword.<sup>k</sup> 22 So Jehovah saved Hez-e-ki'ah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of King Sen-nach'er-ib of As-syr'i-a and from the hand of all others and gave them rest

24 In those days Hez-e-ki'ah became sick and was at the point of death, and he prayed to Jehovah,<sup>b</sup> who answered him and gave him a sign.*<sup>c</sup> 25 But Hez-e-ki'ah did not respond appreciatively to the good done to him, for his heart became haughty, bringing indignation against him and against Judah and Jerusalem. 26 However, Hez-e-ki'ah humbled himself for the haughtiness of his heart,<sup>d</sup> he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Jehovah's indignation did not come upon them in the days of Hez-e-ki'ah.<sup>e</sup>

27 And Hez-e-ki'ah came to have vast riches and glory;<sup>f</sup> and he made storehouses<sup>g</sup> for himself for silver, gold, precious stones, balsam oil, shields, and for all the desirable articles.

28 He also made storage places for the produce of grain and new wine and oil, as well as stalls for all the different kinds of livestock and stalls for the flocks.

29 He also acquired cities for himself, and an abundance of livestock, flocks, and herds, for God gave him very many possessions. 30 It was Hez-e-ki'ah who stopped up the upper source of the waters<sup>h</sup> of Gi'hon<sup>i</sup> and directed them straight down to the west to the City of David,<sup>j</sup> and Hez-e-ki'ah was successful in every work of his. 31 However, when the spokesmen of the princes of Babylon were sent to ask him about the sign*<sup>k</sup> that had occurred in the land,<sup>l</sup> the true God left him alone to put him to the test,<sup>m</sup> to get to know all that was in his heart.<sup>n</sup>

32 As for the rest of the history of Hez-e-ki'ah and his acts of loyal love,<sup>a</sup> they are written in the vision of Isaiah<sup>b</sup> the prophet, the son of A'moz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.<sup>c</sup> 33 Then Hez-e-ki'ah was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the ascent to the burial places of the sons of David;<sup>d</sup> and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Ma-nas'seh became king in his place.

33 Ma-nas'seh<sup>e</sup> was 12 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 55 years in Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup>

2 He did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, following the detestable practices of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the people of Israel.<sup>g</sup> 3 He rebuilt the high places that his father Hez-e-ki'ah had torn down,<sup>h</sup> he set up altars to the Ba'al's and made sacred poles,* and he bowed down to all the army of the heavens and served them.<sup>i</sup> 4 He also built altars in the house of Jehovah, about which Jehovah had said: "In Jerusalem my name will be forever."<sup>k</sup> 5 And he built altars to all the army of the heavens in two courtyards of the house of Jehovah.<sup>l</sup> 6 And he made his own sons pass through the fire<sup>m</sup> in the Valley of the Son of Hin'nom;<sup>n</sup> he practiced magic,<sup>o</sup> used divination, practiced sorcery, and appointed spirit mediums and fortune-tellers.<sup>p</sup> He did on a grand scale what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, to offend him.

7 He put the carved image that he made into the house of the true God<sup>q</sup> about which God had said to David and to his son Sol'o-mon: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have cho-

9 Ma-nas'seh kept leading Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, causing them to do worse than the nations that Jehovah had annihilated from before the Israelites.<sup>b</sup>

10 Jehovah kept speaking to Ma-nas'seh and his people, but they paid no attention.<sup>c</sup> 11 So Jehovah brought against them the army chiefs of the king of As-syr'i-a, and they captured Ma-nas'seh with hooks* and bound him with two copper fetters and took him to Babylon. 12 In his distress, he begged Jehovah his God for favor* and kept humbling himself greatly before the God of his forefathers. 13 He kept praying to Him, and He was moved by his entreaty and heard his request for favor, and He restored him to Jerusalem to his kingship.<sup>d</sup> Then Ma-nas'seh came to know that Jehovah is the true God.<sup>e</sup>

14 After this he built an outer wall for the City of David<sup>f</sup> west of Gi'hon<sup>g</sup> in the valley* and as far as the Fish Gate,<sup>h</sup> and he continued it around to O'phel,<sup>i</sup> and he made it very high. Further, he appointed army chiefs in all the fortified cities in Judah. 15 He then removed the foreign gods and the idol image from the house of Jehovah<sup>j</sup> and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of Jehovah<sup>k</sup> and in Jerusalem, and he had them thrown outside the city. 16 He also prepared the altar of Jehovah<sup>a</sup> and began to offer up communion sacrifices<sup>b</sup> and thanksgiving sacrifices<sup>c</sup> on it, and he told Judah to serve Jehovah the God of Israel. 17 Nevertheless, the people were still sacrificing on the high places, although only to Jehovah their God.

18 As for the rest of the history of Ma-nas'seh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the visionaries who spoke to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, they are recorded in the history of the kings of Israel. 19 Also his prayer<sup>d</sup> and how his entreaty was granted him, all his sins and his unfaithfulness,<sup>e</sup> the locations where he built high places and set up the sacred poles<sup>f</sup> and the graven images before he humbled himself, they are written among the words of his visionaries. 20 Then Ma-nas'seh was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him at his house; and his son A'mon became king in his place.<sup>g</sup>

21 A'mon<sup>h</sup> was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem.<sup>i</sup> 22 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Ma-nas'seh had done;<sup>j</sup> and A'mon sacrificed to all the graven images that his father Ma-nas'seh had made,<sup>k</sup> and he kept serving them. 23 But he did not humble himself before Jehovah<sup>l</sup> as Ma-nas'seh his father had humbled himself;<sup>m</sup> instead, A'mon greatly increased his guilt. 24 Eventually his servants conspired against him<sup>n</sup> and put him to death in his own house. 25 But the people of the land struck down all those who conspired against King A'mon,<sup>o</sup>

and they made his son Jo-si'ah<sup>a</sup> king in his place.

34 Jo-si'ah<sup>b</sup> was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for 31 years in Jerusalem.<sup>c</sup> 2 He did what was right in Jehovah's eyes and walked in the ways of David his forefather, and he did not deviate to the right or to the left.

3 In the 8th year of his reign, while he was still a boy, he started to search for the God of David his forefather;<sup>d</sup> and in the 12th year, he started to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem<sup>e</sup> of the high places<sup>f</sup> and the sacred poles,* the graven images,<sup>g</sup> and the metal statues.<sup>h</sup> 4 Further, they tore down the altars of the Ba'als in his presence, and he cut down the incense stands that were up above them. He also broke into pieces the sacred poles,* the graven images, and the metal statues<sup>h</sup> and reduced them to powder and sprinkled it over the graves of those who used to sacrifice to them.<sup>i</sup> 5 And he burned the bones of priests on their altars.<sup>j</sup> Thus he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And in the cities of Ma-nas'seh, E-phra-im,<sup>j</sup> Sim'e-on, and clear to Naph'ta-li, in their surrounding ruins, 7 he tore down the altars and he crushed the sacred poles* and the graven images,<sup>k</sup> reducing them to powder; and he cut down all the incense stands in all the land of Israel,<sup>l</sup> after which he returned to Jerusalem.

8 In the 18th year of his reign, when he had cleansed the land and the temple,* he sent Sha-phphan<sup>m</sup> the son of Az-a-li'ah, Ma-a-sei'ah the chief of the city, and Jo'ah the son of Jo'a-haz the recorder to repair the house of Jehovah his God.<sup>n</sup> 9 They came to Hil-ki'ah the high priest and gave him the money that had been brought to the house of God, which the Levites serving as doorkeepers had collected from Ma-nas'seh, E'phra-im, and all the rest of Israel,<sup>a</sup> as well as from Judah, Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 Then they gave it to those who were appointed over the work in the house of Jehovah. In turn the workers in the house of Jehovah used it to mend and repair the house. 11 They gave it to the craftsmen and the builders to buy hewn stones and timbers for braces and to build with beams the houses that the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin.<sup>b</sup>

12 And the men did the work faithfully.<sup>c</sup> Over them were appointed the Levites Ja'hath and O-ba-di'ah of the Me-rar'-ites,<sup>d</sup> and Zech-a-ri'ah and Meshul'lam of the Ko'hath-ites,<sup>e</sup> to serve as overseers. And the Levites, all of whom were skilled musicians,<sup>f</sup> 13 were in charge of the common laborers* and were overseers of all those who were doing the work in every kind of service; and some of the Levites were secretaries, officers, and gatekeepers.<sup>g</sup>

14 While they were taking out the money that had been brought to the house of Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> Hil-ki'ah the priest found the book of Jehovah's Law<sup>i</sup> given through* Moses.<sup>j</sup> 15 So Hil-ki'ah said to Sha'phan the secretary: "I have found the book of the Law in the house of Jehovah." With that Hil-ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan. 16 Then Sha'phan brought the book to the king and told him: "Your servants are doing everything that was assigned to them.

17 They have poured out the money that was found in the house of Jehovah, and they have handed it over to the appointed men and to those doing the work." 18 Sha'phan the secretary also told the king: "There is a book that Hil-ki'ah the priest has given me."<sup>a</sup> Then Sha'phan began to read from it before the king.<sup>b</sup>

19 As soon as the king heard the words of the Law, he ripped his garments apart.<sup>c</sup> 20 Then the king gave this order to Hil-ki'ah, A-hi'kam<sup>d</sup> the son of Sha'phan, Ab'don the son of Mi'-cah, Sha'phan the secretary, and A-sai'ah the king's servant: 21 "Go, inquire of Jehovah in my behalf and in behalf of those who remain in Israel and in Judah concerning the words of the book that has been found; for Jehovah's rage that will be poured out against us is great because our forefathers did not carry out the word of Jehovah by observing all that is written in this book."<sup>e</sup>

22 So Hil-ki'ah, along with those sent by the king, went to Hul'dah the prophetess.<sup>f</sup> She was the wife of Shal'lum son of Tik'vah son of Har'has, the caretaker of the wardrobe, and she was dwelling in the Second Quarter of Jerusalem; and they spoke to her there.<sup>g</sup> 23 She said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'Tell the man who sent you to me: 24 "This is what Jehovah says, 'I will bring calamity on this place and its inhabitants,<sup>h</sup> all the curses that are written in the book<sup>i</sup> that they read before the king of Judah. 25 Because they have abandoned me<sup>j</sup> and are making sacrifices smoke to other gods in order to offend me<sup>k</sup> with all the works of their hands, my rage will pour out on this place and it will

Then they brought the reply to the king. 29 So the king sent word and summoned all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>e</sup> 30 After that the king went up to the house of Jehovah with all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites—all the people, the great as well as the small. He read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the house of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 31 The king stood in his place and made a covenant<sup>g</sup> before Jehovah that he would follow Jehovah and keep his commandments, his reminders, and his regulations with all his heart and with all his soul<sup>”h</sup> by carrying out the words of the covenant that were written in this book.<sup>i</sup> 32 Furthermore, he had all those who were in Jerusalem and Benjamin to agree to it. Throughout his lifetime<sup>c</sup> they did not deviate from following Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

35 Jo-si’ah held a Passover<sup>c</sup> to Jehovah in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover sacrifice<sup>d</sup> on the 14th day of the first month.<sup>e</sup> 2 He assigned the priests to their duties and encouraged them to carry out their service of the house of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 3 Then he said to the Levites, the instructors of all Israel,<sup>g</sup> those who were holy to Jehovah: “Put the holy Ark in the house that Sol’o-mon the son of David the king of Israel built;<sup>h</sup> you are no longer to carry it on your shoulders.<sup>i</sup> Now serve Jehovah your God and his people Israel. 4 And prepare yourselves by your paternal houses according to your divisions, following what was written by King David<sup>j</sup> of Israel and by his son Sol’o-mon.<sup>k</sup> 5 Stand in the holy place grouped by the paternal houses of your brothers, the rest of the people,* with a corresponding group of the paternal house of the Levites. 6 Slaughter the Passover sacrifice<sup>l</sup> and sanctify yourselves and make preparation for your brothers to carry out the word of Jehovah through Moses.”

7 Jo-si’ah contributed flocks to the people, male lambs and young male goats, for the Passover sacrifices for all who were present, a total of 30,000, as well as 3,000 cattle. These were from the king’s own property.<sup>m</sup> 8 His princes also made a contribution

Hil·ki‘ah,<sup>a</sup> Zech·a·ri‘ah, and Je·hi‘el, the leaders of the house of the true God, gave to the priests 2,600 Passover sacrifices and 300 cattle. 9 Con·a·ni‘ah and his brothers She·mai‘ah and Ne·than‘el, along with Hash·a·bi‘ah, Je·i‘el, and Jo·za·bad, the chiefs of the Levites, contributed to the Levites 5,000 Passover sacrifices and 500 cattle.

10 The service was prepared, and the priests stood at their places and the Levites by their divisions,<sup>b</sup> as the king had commanded. 11 They slaughtered the Passover sacrifices,<sup>c</sup> and the priests sprinkled the blood they received from them,<sup>d</sup> while the Levites were skinning the animals.<sup>e</sup> 12 Next they prepared the burnt offerings so as to distribute them to the rest of the people, who were grouped by paternal house, so that they could be presented to Jehovah as it is written in the book of Moses; and they did the same with the cattle. 13 They cooked* the Passover offering over the fire according to the custom;<sup>f</sup> and they cooked the holy offerings in pots, cauldrons, and pans, after which they brought it quickly to all the rest of the people. 14 Then they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were offering up the burnt sacrifices and the fat pieces until nightfall, so the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

Je·du·thun<sup>a</sup> the visionary of the king; and the gatekeepers were at the different gates.<sup>b</sup> There was no need for them to leave their service, because their brothers the Levites made preparations for them. 16 So all the service of Jehovah was prepared on that day to hold the Passover<sup>c</sup> and to offer up the burnt offerings on the altar of Jehovah, according to the order of King Jo·si‘ah.<sup>d</sup>

17 The Israelites who were present held the Passover at that time and the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days.<sup>e</sup>

18 There had never been held a Passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the other kings of Israel held a Passover like that held by Jo·si‘ah,<sup>f</sup> the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 19 This Passover was held in the 18th year of Jo·si‘ah's reign.

20 After all of this, when Jo·si‘ah had prepared the temple,* King Ne‘cho<sup>g</sup> of Egypt came up to fight at Car‘che·mish by the Eu·phra·tes. Then Jo·si‘ah went out against him.<sup>h</sup> 21 So he sent messengers to him, saying: “What does this have to do with you, O king of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but my fight is against another house, and God says that I should hurry. For your own sake, refrain from opposing God, who is with me, or he will bring you to ruin.” 22 However, Jo·si‘ah would not turn away from him, but he disguised himself<sup>i</sup> to fight against him and would not listen to the words of Ne‘cho, which were from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Plain of Me·gid·do.<sup>j</sup>

23 And the archers shot King Jo-si'ah, and the king said to his servants: "Get me out of here, for I am severely wounded." 24 So his servants took him out of the chariot and had him ride in his second war chariot and brought him to Jerusalem. Thus he died and was buried in the tomb of his forefathers,<sup>a</sup> and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned Jo-si'ah. 25 And Jeremiah<sup>b</sup> chanted over Jo-si'ah, and all the male and female singers<sup>c</sup> keep singing about Jo-si'ah in their dirges* down to this day; and a decision was made that they should be sung in Israel, and they are written among the dirges.

26 As for the rest of the history of Jo-si'ah and his deeds of loyal love, in keeping with what is written in the Law of Jehovah, 27 and what he did, from beginning to end, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and of Judah.<sup>d</sup>

36 Then the people of the land took Jo-si'ah's son Je-ho'a-haz<sup>e</sup> and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.<sup>f</sup> 2 Je-ho'a-haz was 23 years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem. 3 However, the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and fined the land 100 silver talents* and a gold talent.<sup>g</sup> 4 Furthermore, the king of Egypt made Je-ho'a-haz' brother E-li'a-kim king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed his name to Je-ho'i-akim; but Ne'cho<sup>h</sup> took his brother Je-ho'a-haz and brought him to Egypt.<sup>i</sup>

9 Je-hoi'a-chin<sup>f</sup> was 18 years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>g</sup> 10 At the start of the year,* King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar sent to have him brought to Babylon,<sup>h</sup> along with valuable articles of the house of Jehovah.<sup>i</sup> And he made his father's brother Zed-e-ki'ah king over Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>j</sup>

5 Then the heads of the paternal houses of Judah and of Benjamin and the priests and the Levites—everyone whose spirit the true God had stirred—prepared to go up and rebuild the

17 The king sent word to Re'hum the chief government official and Shim'shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues who were dwelling in Sa-mar'i-a and the rest of the region Beyond the River:

"Greetings! And now 18 the official document that you sent us has been clearly read* before me. 19 By my order an investigation was made, and it was found that from long ago the city has had uprisings against kings, and rebellions and revolts have taken place there.<sup>b</sup> 20 There were powerful kings over Jerusalem who ruled the whole region Beyond the River, and tax, tribute, and toll were paid to them. 21 Now issue an order for these men to stop work, so that the city may not be rebuilt until I issue an order. 22 Be careful not to neglect acting in this regard, so that the king's interests are not harmed any further."<sup>c</sup>

23 Now after the copy of the official document of King Ar-ta-xerxes had been read before Re'hum and Shim'shai the scribe and their colleagues, they quickly went to Jerusalem to the Jews and used force to stop them. 24 It was then that the work on the house of God, which was in Jerusalem, came to a halt; and it remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of King Da-ri'u's of Persia.<sup>d</sup>

5 Then the prophets Hag'gai<sup>e</sup> and Zech-a-ri'ah<sup>f</sup> the grandson of Id'do<sup>g</sup> prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and

6 Here is a copy of the letter that Tat'te-nai the governor of the region Beyond the River and She'thar-boz'e-nai and his colleagues, the lesser governors of the region Beyond the River, sent to King Da-ri'u's; 7 they sent the report to him, and this is what they wrote:

11 "This is the response they gave us: 'We are the servants of the God of the heavens and the earth, and we are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.'<sup>b</sup> 12 However, because our fathers angered the God of the heavens,<sup>c</sup> he gave them into the hand of King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar<sup>d</sup> of Babylon, the Chal-de'an, who demolished this house<sup>e</sup> and took the people into exile to Babylon.<sup>f</sup> 13 Nevertheless, in the first year of King Cyrus of Babylon, King Cyrus issued an order to rebuild this house of God.<sup>g</sup> 14 Moreover, King Cyrus took out of the temple of Babylon the gold and silver vessels of the house of God that Neb-u-chad-nez'zar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and had brought to the temple of Babylon.<sup>h</sup> They were given to a man named Shesh-baz'zar,<sup>i</sup> whom Cyrus made governor.<sup>j</sup> 15 Cyrus said to him: "Take these vessels. Go, deposit them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt in its former place."<sup>k</sup> 16 Then this Shesh-baz'zar came, and he laid the foundations of the house of God,<sup>l</sup> which is in Jerusalem; and it has been under construction from then until now, but it has not been completed.<sup>m</sup>

6 It was then that King Da·ri·us issued an order, and they made an investigation in the archives* where the treasures were deposited in Babylon. 2 And a scroll was found in the citadel at Ec·bat·a·na, in the province* of Me·di·a, and the following memorandum was written on it:

3 "In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued an order concerning the house of God in Jerusalem:<sup>b</sup> 'Let the house be rebuilt as the place where they are to offer sacrifices, and its foundations are to be set in place; its height is to be 60 cubits,* its width 60 cubits,<sup>c</sup> 4 with three layers of large stones rolled into place and one layer of timbers;<sup>d</sup> and let the expense be paid from the king's house.<sup>e</sup> 5 Also, let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God that Neb·u·chad·nez·zar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon<sup>f</sup> be returned, so that they may be put in their place in the temple in Jerusalem and be deposited in the house of God.'<sup>g</sup> days. But when I examined the people and the priests, I did not find any of the Levites there.

16 So I sent for E-li-e'zer, Ar'i-el, She-mai'ah, El-na'than, Ja'rib, El-na'than, Nathan, Zech-a-ri'ah, and Me-shul'lam, who were leading men, and for Joi'a-rib and El-na'than, who were instructors.

17 Then I gave them a command concerning Id'do the leader in the place called Ca-si-ph'i'a. I told them to tell Id'do and his brothers, the temple servants* who were in Ca-si-ph'i'a, to bring to us ministers for the house of our God. 18 Since the good hand of our God was upon us, they brought a discreet man from the sons of Mah'li<sup>a</sup> the grandson of Le'vi the son of Israel, namely, She-re-bi'ah,<sup>b</sup> and his sons and his brothers, 18 men; 19 and Hash-a-bi'ah, and with him Je-sha'iah from the Me-rar'ites,<sup>c</sup> his brothers and their sons, 20 men. 20 And there were 220 of the temple servants,* whom David and the princes gave to the service of the Levites, all of whom had been designated by name.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river A-ha'va, to humble ourselves before our God, to seek guidance from him for our journey, for us and for our children and for all our goods. 22 I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemies along the way, because we had said to the king: "The good hand of our God is over all those seeking him,<sup>d</sup> but his strength and his anger are against all those abandoning him."<sup>e</sup> 23 So we fasted and made request of our God concerning this, and he listened to our entreaty.<sup>f</sup>

24 I now set apart 12 of the chiefs of the priests, namely,

8:17, 20 *Or "the Nethinim." Lit., "the given ones."

7:28 *Lit., "heads."

She-re·bi'ah and Hash-a·bi'ah,<sup>a</sup> along with ten of their brothers. 25 Then I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the utensils, the contribution that the king and his advisers and his princes and all the Israelites who were present there had made to the house of our God.<sup>b</sup> 26 Thus I weighed out into their hand 650 talents* of silver, 100 silver utensils worth 2 talents, 100 talents of gold, 27 20 small gold bowls worth 1,000 darics,* and 2 utensils of fine copper, gleaming red, as desirable as gold.

28 Then I said to them: "You are holy to Jehovah,<sup>c</sup> and the utensils are holy, and the silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to Jehovah the God of your forefathers. 29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them out before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the princes of the paternal houses of Israel in Jerusalem,<sup>d</sup> in the chambers* of the house of Jehovah." 30 And the priests and the Levites took the silver and the gold and the utensils that had been weighed out to them, in order to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

31 Finally we pulled away from the river A·ha'va<sup>e</sup> on the 12th day of the first month<sup>f</sup> to go to Jerusalem, and the hand of our God was over us, and he rescued us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the way. 32 So we came to Jerusalem<sup>g</sup> and stayed there for three days. 33 And on the fourth day, we weighed out the silver and the gold and the utensils in the house of our God<sup>h</sup> and handed them over to Mer'e-moth<sup>i</sup> son of U·ri'jah the priest, and with him was El-e'a-zar son of Phin'e-has, and with them were the Levites Jo'za·bad<sup>a</sup> son of Jesh'u-a and No·a·di'ah son of Bin'nu-i.<sup>b</sup> 34 Everything was numbered and weighed, and all the weight was recorded. 35 Those coming out of the captivity, the former exiles, presented burnt sacrifices to the God of Israel, 12 bulls<sup>c</sup> for all Israel, 96 rams,<sup>d</sup> 77 male lambs, and 12 male goats<sup>e</sup> as a sin offering; all of this was a burnt offering to Jehovah.<sup>f</sup>

36 Then we gave the decrees of the king<sup>g</sup> to the satraps* of the king and the governors of the region Beyond the River,<sup>h</sup> and they supported the people and the house of the true God.<sup>i</sup>

9 And as soon as these things had been done, the princes approached me and said: "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands and their detestable practices,<sup>j</sup> those of the Ca'naan-ites, the Hit'tites, the Per'iz-zites, the Jeb'u-sites, the Am'mon-ites, the Mo'abites, the Egyptians,<sup>k</sup> and the Am'or-ites.<sup>l</sup> 2 They have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons.<sup>m</sup> Now they, the holy offspring,<sup>*n</sup> have become mingled with the peoples of the lands.<sup>o</sup> The princes and the deputy rulers have been the foremost offenders in this unfaithfulness."

3 Now as soon as I heard of this, I ripped apart my garment and my sleeveless coat and pulled out some of the hair of my head and my beard, and I sat down in shock. 4 Then everyone who had reverence for<sup>a</sup> the words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of the unfaithfulness of the exiled people, while I was sitting in shock until the evening grain offering.<sup>a</sup>

5 And at the time of the evening grain offering,<sup>b</sup> I stood up from my humiliation, with my garment and my sleeveless coat torn apart, and I got down on my knees and spread out my hands to Jehovah my God. 6 And I said: "O my God, I feel ashamed and embarrassed to raise my face to you, O my God, for our errors have multiplied over our heads and our guilt has mounted up to the heavens.<sup>c</sup> 7 From the days of our forefathers until this day our guilt has been great;<sup>d</sup> and because of our errors, we, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword,<sup>e</sup> to captivity,<sup>f</sup> to plunder,<sup>g</sup> and to disgrace, as is the case today.<sup>h</sup> 8 But now for a brief moment, favor has come from Jehovah our God by letting a remnant escape and by giving us a secure position* in his holy place,<sup>i</sup> to make our eyes shine, O our God, and to revive us a little in our slavery. 9 For although we are slaves,<sup>j</sup> our God has not abandoned us in our slavery; but he has extended his loyal love toward us before the kings of Persia,<sup>k</sup> to revive us so as to raise up the house of our God<sup>l</sup> and to restore its ruins and to give us a stone wall* in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 "But now what can we say, O our God, after this? For we have left your commandments, 11 which you gave us through your servants the prophets, saying: 'The land that you are going

10 While Ez'ra was praying<sup>i</sup> and making confession, weeping and lying prostrate before the house of the true God, a large crowd of men, women, and children of Israel gathered around him, for the people were weeping profusely. 2 Then Shec-a-ni'ah the son of Je-hi'el<sup>j</sup> of the sons of E'lam<sup>k</sup> said to Ez'ra: "We have acted unfaithfully against our God by marrying* foreign women from the peoples of the land.<sup>l</sup> Despite

Be strong and take action."

5 At that Ez'ra rose and had the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do what had been said.<sup>c</sup> So they took an oath. 6 Ez'ra now got up from before the house of the true God and went to the chamber<sup>e</sup> of Je-ho-ha'nan the son of E-li'a-shib. Although he went there, he ate no food and drank no water, for he was in mourning because of the unfaithfulness of the exiled people.<sup>d</sup>

7 Then they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem that all the former exiles gather together at Jerusalem; 8 and according to the decision of the princes and the elders, anyone who did not come within three days' time would have all his goods confiscated,* and he would be banished from the congregation of the exiled people.<sup>e</sup> 9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem within three days, that is, in the ninth month, on the 20th day of the month. All the people were sitting in a courtyard of the house of the true God, shivering because of the matter at hand and because of the heavy rain.

10 Then Ez'ra the priest rose and said to them: "You have acted unfaithfully by marrying for-Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from these foreign wives."<sup>b</sup> 12 To this the whole congregation answered with a loud voice: "It is our duty to do exactly as you say. 13 However, there are many people, and it is the rainy season. It is not possible to stand outside, and the matter will not take just one or two days, for we have rebelled extensively in this matter. 14 So, please, let our princes represent the entire congregation;<sup>c</sup> and let all those in our cities who have married foreign women come at an appointed time, along with the elders and judges of each city, until we turn back the burning anger of our God from us concerning this matter."

15 However, Jon'a-than the son of As'a-hel and Jah-zei'ah the son of Tik'veh objected to this, and the Levites Me-shul-lam and Shab'be-thai<sup>d</sup> supported them. 16 But the former exiles did what was agreed on; and Ez'ra the priest and the family heads of their paternal houses, all designated by name, convened separately on the first day of the tenth month to look into the matter; 17 and by the first day of the first month they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women. 18 And it was discovered that some of the sons of the priests had married foreign women:<sup>e</sup> of the sons of Jesh'u-a'<sup>f</sup> the son of Je-hoz'a-dak and his brothers, Ma-a-sei'ah, E-li'e-zer, Ja'rib, and Ged-a-li'ah. 19 But they promised* to send their wives away, and since they were guilty, they

4 As soon as I heard these words, I sat down and began to weep and mourn for days, and I kept fasting<sup>j</sup> and praying be- fore the God of the heavens. 5 I said: “O Jehovah, the God of the heavens, the great and awe- inspiring God who keeps his cov- enant and shows loyal love to those who love him and keep his commandments,<sup>k</sup> 6 please, let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to listen to the prayer of your servant that I am pray- ing to you today, day and night, concerning your servants the Is- raelites, all the while confessing the sins that the people of Israel have committed against you.

1:1 *Meaning “Jah Comforts.” 1:1; 2:1 “See App. B15. 1:1 ^Or “Susa.” <sup>b</sup>Or “palace; fortress.” 1:3 *Or “jurisdic- tional district.”

CHAP. 1 We have sinned, both I and the house of my father.<sup>a</sup> 7 We have certainly acted corruptly against you<sup>b</sup> by not keeping the com- mandments, regulations, and ju- dicial decisions that you gave to your servant Moses.<sup>c</sup>

8 “Remember, please, the word that you commanded* your servant Moses: ‘If you act un- faithfully, I will scatter you among the peoples.<sup>d</sup> 9 But if you return to me and observe my commandments and obey them, though your dispersed people should be at the end of the heav- ens, I will gather them<sup>e</sup> from there and bring them to the place that I have chosen to have my name reside.’<sup>f</sup> 10 They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great power and by your mighty hand.<sup>g</sup> 11 O Jehovah, please, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who take delight in fearing your name, and please, grant success to your servant today, and may this man show me compassion.”<sup>h</sup>

Now I was cupbearer to the king.<sup>i</sup>

2 In the month of Ni’san,<sup>j</sup> in the 20th year<sup>k</sup> of King Ar- ta-xerx’es,<sup>k</sup> wine was set before him, and as usual I took up the wine and gave it to the king.<sup>l</sup> But I had never been gloomy in his presence. 2 So the king said to me: "Why do you look so gloomy when you are not sick? This can be nothing but gloominess of heart." At this I became very frightened.

3 Then I said to the king: "Long live the king! Why should I not look gloomy when the city, the place where my forefathers are buried, lies in ruins, and its gates have been consumed by fire?"<sup>a</sup> 4 The king then said to me: "What is it that you are seeking?" At once I prayed to the God of the heavens.<sup>b</sup> 5 I then said to the king: "If it pleases the king and if your servant has found favor with you, send me to Judah, to the city where my forefathers are buried, so that I may rebuild it."<sup>c</sup> 6 Then the king, with his royal consort<sup>d</sup> sitting beside him, said to me: "How long will your journey be, and when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me,<sup>d</sup> and I gave him a set time.<sup>e</sup>

7 Then I said to the king: "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me for the governors of the region Beyond the River,<sup>f</sup> granting me safe passage until I reach Judah, 8 as well as a letter to A'saph the keeper of the Royal Park,<sup>g</sup> so that he may give me timber for beams for the gates of the Fortress<sup>h</sup> of the House<sup>i</sup> and for the walls of the city<sup>j</sup> and for the house where I will go." So the king gave them to me,<sup>j</sup> for the good hand of my God was upon me.<sup>j</sup>

9 Eventually I came to the governors of the region Beyond the River and gave them the king's letters. The king also sent with me army chiefs and horsemen. 10 When San-bal'lat<sup>k</sup> the Hor'o-nite and To·bi'ah<sup>l</sup> the Am'mon-ite<sup>m</sup> official<sup>n</sup> heard about it, they were very displeased that someone had come to do something good for the people of Israel.

11 At length I came to Jerusalem, and I stayed there for three days. 12 I rose up by night, I and a few men with me, and I did not tell anyone what my God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem, and there was no animal with me except the one I was riding. 13 And I went out at night through the Valley Gate,<sup>a</sup> passing in front of the Fountain of the Big Snake to the Gate of the Ash Heaps,<sup>b</sup> and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem that were broken down and its gates that had been consumed by fire.<sup>c</sup> 14 And I passed along to the Fountain Gate<sup>d</sup> and to the King's Pool, and there was not enough space for the animal I was riding to pass. 15 But I continued up the valley<sup>e</sup> by night, and I kept inspecting the wall, after which I came back and entered through the Valley Gate, and then I returned.

16 The deputy rulers<sup>f</sup> did not know where I had gone and what I was doing, for I had not yet said anything to the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the deputy rulers, and the rest of the workers. 17 Finally I said to them: "You can see what a terrible situation we are in, how Jerusalem lies in ruins and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, so that this disgrace will not continue." 18 Then I told them of how the good hand of my God was upon me<sup>g</sup> and also of the words that the king had spoken to me.<sup>h</sup> At this they said: "Let us get up and build." So they strengthened themselves<sup>i</sup> for the good work.<sup>j</sup>

3 The sons of Has-se-na'ah built the Fish Gate;<sup>n</sup> they timbered it<sup>o</sup> and then set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. 4 And next to them Mer'e-moth<sup>p</sup> the son of U·ri'jah the son of Hak'koz did repair work, and next to them Me-shul'lam<sup>q</sup> the son of Ber-e·chi'ah the son of Me-shez'a-bel did repair work, and next to them Za'dok the son of Ba'a-na did repair work. 5 And next to them the Te-ko'ites<sup>r</sup> did repair work, but their prominent men would not lower themselves to share in<sup>s</sup> the service of their masters.

6 Joi'a-da the son of Pa·se'ah and Me-shul'lam the son of Bes·o-dei'ah repaired the Gate of the Old City;<sup>t</sup> they timbered it and then set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. 7 Next to them Mel·a·ti'ah the Gib'e-onite<sup>u</sup> and Ja'don the Me-ron'o-thite

25 After him Pa'lal the son of U'zai did repair work in front of the Buttress and the tower that goes out from the King's House,<sup>*a</sup> the upper one that belongs to the Courtyard of the Guard.<sup>b</sup> After him there was Pe-dai'ah the son of Pa'rosh.<sup>c</sup>

28 The priests did repair work above the Horse Gate,<sup>h</sup> each in front of his own house.

29 After them Za'dok<sup>i</sup> the son of Im'mer did repair work in front of his own house.

And after him She-mai'ah the son of Shec-a-ni'ah, the keeper of the East Gate,<sup>j</sup> did repair work.

30 After him Han-a-ni'ah the son of Shel-e-mi'ah and Ha'nun the sixth son of Za'laph repaired another section.

After him Me-shul'lam<sup>k</sup> the son of Ber-e-chi'ah did repair work in front of his own hall.

31 After him Mal-chi'jah, a member of the goldsmith guild, did repair work as far as the house of the temple servants<sup>*l</sup> and the traders, in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the roof chamber of the corner.

32 And between the roof chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate,<sup>m</sup> the goldsmiths and the traders did repair work.

4 Now as soon as San-bal'lat<sup>n</sup> heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and very upset,* and he kept mocking the Jews. 2 And in the presence of his brothers and the army of Sa-mar'i-a, he said: "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they do this by themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish up in a day? Will they bring the charred stones to life out of the heaps of dusty rubble?"<sup>a</sup>

3 Now To-bi'ah<sup>b</sup> the Am'monite,<sup>c</sup> who was standing beside him, said: "If even a fox would climb up on what they are building, it would knock down their stone wall."

4 Hear, O our God, for we are being treated with contempt,<sup>d</sup> and make their reproach return on their own heads,<sup>e</sup> and give them over as plunder in a land of captivity. 5 And do not cover over their guilt or let their sin be erased from before you,<sup>f</sup> for they have insulted the builders.

6 So we kept building the wall, and the entire wall was joined together and rebuilt up to half its height, and the people continued to put their heart into the work.

7 Now as soon as San-bal'-lat, To-bi'ah,<sup>g</sup> the Arabians,<sup>h</sup> the Am'mon-ites, and the Ash'dod-ites<sup>i</sup> heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem was progressing and that the gaps were being filled in, they became very angry. 8 They conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to create a disturbance in it. 9 But we prayed to our God and kept a guard posted against them day and night.

10 However, people of Ju-dah were saying: "The strength of the laborers<sup>j</sup> has failed, and there is so much rubble; we will never be able to build the wall."

11 And our enemies kept saying: "Before they know it or see us, we will come right in among them and kill them and stop the work."

12 Whenever the Jews living near them came in, they told us again and again:<sup>k</sup> "They will come at us from all directions."

13 So I kept men posted at the lowest parts of the space behind the wall at the exposed places, and I posted them by families with their swords, their lances, and their bows.

14 When I saw their fear, I immediately rose and said to the nobles<sup>l</sup> and the deputy rulers and the rest of the people: "Do not be afraid of them.<sup>b</sup> Remember Jehovah, who is great and awe-inspiring;<sup>c</sup> and fight for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives and homes."

15 Now after our enemies heard that what they were doing had become known to us and that the true God had frustrated their plan, we all went back to work on the wall. 16 From that day forward, half of my men would do the work<sup>d</sup> and half of them would hold the lances, the shields, the bows, and the coats of mail. And the princes<sup>e</sup> stood behind the whole house of Judah 17 who were building the wall. Those who were carrying the loads did the work with one hand while holding a weapon* in the other hand. 18 And each of the builders had a sword strapped to his hip while building, and the one to blow the horn<sup>f</sup> stood beside me.

19 I then said to the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the people: "The work is large and extensive, and we are spread out on the wall far apart from one another. 20 When you hear the sound of the horn, gather together to where we are. Our God will fight for us."<sup>g</sup>

4:12 *Lit., "ten times." 4:17 *Or "missile."

4:10 *Or "burden bearers."

21 So we kept working while the other half were holding the lances, from the break of dawn until the stars came out. 22 At that time I said to the people: "Let the men, each along with his attendant, spend the night inside Jerusalem, and they will guard us by night and work during the day." 23 So neither I nor my brothers, my attendants,<sup>a</sup> and the guards who followed me ever took off our garments, and each of us kept his weapon in his right hand.

5 However, there was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their Jewish brothers.<sup>b</sup> 2 Some were saying: "We are many with our sons and our daughters. We must get grain in order to eat and stay alive." 3 Others were saying: "We are giving our fields and our vineyards and our houses as security to get grain during the food shortage." 4 Still others were saying: "We have borrowed money on our fields and our vineyards for the king's tribute.<sup>c</sup> 5 Now we are of the same flesh and blood as our brothers,* and our children are just like their children; yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery, and some of our daughters are already in slavery.<sup>d</sup> But we are powerless to stop this, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

6 I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these words. 7 So I considered these things in my heart, and I took issue with the nobles and the deputy rulers and said to them: "Each one of you is demanding interest* from your own brother."<sup>e</sup>

Further, I arranged for a great assembly because of them.

8 And I said to them: "To the extent possible, we have bought back our own Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations; but will you now sell your own brothers,<sup>a</sup> and are they to be sold back to us?" At this they became speechless, and they could find nothing to say. 9 Then I said: "What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God<sup>b</sup> so that the nations, our enemies, cannot reproach us? 10 Moreover, I, my brothers, and my attendants are lending them money and grain. Let us, please, stop this lending on interest.<sup>c</sup> 11 Please, restore to them on this very day their fields,<sup>d</sup> their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, as well as the hundredth* of the money, the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are demanding as interest from them."

12 To this they said: "We will restore these things to them and ask nothing back. We will do precisely as you say." So I called the priests and made those men swear to keep this promise.

13 Also, I shook out the folds of my garment* and said: "In this manner may the true God shake out from his house and from his possessions every man who does not carry out this promise, and in this manner may he be shaken out and emptied." To this all the congregation said: "Amen!"<sup>g</sup> And they praised Jehovah, and the people did as they promised.

14 Moreover, from the day that he commissioned me to become their governor<sup>e</sup> in the land of Judah, from the 20th year<sup>f</sup> to the 32nd year<sup>g</sup> of King Artaxerxes,<sup>h</sup> 12 years, neither I nor my brothers ate the food allowance due the governor.<sup>i</sup> 15 But the former governors who were before me had burdened the people and had been taking from them 40 silver shekels<sup>a</sup> for bread and wine each day. Also, their attendants had oppressed the people. But I did not do that<sup>a</sup> because of the fear of God.<sup>b</sup>

16 Furthermore, I took a hand in the work on this wall, and not a field did we acquire;<sup>c</sup> all my attendants were gathered there for the work. 17 There were 150 Jews and deputy rulers dining at my table, as well as those who came to us from the nations. 18 Every day one bull, six choice sheep, and birds were prepared for me,<sup>d</sup> and once every ten days we had all sorts of wine in abundance. Despite all this I did not demand the food allowance due the governor, because the people were already bearing their burden of service. 19 Do remember me favorably,* O my God, for all that I have done in behalf of this people.<sup>d</sup>

6 Now as soon as San-bal'lat, To-bi'ah,<sup>e</sup> Ge'shem the Arabian,<sup>f</sup> and the rest of our enemies were told that I had rebuilt the wall<sup>g</sup> and that there were no gaps left in it (although up to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates),<sup>h</sup> 2 San-bal'lat and Ge'shem immediately sent this message to me: "Come, and let us set a time to meet together in the villages of the Valley Plain of O'no."<sup>i</sup> But they were scheming to harm me. 3 So I sent messengers to them, saying: "I am engaged in a great work, and I am not able to go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it to come to you?" 4 They sent me the same message four times, and I gave them the same reply each time.

5 Then San-bal'lat sent his attendant to me with the same message a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

6 There it was written: "Among the nations it has been heard, and Ge'shem<sup>a</sup> is also saying it, that you and the Jews are scheming to rebel.<sup>b</sup> That is why you are building the wall; and according to these reports you are to become their king. 7 Also, you have appointed prophets to proclaim about you throughout Jerusalem, 'There is a king in Judah!' And now these things will be told to the king. So come, and let us discuss this together."

8 However, I sent him this reply: "None of the things you are saying have taken place; you are making them up out of your own imagination."<sup>c</sup> 9 For they were all trying to frighten us, saying: "Their hands will slacken in the work, and it will not be done."<sup>c</sup> Now, I pray, strengthen my hands.<sup>d</sup>

10 Then I went to the house of She-mai'ah the son of De-la'-iah the son of Me-het'a-bel while he was confined there. He said: "Let us set a time to meet at the house of the true God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you. They are coming to kill you by night." 11 But I said: "Should a man like me run away? Can a man like me go into the temple and live?<sup>e</sup> I will not go in!" 12 Then I realized that God had not sent him, but that To-bi'ah and San-bal'lat<sup>f</sup> had hired him to speak this prophecy against me. 13 He had been hired to frighten me and to cause me to sin, so that they would have grounds to damage my reputation in order to reproach me.

14 Do remember, O my God, To-bi'ah<sup>g</sup> and San-bal'lat and these deeds, and also No·a·di'ah the prophetess and the rest of the prophets who were constantly trying to frighten me.

6:8 *Lit., "from your heart."

15 So the wall was completed on the 25th day of E'lul,* in 52 days.

16 As soon as all our enemies heard of it and all the surrounding nations saw it, they became greatly ashamed,<sup>*a</sup> and they realized that it was with our God's help that this work had been done. 17 In those days the nobles<sup>b</sup> of Judah were sending many letters to To·bi'ah, and To·bi'ah would reply to them. 18 Many in Judah swore allegiance to him, for he was a son-in-law of Shec·a·ni'ah the son of A'rah,<sup>c</sup> and his son Je·ho·ha·na'n had married the daughter of Meshul·lam<sup>d</sup> the son of Ber·e·chi'ah. 19 Also, they would constantly tell me good things about him and then report to him what I said. Then To·bi'ah would send letters to frighten me.<sup>e</sup>

4 Now the city was spacious and large, and there were few people inside it,<sup>n</sup> and the houses had not been rebuilt.

5 But my God put it into my heart to gather together the nobles and the deputy rulers and the people to be enrolled genealogically.<sup>a</sup> Then I found the book of genealogical enrollment of those who first came up, and I found written in it:

61 And these went up from Tel-me'lah, Tel-har'sha, Che'rub, Ad'don, and Im'mer, but they were unable to verify their paternal house and their origin, as to whether they were Israelites:<sup>b</sup> 62 the sons of De-la'iah, the sons of To-bi'ah, the sons of Ne-ko'da, 642. 63 And of the priests: the sons of Ha-ba'i'ah, the sons of Hak'koz,<sup>c</sup> the sons of Bar-zil'lai, who took a wife from the daughters of Bar-zil'lai<sup>d</sup> the Gil'e-ad-ite and was called by their name. 64 These looked for their records to establish their genealogy, but they could not be found, so they were disqualified from the priesthood.<sup>e</sup> 65 The governor<sup>*f</sup> told them that they should not eat from the most holy things<sup>g</sup> until there was a priest who could consult the Urim and Thum'mim.<sup>h</sup>

66 The total number of the entire congregation was 42,360,<sup>i</sup> 67 apart from their male and female slaves,<sup>j</sup> who were 7,337; they also had 245 male and female singers.<sup>k</sup> 68 Their horses were 736, their mules 245, 69 their camels 435, their donkeys 6,720.

heads of the paternal houses gave to the project treasury 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,200 silver mi'nas.<sup>a</sup> 72 And the rest of the people gave 20,000 gold drachmas, 2,000 silver mi'nas, and 67 priests' robes.

stood up. 6 Then Ez'ra praised Jehovah the true God, the great One, at which all the people answered, "Amen!*" Amen!"<sup>a</sup> and lifted up their hands. They then bowed low and prostrated themselves to Jehovah with their faces to the ground. 7 And Jesh'u·a, Ba'ni, She-rebi'ah,<sup>b</sup> Ja'min, Ak'kub, Shab'be-thai, Ho·di'ah, Ma·a-sei'ah, Ke·li'ta, Az·a-ri'ah, Jo'za·bad,<sup>c</sup> Ha'nān, and Pe·la'iah, who were Levites, were explaining the Law to the people,<sup>d</sup> while the people remained standing. 8 And they continued reading aloud from the book, from the Law of the true God, clearly explaining it and putting meaning into it; so they helped the people to understand what was being read.*<sup>e</sup>

9 And Ne-he-mi'ah, who was then the governor,<sup>f</sup> Ez'ra<sup>g</sup> the priest and copyist,* and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: "This day is holy to Jehovah your God.<sup>g</sup> Do not mourn or weep." For all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the Law. 10 He said to them: "Go, eat the choice things<sup>h</sup> and drink what is sweet, and send portions of food<sup>h</sup> to those who have nothing prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord, and do not feel sad, for the joy of Jehovah is your stronghold."<sup>h</sup>

11 And the Levites were calming all the people, saying: "Be quiet! for this day is holy, and do not feel sad." 12 So all the people went away to eat and to drink and to send out portions of food and to carry on a great rejoicing,<sup>i</sup> for they understood the words that had been made known to them.<sup>j</sup>

13 And on the second day, the heads of the paternal houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites gathered around Ez'ra the copyist<sup>a</sup> to gain further insight into the words of the Law. 14 Then they found written in the Law that Jehovah had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should dwell in booths<sup>b</sup> during the festival in the seventh month.<sup>a</sup> 15 and that they should make proclamation<sup>b</sup> and announce throughout all their cities and throughout Jerusalem, saying: “Go out to the mountainous region and bring in leafy branches from olive trees, pine trees, myrtle and palm trees, and the leafy branches of other trees to make booths, according to what is written.”

16 So the people went out and brought them in to make booths for themselves, each one on his roof, as well as in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the house of the true God,<sup>c</sup> in the public square of the Water Gate,<sup>d</sup> and in the public square of the Gate of E'phra-im.<sup>e</sup> 17 Thus all those of the congregation who had come back from the captivity made booths and were dwelling in the booths, for the Israelites had not done it this way from the days of Joshua<sup>f</sup> the son of Nun until that day, so that there was very great rejoicing.<sup>g</sup> 18 And day by day there was a reading from the book of the Law of the true God,<sup>h</sup> from the first day until the last day. And they held the festival for seven days, and there was a solemn assembly on the eighth day, as was required.<sup>i</sup>

9 On the 24th day of this month the Israelites assembled; they were fasting with sackcloth and dust on them-

Finally you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.<sup>a</sup> 31 And in your great mercy, you did not exterminate them<sup>b</sup> or abandon them, for you are a compassionate* and merciful God.<sup>c</sup>

32 “And now, O our God, the God great, mighty, and awe-inspiring, who has kept his covenant and shown loyal love,<sup>d</sup> do not treat lightly all the hardship that has found us, our kings, our princes,<sup>e</sup> our priests,<sup>f</sup> our prophets,<sup>g</sup> our forefathers, and all your people from the days of the kings of As-syr-i-a<sup>h</sup> down to this day. 33 You have been righteous in all that has come upon us, for you have acted faithfully; but we are the ones who have acted wickedly.<sup>i</sup>

34 As for our kings, our princes, our priests, and our forefathers, they have not observed your Law nor paid attention to your commandments or to your reminders* by which you warned them. 35 Even when they were in their kingdom and enjoying the abundant goodness that you gave them and they were in the broad and fertile* land that you bestowed on them, they did not serve you<sup>j</sup> and did not turn away from their bad practices. 36 So here we are today, slaves<sup>k</sup>—yes, slaves in the land that you gave to our forefathers to eat its fruitage and its good things. 37 Its abundant produce is for the kings whom you have put over us because of our sins.<sup>l</sup> They rule over our bodies and over our livestock as they see fit, and we are in great distress.

dah because of the priests and the Levites who were ministering. 45 And they began taking care of the duties of their God and the obligation of the purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the instructions of David and his son Sol'o-mon. 46 For long ago in the days of David and A'saph, there were directors* for the singers and for the songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.<sup>a</sup> 47 And during the days of Ze-rub'ba-bel<sup>b</sup> and during the days of Ne-he-mi'ah, all Israel gave portions to the singers<sup>c</sup> and the gatekeepers,<sup>d</sup> according to the daily need. They also set aside the portion for the Levites,<sup>e</sup> and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.

13 On that day the book of Moses was read in the hearing of the people,<sup>f</sup> and it was found written that no Am'monite or Mo'ab-ite<sup>g</sup> should ever enter the congregation of the true God,<sup>h</sup> 2 for they had not met the Israelites with bread and water, but instead they had hired Ba'laam against them to curse them.<sup>i</sup> However, our God had changed the curse into a blessing.<sup>j</sup> 3 As soon as they heard the Law, they began to separate from Israel all those of foreign descent.<sup>k*</sup>

the singers, and the gatekeepers are entitled, along with the contribution for the priests.<sup>a</sup>

6 And during all this time I was not in Jerusalem, for I went to the king in the 32nd year<sup>b</sup> of King Ar-ta-xerx'es<sup>c</sup> of Babylon; and sometime later I asked the king for a leave of absence.

7 Then I came to Jerusalem and noticed the terrible thing that E-l'i-a-shib<sup>d</sup> had done in behalf of To-bi'ah,<sup>e</sup> making a storeroom available for him in the courtyard of the house of the true God. 8 This was very displeasing to me, so I threw all of To-bi'ah's household furniture out of the storeroom.* 9 After that I gave orders, and they cleansed the storerooms;<sup>f</sup> and I put back there the utensils of the house of the true God,<sup>f</sup> with the grain offering and the frankincense.<sup>g</sup>

10 I also found out that the portions of the Levites<sup>h</sup> had not been given them,<sup>i</sup> so that the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone off, each to his own field.<sup>j</sup> 11 So I reprimanded the deputy rulers<sup>k</sup> and said: "Why has the house of the true God been neglected?" Then I gathered them together and assigned them back to their posts. 12 And all Judah brought in the tenth<sup>m</sup> of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the storerooms.<sup>n</sup> 13 Then I put Shel-e-mi'ah the priest, Za'-dok the copyist,* and Pe-dai'ah of the Levites in charge of the storerooms, and Ha'nan the son of Zac'cur the son of Mat-ta-ni'-ah was their assistant, for these men were considered reliable. It was their responsibility to make the distribution to their brothers.

14 Do remember me,<sup>o</sup> O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my acts of loyal love

15 In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath,<sup>b</sup> bringing in heaps of grain and loading them on donkeys, and bringing wine, grapes, figs, and every sort of load into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.<sup>c</sup> So I warned them against selling provisions on that day.* 16 And the Tyr'i-ans who lived in the city were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise, selling them to the people of Judah and in Jerusalem on the Sabbath.<sup>d</sup> 17 So I reprimanded the nobles of Judah and said to them: "What is this evil thing that you are doing, even profaning the Sabbath day? 18 Was not this what your forefathers did, so that our God brought all this disaster on us and also on this city? Now you are adding to the burning anger against Israel by profaning the Sabbath."<sup>e</sup>

19 So as soon as the shadows began to fall on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered that the doors be closed. I also said that they should not open them until after the Sabbath, and I stationed some of my own attendants at the gates so that no loads would be brought in on the Sabbath day. 20 So the traders and the sellers of all kinds of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem once or twice. 21 Then I warned them and said to them: "Why are you spending the night in front of the wall? If you do it again, I will use force against you." From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath.

23 In those days I also saw Jews who had married* Ash'dod-ite,<sup>c</sup> Am'mon-ite, and Mo'ab-ite<sup>d</sup> women.<sup>e</sup> 24 Half of their sons were speaking Ash'dod-ite and half spoke the language of the different peoples, but none of them knew how to speak the language of the Jews. 25 So I reprimanded them and called down a curse on them and struck some of the men<sup>f</sup> and pulled out their hair and made them swear by God: "You should not give your daughters to their sons, and you should not accept any of their daughters for your sons or yourselves."<sup>g</sup> 26 Was it not because of these that King Sol'o-mon of Israel sinned? 1 Now in the days of A-has-u-e'-rus,<sup>a</sup> that is, the A-has-u-e'rus who ruled over 127 provinces<sup>#a</sup> from In'di-a to E-thi-o'pi-a,<sup>a</sup> 2 in those days when King A-has-u-e'rus was sitting on his royal throne in Shu'shan<sup>*b</sup> the citadel,<sup>c</sup> 3 in the third year of his reign, he held a banquet for all his princes and his servants. The army of Persia<sup>c</sup> and Me'di-a,<sup>d</sup> the nobles, and the princes of the provinces<sup>#c</sup> were before him, 4 and he showed them the wealth of his glorious kingdom and the grandeur and the splendor of his magnificence for many days, 180 days. 5 And when these days were completed, the king held a banquet for seven days for all the people present in Shu'shan<sup>*c</sup> the citadel,<sup>c</sup> from the greatest to the least, in the courtyard of the garden of the king's palace. 6 There were linen, fine cotton, and blue material held fast in ropes of fine fabric, purple wool in silver rings, pillars of marble, and couches of gold and silver on a pavement of porphyry, marble, pearl, and black marble.

7 Wine was served in gold cups;* each cup was different from the other, and the royal wine was plentiful, according to the means of the king. 8 The drinking was according to the rule that no one was under compulsion,* for the king had arranged with the officials of his palace that each should do as he pleased.

10 On the seventh day, when the king's heart was in a cheerful mood because of the wine, he told Me-hu'man, Biz'tha, Har-bo'na,<sup>a</sup> Big'tha, A-bag'tha, Ze'thar, and Car'kas, the seven court officials who were personal attendants to King A-has-u-e'-rus, 11 to bring before the king Queen Vash'ti, wearing the royal headdress,* to show the peoples and the princes her beauty, for she was very beautiful. 12 But Queen Vash'ti kept refusing to come at the king's order that was conveyed through the court officials. At this the king became very angry, and his rage flared up within him.

13 The king then spoke to the wise men who had insight with regard to precedents* (for in this way the king's matter came before all those versed in law and legal cases, 14 and those closest to him were Car-she'na, She'thar, Ad-ma'tha, Tar-shish, Me'res, Mar-se'na, and Me-mu'can, seven princes<sup>b</sup> of Persia and Me'di-a, who had access to the king and who occupied the highest positions in the kingdom). 15 The king asked: "According to law, what is to be done with Queen Vash'ti because she has not obeyed the order of King A-has-u-e'rus conveyed through the court officials?"

16 To this Me-mu'can said in the presence of the king and the princes: "It is not against the king alone that Queen Vash'ti has done wrong,<sup>c</sup> but against all the princes and against all the peoples in all the provinces<sup>#c</sup> of King A-has-u-e'rus. 17 For what the queen did will become known by all the wives, and they will despise their husbands and say, 'King A-has-u-e'rus said to bring in Queen Vash'ti before him, but she refused to come.<sup>1</sup> 18 This very day the princesses of Persia and Me'di-a who know about what the queen did will talk to all the princes of the king, resulting in much contempt and indignation. 19 If it seems good to the king, let a royal decree be issued from him, and let it be written among the laws of Persia and Me'di-a, which cannot be repealed,<sup>a</sup> that Vash'ti may never again come in before King A-has-u-e'rus; and let the king confer her royal position on a woman who is better than she is. 20 And when the decree of the king is heard in all his vast realm, all the wives will give honor to their husbands, from the greatest to the least."

21 This proposal pleased the king and the princes, and the king did what Me-mu'can said.

22 So he sent letters to all the royal provinces,<sup>*b</sup> to each province<sup>c</sup> in its own script<sup>d</sup> and to each people in its own language, for every husband to be master<sup>e</sup> in his own house and to speak in the language of his own people.

2 After these things, when the rage of King A-has-u-e'rus<sup>f</sup> had subsided, he remembered what Vash'ti had done<sup>d</sup> and what had been decided against her.<sup>e</sup>

2 Then the king's personal attendants said: "A search should be made for young, beautiful virgins for the king. 3 And let the king appoint commissioners in all the provinces<sup>g</sup> of his realm<sup>h</sup> to bring together all the beautiful young virgins to Shu'shan<sup>i</sup> the citadel,<sup>j</sup> to the house of the women.<sup>k</sup> Let them be put in the care of Heg'a-i<sup>g</sup> the king's eu-

5 There was a certain Jewish man in Shu'shan<sup>#b</sup> the citadel<sup>a</sup> whose name was Mor'de-cai<sup>c</sup> son of Ja'ir son of Shim'e-i son of Kish, a Ben'ja-min-ite,<sup>d</sup> 6 who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the people who were deported with King Jec-oni'ah<sup>*e</sup> of Judah, whom King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar of Babylon took into exile. 7 He was the guardian* of Ha-das'sah,<sup>f</sup> that is, Esther, the daughter of his father's brother,<sup>f</sup> for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was beautifully formed and attractive in appearance, and at the death of her father and her mother, Mor'de-cai took her as his daughter. 8 When the king's word and his law were proclaimed and when many young women were brought together at Shu'shan<sup>#b</sup> the citadel<sup>a</sup> under the care of Heg'a-i<sup>g</sup> Esther was also taken to the king's house<sup>h</sup> under the care of Heg'a-i the guardian of the women.

9 Now the young woman was pleasing to him and won his favor,* so he promptly arranged for her beauty treatments<sup>#h</sup> and her diet, and he assigned to her seven selected young women from the king's house. 12 Each young woman had her turn to go in to King A-has-u·e'rus after completing the 12-month treatment that was prescribed for the women, for this was the way they had to fulfill their beauty treatment<sup>e</sup>—six months with oil of myrrh<sup>f</sup> and six months with balsam oil<sup>g</sup> and various ointments for beauty treatment.<sup>h</sup> 13 Then the young woman was ready to go in to the king, and whatever she asked for would be given her when she went from the house of the women<sup>i</sup> to the king's house. 14 In the evening she would go in, and in the morning she would return to the second house of the women,<sup>j</sup> under the care of Sha-ash'-gaz the king's eunuch,<sup>k</sup> the guardian of the concubines. She would not go to the king again unless the king had been especially pleased with her and she was requested by name.<sup>l</sup>

15 And when the turn came for Esther the daughter of Ab'i-ha-il the uncle of Mor'de-cai, who had taken her as his daughter,<sup>m</sup> to go in to the king, she did not request anything except what Heg'a'i the king's eunuch, the guardian of the women, recommended. beth,* in the seventh year<sup>a</sup> of his reign. 17 And the king came to love Esther more than all the other women, and she won his favor and approval* more than any of the other virgins. So he put the royal headdress<sup>b</sup> on her head and made her queen<sup>b</sup> instead of Vash'ti.<sup>c</sup> 18 And the king held a great banquet for all his princes and his servants, the banquet of Esther. He then proclaimed an amnesty for the provinces,* and he kept giving gifts according to the means of the king.

19 Now when virgins<sup>d</sup> were brought together a second time, Mor'de-cai was sitting in the king's gate. 20 Esther did not say anything about her relatives and her people,<sup>e</sup> just as Mor'de-cai had instructed her; Esther continued to do what Mor'de-cai said, just as when she was under his care.<sup>f</sup>

21 In those days while Mor'de-cai was sitting in the king's gate, Big'than and Te'resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, got angry and plotted to do away with<sup>g</sup> King A-has-u·e'rus. 22 But Mor'de-cai learned about it, and he immediately told Queen Esther. Esther then spoke to the king in Mor'de-cai's name.* 23 So the matter was investigated and eventually confirmed, and both men were hanged on a stake; and this was all recorded in the book of the history of the times in the presence of the king.<sup>g</sup>

3 After this King A-has-u·e'rus promoted Ha'man<sup>h</sup> the son of Ham-me-da'tha the Ag-ag-ite<sup>i</sup> and exalted him by putting his throne above all the other princes who were with him.<sup>j</sup>

2 And all the king's servants who were in the king's gate would bow low and prostrate themselves to Ha'man, for this is what the king had commanded respecting him. 3 So the king's servants who were in the king's gate said to Mor'de-cai: "Why are you ignoring the king's commandment?" 4 Day after day they would ask him, but he would not listen to them. Then they told Ha'man to see whether Mor'de-cai's conduct would be tolerated;<sup>a</sup> for he had told them that he was a Jew.<sup>b</sup>

5 Now when Ha'man saw that Mor'de-cai refused to bow low and prostrate himself to him, Ha'man became filled with rage.<sup>c</sup> 6 But he despised the thought of doing away with<sup>d</sup> Mor'de-cai alone, for they had told him about Mor'de-cai's people. So Ha'man began seeking to annihilate all the Jews who were in the entire realm of A-has-u-e'russ, all of Mor'de-cai's people.

7 In the first month, that is, the month of Ni'san,<sup>e</sup> in the 12th year<sup>d</sup> of King A-has-u-e'russ, they cast Pur<sup>e</sup> (that is, the Lot) before Ha'man to determine the day and the month, and it fell on the 12th month, that is, A'dar.<sup>f</sup> 8 Ha'man then said to King A-has-u-e'russ: "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples<sup>g</sup> in all the provinces<sup>h</sup> of your realm,<sup>h</sup> whose laws are different from those of all other peoples; and they do not obey the king's laws, and it is not in the king's interests to let them be. 9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed. 10 At that the king removed his signet ring<sup>a</sup> from his own hand and gave it to Ha'man<sup>b</sup> the son of Ham-me-da'tha the Ag'agite,<sup>c</sup> who was the enemy of the Jews. 11 The king said to Ha'man: "The silver and the people are given to you, to do with them as you see fit." 12 The king's secretaries<sup>d</sup> were then called on the 13th day of the first month. They put in writing<sup>e</sup> all of Ha'man's orders to the king's satraps, the governors who were over the provinces,* and the princes of the different peoples, to each province<sup>g</sup> in its own script<sup>h</sup> and to each people in its own language. It was written in the name of King A-has-u-e'russ and sealed with the king's signet ring.<sup>f</sup>

13 The letters were sent by means of couriers to all the king's provinces,* giving the order to annihilate, to kill, and to destroy all the Jews, young and old alike, children and women, on a single day, on the 13th day of the 12th month, that is, the month of A'dar,<sup>g</sup> and to seize their possessions.<sup>h</sup> 14 A copy of the document was to be issued as a law in every province<sup>g</sup> and proclaimed to all the peoples, so that they would be prepared for that day. 15 The couriers went out quickly<sup>i</sup> by order of the king; the law was issued in Shu'shan*<sup>j</sup> the citadel.<sup>k</sup> The king and Ha'man then sat down to drink, but the city of Shu'shan* was in confusion.

Then he went out into the middle of the city, crying out loudly and bitterly. 2 He went only as far as the king's gate, for no one was to enter the king's gate wearing sackcloth. 3 And in every province<sup>a</sup> where the king's word and his decree reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, along with fasting<sup>b</sup> and weeping and wailing. Many were lying down in sackcloth and ashes.<sup>c</sup> 4 When Esther's female attendants and her eunuchs came in and told her, the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments for Mor'de·cai to wear instead of his sackcloth, but he refused them. 5 At this Esther summoned Ha'thach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to serve her, and she ordered him to find out from Mor'de·cai what this meant and what was happening.

6 So Ha'thach went out to Mor'de·cai in the public square of the city in front of the king's gate. 7 Mor'de·cai told him about everything that had happened to him and the exact amount of money<sup>d</sup> that Ha'man had promised to pay to the king's treasury for the Jews to be destroyed.<sup>e</sup> 8 He also gave him a copy of the written decree that had been issued in Shu'shan<sup>f</sup> for their annihilation. He was to show it to Esther and explain it to her and instruct her<sup>g</sup> to go in to the king to beg for his favor and to plead directly with him in behalf of her people.

9 Ha'thach came back and told Esther what Mor'de·cai had said. 10 Esther replied to Ha'thach with instructions to tell Mor'de·cai:<sup>h</sup> 11 "All the king's servants and the people of the

12 When Mor'de·cai was told what Esther had said, 13 he replied to Esther: "Do not imagine that because you are in the king's household you are any more likely to escape than all the other Jews. 14 For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another source,<sup>c</sup> but you and your father's house will perish. And who knows whether it is for a time like this that you have attained to your royal status?"<sup>d</sup>

15 Then Esther replied to Mor'de·cai: 16 "Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Shu'shan* and fast<sup>e</sup> in my behalf. Do not eat or drink for three days,<sup>f</sup> night and day. I along with my female attendants will also fast. I will go in to the king, which is against the law, and if I am to perish, I will perish." 17 So Mor'de·cai went his way and did all that Esther had instructed him to do.

5 On the third day<sup>g</sup> Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner courtyard of the king's house,* opposite the king's house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the entrance. 2 As soon as the king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard, she gained his favor, and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter<sup>h</sup> that was in his hand. Esther then approached and touched the top of the scepter.

3 The king asked her: “What is the matter, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even to<sup>a</sup> the half of my kingdom, it will be granted you!” 4 Esther replied: “If it pleases the king, let the king along with Ha’man<sup>a</sup> come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him.” 5 So the king said to his men: “Tell Ha’man to come quickly, as Esther requests.” So the king and Ha’man went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 During the banquet of wine, the king said to Esther: “What is your petition? It will be granted you! And what is your request? Even to<sup>a</sup> the half of my kingdom, it will be done!”<sup>b</sup> 7 Esther answered: “My petition and my request is, 8 If I have found favor with the king and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to act on my request, let the king and Ha’man come to the banquet that I will hold for them tomorrow; and tomorrow I will do as the king says.”

9 On that day Ha’man went out joyful and with a cheerful heart. But when Ha’man saw Mor’dé-cai in the king’s gate and noticed that he did not rise and tremble in his presence, Ha’man was filled with rage against Mor’dé-cai.<sup>c</sup> 10 However, Ha’man restrained himself and went to his house. Then he sent for his friends and Ze’resh<sup>d</sup> his wife. 11 Ha’man boasted about his glorious wealth, his many sons,<sup>e</sup> and how the king had promoted him and had exalted him over the princes and the servants of the king.<sup>f</sup>

12 Ha’man added: “What is more, Queen Esther invited no

13 But all of this fails to satisfy me as long as I see Mor’dé-cai the Jew sitting in the king’s gate.” 14 So Ze’resh his wife and all his friends said to him: “Have a stake put up, 50 cubits* high. And in the morning tell the king that Mor’dé-cai should be hanged on it.<sup>c</sup> Then go with the king to enjoy yourself at the banquet.” This suggestion seemed good to Ha’man, so he had the stake put up.

6 That night the king could not sleep.* So he said to bring the book of the historical records of the times,<sup>d</sup> and it was read to the king. 2 There it was found written what Mor’dé-cai had reported concerning Bigtha’na and Te’resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, who had plotted to do away with* King A-has-u-e’rus.<sup>e</sup> 3 The king asked: “What honor and recognition has been given to Mor’dé-cai for this?” To this the king’s personal attendants said: “Nothing has been done for him.”

4 Later the king said: “Who is in the courtyard?” Now Ha’man had come into the outer courtyard<sup>f</sup> of the king’s house* to speak to the king about having Mor’dé-cai hanged on the stake that he had prepared for him.<sup>g</sup> 5 The king’s attendants said to him: “It is Ha’man<sup>h</sup> standing in the courtyard.” So the king said: “Have him come in.”

said in his heart: "Whom would the king wish to honor more than me?"<sup>a</sup> 7 So Ha'man said to the king: "For the man whom the king wishes to honor,<sup>b</sup> let them bring royal attire<sup>b</sup> that the king wears and a horse on which the king rides, with the royal headdress on its head.<sup>c</sup> 9 Then let the attire and the horse be put into the charge of one of the king's noble princes, and they should clothe the man whom the king wishes to honor and have him ride on the horse in the public square of the city. They should call out before him: 'This is what is done for the man whom the king wishes to honor!'<sup>c</sup> 10 At once the king said to Ha'man: "Quick! Take the attire and the horse, and do what you just said for Mor'de-cai the Jew who is sitting in the king's gate. Do not leave out anything that you have said."

11 So Ha'man took the attire and the horse, and he clothed Mor'de-cai<sup>d</sup> and made him ride in the public square of the city and called out before him: "This is what is done for the man whom the king wishes to honor!" 12 Afterward Mor'de-cai returned to the king's gate, but Ha'man hurried to his house, mourning with his head covered. 13 When Ha'man related to his wife Ze'resh<sup>e</sup> and to all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Ze'resh said to him: "If Mor'de-cai, before whom you have started to fall, is of Jewish descent,* you will not prevail against him; you will surely fall before him."

14 While they were still speaking with him, the king's court officials arrived and quickly took Ha'man to the banquet that Esther had made.<sup>f</sup>

7 So the king and Ha'man<sup>a</sup> came in to Queen Esther's banquet. 2 The king said to Esther again on the second day during the banquet of wine: "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It will be granted you. And what is your request? Even to* the half of my kingdom, it will be done!"<sup>b</sup> 3 Queen Esther answered: "If I have found favor with you, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life<sup>c</sup> be granted as my petition, and my people<sup>c</sup> as my request. 4 For we have been sold,<sup>d</sup> I and my people, to be annihilated, killed, and destroyed.<sup>e</sup> If we had simply been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept silent. But the distress is not proper, for it will be damaging to the king."

5 King A-has-u-e'rus then said to Queen Esther: "Who is this, and where is the man who has dared to do such a thing?" 6 Esther said: "The adversary and enemy is this evil Ha'man."

Ha'man became terrified because of the king and the queen. 7 The king rose up in a rage from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden, but Ha'man stood up to plead with Queen Esther for his life,* for he realized that the king was determined to punish him. 8 The king returned from the palace garden to the house of the wine banquet and saw that Ha'man had thrown himself on the couch where Esther was. The king exclaimed: "Is he also going to rape the queen in my own house?" As soon as these words left the king's mouth, they covered Ha'man's face. 9 Har-bo'na,<sup>f</sup> one of the king's court officials, now said: "Ha'man also prepared a stake for Mor'de-cai,<sup>g</sup> whose report saved the king.<sup>h</sup> It is standing at Ha'man's house, 50 cubits* high." At that the king said: "Hang him on it." 10 So they hanged Ha'man on the stake that he had prepared for Mor'de·cai, and the king's rage subsided.

8 On that day King A-has-u-e'-rus gave the house of Ha'man,<sup>a</sup> the enemy of the Jews,<sup>b</sup> to Queen Esther; and Mor'de·cai came in before the king, because Esther had revealed how he was related to her.<sup>c</sup> 2 Then the king removed his signet ring<sup>d</sup> that he had taken away from Ha'man and gave it to Mor'de·cai. And Esther put Mor'de·cai in charge of the house of Ha'man.<sup>e</sup>

3 Moreover, Esther spoke again to the king. She fell down at his feet and wept and pleaded with him to undo the harm done by Ha'man the Ag'ag-ite and his scheme against the Jews.<sup>f</sup> 4 The king held the golden scepter out to Esther,<sup>g</sup> at which Esther rose and stood before the king. 5 She said: "If it pleases the king and if I have his favor, and if it seems proper to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let an order be written to annul the documents of that schemer Ha'man<sup>h</sup> the son of Ham-me-da'tha the Ag'ag-ite,<sup>i</sup> which he wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces.* 6 For how can I bear to look upon the disaster that will come upon my people, and how can I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?"

7 So King A-has-u-e'-rus said to Queen Esther and to Mor'de·cai the Jew: "Look! I have given the house of Ha'man to Esther<sup>j</sup> and have had him hanged on the stake,<sup>k</sup> because of his plot to attack* the Jews. 8 You may now write in the king's name what-

9 So the secretaries of the king were summoned at that time in the third month, that is, the month of Si'ven,<sup>m</sup> on the 23rd day, and they wrote all that Mor'de·cai commanded to the Jews, as well as to the satraps,<sup>n</sup> the governors, and the princes of the provinces*<sup>c</sup> from In'di-a to E-thi-o-pi-a, 127 provinces,* to each province<sup>o</sup> in its own script<sup>p</sup> and to each people in its own language and to the Jews in their own script<sup>q</sup> and language.

10 He wrote it in the name of King A-has-u-e'-rus and sealed it with the king's signet ring<sup>d</sup> and sent the written documents by the hand of couriers on horses; they rode on swift post-horses, bred for royal service. 11 In these documents the king granted permission to the Jews in all the different cities to gather together and defend their lives* and to annihilate, kill, and destroy any forces of any people or province<sup>o</sup> that might attack them, including women and children, and to seize their possessions.<sup>e</sup> 12 This was to occur on the same day in all the provinces* of King A-has-u-e'-rus, on the 13th day of the 12th month, that is, the month of A'dar.<sup>f</sup> 13 The text<sup>g</sup> of the document was to be issued as law throughout all the provinces.* It was to be proclaimed to all the peoples, so that the Jews would be ready on that day to take vengeance on their enemies.<sup>g</sup> 14 The couriers riding the post-horses used in the royal service went out urgently and speedily at the king's order. The law was also issued in Shu'shan<sup>a</sup> the citadel.#

15 Now Mor'de-cai left the king's presence in royal apparel of blue and white, wearing a great golden crown and a fine-fabric cloak of purple wool.<sup>b</sup> And the city of Shu'shan<sup>c</sup> shouted for joy. 16 For the Jews there was relief<sup>d</sup> and rejoicing and exultation and honor. 17 And in all the provinces<sup>e</sup> and all the cities, wherever the decree of the king and his law reached, the Jews were rejoicing and exulting, holding banquets and celebrations. Many of the peoples of the land were declaring themselves Jews,<sup>f</sup> for the dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

9 On the 13th day of the 12th month, that is, the month of A'dar,<sup>g</sup> when the king's word and his law were to be carried out,<sup>h</sup> on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to overpower them, the opposite happened, and the Jews defeated those who hated them.<sup>i</sup> 2 The Jews gathered together in their cities in all the provinces<sup>j</sup> of King A-has-u-e'rus<sup>k</sup> to lay hands on those seeking to harm them, and not a man could stand against them, for the dread of them had fallen upon all the peoples.<sup>h</sup> 3 And all the princes of the provinces,<sup>l</sup> the satraps,<sup>m</sup> the governors, and those handling the business of the king were supporting the Jews, for they were in fear of Mor'de-cai. 4 Mor'de-cai had become powerful<sup>n</sup> in the king's house,<sup>o</sup> and his fame was spreading throughout all the provinces,<sup>p</sup> because Mor'de-cai was steadily growing more powerful.

5 The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them; they did whatever they wanted to those hating them.<sup>a</sup> 6 In Shu'shan<sup>b</sup> the citadel# the Jews killed and destroyed 500 men. 7 Also, they killed Par-shan-da'tha, Dal'phon, As·pa'tha, 8 Po-ra'tha, A·da'li·a, A·ri-da'tha, 9 Par-mash'ta, Ar'i-sai, Ar'i-dai, and Vai-za'tha, 10 the ten sons of Ha'man the son of Ham-me-da'tha, the enemy of the Jews.<sup>c</sup> But after they killed them, they did not seize any plunder.<sup>d</sup>

11 On that day the number of those killed in Shu'shan<sup>e</sup> the citadel# was reported to the king.

12 The king said to Queen Esther: "In Shu'shan<sup>f</sup> the citadel# the Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men and the ten sons of Ha'man. What, then, have they done in the rest of the king's provinces?<sup>g</sup> What is your petition now? It will be granted you. And what is your further request? It will be done." 13 Esther replied: "If it pleases the king,<sup>f</sup> let the Jews who are in Shu'shan<sup>h</sup> be permitted to act tomorrow also according to today's law;<sup>g</sup> and let the ten sons of Ha'man be hanged on the stake."<sup>i</sup> 14 So the king gave orders for that to be done. A law was issued in Shu'shan,<sup>j</sup> and the ten sons of Ha'man were hanged.

16 The rest of the Jews in the provinces<sup>n</sup> of the king also gathered together and defended their lives.<sup>o</sup> They got rid of their enemies,<sup>k</sup> killing 75,000 of those who hated them; but they did not seize any plunder. 17 That was on the 13th day of the month

18 The Jews in Shu'shan* gathered together on the 13th day<sup>a</sup> and on the 14th day,<sup>b</sup> and they rested on the 15th day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing. 19 That is why the rural Jews inhabiting the cities of the outlying districts made the 14th day of the month of A'dar a day of rejoicing and feasting, a day of celebration,<sup>c</sup> and a time to send portions of food to one another.<sup>d</sup>

20 Mor'de-cai<sup>e</sup> recorded these events and sent official letters to all the Jews in all the provinces* of King A-has-u-e'rus, both near and far. 21 He instructed them to observe the 14th day of the month of A'dar, as well as the 15th day, each and every year, 22 because on those days the Jews rested from their enemies and in that month their grief was changed to rejoicing and their mourning<sup>f</sup> to a day of celebration. They were to observe them as days of feasting and rejoicing and as a time to send portions of food to one another and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews agreed to continue the celebration that they had started and to do what Mor'de-cai wrote to them. 24 For Ha'man<sup>g</sup> the son of Hamme-da'tha the Ag-ag-ite,<sup>h</sup> the enemy of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them,<sup>i</sup> and he had cast Pur,<sup>j</sup> that is, the Lot, to throw them into a panic and to destroy them. 25 But when Esther came before the king, he gave orders in writing:<sup>k</sup> "Let his evil scheme against the Jews<sup>l</sup> come back on his own head"; and they hanged him and his sons on the stake.<sup>m</sup>

26 That is why they called these days Pu'rim, after the name of the Pur.*<sup>a</sup> Therefore, because of all that was written in this letter and what they saw concerning this matter and what had come upon them, 27 the Jews obligated themselves and their descendants and all those joining them<sup>b</sup> to celebrate these two days without fail and to carry out what was written concerning them at the appointed time each and every year. 28 These days were to be remembered and observed in every generation, by each family, each province,* and each city; and these days of Pu'rim should not cease among the Jews, and their commemoration should not come to an end among their descendants.

29 Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Ab'i-ha'il, and Mor'de-cai the Jew wrote with full authority to confirm a second letter about Pu'rim. 30 He sent official letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces,*<sup>c</sup> the realm of A-has-u-e'rus,<sup>d</sup> in words of peace and truth 31 to confirm the observance of the days of Pu'rim at their appointed times, just as Mor'de-cai the Jew and Queen Esther had instructed them to do<sup>e</sup> and just as they had obligated themselves* and their descendants to carry out,<sup>f</sup> including the fasting<sup>g</sup> and supplication.<sup>h</sup> 32 And the command of Esther confirmed these matters concerning Pu'rim,<sup>i</sup> and it was recorded in a book.

6 Now the day came when the sons of the true God<sup>*b</sup> entered to take their station before Jehovah,<sup>c</sup> and Satan<sup>d</sup> also entered among them.<sup>e</sup>

7 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Where have you come from?" Satan answered Jehovah: "From roving about on the earth and from walking about in it."<sup>f</sup> 8 And Jehovah said to Satan: "Have you taken note of* my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth. He is an upright man of integrity,<sup>#g</sup> fearing God and shunning what is bad."

9 At that Satan answered Jehovah: "Is it for nothing that Job has feared God?<sup>h</sup> 10 Have you not put up a protective hedge around him<sup>i</sup> and his house and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands,<sup>j</sup> and his livestock has spread out in the land. 11 But, for a change, stretch out your hand and strike everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your very face." 12 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Look! Everything that he has is in your hand.* Only do not lay your hand on the man himself!" So Satan went out from the presence<sup>k</sup> of Jehovah.<sup>k</sup>

13 Now on the day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,<sup>l</sup> 14 a messenger came to Job and said: "The cattle were plowing and the donkeys were grazing beside them 15 when the Sa-be'ans attacked and took them, and they killed the servants with the sword. 6 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Look! 9 Finally his wife said to him: "Are you still holding firmly to your integrity? Curse God and die!" 10 But he said to her: "You are talking like one of the senseless women. Should we accept only what is good from the true God and not accept also what is bad?"<sup>h</sup> In all of this, Job did not sin with his lips.<sup>i</sup>

—El'i-phaz<sup>a</sup> the Te'man-ite, Bil'dad<sup>b</sup> the Shu'rite,<sup>c</sup> and Zo'phar<sup>d</sup> the Na'a-ma-thite. So they agreed to meet together to go and sympathize with Job and comfort him. 12 When they saw him from a distance, they did not recognize him. They began to weep loudly and to rip their garments apart, and they threw dust into the air and onto their heads.<sup>e</sup> 13 Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great.<sup>f</sup>

3 It was after this that Job began to speak and to curse the day of his birth.<sup>g</sup> 2 Job said:

3 "Let the day perish on which I was born,<sup>h</sup>
 Also the night when someone said: 'A man has been conceived!'

4 Let that day be darkness.
 Let God above show no concern for it;
 Let no light shine upon it.

5 Let the deepest darkness<sup>i</sup> reclaim it.
 Let a rain cloud settle over it.
 Let whatever darkens the day terrify it.

6 That night—let the gloom seize it;<sup>j</sup>
 Let it not rejoice among the days of a year,
 And let it not enter among the number of the months.

7 Indeed! Let that night become barren;
 Let no joyful cry be heard in it.

8 Let those who curse the day put a curse on it,
 Those who are able to awaken Le-vi'a-than.<sup>k</sup>

- 9 Let the stars of its twilight grow dark;
Let it wait in vain for daylight,
And let it not see the rays of dawn.

Nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.

Why did I not perish when I came from the womb?<sup>b</sup>

CHAP. 5

b Pr 22:22*Am* 5:12

- 19 How much more so with those dwelling in houses of clay, Whose foundation is in the dust,<sup>a</sup>
Who are crushed as easily as a moth!
- 20 They are completely crushed from morning to evening;
They perish forever, and no one takes notice.
- 21 Are they not like a tent whose cord is pulled out?
They die without wisdom.
- 5 "Call, please! Is there anyone answering you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?
- 2 For resentment will kill the foolish one,
And envy will put the simpleminded to death.
- 3 I have seen the foolish one taking root,
But suddenly his dwelling place is cursed.
- 4 His sons are far from safety,
And they are crushed at the city gate,<sup>b</sup> with no one to save them.
- 5 The hungry one eats what he harvests,
Taking it even from among the thorns,
And their possessions are ensnared.
- 6 For harmful things do not sprout from the dust,
And trouble does not spring from the ground.
- 7 For man is born for trouble,
As surely as sparks fly upward.
- 8 But I would appeal to God,
And to God I would submit my case,
- 9 To the One doing great and unsearchable things, Wonderful things without number.
- 10 He gives rain to the earth
And sends waters upon the fields.

4:8 *Or "devise." 4:10 *Or "maned young lions." 4:18 *Or "messengers."

- 11 He raises the lowly up high,
And he raises up the dejected one to salvation.
- 12 He frustrates the schemes of the crafty,
So that the work of their hands does not succeed.
- 13 He catches the wise in their own cunning.<sup>a</sup>
So that the plans of the shrewd are thwarted.
- 14 They meet with darkness
during the day,
And they grope about at midday as if it were night.
- 15 He saves from the sword of their mouth,
Saving the poor from the hand of the strong,
- 16 So that there is hope for the lowly,
But the mouth of unrighteousness is shut.
- 17 Look! Happy is the man whom God reproves;
So do not reject the discipline of the Almighty!
- 18 For he causes pain, but binds up the wound;
He breaks apart, but heals with his own hands.
- 19 He will save you from six calamities,
Even the seventh will not harm you.
- 20 During famine he will redeem you from death,
And from the power of a sword during war.
- 21 You will be protected from the lash of the tongue,<sup>b</sup>
And you will not fear devastation when it comes.
- 22 You will laugh at destruction and hunger,
And you will not fear the wild beasts of the earth.
- 23 For the stones of the field will not harm you.*

5:23 *Or “will have a covenant (an agreement) with you.”

And the wild beasts of the you.

- 24 You will know that your tent is secure.*
And nothing will be missing when you inspect your pasture.
- 25 You will enjoy many children,
And your descendants will be as plentiful as the vegetation of the earth.
- 26 You will still be strong when you go to the grave,
Like sheaves of grain gathered in their season.
- 27 Look! We have investigated this, and it is so.
Listen and accept it.”
- 6 Job then said in reply:
- 2 “If only my anguish<sup>a</sup> could be fully weighed
And put on scales together with my calamity!
- 3 For now it is heavier than the sands of the seas.
That is why my words have been wild talk.*<sup>b</sup>
- 4 For the arrows of the Almighty have pierced me,
And my spirit is drinking their venom;<sup>c</sup>
The terrors from God are lined up against me.
- 5 Will a wild donkey<sup>d</sup> cry out when it has grass,
Or will a bull bellow when it has fodder?
- 6 Is tasteless food eaten
without salt,
Or is there flavor in the juice of a mallow?
- 7 I have* refused to touch such things.
They are like contamination in my food.
- 8 O that my request would be realized

5:24 *Lit., “peace.” 6:3 *Or “rash, reckless speech.” 6:7 *Or “My soul has.”

- And that God would grant my desire!
- 9 That God would be willing to crush me,
And that he would reach out his hand and do away with me!<sup>a</sup>
- 10 For even that would bring me comfort;
I would leap for joy despite the unrelenting pain,
For I have not denied the sayings of the Holy One.<sup>b</sup>
- 11 Do I have the strength to keep waiting?<sup>c</sup>
And what end awaits me, that I should continue to live?*
- 12 Is my strength like that of rock?
Or is my flesh made of copper?
- 13 Is there any way that I can help myself
When all my means of support has been driven from me?
- 14 Anyone who withholds loyal love from his fellow man<sup>d</sup>
Will forsake the fear of the Almighty.<sup>e</sup>
- 15 My own brothers have been as treacherous<sup>f</sup> as a winter stream,
Like the water of winter streams that dry up.
- 16 They are darkened by ice, And in them the melting snow is hidden.
- 17 But in due season they become waterless and come to an end;
When it becomes hot, they dry up.
- 18 Their course is diverted; They flow into the desert and vanish.
- 19 The caravans of Te'ma<sup>g</sup> look for them;

- 20 They are ashamed because of their misplaced trust; They come there only to be disappointed.
- 21 For this is how you have become to me;<sup>b</sup>
You have seen the terror of my calamity, and you are afraid.<sup>c</sup>
- 22 Have I said, 'Give me something,'
Or requested that you make a gift for me from your wealth?
- 23 Have I asked to be rescued from the hand of an enemy Or to be saved* from oppressors?
- 24 Instruct me, and I will be silent;<sup>d</sup>
Help me to understand my mistake.
- 25 Honest words are not painful!<sup>e</sup>
But what benefit can be found in your reproof?<sup>f</sup>
- 26 Are you scheming to reprove my words,
A desperate man's sayings,<sup>g</sup> which the wind blows away?
- 27 You would also cast lots over an orphan<sup>h</sup>
And sell* your own friend!<sup>i</sup>
- 28 So now turn and look at me, For I would not lie to your very faces.
- 29 Reconsider, please—do not misjudge me—
Yes, reconsider, for my righteousness is yet intact.
- 30 Is my tongue speaking unjustly?
Does my palate not discern that something is wrong?

6:11 *Or "that I should prolong my life (soul)."

6:27 *Or "barter over."

- 7 "Is not the life of mortal man on earth like compulsory labor,
And are not his days like those of a hired worker?<sup>a</sup>
- 2 Like a slave, he longs for the shadow,
And like a hired worker,
he waits for his wages.<sup>b</sup>
- 3 Thus I have been assigned months of futility
And nights of misery have been counted out for me.<sup>c</sup>
- 4 When I lie down I ask,
'When will I get up?'<sup>d</sup>
But as the night drags on,
I toss restlessly until the dawning of the day.*
- 5 My flesh is covered with maggots and clods of dirt;<sup>e</sup>
My skin is full of scabs and pus.<sup>f</sup>
- 6 My days go by more quickly than a weaver's shuttle,<sup>g</sup>
And they come to an end without hope.<sup>h</sup>
- 7 Remember that my life is wind,<sup>i</sup>
That my eye will never again see happiness.*
- 8 The eye that sees me now will see me no more;
Your eyes will look for me,
but I will be gone.<sup>j</sup>
- 9 Like a cloud that fades and vanishes,
The one who goes down to the Grave* does not come back up.<sup>k</sup>
- 10 He will not return again to his house,
And his place will acknowledge him no more.<sup>l</sup>
- 11 Therefore, I will not restrain my mouth.
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;

Tell me why you are contending with me.

3 Does it benefit you to oppress,
To despise the work of your hands<sup>b</sup>
While you favor the advice of the wicked?

4 Do you have eyes of flesh,
Or do you see as mortal man does?

5 Are your days like the days of mortals,
Or are your years like those of a man,<sup>c</sup>

6 That you should search out my error
And keep looking for my sin?<sup>d</sup>

7 You know that I am not guilty;<sup>e</sup>

And no one can save me from your hand.<sup>f</sup>

8 Your own hands have shaped me and made me,<sup>g</sup>
But now you would completely destroy me.

9 Remember, please, that you made me out of clay,<sup>h</sup>
But now you make me return to dust.<sup>i</sup>

10 Did you not pour me out like milk

24 "Why does the Almighty not set a time?"

Why do those who know him not see his day?*

2 People move boundary markers;<sup>b</sup>
They carry off flocks for their own pasture.

3 They drive away the donkey of fatherless children And seize the widow's bull as security for a loan.*<sup>c</sup>

4 They force the poor off the road;
The helpless of the earth must hide from them.<sup>d</sup>

5 The poor forage for food like wild donkeys<sup>e</sup> in the wilderness;
They seek food in the desert for their children.

6 They must harvest in another's field*
And glean from the vineyard of the wicked.

7 They spend the night naked, without clothing;<sup>f</sup>
They have no covering for the cold.

8 They are drenched by the mountain rains;
They cling to the rocks for lack of shelter.

9 The fatherless child is snatched away from the breast;<sup>g</sup>
And the garments of the poor are taken as security for a loan,<sup>h</sup>

10 Forcing them to go about naked, without clothing, And hungry, as they carry the sheaves of grain.

11 They toil among the terrace walls in the heat of the day;*

- 9 For he has said, 'A man does

It is unthinkable for the true

For the Almighty to do

- 18 Would you say to a king, ‘You are good for nothing,’ Or to nobles, ‘You are wicked’?<sup>a</sup>
- 19 There is One who does not show partiality to princes And who does not favor the rich over the poor,<sup>b</sup> For they are all the work of his hands.<sup>c</sup>

Job 34:5

- So that he hears the outcry of the helpless.<sup>a</sup>
- 29 When God remains silent, who can condemn him? When he hides his face, who can see him? Whether toward a nation or a man, the result is the same,
- 30 So that a godless person* may not rule<sup>b</sup> Or lay snares for the people.
- 31 For will anyone say to God, ‘I have been punished, although I have committed no offense;<sup>c</sup>
- 32 Teach me what I have failed to see; If I have done anything wrong, I will not do it again’?
- 33 Should he reward you on your terms when you reject his judgment? You must decide, not I. So tell me what you know so well.
- 34 Men of understanding* will say to me –Any wise man who hears me—
- 35 ‘Job speaks without knowledge,<sup>d</sup> And his words lack insight.’
- 36 Let Job be tested* to the limit Because his replies are like those of wicked men!
- 37 He adds rebellion to his sin;<sup>e</sup> He scornfully claps his hands before us And multiplies his words against the true God!<sup>f</sup>
- 35 E-li’hu continued his response:
- 2 “Are you so convinced that you are right that you would say, ‘I am more righteous than God’?<sup>g</sup>
- 34:30 *Or “an apostate.” 34:34 *Lit., “heart.” 34:36 *Or possibly, “My father, let Job be tested.”

34:19 *Or “the noble over the lowly.”

- 3 For you say, ‘What does it matter to you?*
Am I better off than if I had sinned?’<sup>a</sup>
- 4 I will reply to you
And to your companions<sup>b</sup> with you.
- 5 Look up to heaven and see,
Observe the clouds,<sup>c</sup> which are high above you.
- 6 If you sin, how do you hurt him?<sup>d</sup>
If your transgressions multiply, what do you do to him?<sup>e</sup>
- 7 If you are righteous, what do you give him;
What does he receive from you?<sup>f</sup>
- 8 Your wickedness affects only a human like yourself,
And your righteousness, a son of man.
- 9 People cry out when under great oppression;
They cry for relief from the domination<sup>g</sup> of the powerful.<sup>g</sup>
- 10 But no one says, ‘Where is God, my Grand Maker,<sup>h</sup>
The one causing songs to be sung in the night?’<sup>i</sup>
- 11 He teaches us<sup>j</sup> more than the beasts of the earth,<sup>k</sup>
And he makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens.
- 12 People cry out, but he does not answer,<sup>l</sup>
Because of the pride of the wicked.<sup>m</sup>
- 13 Surely God does not hear an empty cry;<sup>n</sup>
The Almighty does not pay attention to it.
- 14 How much less, then, when you complain that you do not see him!<sup>o</sup>
Your legal case is before him, so you should wait anxiously for him.<sup>p</sup>

15 For he has not angrily called for an accounting;

Nor has he taken note of your extreme rashness.<sup>a</sup>

16 Job opens his mouth wide in vain;
He multiplies words without knowledge.”<sup>b</sup>

36 E-li’hu continued:

2 “Be patient with me a little longer while I explain,

For I still have words to speak on God’s behalf.

3 I will speak comprehensively about what I know,
And I will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.<sup>c</sup>

4 Truly my words are not false;

5 Indeed, God is mighty<sup>e</sup> and rejects no one;
He is great in his power of understanding.*

6 He will not preserve the lives of the wicked,<sup>f</sup>
But he gives justice to the afflicted.<sup>g</sup>

7 He does not take his eyes off the righteous;<sup>h</sup>
He enthrones them with kings,*<sup>i</sup> and they are exalted forever.

8 But if they are bound in shackles
And caught in ropes of affliction,

9 He reveals to them what they have done,
Their transgressions caused by their pride.

10 He opens their ears to correction
And tells them to turn away from wrongdoing.<sup>j</sup>

11 If they obey and serve him,
They will live out their days in prosperity,

35:3 *Likely referring to God. 35:9*Lit., “arm.” 35:13 *Or “a lie.”

36:5 *Lit., “heart.” 36:7 *Or possibly, “He enthrones kings.”

- And their years will be pleasant.<sup>a</sup>
- 12 But if they do not obey, they will perish by the sword<sup>*b</sup>
And die without knowledge.
- 13 The godless* at heart will harbor resentment.
They do not cry for help even when he binds them.
- 14 They die* while still young,<sup>c</sup> Spending<sup>d</sup> their life among male temple prostitutes.<sup>d</sup>
- 15 But God* rescues the afflicted during their affliction;
He opens their ear when they are oppressed.
- 16 He draws you away from the brink of distress<sup>e</sup>
To a broad space, free of restriction,<sup>f</sup>
With rich food on your table as consolation.<sup>g</sup>
- 17 Then you will be satisfied with the judgment on the wicked,<sup>h</sup>
When judgment is rendered and justice is upheld.
- 18 But take care that rage does not lead you into spitefulness,<sup>*i</sup>
And do not let a large bribe lead you astray.
- 19 Would your cry for help Or any of your strenuous efforts keep you from distress?<sup>j</sup>
- 20 Do not long for the night, When people vanish from their place.
- 21 Beware that you do not turn to wrongdoing, Choosing this instead of affliction.<sup>k</sup>
- 22 Look! God is exalted in his power;
What instructor is like him?

36:12 *Or “by a weapon (missile).”
36:13 *Or “apostate.” 36:14 *Or “Their soul dies.” “Or possibly, “Ending.” 36:15 *Lit., “He.” 36:18 *Or “spiteful handclapping.”

23 Who has directed* his way<sup>a</sup>
Or said to him, ‘What you have done is wrong’?<sup>b</sup>

24 Remember to magnify his activity,<sup>c</sup>
Of which men have sung.<sup>d</sup>

25 All mankind has seen it,
Mortal man looks on from a distance.

26 Yes, God is greater than we can know;<sup>e</sup>
The number of his years is beyond comprehension.<sup>*f</sup>

27 He draws up the drops of water;<sup>g</sup>
They condense into rain from his mist;

28 Then the clouds pour it down;<sup>h</sup>
They shower down upon mankind.

29 Can anyone understand the layers of clouds,
The thundering from his tent?<sup>*i</sup>

30 See how he spreads his lightning<sup>*j</sup> over it
And covers the depths<sup>h</sup> of the sea.

31 By these he sustains* the peoples;
He gives them food in abundance.<sup>k</sup>

32 With his hands he covers the lightning,
And he directs it against its target.<sup>l</sup>

33 His thunder tells about him,
Even the livestock tell who* is coming.

- 4 After that is a roaring sound;
He thunders with a majestic voice,<sup>b</sup>
And he does not hold it back when his voice is heard.
- 5 God thunders with his voice<sup>c</sup> in a wonderful way;
He does great things that are beyond our understanding.<sup>d</sup>
- 6 For he says to the snow, 'Fall to the earth,'<sup>e</sup>
And to the downpour of rain, 'Pour down mightily.'<sup>f</sup>

So that every mortal man will know His work.

- 9 The storm wind blows from its chamber,<sup>g</sup>
And the cold comes from the north winds.<sup>h</sup>
- 10 By the breath of God, the ice is produced,<sup>i</sup>
And the broad waters are frozen solid.<sup>j</sup>
- 11 Yes, he weighs down the clouds with moisture;
He scatters his lightning<sup>k</sup> in the clouds;

- 14 Listen to this, Job;
Stop and consider carefully the wonderful works of God.<sup>a</sup>

- 20 Can you cause it to leap like a locust?
Its majestic snorting is terrifying.<sup>a</sup>
- 21 It paws the ground in the valley and exults mightily;<sup>b</sup>
It charges into the battle.*<sup>c</sup>
- 22 It laughs at fear and is afraid of nothing.<sup>d</sup>
It does not turn back because of the sword.
- 23 The quiver rattles against it, The spear and the javelin flash.
- 24 Trembling with excitement, it surges forward,*
It cannot stand still at* the sound of the horn.
- 25 When the horn blows, it says, ‘Aha!’
It smells the battle from afar And hears the shouting of commanders and the battle cry.<sup>e</sup>
- 26 Is it by your understanding that the falcon soars, Spreading its wings to the south?
- 27 Or is it at your order that an eagle flies upward<sup>f</sup> And builds its nest high up,<sup>g</sup>
- 28 Spending the night on a cliff, Dwelling in its stronghold on a rocky crag?<sup>h</sup>
- 29 From there it searches for food;<sup>i</sup>
Its eyes look far into the distance.
- 30 Its young sip up blood; And wherever the slain are, there it is.”<sup>j</sup>
- 40 Jehovah continued to answer Job:
- 2 “Should a faultfinder contend with the Almighty?<sup>i</sup>
Let the one who wants to reprove God answer.”<sup>k</sup>
- 39:21 *Lit., “It goes out to meet armor.”

3 Job said in answer to Jehovah:	CHAP. 40 a Job 42:5, 6	It eats grass like a bull. 16 Look at the strength in its hips And the power in the muscles of its belly!
4 "Look! I am unworthy. <sup>a</sup> What can I reply to you? I put my hand over my mouth. <sup>b</sup>	b Ps 39:9 Pr 30:32	17 It stiffens its tail like a cedar; The sinews of its thighs are woven together.
5 I spoke once, but I will not answer again; Twice, but I will say no more."	c Job 38:1	18 Its bones are tubes of copper; Its limbs are like wrought-iron rods.
6 Then Jehovah answered Job out of the windstorm: <sup>c</sup>	d Job 38:3 Job 42:4	19 It ranks first* among the works of God; Only its Maker can approach it with his sword.
7 "Brace yourself, please, like a man; I will question you, and you inform me. <sup>d</sup>	e Ps 51:4 Ro 3:4	20 For the mountains produce food for it, Where all the wild animals play.
8 Will you call into question* my justice? Will you condemn me so that you may be right? <sup>e</sup>	f Ex 15:6 Ps 89:13 Isa 40:26 1Co 10:22	21 It lies down under the lotus trees, In the shelter of the reeds of the marsh.
9 Do you have an arm as powerful as the true God's, <sup>f</sup> Or can your voice thunder like his? <sup>g</sup>	g Job 37:4 Ps 29:3	22 The lotus trees cast their shadow on it, And the poplars of the valley* surround it.
10 Adorn yourself, please, with glory and majesty; Clothe yourself with dignity and splendor.	Second Col.	23 If the river is turbulent, it does not panic. It is confident, although the Jordan <sup>a</sup> rushes against its mouth.
11 Release the fury of your anger; Look at everyone who is haughty, and bring him low.	a Jos 3:15	24 Can anyone capture it while it is watching, Or pierce its nose with a hook?
12 Look at everyone who is haughty, and humble him, And tread down the wicked where they stand.	CHAP. 41	41 "Can you catch Le-vi'a- than* <sup>b</sup> with a fishhook Or hold down its tongue with a rope?
13 Hide them all in the dust; Bind them* in the hidden place,	b Ps 104:25, 26	2 Can you put a rope* through its nostrils Or pierce its jaws with a hook?"
14 Then even I would acknowledge to you* That your right hand can save you.		3 Will it make many pleas to you,
15 Here, now, is Be-he'moth,* which I made as I made you.		40:19 *Lit., "It is the beginning." 40:22 *Or "wadi." 40:24 *Lit., "snare." 41:1 *Possibly the crocodile. 41:2 *Lit., "a rush." "Lit., "thorn."

- Or will it speak gently to you?
- 4 Will it make a covenant with you,
So that you may make it your slave for life?
- 5 Will you play with it as with a bird
Or tie it on a leash for your little girls?
- 6 Will traders barter for it?
Will they divide it up among merchants?
- 7 Will you fill its hide with harpoons<sup>a</sup>
Or its head with fishing spears?
- 8 Lay your hand on it;
You will remember the battle and never do it again!
- 9 Any hope of subduing it is futile.
The mere sight of it would overwhelm you.*
- 10 No one dares to stir it up.
So who is it who can stand up to me?<sup>b</sup>
- 11 Who has given me anything first that I should repay him?<sup>c</sup>
Whatever is under the heavens is mine.<sup>d</sup>
- 12 I will not be silent about its limbs,
About its mightiness and its well-formed body.
- 13 Who has removed its outer covering?
Who will enter its open jaws?
- 14 Who can pry open the doors of its mouth?<sup>e</sup>
Its teeth all around are fearsome.
- 15 Its back has rows of scales*
Tightly sealed together.
- 16 Each one fits so closely to the other

- 17 They are stuck to one another;
They cling together and cannot be separated.
- 18 Its snorting flashes out light, And its eyes are like the rays of dawn.
- 19 Flashes of lightning go out of its mouth; Fiery sparks escape.
- 20 Smoke pours out of its nostrils, Like a furnace fueled with rushes.
- 21 Its breath sets coals ablaze, And a flame shoots from its mouth.
- 22 There is great strength in its neck, And dismay runs before it.
- 23 The folds of its flesh are tightly joined together; They are firm, as though cast upon it and immovable.
- 24 Its heart is hard as stone, Yes, hard as a lower millstone.
- 25 When it rises up, even the mighty are frightened; Its thrashing causes bewilderment.

- 29 It regards a club as stubble, And it laughs at the rattling of a javelin.
- 30 Underneath, it is like sharp fragments of pottery; It spreads itself in the mud like a threshing sledge.<sup>b</sup>

- 33 There is nothing like it on the earth,
A creature made to have no fear.

But now I do see you with my eyes.
- 6 That is why I take back what I said,”<sup>e</sup>
And I repent in dust and ashes.”<sup>f</sup>
- 7 After Jehovah had spoken these words to Job, Jehovah said to El'i-phaz the Te'man-ite:

9 So El'i-phaz the Te'man-ite, Bil'dad the Shu'hite, and Zo'phar the Na'a-ma-thite went and did what Jehovah had told them to do. And Jehovah accepted Job's prayer.

12 So Jehovah blessed the last part of Job's life more than the beginning,<sup>f</sup> and Job came to have 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 pairs of cattle, and 1,000 female donkeys.<sup>g</sup> 13 He also came to have seven more sons and three more daughters.<sup>h</sup> 14 He named the first daughter Je-mi'mah, the second Ke'z'i'ah, and the third Ker'en-hap'puch. 15 No women in all the land were as beautiful as Job's daughters, and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.

To the director. A melody of David.

- 13 How long, O Jehovah, will you forget me? Forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?<sup>a</sup>

- 2 How long will I* have anxious concern,
With grief in my heart each day?

How long will my enemy triumph over me?<sup>b</sup>

- 3 Look upon me and answer me, O Jehovah my God.
Give light to my eyes, so that I may not fall asleep in death,

- 4 So that my enemy will not say: "I have defeated him!"
Do not let my opponents rejoice over my downfall.<sup>c</sup>

- 5 As for me, I trust in your loyal love;<sup>d</sup>
My heart will rejoice in your acts of salvation.<sup>e</sup>

- 6 I will sing to Jehovah, for he has richly rewarded me.*<sup>f</sup>

To the director. Of David.

- 14 The foolish* one says in his heart:

"There is no Jehovah."<sup>g</sup>

Their actions are corrupt, and their dealings are detestable;

No one is doing good.<sup>h</sup>

- 2 But Jehovah looks down from heaven on the sons of men

To see whether anyone has insight, whether anyone is seeking Jehovah.<sup>i</sup>

- 3 They have all turned aside;
They are all alike corrupt.
No one is doing good,
Not even one.

understand?

They devour my people as if they were eating bread.

They do not call on Jehovah.

But Jehovah is his refuge.<sup>b</sup>
- 7 O that Israel's salvation may come from Zion!<sup>c</sup>
When Jehovah gathers back his captive people,
Let Jacob be joyful, let Israel rejoice.

Practicing what is right<sup>f</sup>
And speaking the truth in his heart.<sup>g</sup>

He does nothing bad to his neighbor,<sup>i</sup>
And he does not defame<sup>j</sup> his friends.<sup>k</sup>
- 4 He rejects anyone who is contemptible,<sup>k</sup>
But he honors those fearing Jehovah.
He does not go back on his promise,<sup>l</sup> even when it is bad for him.<sup>m</sup>
- 5 He does not lend his money on interest,<sup>m</sup>
And he does not accept a bribe against the innocent.<sup>n</sup>
Whoever does these things will never be shaken.<sup>o</sup>

The majestic ones, bring me great delight.<sup>a</sup>

4 Those who pursue other gods multiply their sorrows.<sup>b</sup>

I will never pour out their drink offerings of blood,

You safeguard my inheritance.

Yes, I am content with my inheritance.<sup>f</sup>

7 I will praise Jehovah, who has given me advice.<sup>g</sup>
Even during the night, my innermost thoughts* correct me.<sup>h</sup>

8 I keep Jehovah before me constantly.<sup>i</sup>

BOOK TWO
(Psalms 42-72)

- To the director.
- 42 As a deer that longs for streams of water,
So I long<sup>b</sup> for you, O God.
- 2 I do thirst<sup>c</sup> for God, for the living God.<sup>b</sup>
When may I come and appear before God?<sup>c</sup>
- 3 My tears are my food day and night;
All day long people taunt me:
“Where is your God?”<sup>d</sup>
- 4 These things I remember, and I pour out my soul,<sup>e</sup>
For I once walked along with the multitude;
I used to walk solemnly<sup>f</sup> before them to the house of God,
With sounds of rejoicing and thanksgiving,
Those of a crowd celebrating a festival.<sup>e</sup>
- 5 Why am I<sup>g</sup> in despair?<sup>f</sup>
Why is this turmoil within me?
Wait for God,<sup>g</sup>
For I will yet praise him as my Grand Savior.<sup>h</sup>
- 6 My God, I am<sup>i</sup> in despair.<sup>j</sup>
That is why I remember you,<sup>j</sup>
From the land of Jordan and the peaks of Her'mon,
From Mount Mi·zar'.<sup>k</sup>
- 7 Deep waters call to deep waters
At the sound of your waterfalls.
All your surging waves have overwhelmed me.<sup>k</sup>
- 8 By day Jehovah will grant me his loyal love,
And by night his song will be with me—a prayer to the God of my life.<sup>l</sup>

- To the director.
Of the sons of Kor'ah.<sup>a</sup> Mas'kil.*
- 44 O God, we have heard with our own ears,
Our forefathers have recounted to us,<sup>b</sup>
The deeds you accomplished in their days,
In the days of long ago.
- 2 With your hand you drove away nations<sup>c</sup>
And settled our forefathers
there.<sup>d</sup>
You crushed nations and drove them out.<sup>e</sup>
- 3 It was not by their own sword that they took possession of the land,<sup>f</sup>
And their own arm did not bring them victory.<sup>g</sup> Rather, it was by your right hand and your arm<sup>h</sup> and the light of your face,
For you took pleasure in them.<sup>i</sup>
- 4 You are my King, O God;<sup>j</sup> Command<sup>k</sup> complete victory<sup>l</sup> for Jacob.
- 5 By your power we will drive back our adversaries;<sup>k</sup>
In your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.<sup>l</sup>
- 6 For I do not trust in my bow,
And my sword cannot save me.<sup>m</sup>
- 7 It was you who saved us from our adversaries,<sup>n</sup>
You who humiliated those who hate us.
- 8 To God we will offer praise
all day long,
And we will give thanks to your name forever. (Selah)
- 9 But now you have cast us off and humiliated us,
And you do not go out with our armies.
- 10 You keep making us retreat from our adversary;<sup>o</sup> hand has planted,<sup>b</sup> whom<sup>c</sup> you made strong for yourself.<sup>c</sup> hand,

To the son of man you have made strong for yourself.<sup>e</sup>
- 18 Then we will not turn away from you.
Preserve us alive, so that we may call on your name.
- 19 O Jehovah God of armies, restore us;
Let your face shine upon us,
so that we may be saved.<sup>f</sup>
- To the director; upon the Git'tith.*
Of A'saph.<sup>g</sup>
- 81 Shout joyfully to God our strength.<sup>h</sup> Shout in triumph to the God of Jacob.
- 2 Begin the music and take a tambourine,
The melodious harp together with the stringed instrument.
- 3 Blow the horn on the new moon,<sup>i</sup>
On the full moon, for the day of our festival.<sup>j</sup>
- 4 For it is a decree for Israel,
A ruling of the God of Jacob.<sup>k</sup>

When He went out against the land of Egypt.<sup>m</sup>

And you will not bow down to a foreign god.<sup>f</sup>

Do not keep quiet* or still,

- 5 They will be put to shame and will retreat in disgrace, All those who hate Zion.<sup>a</sup>

- 6 They will become like grass on the rooftops That withers before it is pulled up,

- 7 That cannot fill the reaper's hand Nor the arms of the one gathering sheaves.

- 8 Those passing by will not say:
“May the blessing of Jehovah be upon you;
We bless you in the name of Jehovah.”

A Song of the Ascents.

- 130 From the depths I call to you, O Jehovah.<sup>b</sup>

- 2 O Jehovah, hear my voice. May your ears pay attention to my pleas for help.

- 3 If errors were what you watch,<sup>c</sup> O Jah,<sup>d</sup>
Then who, O Jehovah, could stand?<sup>e</sup>

- 4 For with you there is true forgiveness,<sup>f</sup>
So that you may be held in awe.<sup>g</sup>

- 5 I hope in Jehovah, my whole being<sup>h</sup> hopes in him; I wait for his word.

- 6 I eagerly wait<sup>i</sup> for Jehovah,<sup>f</sup>
More than watchmen wait for the morning,<sup>g</sup>

- Yes, more than watchmen wait for the morning.

- 7 Let Israel keep waiting for Jehovah,
For Jehovah is loyal in his love,<sup>h</sup>
And he has great power to redeem.

- 8 He will redeem Israel from all their errors.

Nor are my eyes lofty;<sup>a</sup>
Nor do I aspire to things too great.<sup>b</sup>

Powerful One of Jacob."<sup>h</sup>

Keep your feet off their path,<sup>a</sup>
- 16 For their feet run to do evil;
They hurry to shed blood.<sup>b</sup>
- 17 It is surely in vain to spread a net in full sight of a bird.

They lie hidden to take the

Which will take away

in the street.<sup>e</sup>
It keeps raising its voice in the public squares.<sup>f</sup>
- 21 At the corner* of the busy streets it calls out.

gates it says:<sup>g</sup>

How long will you ridiculers take pleasure in ridicule?
And how long will you foolish ones hate knowledge?<sup>h</sup>
- 23 Respond to my reproof.<sup>*i</sup>
Then I will pour out my spirit for you;
I will make my words known to you.<sup>j</sup>
- 24 Because I called out, but you kept refusing,
I stretched out my hand,

- 25 You kept neglecting all my advice
And rejecting my reproof,
26 I also will laugh when disaster strikes you;
I will mock when what you dread comes,<sup>a</sup>
27 When what you dread comes like a storm,
And your disaster arrives like a storm wind,
When distress and trouble come upon you.
28 At that time they will keep calling me, but I will not answer;
They will eagerly look for me, but they will not find me,<sup>b</sup>
29 Because they hated knowledge,<sup>c</sup>
And they did not choose to fear Jehovah.<sup>d</sup>
30 They refused my advice;
They disrespected all my reproof.
31 So they will bear the consequences* of their way,<sup>e</sup>
And they will be glutted with their own counsel.<sup>f</sup>
32 For the waywardness of the inexperienced will kill them,
And the complacency of fools will destroy them.
33 But the one listening to me will dwell in security<sup>f</sup>
And be undisturbed by the dread of calamity.<sup>g</sup>

From the man speaking perverse things,<sup>m</sup>
13 From those leaving the upright paths
To walk in the ways of darkness,<sup>n</sup>
14 From those who rejoice in wrongdoing,
Who find joy in the perverseness of evil,

And whose entire course is devious.

From the smooth<sup>b</sup> words of the immoral<sup>c</sup> woman.<sup>a</sup>
- 17 Who abandons the close companion<sup>d</sup> of her youth<sup>b</sup>
And forgets the covenant of her God;
- 18 For her house sinks down into death,
And her paths<sup>e</sup> lead to those powerless in death.<sup>c</sup>
- 19 None of those having relations with<sup>f</sup> her will return, Nor will they regain the pathways of life.<sup>d</sup>
- 20 So follow the way of good people
And stay on the paths of the righteous.<sup>e</sup>
- 21 For only the upright will reside in the earth,
And the blameless<sup>g</sup> will remain in it.<sup>f</sup>
- 22 As for the wicked, they will be cut off from the earth.<sup>g</sup>
And the treacherous will be torn away from it.<sup>h</sup>
- 3 My son, do not forget my teaching,<sup>i</sup>
And may your heart observe my commandments,
- 2 Because they will add many days
And years of life and peace to you.<sup>i</sup>
- 3 Do not let loyal love and faithfulness<sup>j</sup> leave you.<sup>j</sup>
Tie them around your neck;
Write them on the tablet of your heart;<sup>k</sup>
- 4 Then you will find favor and good insight
In the eyes of God and man.<sup>l</sup>

- 32 For in the end it bites like a serpent,
And it secretes poison like a viper.
- 33 Your eyes will see strange things,
And your heart will speak perverse things.<sup>a</sup>
- 34 And you will be like one lying down in the middle of the sea,
Like one lying at the top of a ship's mast.
- 35 You will say: "They have struck me, but I did not feel it.*
They beat me, but I did not know it.
When will I wake up?<sup>b</sup>
I need another drink."<sup>c</sup>
- 24 Do not envy evil men,
And do not crave their company,<sup>c</sup>
- 2 For their heart meditates on violence,
And their lips speak of trouble.
- 3 By wisdom a house* is built up,<sup>d</sup>
And by discernment it is made secure.
- 4 By knowledge its rooms are filled
With all sorts of precious and pleasant treasures.<sup>e</sup>
- 5 A wise man is powerful,<sup>f</sup>
And with knowledge a man increases his power.
- 6 By skillful direction* you will wage your war,<sup>g</sup>

Your strength will be meager.

Yes, the One who watches

Honey from the comb is

If you find it, you will have

of the righteous one;
Do not destroy his place

- 16 For the righteous one may fall seven times, and he will get up again,<sup>h</sup>
But the wicked will be made to stumble by calamity.<sup>i</sup>
- 17 When your enemy falls, do not rejoice,
And when he stumbles,
do not let your heart be

By the vineyard of the man lacking good sense.*

The ground was covered with nettles,
And its stone wall was broken down.<sup>b</sup>
- 32 I observed this and took it to heart;
I saw it and learned this lesson:*
- 33 A little sleep, a little slumbering,
A little folding of the hands to rest,
- 34 And your poverty will come like a bandit,
And your want like an armed man.<sup>c</sup>
- 25 These also are the proverbs of Sol'ō-mon,<sup>d</sup> which the men of Hez-e-ki'ah<sup>e</sup> the king of Judah transcribed:
- 2 It is the glory of God to keep a matter secret,<sup>f</sup>
And the glory of kings is to search through a matter.

3 What does a person gain from all his hard work
At which he toils under the sun?<sup>a</sup>

4 A generation is going, and a generation is coming, But the earth remains* forever.<sup>b</sup>

1:4 *Lit., “is standing.”

5	The sun rises,* and the sun sets; Then it hurries back <sup>b</sup> to the place where it rises again. <sup>a</sup>	CHAP. 1	14	I saw all the works that were done under the sun, And look! everything was futile, a chasing after the wind. <sup>a</sup>
6	The wind goes south and circles around to the north; Round and round it continuously circles; the wind keeps making its rounds.	a Ge 8:22 Ps 19:6	15	What is crooked cannot be made straight, And what is lacking cannot possibly be counted.
7	All the streams* flow into the sea, yet the sea is not full. <sup>b</sup> To the place from which the streams flow, there they return so as to flow again. <sup>c</sup>	b Job 38:8, 10	16	Then I said in my heart: “Look! I have acquired great wisdom, more than anyone who was before me in Jerusalem, <sup>b</sup> and my heart gained a great deal of wisdom and knowledge.” <sup>c</sup>
8	All things are wearisome; No one can even speak of it. The eye is not satisfied at seeing; Nor is the ear filled from hearing.	c Job 36:27, 28 Isa 55:10 Am 5:8	17	I applied my heart to knowing wisdom and to knowing madness* and to knowing folly, <sup>d</sup> and this too is a chasing after the wind.
9	What has been is what will be, And what has been done will be done again; There is nothing new under the sun. <sup>d</sup>	d Ge 8:22 Ec 1:4	18	For an abundance of wisdom brings an abundance of frustration, So that whoever increases knowledge increases pain. <sup>e</sup>
10	Is there anything of which one may say, “Look at this—it is new”? It already existed from long ago; It already existed before our time.	e Ec 2:16 Ec 9:5 Isa 40:6	2	Then I said in my heart: “Come and let me try out pleasure* and see what good comes.” But look! that too was futility.
11	No one remembers people of former times; Nor will anyone remember those who come later; Nor will they be remembered by those who come still later. <sup>e</sup>	f 1Ki 11:42 Ec 1:1	2	I said about laughter, “It is madness!” And about pleasure,* “What use is it?”
12	I, the congregator, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>f</sup> 13 I set my heart to study and explore with wisdom <sup>g</sup> everything that has been done under the heavens <sup>h</sup> —the miserable occupation that God has given to the sons of men that keeps them occupied.	g 1Ki 4:29, 30 h Ec 8:16	3	I explored with my heart by indulging myself with wine, <sup>f</sup> all the while maintaining my own wisdom; I even embraced foolishness to find out what was the best thing for humans to do during their few days of life under the heavens. 4 I undertook great works. <sup>g</sup> I built houses for myself; <sup>h</sup> I planted vineyards for myself. <sup>i</sup> 5 I made gardens and parks for myself, and I planted in them all sorts of fruit trees. 6 I made pools of water for myself, to irrigate a grove* of flourishing trees. 7 I acquired male and female servants, <sup>j</sup> and I had

10 I did not deny myself anything that I desired.*<sup>e</sup> I did not withhold from my heart any sort of pleasure,<sup>f</sup> for my heart was joyful because of all my hard work, and this was my reward<sup>g</sup> for all my hard work.<sup>f</sup> 11 But when I reflected on all the works that my own hands had done and on all the hard work that I had toiled to accomplish,<sup>g</sup> I saw that everything was futile, a chasing after the wind;<sup>h</sup> there was nothing of real value* under the sun.<sup>i</sup>

12 Then I turned my attention to wisdom and madness and folly.<sup>j</sup> (For what can the man do who comes after the king? Only what has already been done.) 13 And I saw that there is an advantage to wisdom over folly,<sup>k</sup> just as there is an advantage to light over darkness.

14 The wise one has his eyes in his head;<sup>l</sup> but the stupid one is walking in darkness.<sup>m</sup> I have also come to realize that there is one outcome<sup>n</sup> that befalls all of them.<sup>n</sup> 15 Then I said in my heart: “What happens to the stupid one will also happen to me.”<sup>o</sup>

What, then, did I gain by becoming excessively wise? So I said in my heart: “This too is futility.” 16 For there is no lasting memory either of the wise one or of the stupid one.<sup>a</sup> In the days to come, everyone will be forgotten. And how will the wise one die? Along with the stupid one.<sup>b</sup>

17 So I came to hate life,<sup>c</sup> because everything being done under the sun seemed distressing to me, for everything was futile,<sup>d</sup> a chasing after the wind.<sup>e</sup> 18 I came to hate all that I had worked so hard for under the sun,<sup>f</sup> because I must leave it behind for the man coming after me.<sup>g</sup> 19 And who knows whether he will be wise or foolish?<sup>h</sup> Yet he will take control over all the things I spent great effort and wisdom to acquire under the sun. This too is futility. 20 So I began to despair in my heart over all the hard work at which I had toiled under the sun. 21 For a man may work hard, guided by wisdom and knowledge and skill, but he must hand over his portion<sup>i</sup> to a man who did not work for it.<sup>j</sup> This too is futility and a great tragedy.<sup>k</sup>

24 There is nothing better for a man than to eat and drink and find enjoyment* in his hard work.<sup>m</sup> This too, I have realized, is from the hand of the true God,<sup>n</sup> 25 for who eats and who drinks better than I do?<sup>o</sup>

2:21 *Or “hand over everything.” <sup>a</sup>Or “calamity.” 2:22 *Lit., “and the striving of his heart.” 2:24 *Or “cause his soul to see good.”

26 To the man who pleases him he gives wisdom and knowledge and rejoicing,<sup>a</sup> but to the sinner he gives the occupation of gathering and merely collecting to give to the one who pleases the true God.<sup>b</sup> This too is futility, a chasing after the wind.

3 There is an appointed time for everything,

A time for every activity under the heavens:

2 A time for birth and a time to die;

A time to plant and a time to uproot what was planted;

3 A time to kill and a time to heal;

A time to tear down and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep and a time to laugh;

A time to wail and a time to dance;<sup>c</sup>*

5 A time to throw stones away and a time to gather stones together;

A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to search and a time to give up as lost;

A time to keep and a time to throw away;

7 A time to rip apart<sup>c</sup> and a time to sew together;

A time to be silent<sup>d</sup> and a time to speak;<sup>e</sup>

8 A time to love and a time to hate;<sup>f</sup>

A time for war and a time for peace.

9 What does the worker gain from all his efforts?<sup>g</sup> 10 I have seen the occupation that God has given to the sons of men to keep them occupied. 11 He has made everything beautiful* in its time.<sup>h</sup> He has even put eternity in their heart; yet mankind will never find out the work that the true God has made from start to finish.

12 I have concluded that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good during their life.<sup>a</sup> 13 also that everyone should eat and drink and find enjoyment for all his hard work. It is the gift of God.<sup>b</sup>

14 I have come to know that everything the true God makes will endure forever. There is nothing to add to it and nothing to subtract from it. The true God has made it this way, so that people will fear him.<sup>c</sup>

15 Whatever happens has already happened, and what is to come has already been;<sup>d</sup> but the true God seeks what has been pursued.*

16 I have also seen this under the sun: In the place of justice there was wickedness, and in the place of righteousness there was wickedness.<sup>e</sup> 17 So I said in my heart: “The true God will judge both the righteous and the wicked,<sup>f</sup> for there is a time for every activity and every action.”

18 I also said in my heart about the sons of men that the true God will test them and show them that they are like animals, 19 for there is an outcome* for humans and an outcome for animals; they all have the same outcome.<sup>g</sup> As the one dies, so the other dies; and they all have but one spirit.<sup>h</sup> So man has no superiority over animals, for everything is futile. 20 All are going to the same place.<sup>i</sup> They all come from the dust,<sup>j</sup> and they all are returning to the dust.<sup>k</sup> 21 Who really knows whether the spirit of humans ascends upward, and whether the spirit of animals descends down to the earth?<sup>l</sup>

22 And I saw that there is nothing

3:4 *Lit., “leap; skip about.” 3:11 *Or “well-arranged; proper; appropriate.”

3:15 *Or possibly, “what has passed away.” 3:19 *Or “eventuality.”

ing better than for a man to find enjoyment in his work,<sup>a</sup> because that is his reward;<sup>b</sup> for who can enable him to see what will happen after he is gone?<sup>b</sup>

4 Again I turned my attention to all the acts of oppression that go on under the sun. I saw the tears of the oppressed, and there was no one to comfort them.<sup>c</sup> And their oppressors had the power, and there was no one to comfort them. 2 And I congratulated the dead who had already died rather than the living who were still alive.<sup>d</sup> 3 And better off than both of them is the one who has not yet been born,<sup>e</sup> who has not seen the distressing deeds that are done under the sun.<sup>f</sup>

5 The stupid one folds his hands while his flesh wastes away.<sup>h</sup>

6 Better is a handful of rest than two handfuls of hard work and chasing after the wind.<sup>i</sup>

7 I turned my attention to another example of futility under the sun: 8 There is a man who is all alone, without any companion; he has no son or brother, but there is no end to all his hard work. His eyes are never satisfied with riches.<sup>j</sup> But does he ask himself, ‘For whom am I working hard and depriving myself* of good things?’<sup>k</sup> This too is futility and a miserable occupation.<sup>l</sup>

9 Two are better than one<sup>m</sup> because they have a good reward* for their hard work. 10 For if one of them falls, the other can help his partner up.

3:22 *Or “portion.” 4:4 *Or “hard work.” 4:5 *Lit., “and is eating his own flesh.” 4:8 *Or “my soul.” 4:9 *Or “greater benefit.”

But what will happen to the one who falls with no one to help him up?

11 Moreover, if two lie down together, they will stay warm, but how can just one keep warm?

12 And someone may overpower one alone, but two together can take a stand against him. And a threefold cord cannot quickly* be torn apart.

13 Better is a poor but wise child than an old but stupid king,<sup>a</sup> who no longer has enough sense to heed a warning.<sup>b</sup> 14 For he* went out from prison to become king,<sup>c</sup> although in that one’s kingship he was born poor.<sup>d</sup> 15 I considered all those alive who walk about under the sun, as well as how it goes with the young successor who stands up in the other’s place. 16 Although there is no end to all his supporters, those who come later will not be happy with him.<sup>e</sup> This too is futility, a chasing after the wind.

5 Watch your step whenever you go to the house of the true God;<sup>f</sup> it is better to draw near to listen<sup>g</sup> than to give a sacrifice as the stupid ones do,<sup>h</sup> for they are not aware that what they are doing is bad.

2 Do not be quick with your mouth, nor let your heart speak rashly before the true God,<sup>i</sup> for the true God is in the heavens but you are on the earth. That is why your words should be few.<sup>j</sup> 3 For a dream comes from too many preoccupations,*<sup>k</sup> and the chatter of the stupid one comes from too many words.<sup>l</sup> 4 Whenever you make a vow to God, do not delay to pay it,<sup>m</sup> for he finds no pleasure in the stupid ones.<sup>n</sup> What you vow, pay.<sup>o</sup> 5 Better for you not to vow than to vow and not pay.<sup>a</sup> 6 Do not allow your mouth to cause you* to sin,<sup>b</sup> and do not say before the angel<sup>c</sup> that it was a mistake.<sup>c</sup> Why make the true God indignant over what you say so that he has to destroy the work of your hands?<sup>d</sup> 7 For just as many preoccupations lead to dreams,<sup>e</sup> so, too, many words lead to futility. But fear the true God.<sup>f</sup>

8 If you see any oppression of the poor and a violation of justice and righteousness in your district, do not be surprised about the matter.<sup>g</sup> For that high official is being watched by one who is higher than he is, and there are others who are still higher than they are.

9 Also, the profit of the land is divided among them all; even the king is served by the field.<sup>h</sup>

12 Sweet is the sleep of the one serving, whether he eats little or much, but the plenty belonging to the rich one does not permit him to sleep.

13 There is a great tragedy* that I have seen under the sun: riches that were hoarded by their owner to his own harm. 14 Those riches were lost because of a disastrous venture,* and when he becomes a father to a son, he has nothing left in his possession.<sup>m</sup> cannot carry away anything for all his hard work.<sup>a</sup>

16 This too is a great tragedy:<sup>b</sup> Exactly as he came, so he will go away; and what profit is there to the one who keeps working hard for the wind?<sup>b</sup> 17 Also, every day he eats in darkness, with a great deal of frustration and sickness and anger.<sup>c</sup>

18 This is what I have seen to be good and proper: that one should eat and drink and find enjoyment for all the hard work<sup>d</sup> at which he toils under the sun during the few days of life that the true God has given him, for that is his reward.<sup>e</sup> 19 Also, when the true God gives a man riches and material possessions<sup>f</sup> along with the ability to enjoy them, he should take his reward<sup>g</sup> and rejoice in his hard work. This is the gift of God.<sup>g</sup> 20 For he will hardly notice* the passing days of his life, because the true God keeps him preoccupied with the rejoicing of his heart.<sup>h</sup>

6 There is another tragedy* that I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: 2 The true God gives a man riches and material possessions and glory, so that he lacks nothing that he desires;* yet the true God does not enable him to enjoy them, although a stranger may enjoy them. This is futility and a severe affliction. 3 If a man should become a father a hundred times and live for many years and reach old age, yet he* does not enjoy his good things before he reaches the grave,<sup>i</sup> I must say that a stillborn child is better off than he is.<sup>j</sup> 4 For this one came in vain and went away in darkness, and his name is shrouded in darkness. 5 Even though he never saw the sun or knew anything, he is still better off* than the former one.<sup>a</sup> 6 What is the benefit of living a thousand years twice over but not experiencing enjoyment? Do not all go to the same place?<sup>b</sup>

7 All the hard work of a man is to fill his mouth;<sup>c</sup> yet his appetite* is never satisfied. 8 For what advantage does the wise one have over the stupid one,<sup>d</sup> or of what benefit is it that the poor man knows how to survive?<sup>e</sup> 9 Better to enjoy what the eyes see than to wander after one's desires.* This too is futility, a chasing after the wind.

10 Whatever has come to be has already been named, and it is known what man is; and he is not able to dispute<sup>f</sup> with the one more powerful than he. 11 The more words,* the more futility; and what advantage do they bring to man? 12 Who knows what is best for a man to do in life during the few days of his futile life, which he spends like a shadow?<sup>g</sup> For who can tell man what will happen under the sun after he is gone?

7 A good name* is better than good oil,<sup>f</sup> and the day of death is better than the day of birth. 2 Better to go to the house of mourning than to the house of feasting,<sup>g</sup> for that is the end of every man, and the living should take it to heart. 3 Better is distress than laughter,<sup>h</sup> for the sadness of the face makes the heart better.<sup>i</sup> 4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of the stupid is in the house of rejoicing.*<sup>a</sup>

5 Better to listen to a wise man's rebuke<sup>b</sup> than to listen to the song of fools. 6 For as the crackling of thorns burning under the pot, so is the laughter of the fool;<sup>c</sup> and this too is futility. 7 But oppression can drive the wise one into madness, and a bribe corrupts the heart.<sup>d</sup>

8 Better is the end of a matter than its beginning. Better to be patient than to be haughty in spirit.<sup>e</sup> 9 Do not be quick* to take offense,<sup>f</sup> for the taking of offense lodges in the bosom of fools.*<sup>g</sup>

10 Do not say, “Why were the former days better than these?” for it is not out of wisdom that you ask this.<sup>h</sup>

11 Wisdom together with an inheritance is a good thing and an advantage to those who see the light of day.* 12 For wisdom is a protection<sup>i</sup> just as money is a protection,<sup>j</sup> but the advantage of knowledge is this: Wisdom preserves the life of its owner.<sup>k</sup>

13 Consider the work of the true God, for who can straighten out what he has made crooked?<sup>l</sup> 14 On a good day, reflect this goodness,<sup>m</sup> but on the day of adversity,* consider that God made the one as well as the other,<sup>n</sup> so that men cannot be certain of<sup>o</sup> anything that will happen to them in the future.<sup>o</sup>

7:4 *Or “amusement.” 7:9 *Lit., “hurry in your spirit.” “Or possibly, “is the mark of a fool.” 7:11 *That is, those alive. 7:14 *Or “calamity.” “Or “discover.”

19 Wisdom makes a wise man more powerful than ten strong men in a city.<sup>g</sup> 20 For there is no righteous man on earth who always does good and never sins.<sup>h</sup>

21 Also, do not take to heart every word that people say;<sup>i</sup> otherwise, you may hear your servant calling down evil on<sup>j</sup> you; 22 for you well know in your heart that many times you yourself have called down evil on others.<sup>j</sup>

23 All of this I tested with wisdom, and I said: “I will become wise.” But it was beyond me. 24 What has come to be is out of reach and exceedingly deep. Who can understand it?<sup>k</sup>

25 I directed my heart to know and to explore and to search for wisdom and the reason behind things, and to understand the wickedness of stupidity and the folly of madness.<sup>l</sup> 26 Then I discovered this: More bitter than death is the woman who is like a hunter’s net, whose heart is like dragnets, and whose hands are like prison chains. The one who pleases the true God will escape her,<sup>m</sup> but the sinner is captured by her.<sup>n</sup>

27 “See, this is what I found,” says the congregator.<sup>o</sup> “I investigated one thing after another to reach my conclusion, 28 but what I<sup>p</sup> continually sought, I have not found. One man” out of a thousand I found, but a woman among them I have not found.

29 This alone I have found: The true God made mankind upright,<sup>a</sup> but they have sought out many schemes.”<sup>b</sup>

8 Who is like the wise man? Who knows the solution to a problem?<sup>c</sup> A man’s wisdom lights up his face and softens his stern appearance.

2 I say: “Obey the king’s orders<sup>c</sup> out of regard for the oath to God.<sup>d</sup> 3 Do not rush to depart from his presence.<sup>e</sup> Do not take a stand for anything bad;<sup>f</sup> for he can do whatever he pleases, 4 because the word of the king is absolute;<sup>g</sup> who can say to him, ‘What are you doing?’”

5 The one who observes the commandment will not experience harm,<sup>h</sup> and the wise heart will know the right time and procedure.*<sup>i</sup> 6 For every matter there is a time and procedure,<sup>j</sup> because the troubles of mankind are so abundant. 7 Since no one knows what will happen, who can tell him how it will happen?

8 Just as no man has power over the spirit* or can restrain the spirit, so no one has power over the day of death.<sup>k</sup> Just as no one is discharged during a war, so wickedness will not allow those who practice it to escape.<sup>l</sup>

9 All of this I have seen, and I applied my heart to every work that has been done under the sun, during the time that man has dominated man to his harm.*<sup>m</sup> 10 And I saw the wicked being buried, those who used to go in and out of the holy place, but they were soon forgotten.

ten in the city where they acted that way.<sup>a</sup> This too is futility.

11 Because sentence against a bad deed has not been executed speedily,<sup>b</sup> the heart of men becomes emboldened to do bad.<sup>c</sup> 12 Although a sinner may do bad a hundred times and still live a long time, yet I am aware that it will turn out well for those who fear the true God, because they fear him.<sup>d</sup> 13 But it will not turn out well for the wicked one,<sup>e</sup> nor will he prolong his days that are like a shadow, because he does not fear God.

14 There is something futile* that takes place on the earth: There are righteous people who are treated as if they had acted wickedly,<sup>g</sup> and there are wicked people who are treated as if they had acted righteously.<sup>h</sup> I say that this too is futility.

15 So I recommended rejoicing,<sup>i</sup> because there is nothing better for man under the sun than to eat and drink and rejoice; this should accompany him as he works hard during the days of his life,<sup>j</sup> which the true God gives him under the sun.

16 I applied my heart to acquire wisdom and to see all the activity* happening on the earth,<sup>k</sup> even going without sleep day and night.<sup>l</sup> 17 Then I considered all the work of the true God, and I realized that mankind cannot comprehend what happens under the sun.<sup>m</sup> No matter how hard men try, they cannot comprehend it. Even if they claim that they are wise enough to know, they cannot really comprehend it.<sup>m</sup>

9 So I took all of this to heart and concluded that the righteous and the wise, as well as their works, are in the hands of the true God.<sup>a</sup> Men are not aware of the love and the hate that took place prior to them. 2 All have the very same outcome,*<sup>b</sup> the righteous and the wicked,<sup>c</sup> the good and the clean and the unclean, those sacrificing and those not sacrificing. The good one is the same as the sinner; the one who swears an oath is the same as the one who is cautious about swearing an oath. 3 This is a distressing thing that happens under the sun: Because all have the same outcome,*<sup>d</sup> the heart of humans is also full of bad; and there is madness in their heart during their life, and then they die!<sup>e</sup>

4 There is hope for whoever is among the living, because a live dog is better off than a dead lion.<sup>f</sup> 5 For the living know* that they will die,<sup>g</sup> but the dead know nothing at all,<sup>g</sup> nor do they have any more reward,<sup>h</sup> because all memory of them is forgotten.<sup>h</sup> 6 Also, their love and their hate and their jealousy have already perished, and they no longer have any share in what is done under the sun.<sup>i</sup>

7 Go, eat your food with rejoicing, and drink your wine with a cheerful heart,<sup>j</sup> for already the true God has found pleasure in your works.<sup>k</sup> 8 May your clothing always be white,* and do not fail to put oil on your head.<sup>l</sup> 9 Enjoy life with your beloved wife<sup>m</sup> all the days of your futile life, which He has given you under the sun, all the days of your futility, for that is your lot* in life and in your hard work at which you toil under the sun.<sup>n</sup> 10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do with all your might, for there is no work nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom in the Grave,<sup>a</sup> where you are going.

11 I have seen something further under the sun, that the swift do not always win the race, nor do the mighty win the battle,<sup>b</sup> nor do the wise always have the food, nor do the intelligent always have the riches,<sup>c</sup> nor do those with knowledge always have success,<sup>d</sup> because time and unexpected events<sup>e</sup> overtake them all. 12 For man does not know his time.<sup>f</sup> Just as fish are caught in an evil net and birds are caught in a trap, so the sons of men are ensnared in a time of disaster,<sup>g</sup> when it suddenly overtakes them.

13 I also observed this about wisdom under the sun—and it impressed me: 14 There was a small city with a few men in it; and a mighty king came against it and surrounded it and built great siegeworks against it. 15 In it was found a poor but wise man, and he saved the city by his wisdom. But no one remembered that poor man.<sup>f</sup> 16 And I said to myself: 'Wisdom is better than mightiness;<sup>g</sup> yet a poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heeded.'<sup>h</sup>

17 Better to heed the calm words of the wise than the shouts of the one ruling among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but just one sinner can destroy much good.<sup>i</sup>

10 As dead flies cause the perfumer's oil to stink and bubble, so a little foolishness outweighs wisdom and glory.<sup>j</sup>

9:10 *Or "Sheol," that is, the common grave of mankind. See Glossary. 9:11 *Or "unforeseen occurrence." 9:12 *Or "calamity."

2 The heart of the wise one leads him in the right way,* but the heart of the stupid one leads him in the wrong way.<sup>#a</sup> 3 In whatever way the fool walks, he is lacking good sense,<sup>*b</sup> and he lets everyone know that he is a fool.<sup>c</sup>

4 If the anger* of a ruler should flare up against you, do not leave your place,<sup>d</sup> for calmness allays great sins.<sup>e</sup>

5 There is something distressing that I have seen under the sun, the sort of mistake made by those in power:<sup>f</sup> 6 Foolishness is put in many high positions, but the rich* remain in low positions.

7 I have seen servants on horseback but princes walking on foot just like servants.<sup>g</sup>

8 The one who digs a pit may fall into it;<sup>h</sup> and the one who breaks through a stone wall may be bitten by a snake.

9 The one who quarries stones may be hurt by them, and the one who splits logs may be endangered by them.*

10 If an iron tool is dull and one does not sharpen its edge, he will need to exert much effort. But wisdom helps to achieve success.

11 If the snake bites before it is charmed, there is no advantage to the skilled charmer.*

12 The words from the mouth of the wise one bring favor,<sup>i</sup> but the lips of the stupid one are his ruin.<sup>j</sup> 13 The first words out of his mouth are foolishness,<sup>k</sup> and his last words are disastrous madness. 14 But the fool keeps on speaking.<sup>l</sup>

A man does not know what will happen; who can tell him what will come after him?<sup>a</sup>

15 The hard work of the stupid one wears him out, for he does not even know how to find his way to the city.

16 How terrible for a land when the king is a boy<sup>b</sup> and the princes start their feasting in the morning! 17 How happy for the land when the king is the son of nobles and the princes eat at the proper time for strength, not for drunkenness!<sup>c</sup>

18 Because of extreme laziness the roof beams sag, and because of idle hands the house leaks.<sup>d</sup>

19 Bread* is made for laughter, and wine makes life enjoyable;<sup>e</sup> but money answers every need.<sup>f</sup>

20 Even in your thoughts,* do not curse<sup>g</sup> the king,<sup>g</sup> and do not curse the rich in your bedroom; for a bird<sup>h</sup> may convey the sound,<sup>i</sup> or a creature with wings may repeat what was said.

11 Cast* your bread on the waters,<sup>j</sup> for after many days you will find it again.<sup>j</sup> 2 Give a share to seven or even to eight,<sup>j</sup> for you do not know what disaster* will occur on the earth.

3 If the clouds are filled with water, they will pour down rain on the earth; and if a tree falls to the south or to the north, the place where the tree falls is where it will lie.

4 The one who watches the wind will not sow seed, and the one who looks at the clouds will not reap.<sup>k</sup>

7 Light is sweet, and it is good for the eyes to see the sun. 8 For if a man should live many years, let him enjoy them all.<sup>d</sup> But he should remember that the days of darkness may be many; all that is to come is futility.<sup>e</sup>

9 Rejoice, young man, while you are young, and let your heart be glad in the days of your youth. And he is the One who

As a trap and a snare
To the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

18 Look! I and the children whom Jehovah has given me<sup>c</sup> who resides on Mount Zion.

Should they inquire of the dead

When they do not speak ac-look to the earth and see only distress and darkness, obscur-brightness.

9 However, the gloom will not be as when the land had distress, as in former times when the land of Zeb'u-lun and the land of Naph'ta-li were treated with contempt.<sup>h</sup> But at a later time He will cause it to be hon-

- 2 The people who were walking in the darkness
Have seen a great light.
As for those dwelling in the land of deep shadow,
Light has shone on them.<sup>a</sup>
- 3 You have made the nation populous;
You have made its rejoicing great.
They rejoice before you
As people rejoice in the harvesttime,
As those who joyfully divide up the spoil.

14 And they will swoop down on the slopes* of the Phi-lis'tines to the west; Together they will plunder the people of the East. They will thrust out their hand against<sup>n</sup> E'dom<sup>a</sup> and Mo'ab,<sup>b</sup> And the Am'mon-ites will become their subjects.<sup>c</sup>

15 Jehovah will divide* the gulf<sup>d</sup> of the Egyptian sea<sup>d</sup> And wave his hand over the River.<sup>e</sup> With his scorching breath<sup>f</sup> he will strike it in its<sup>g</sup> seven torrents, And he will cause people to walk across in their sandals.

16 And there will be a highway<sup>f</sup> out of As-syr'i-a for the remnant of his people who are left,<sup>g</sup> As there was for Israel in the day he came out of the land of Egypt.

12 In that day you will certainly say:

"I thank you, O Jehovah,
For although you were angry with me,
Your anger gradually subsided, and you comforted me.<sup>h</sup>

2 Look! God is my salvation.<sup>i</sup>
I will trust and feel no dread;<sup>j</sup>
For Jah* Jehovah is my strength and my might,
And he has become my salvation."<sup>k</sup>

3 With rejoicing you will draw water
From the springs of salvation.<sup>l</sup>

4 And in that day you will say:

11:14 *Lit., "shoulder." "Or "extend their power over." 11:15 *Or possibly, "dry up." "Lit., "tongue." ^That is, the Euphrates. <sup>m</sup>Or "spirit." <sup>n</sup>Or possibly, "strike it into." 12:2 *Jah" is a shortened form of the name Jehovah.

	"Give thanks to Jehovah, call on his name, Make his deeds known among the peoples! <sup>a</sup> Declare that his name is exalted. <sup>b</sup>		To bring ruin to all the earth. <sup>a</sup>
5	Sing praises* to Jehovah, <sup>c</sup> for he has done magnificent things. <sup>d</sup> Let this be made known in all the earth.	b Ex 15:2	6 Wail, for the day of Jehovah is near! It will come as a destruction from the Almighty. <sup>b</sup>

13	A pronouncement against Babylon <sup>e</sup> that Isaiah <sup>f</sup> the son of A'moz saw in vision: 2 "Raise up a signal* <sup>g</sup> on a mountain of bare rocks. Call out to them, wave your hand, So that they may come into the entrances of the nobles.	d Ps 98:1	8 The people are panic- stricken. <sup>d</sup> They are seized with convulsions and pain, Like a woman in labor. They look at one another in horror, With faces inflamed by anguish.

4	Listen! A crowd in the mountains; It sounds like a numerous people! Listen! The uproar of kingdoms, Of nations gathered together! <sup>i</sup> Jehovah of armies is muster- ing the army for war. <sup>j</sup>	a Jer 51:11 b Isa 13:18 c Jer 50:43 d Da 5:6 e Jer 50:23, 29 f Job 9:9 g Ps 137:8 h Jer 50:29 i Jer 50:30 j 1Ki 10:11	10 For the stars of the heavens and their constellations* <sup>f</sup> Will not give off their light; The sun will be dark when it rises, And the moon will not shed its light.
5	They are coming from a distant land, <sup>k</sup> From the extremity of the heavens, Jehovah and the weapons of his wrath,	Second Col.	11 I will call the inhabited earth to account for its badness, <sup>g</sup> And the wicked for their error. 12:5 *Or "Make music." 12:6 *Lit., "inhabitress," referring to the population collectively as a woman. 13:2 *Or "signal pole." 13:3 *Lit., "to my sanctified ones."			12 I will make mortal man scarcer than refined gold, <sup>i</sup> And humans scarcer than the gold of O'phir. <sup>j</sup>
			13 That is why I will make the heavens tremble,

- And the earth will be shaken out of its place<sup>a</sup>
At the fury of Jehovah of armies in the day of his burning anger.
- 14 Like a hunted gazelle and like a flock with no one to gather them,
Each will return to his own people;
Each will flee to his own land.<sup>b</sup>
- 15 Whoever is found will be pierced through,
And whoever is caught will fall by the sword.<sup>c</sup>
- 16 Their children will be dashed to pieces before their eyes,<sup>d</sup>
Their houses will be looted,
And their wives will be raped.
- 17 Here I am raising up against them the Medes,<sup>e</sup>
Who regard silver as nothing
And who take no delight in gold.
- 18 Their bows will shatter young men;<sup>f</sup>
They will show no pity on the fruit of the womb
Nor mercy to children.
- 19 And Babylon, the most glorious* of kingdoms,<sup>g</sup>
The beauty and the pride of the Chal-de'ans,<sup>h</sup>
Will be like Sod'om and Go-mor'rah when God overthrew them.<sup>i</sup>
- 20 She will never be inhabited,
Nor will she be a place to reside in throughout all generations.<sup>j</sup>
No Arab will pitch his tent there,
And no shepherds will rest their flocks there.
- 21 The desert creatures will lie down there;
Their houses will be filled with eagle owls.

That Jehovah has laid the

Ar' of Mo'ab has been

Because it has been devastated in a night, Kir<sup>g</sup> of Mo'ab has been silenced.
2 He has gone up to the House* and to Di'bon,<sup>h</sup>
To the high places to weep.
Mo'ab wails over Ne'bo<sup>i</sup>

Every head is shaved bald,<sup>k</sup> every beard is clipped.<sup>l</sup>
- 3 In its streets they have put

On their roofs and in their wail;

They go down weeping.<sup>m</sup>

cry out;

as Ja'haz.<sup>b</sup>
That is why the armed men of Mo'ab keep shouting.
He<sup>c</sup> is trembling.
- 5 My heart cries out over Mo'ab.
Its fugitives have fled as far as Zo'ar<sup>c</sup> and Eg'lath-she-li'shi-yah.<sup>d</sup>
On the ascent of Lu'hith they weep as they go up;
On the way to Hor-o-na'im they cry out over the catastrophe.<sup>e</sup>
- 6 For the waters of Nim'rim are desolate;
The green grass has dried up,
The grass is gone and nothing green is left.
- 7 That is why they are carrying away what is left of their

They are crossing the valley*

- 8 For the outcry echoes throughout the territory of Mo'ab.<sup>f</sup>
The wailing reaches to Eg-la'im;
The wailing reaches
to Be'er-e'lim.
- 9 For the waters of Di'mon

And I have more in store for Di'mon:
A lion for those of Mo'ab who escape
And for those remaining

The rulers of the nations

red branches;*
They had reached as far as

With my tears I will drench you, O Hesh'bon and E-le-a'leh,<sup>a</sup>
Because the shouting over your summer fruit and your harvest has ended.*
- 10 Rejoicing and joyfulness have been taken away from the orchard,
And there are no songs of joy or shouting in the vine-yards.<sup>b</sup>
The treader no longer treads out wine in the presses,
For I have caused the shouting to cease.<sup>c</sup>
- 11 That is why deep within me I am boisterous over Mo'ab,<sup>d</sup>
Like the strumming of a harp,
And my innermost being over Kir-har'e-seth.<sup>e</sup>
- 12 Even when Mo'ab wears himself out on the high place and goes to pray in his sanctuary, he will accomplish nothing.<sup>f</sup>
- 13 This is the word that Jehovah previously spoke concerning Mo'ab. 14 And now Jehovah says: "Within three years, like the years of a hired worker,* the glory of Mo'ab will be disgraced with much tumult of every sort, and those who remain will be very few and insignificant."<sup>g</sup>
- 17 A pronouncement against Damascus:<sup>h</sup>
"Look! Damascus will cease to be a city,
And it will become a heap of ruins."

16:9 *Or possibly, "Because the battle cry has descended on your summer fruit and your harvest." 16:14 *Or "counted as carefully as a hired worker does"; that is, in exactly three years.

- 11 In the day you carefully fence in your plantation, In the morning you make your seed sprout, But the harvest will vanish in the day of disease and incurable pain.<sup>c</sup>
- 12 Listen! There is a commotion of many peoples, Who are as boisterous as the seas! There is an uproar of nations, Whose sound is like the roar of mighty waters!
- 13 The nations will make a sound like the roar of many waters. He will rebuke them, and they will flee far away, Chased like the chaff of the mountains before a wind, Like a whirling thistle<sup>e</sup> before a storm wind.
- 14 In the evening there is terror. Before morning they are no more. This is the share of those pillaging us And the lot of those plundering us.

and Egypt will serve God together with As-syr'i-a. 24 In that day Israel will be the third along with Egypt and with As-syr'i-a,<sup>a</sup> a blessing in the midst of the earth, 25 for Jehovah of armies will have blessed it, saying: “Blessed be my people, Egypt, and the work of my hands, As-syr'i-a, and my inheritance, Israel.”<sup>b</sup>

20 In the year that King Sar'-gon of As-syr'i-a sent the Tar'tan* to Ash'dod,<sup>c</sup> he fought against Ash'dod and captured it.<sup>d</sup> 2 At that time Jehovah spoke through Isaiah<sup>e</sup> the son of A'moz, saying: “Go, remove the sack-cloth from your hips, and take your sandals off your feet.” And he did so, walking about naked* and barefoot.

3 Jehovah then said: “Just as my servant Isaiah has walked about naked and barefoot for three years as a sign<sup>f</sup> and a portent against Egypt<sup>g</sup> and E-thi'o-pi-a,<sup>h</sup> 4 so the king of As-syr'i-a will lead the captives of Egypt<sup>i</sup> and the exiles of E-thi'o-pi-a, boys and old men, naked and barefoot and with exposed buttocks, the nakedness* of Egypt. 5 And they will be terrified and will be ashamed of E-thi'o-pi-a their hope and of Egypt their pride.* 6 The inhabitants of this coastland will say in that day, ‘Look at what happened to our hope, to which we fled for help and rescue from the king of As-syr'i-a! How will we escape now?’”

21 A pronouncement against the wilderness of the sea:<sup>*/j</sup> It is coming like storm winds that sweep through in the south,

20:1 *Or “the commander.” 20:2 *Or “lightly clad.” 20:4 *Or “to the shame.” 20:5 *Or “whose beauty they admired.” 21:1 *Apparently refers to the region of ancient Babylonia.

- From the wilderness, from a fearsome land.<sup>a</sup>
- 2 A harsh vision has been told

The treacherous one is acting treacherously,
And the destroyer is destroying.
Go up, O E'lam! Lay siege,
O Me'di-a!<sup>b</sup>
I will put an end to all the sighing she caused.<sup>c</sup>
- 3 That is why I am in great anguish.<sup>d</sup>
Convulsions have seized me,
Like those of a woman giving birth.
I am too distressed to hear;
I am too disturbed to see.
- 4 My heart falters; I shudder in terror.
The twilight I longed for makes me tremble.
- 5 Set the table and arrange

Eat and drink!<sup>e</sup>
Get up, you princes, anoint*<sup>f</sup>

- 6 For this is what Jehovah said to me:
“Go, post a lookout and have him report what he sees.”
- 7 And he saw a war chariot with a team of horses,
A war chariot of donkeys,
A war chariot of camels.
He watched carefully, with great attentiveness.
- 8 Then he called out like a lion:
“Upon the watchtower,
O Jehovah, I am standing constantly by day,
And I am stationed at my guardpost every night.<sup>f</sup>

Your slain were not slain with the sword,
Nor did they die in battle.<sup>b</sup>

3 All your dictators have fled together.<sup>c</sup>

They were taken prisoner without need of a bow.
All who were found were taken prisoner,<sup>d</sup>
Even though they had fled far away.

From the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies,
In the Valley of Vision.
There is a demolishing of the wall<sup>h</sup>

And a cry to the mountain.

6 E'lam<sup>i</sup> picks up the quiver

3 The land will be completely emptied;

It will be completely plundered,<sup>f</sup>

For Jehovah has spoken this word.

4 The land mourns;<sup>g</sup> it is wasting away.

The productive land withers; it is fading away.

The prominent people of the land wither.

5 The land has been polluted by its inhabitants,<sup>h</sup>

For they have bypassed the laws,<sup>i</sup>

Changed the regulation,<sup>j</sup>
And broken the lasting* covenant.<sup>k</sup>

6 That is why the curse devours the land,<sup>l</sup>

And those inhabiting it are held guilty.

That is why the inhabitants of the land have dwindled,

23:10 *Or possibly, "harbor." 23:15 *Lit., "days."

24:1 *Or "earth." 24:2 *Or "He twists the face of it." 24:4 *Or possibly, "dries up." 24:5 *Or "ancient."

- And very few men are left.<sup>a</sup>
- 7 The new wine mourns,* the vine withers,<sup>b</sup>
And all those cheerful at heart are sighing.<sup>c</sup>
- 8 The joy of the tambourines has ceased;
The noise of the revelers has ended;
The happy sound of the harp has ceased.<sup>d</sup>
- 9 They drink wine without song,
And alcohol tastes bitter to those drinking it.
- 10 The deserted town is broken down;<sup>e</sup>
Every house is shut up so that no one can enter.
- 11 They cry out for wine in the streets.
All rejoicing has disappeared;
The joy of the land has gone.<sup>f</sup>
- 12 The city is left in ruins;
The gate has been crushed to a heap of rubble.<sup>g</sup>
- 13 For this is how it will be in the land, among the peoples:
As when an olive tree is beaten,<sup>h</sup>
Like the gleaning when the grape harvest comes to an end.<sup>i</sup>
- 14 They will raise their voice, They will shout joyfully.
From the sea* they will proclaim the majesty of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup>
- 15 That is why they will glorify Jehovah in the region of light;*<sup>k</sup>
In the islands of the sea they will glorify the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.<sup>l</sup>
- 16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs:

24:7 *Or possibly, "dries up." 24:14* Or "the west." 24:15 *Or "in the east."

But I say: "I am wasting away, I am wasting away!
Woe to me! The treacherous have acted treacherously;
With treachery the treacherous have acted treacherously."<sup>b</sup>

17 Terror and pits and traps await you, inhabitant of the land.<sup>c</sup>

18 Anyone fleeing from the sound of terror will fall into the pit,

And anyone coming up from the pit will be caught in the trap.<sup>d</sup>

For the floodgates above will be opened,

And the foundations of the land will quake.

19 The land has burst apart; The land has been shaken up;
The land convulses violently.<sup>e</sup>

20 The land staggers like a drunken man,
And it sways back and forth like a hut in the wind.
Its transgression weighs heavily on it,<sup>f</sup>
And it will fall, so that it will not rise up again.

21 In that day Jehovah will turn his attention to the army of the heights above And to the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they will be gathered together Like prisoners gathered into a pit,
And they will be shut up in the dungeon;
After many days they will be given attention.

23 The full moon will be abashed,

24:16 *Or "Decoration."

And the shining sun will be ashamed,<sup>a</sup>
For Jehovah of armies has become King<sup>b</sup> in Mount Zion<sup>c</sup> and in Jerusalem, Glorious before the elders of his people.<sup>*d</sup>

25 O Jehovah, you are my God.

I exalt you, I praise your name,
For you have done wonderful things,<sup>e</sup>
Things purposed* from ancient times,<sup>f</sup>
In faithfulness,<sup>g</sup> in trustworthiness.

- 2 For you have turned a city into a pile of stones,
A fortified town into a crumbling ruin.
The foreigner's tower is a city no more;
It will never be rebuilt.
- 3 That is why a strong people will glorify you;
The city of tyrannical nations will fear you.<sup>h</sup>
- 4 For you have become a stronghold to the lowly,
A stronghold to the poor in his distress,<sup>i</sup>
A refuge from the rainstorm,
And a shade from the heat.<sup>j</sup>
When the blast of the tyrants is like a rainstorm against a wall,

- 5 As the heat in a parched land,
You subdue the uproar of strangers.
Like heat that is subdued by the shadow of a cloud,
So the song of the tyrants is silenced.
- 6 In this mountain<sup>k</sup> Jehovah of armies will make for all the peoples

But we make mention of your Powerless in death, they will not rise up.<sup>i</sup>

For you have turned your

15 You have enlarged the

You have enlarged the

You have glorified yourself.<sup>j</sup>
You have greatly extended

14 So hear the word of Jehovah, you boasters, You rulers of this people in Jerusalem,			21 For Jehovah will rise up as at Mount Pe-ra'zim; He will rouse himself as in the valley * near Gib'e-on, That he may do his deed —his strange deed— And that he may carry out his work—his unusual work. <sup>j</sup>
15 For you men say: "We have made a covenant with Death, <sup>f</sup> And with the Grave * we have made an agreement. <sup>f</sup> When the raging flash flood passes through, It will not reach us, For we have made a lie our refuge And we have hidden ourselves in falsehood." <sup>g</sup>			22 Now do not scoff, <sup>k</sup> So that your bonds may not be further tightened,
16 Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says:			28:10, 13 *Or "Measuring line upon measuring line, measuring line upon measuring line." 28:11 *Lit., "lip." 28:15, 18 *Or "Sheol," that is, the com- mon grave of mankind. See Glossary. 28:15 *Or possibly, "effected a vision."
			28:17 *Or "plumb line." 28:19 *Or possibly, "When they understand, they will feel sheer terror." 28:21 *Or "low plain."

- For I have heard from the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies,
That an extermination has been determined for all the land.*<sup>a</sup>
- 23 Give ear and listen to my voice;
Pay attention and listen to what I say.
- 24 Does the plowman keep plowing all day before he sows seed?
Does he continually break up and harrow his ground?<sup>b</sup>
- 25 When he has smoothed out its surface,
Does he not then scatter black cumin and sow cumin,
And does he not plant wheat, millet, and barley in their places
And spelt<sup>c</sup> around the edges?
- 26 For He teaches* him the right way;
His God instructs him.<sup>d</sup>
- 27 For black cumin is not crushed with a threshing sledge,<sup>e</sup>
And a wagon wheel is not driven over cumin.
Rather, black cumin is beaten out with a rod,
And cumin with a staff.
- 28 Does a person crush grain for bread?
No, he does not thresh it incessantly;<sup>f</sup>
And when he drives the roller of his wagon over it with his horses,
He does not crush it.<sup>g</sup>
- 29 This also comes from Jehovah of armies,
Whose counsel* is wonderful
And whose achievements are great.<sup>h</sup>

28:22 *Or "for the whole earth." 28:26* Or "disciplines; chastises." 28:29* Or "purpose." "Or "And whose practical wisdom is great."

29 "Woe to Ar'i-el,* Ar'i-el, the city where David encamped!<sup>a</sup>

Continue year after year;
Let the cycle of festivals<sup>b</sup> continue.

2 But I will bring distress on Ar'i-el,<sup>c</sup>
And there will be mourning and lamentation,<sup>d</sup>
And she will become to me like an altar hearth of God.<sup>e</sup>

3 I will encamp on all sides against you,
And I will besiege you with a palisade
And raise up siegeworks against you.<sup>f</sup>

4 You will be brought low;
From the ground you will speak,
And what you say will be muffled by dust.

Your voice will come from the ground<sup>g</sup>
Like the voice of a spirit medium,
And your words will chirp from the dust.

5 The crowd of your enemies* will be like fine powder,<sup>h</sup>
The crowd of the tyrants just like the blowing chaff.<sup>i</sup>
And it will happen in an instant, suddenly.<sup>j</sup>

6 Jehovah of armies will give you his attention
With thunder and earthquake and a great noise,
With storm wind and tempest and the flames of a consuming fire."<sup>k</sup>

7 Then the crowd of all the nations waging war against Ar'i-el'
—All those waging war against her,

29:1 *Possibly meaning "The Altar Hearth of God," apparently referring to Jerusalem. 29:5 *Lit., "strangers."

The siege towers against her,
And those bringing distress on her—
Will become like a dream,
a vision of the night.

8 Yes, it will be just as when someone hungry dreams that he is eating,
But he wakes up hungry,*
And as when someone thirsty dreams that he is drinking,
But he wakes up tired and thirsty.<sup>a</sup>

So it will happen with the crowd of all the nations
That wage war against Mount Zion.<sup>a</sup>

9 Be stunned and amazed;<sup>b</sup> Blind yourselves and be blinded.<sup>c</sup>
They are drunk, but not with wine;
They are staggering, but not from alcohol.

10 For Jehovah has poured a spirit of deep sleep on you;<sup>d</sup>
He has closed your eyes,
the prophets,<sup>e</sup>
And he has covered your heads, the visionaries.<sup>f</sup>

11 Every vision becomes for you like the words of a sealed book.<sup>g</sup> When they give it to someone who can read, saying:
“Read this out loud, please,” he will say: “I cannot, for it is sealed up.” 12 And when they give the book to someone who cannot read, saying: “Read this, please,” he will say: “I cannot read at all.”

13 Jehovah says: “This people approach me with their mouth

their lips,<sup>h</sup>
But their heart is far removed from me;

15 Woe to those who go to great lengths to conceal their plans* from Jehovah.<sup>d</sup>
Their deeds are done in a dark place,
While they say:
“Who sees us?
Who knows about us?”<sup>e</sup>

16 How you twist things!*

Should the potter be regarded the same as the clay?<sup>f</sup> Should what is made say about its maker:
“He did not make me”?<sup>g</sup>
And does what is formed say about its former:
“He shows no understanding”?<sup>h</sup>

17 In just a short time, Leb'- a-non will be turned into an orchard,<sup>i</sup>
And the orchard will be regarded as a forest.<sup>j</sup>

18 In that day the deaf will hear the words of the book,
And out of the gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind will see.<sup>k</sup>

19 The meek will rejoice greatly in Jehovah,
And the poor among men will be joyful in the Holy One of Israel.<sup>l</sup>

20 For the tyrant will be no more,
The boaster will come

29:8 *Or “and his soul is empty.”   29:16 *Or “How perverse of you!”

- And all those keeping alert to do harm will be destroyed.<sup>a</sup>
- 21 Those who with a false word make others guilty,
Who lay traps for the defendant* in the city gate,<sup>b</sup>
And who with empty arguments deny justice to the righteous one.<sup>c</sup>
- 22 So this is what Jehovah, who redeemed Abraham,<sup>d</sup> says to the house of Jacob:
“Jacob will no longer be ashamed,
And no more will his face grow pale.”<sup>e</sup>
- 23 For when he sees his children,
Who are the work of my hands, in his midst,<sup>f</sup>
They will sanctify my name;
Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,
And they will stand in awe of the God of Israel.<sup>g</sup>
- 24 Those who are wayward in spirit will acquire understanding,
And those who complain will accept instruction.”
- 30 “Woe to the stubborn sons,”<sup>h</sup> declares Jehovah,
“Who carry out plans that are not mine,<sup>i</sup>
Who make alliances,* but not by my spirit,
In order to add sin to sin.
- 2 They go down to Egypt<sup>j</sup> without consulting me,<sup>k</sup>
To take shelter under Phar’ao’s protection<sup>l</sup>
And to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt!

29:21 *Lit., “the one reproving.” 29:22* That is, from shame and disappointment. 30:1 *Lit., “pour out a libation,” evidently referring to making an agreement. 30:2 *Or “without inquiring of my mouth.” <sup>l</sup>Lit., “in the stronghold of Pharaoh.”

- 3 But the protection of Phar’ao will become for you a reason for shame, And refuge in Egypt’s shadow a cause for humiliation.<sup>a</sup>
- 4 For his princes are in Zo’an,<sup>b</sup> And his envoys have reached Ha’nes.
- 5 They will all be put to shame By a people who can bring no benefit to them, Who offer no help and no benefit, Only shame and disgrace.”<sup>c</sup>
- 6 A pronouncement against the beasts of the south: Through the land of distress and hardship, Of the lion, the roaring lion, Of the viper and the flying fiery snake,* They carry their wealth on the backs of donkeys And their supplies on the humps of camels. But these things will not benefit the people.
- 7 For Egypt’s help is completely useless.<sup>d</sup> So I have called this one: “Ra’hab,”<sup>e</sup> who sits still.”
- 8 “Now go, write it on a tablet in their presence, And inscribe it in a book,<sup>f</sup> So that it may serve for a future day As a permanent witness.<sup>g</sup>
- 9 For they are a rebellious people,<sup>h</sup> deceitful sons,<sup>i</sup> Sons who are unwilling to hear the law* of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup>

- 11 Turn aside from the way;
deviate from the path.

Holy One of Israel.”<sup>a</sup>
- 12 Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says:
“Since you reject this word<sup>b</sup>
And you trust in fraud and deceit
And you rely on these,<sup>c</sup>
- 13 So this error will be for you like a broken wall,
Like a bulging high wall
ready to fall.
It will crash suddenly, in an instant.
- 14 It will be broken like a large
potter’s jar,
So completely smashed that no fragment among its pieces will be left To rake the fire from the fireplace
Or to scoop water from a puddle.”<sup>d</sup>
- 15 For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, says:
“By returning to me and resting, you will be saved;
Your strength will be in keeping calm and showing trust.”<sup>d</sup>
But you were unwilling.<sup>e</sup>
- 16 Instead, you said: “No, we will flee on horses!”
So flee you will.
“And on swift horses we will ride!”<sup>f</sup>
So those pursuing you will be swift.<sup>g</sup>
- 17 A thousand will tremble at the threat of one;<sup>h</sup>
At the threat of five you will flee
Until what is left of you is like a mast on the top of a mountain,
Like a signal pole on a hill.<sup>i</sup>

- 27 Look! The name of Jehovah is coming from far away, Burning with his anger and with heavy clouds. His lips are full of indignation, And his tongue is like a consuming fire.<sup>d</sup>

He has made the woodpile deep and wide, With an abundance of fire and wood.

The breath of Jehovah, like a torrent of sulfur, Will set fire to it.

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for assistance,<sup>f</sup>

Who rely on horses,<sup>g</sup>

Who trust in war chariots because they are numerous, And in warhorses* because they are mighty.

But they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, And they do not search for Jehovah.

2 But he is also wise and will bring calamity, And he will not take back his words.

He will rise up against the house of evildoers And against those who help wrongdoers.<sup>h</sup>

3 The Egyptians, though, are mere men and not God; Their horses are flesh and not spirit.<sup>i</sup>

And it is not terrified by their voice
Or daunted by their commotion,

He will defend her and save her.
He will spare her and rescue her.”
- 6 “Return to the One against whom you have blatantly revolted, O people of Israel.<sup>b</sup> 7 For in that day each one will reject his worthless gods of silver and his valueless gods of gold, which your own hands sinfully made.

You made the heavens and the earth. 17 Incline your ear, O Jehovah, and hear!<sup>g</sup> Open your eyes, O Jehovah, and see!<sup>h</sup> Hear all the words that Sen-nach'er-ib has sent to taunt the living God.<sup>i</sup> 18 It is a fact, O Jehovah, that the kings of As-syr'i-a have devastated all the lands,<sup>j</sup> as well as their own land. 19 And they have thrown their gods into the fire,<sup>k</sup> because they were not gods but the work of human hands,<sup>l</sup> wood and stone. That is why they could destroy them. 20 But now, O Jehovah our God, save us out of his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are God, O Jehovah."<sup>m</sup>

21 Isaiah son of A'moz then sent this message to Hez-e-ki'ah: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'Because you prayed to me concerning King Sen-nach'er-ib of As-syr'i-a,' 22 this is the word that Jehovah has spoken against him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion despises you, she scoffs at you."

The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.

23 Whom have you taunted* and blasphemed?

Against whom have you raised your voice<sup>b</sup>

It is against the Holy One of Israel!<sup>c</sup>

24 Through your servants you have taunted Jehovah<sup>d</sup> and said,

I will cut down its lofty cedars, its choice juniper trees.

Now I will bring it about.<sup>g</sup>

You will turn fortified cities into desolate piles of ruins.<sup>h</sup> early in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies.<sup>a</sup> 37 So King Sen-nach'er-ib of As-syr'i-a departed and returned to Nin'e-veh<sup>b</sup> and stayed there.<sup>c</sup> 38 And as he was bowing down at the house<sup>d</sup> of his god Nis'roch, his own sons A-dram'me-lech and Shar-e'zer struck him down with the sword<sup>d</sup> and then escaped to the land of Ar'a-rat.<sup>e</sup> And his son E'sar-had'don<sup>f</sup> became king in his place.

38 In those days Hez-e-ki'ah became sick and was at the point of death.<sup>g</sup> The prophet Isaiah<sup>h</sup> the son of A'moz came and said to him, “This is what Jehovah says: ‘Give instructions to your household, for you will die; you will not recover.’”<sup>i</sup> 2 At that Hez-e-ki'ah turned his face to the wall and began to pray to Jehovah: 3 “I beg you, O Jehovah, remember,<sup>j</sup> please, how I have walked before you faithfully and with a complete heart,<sup>k</sup> and I have done what was good in your eyes.” And Hez-e-ki'ah began to weep profusely.

4 Then the word of Jehovah came to Isaiah, saying: 5 “Go back and say to Hez-e-ki'ah, ‘This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather says: ‘I have heard your prayer.<sup>m</sup> I have seen your tears.<sup>n</sup> Here I am adding 15 years to your life,<sup>o</sup> 6 and I will rescue you and this city out of the hand of the king of As-syr'i-a, and I will defend this city.<sup>p</sup> 7 This is the sign from Jehovah to show you that Jehovah will carry out the word that he has spoken:<sup>q</sup> 8 Here I will make the declining shadow of the sun on the stairway<sup>r</sup> of A'haz go back ten steps.’”<sup>s</sup> So the sun went back ten steps on the stairway that it had already descended.

He plants a laurel tree, and the rain makes it grow.	d De 27:15	Should I, then, make the rest of it into a detestable thing? <sup>d</sup>
15 Then it becomes fuel for a man to make fires.		Should I worship a block* of wood from a tree?”

- “Is there not a lie in my right hand?”
- 21 Remember these things,
O Jacob, and you, O Israel,
For you are my servant.
I formed you, and you are my servant.<sup>a</sup>
- O Israel, I will not forget
you.<sup>b</sup>

For Jehovah has acted!

mountains,<sup>e</sup>
You forest, and all your trees!
For Jehovah has repurchased Jacob,
And on Israel he displays
his splendor.<sup>f</sup>
- 24 This is what Jehovah says,
your Repurchaser,<sup>g</sup>
Who formed you since you were in the womb:
“I am Jehovah, who made everything.
I stretched out the heavens
by myself,<sup>h</sup>
And I spread out the earth.<sup>i</sup>

And I will restore her ruins’;<sup>c</sup> out all my will’;

- The One saying of Jerusa-

And of the temple, ‘Your

- 45 This is what Jehovah says
to his anointed one,
to Cyrus,<sup>h</sup> Whose right hand I have taken hold of<sup>i</sup>
To subdue nations before him,<sup>j</sup>
To disarm* kings,
To open before him the dou-

So that the gates will not be shut:

And the hills I will level.
The copper doors I will break in pieces,
And the iron bars I will cut down.”
- 3 I will give you the treasures

- 5 I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.
There is no God except me.<sup>a</sup>

From the rising of the sun to its setting<sup>c</sup>
That there is none besides me.<sup>b</sup>
- I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.<sup>c</sup>
- 7 I form light<sup>d</sup> and create darkness,<sup>e</sup>
I make peace<sup>f</sup> and create calamity;<sup>g</sup>
I, Jehovah, am doing all these things.
- 8 You heavens, rain down from above;<sup>h</sup>
Let the clouds pour down righteousness.
Let the earth open up and be fruitful with salvation,
And let it cause righteousness to spring up at the same time.<sup>i</sup>
I, Jehovah, have created it.”

- 10 Woe to the one who says to a father: “What do you become father to?”
And to a woman: “What are you giving birth to?”<sup>n</sup>
- 11 This is what Jehovah says, the Holy One of Israel,<sup>a</sup> the One who formed him: “Would you question me about the things coming And command me about my sons<sup>b</sup> and the works of my hands?
- 12 I made the earth<sup>c</sup> and created man on it.<sup>d</sup>
I stretched out the heavens with my own hands,<sup>e</sup>
And I give orders to all their army.”<sup>f</sup>

And I will make all his ways straight.
He is the one who will build my city<sup>h</sup>
And set my exiles free<sup>i</sup> without a price or a bribe,”<sup>j</sup> says Jehovah of armies.
- 14 This is what Jehovah says: “The profit<sup>k</sup> of Egypt and the merchandise<sup>l</sup> of E-thi-o-pi-a and the Sa-be'ans, tall of stature, Will come over to you and become yours.
They will walk behind you in chains.
They will come over and bow down to you.<sup>k</sup>
To you they will say in prayer, ‘Surely God is with you,’
And there is no one else; there is no other God.”
- 15 Truly you are a God who conceals himself,
O God of Israel, the Savior.<sup>m</sup>
- 16 They will all be put to shame and be humiliated;

- The makers of idols will all go off in disgrace.<sup>a</sup>
- 17 But Israel will be saved by Jehovah with an everlasting salvation.<sup>b</sup>
You will not be put to shame or disgraced for all eternity.<sup>c</sup>
- 18 For this is what Jehovah says,
The Creator of the heavens,<sup>d</sup> the true God,
The One who formed the earth, its Maker who firmly established it.<sup>e</sup>
Who did not create it simply for nothing,* but formed it to be inhabited:<sup>f</sup>
“I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.
- 19 I did not speak in a concealed place,<sup>g</sup> in a land of darkness;
I did not say to the offspring* of Jacob, ‘Seek me simply for nothing.’<sup>h</sup>
I am Jehovah, who speaks what is righteous and declares what is upright.<sup>i</sup>
- 20 Gather together and come. Approach together, you escapees from the nations.<sup>j</sup>
They know nothing, those who carry around carved images
And pray to a god that cannot save them.<sup>j</sup>
- 21 Make your report, present your case.
Let them consult together in unity.
Who foretold this long ago And declared it from times past?
Is it not I, Jehovah?
There is no other God but me;

- Adversity will befall you; you will not be able to avert it. Sudden ruin will come upon you like you have never known.<sup>a</sup>
- 12 Go ahead, then, with your spells and your many sorceries,<sup>b</sup>
With which you have toiled from your youth.
Perhaps you may be able to benefit;
Perhaps you may strike people with awe.
- 13 You have grown weary with the multitude of your advisers.
Let them stand up now and save you,
Those who worship the heavens,* who gaze at the stars,<sup>c</sup>
Those giving out knowledge at the new moons
About the things that will come upon you.

They cannot save themselves* from the power of the flame.
These are not charcoals for keeping warm,

Those with whom you toiled from your youth.
They will wander, each one in his own direction.*

- 14 Gather together, all of you, and listen.
Who among them has announced these things? Jehovah has loved him.<sup>n</sup>
He will carry out his delight against Babylon,<sup>o</sup>
And his arm will come against the Chal-de'ans.<sup>p</sup>
- 15 I myself have spoken, and I have called him.<sup>q</sup>
I have brought him, and his way will be successful.<sup>r</sup>

48:1 *Or possibly, "who are descended from." 48:3 *Lit., "first." 48:5 *Or "molten statue."

48:10 *Or "examined." Or possibly, "chosen." 48:11 *Or "I do not share my glory with anyone else."

- 16 Come near to me, and hear this.
 From the very start I have not spoken in secret.<sup>a</sup>
 From the time it happened I was there.”
 And now the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has sent me, and* his spirit.
- 17 This is what Jehovah says, your Repurchaser, the Holy One of Israel:<sup>b</sup>
 “I, Jehovah, am your God,
 The One teaching you to benefit yourself,<sup>c</sup>
 The One guiding you in the way you should walk.<sup>d</sup>
- 18 If only you would pay attention to my commandments!<sup>e</sup>
 Then your peace would become just like a river<sup>f</sup>
 And your righteousness like the waves of the sea.<sup>g</sup>
- 19 Your offspring* would be as many as the sand
 And your descendants as its grains.<sup>h</sup>
 Their name would never be cut off or annihilated from before me.”
- 20 Go out from Babylon!<sup>i</sup>
 Flee from the Chal-de’ans!
 Announce it with a joyful cry! Proclaim it!
 Make it known to the ends of the earth.<sup>k</sup>
 Say: “Jehovah has repurchased his servant Jacob.”<sup>l</sup>
- 21 They did not become thirsty when he led them through devastated places.<sup>m</sup>
 He caused water to flow out of the rock for them;
 He split a rock and made water gush out.”<sup>n</sup>
- 22 “There is no peace,” says Jehovah, “for the wicked.”<sup>o</sup>

- 49 Listen to me, you islands, And pay attention, you faraway nations.<sup>a</sup>
 Jehovah has called me before I was born.<sup>*b</sup>
 From the time I was in my mother’s womb he has made mention of my name.
- 2 He made my mouth like a sharp sword; He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand.<sup>c</sup>
 He made me a polished arrow;
 He concealed me in his quiver.
- 3 He said to me: “You are my servant, O Israel,<sup>d</sup> Through whom I will show my splendor.”<sup>e</sup>
- 4 But I said: “I have toiled for nothing.
 I used up my strength for an unreality, in vain.
 But surely my judgment is with Jehovah,*
 And my wages<sup>g</sup> with my God.”<sup>f</sup>
- 5 And now Jehovah, the One who formed me from the womb as his servant, Has said for me to bring Jacob back to him, So that Israel may be gathered to him.<sup>g</sup>
 I will be glorified in the eyes of Jehovah,
 And my God will have become my strength.
- 6 And he said: “It is not enough that you are my servant To raise up the tribes of Jacob
 And to bring back those who were preserved of Israel.
 I have also given you as a light of nations.<sup>h</sup>

“Kings will see and rise up,
And princes will bow down
Because of Jehovah, who is faithful,”<sup>d</sup>
The Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”<sup>e</sup>

8 This is what Jehovah says:

“In a time of favor*
I answered you,”<sup>f</sup>
And in a day of salvation
I helped you;<sup>g</sup>
I kept safeguarding you to give you as a covenant for the people,”<sup>h</sup>

To cause them to possess their desolate inheritances,<sup>i</sup>

9 To say to the prisoners, ‘Come out!’<sup>j</sup>

And to those in the darkness,<sup>k</sup> ‘Show yourselves!
By the roadways they will feed,
Along all the worn paths* will be their pastures.

10 They will not go hungry, nor will they thirst,<sup>l</sup>

For the One who has mercy on them will lead them,”<sup>n</sup>
And he will guide them by the springs of water.”<sup>o</sup>

And these from the land of Si’nim.”<sup>b</sup>

13 Shout for joy, you heavens, and rejoice, you earth.<sup>c</sup>
Let the mountains become cheerful with a joyful cry.<sup>d</sup>
For Jehovah has comforted his people,<sup>e</sup>
And he shows mercy to his own afflicted ones.<sup>f</sup>

14 But Zion kept saying:
“Jehovah has abandoned me,<sup>g</sup> and Jehovah has forgotten me.”<sup>h</sup>

15 Can a woman forget her nursing child
Or have no compassion for the son of her womb?
Even if these women forget,
I would never forget you.<sup>i</sup>

16 Look! On my palms I have engraved you.
Your walls are always before me.

17 Your sons hurry back.
Those who tore you down and devastated you will depart from you.

18 Raise your eyes and look all around.

They are all gathering together.

They are coming to you.
“As surely as I am living,” declares Jehovah,

“You will clothe yourself with all of them as with ornaments,

And you will fasten them on yourself as a bride does.

19 Although your places were devastated and desolate and your land was in ruins,<sup>k</sup>

Now it will become too cramped for those dwelling there.”<sup>l</sup>

- And those who swallowed you down<sup>a</sup> will be far away.<sup>b</sup>
- 20 The sons born when you were bereaved will say in your hearing, ‘This place is too cramped for me.
Make room for me to dwell here.’<sup>c</sup>
- 21 And you will say in your heart,
‘Who has fathered these for me,
Since I am a woman bereaved of children and barren,
Exiled and taken prisoner?
Who has raised these?<sup>d</sup>
Look! I was left all alone,<sup>e</sup>
So where have these come from?’<sup>f</sup>
- 22 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says:
“Look! I will raise up my hand to the nations,
And I will lift up my signal* to the peoples.<sup>g</sup>
They will bring your sons in their arms<sup>h</sup>
And carry your daughters on their shoulders.<sup>i</sup>
- 23 Kings will become caretakers for you,<sup>j</sup>
And their princesses will be your nurses.
They will bow down to you with their faces to the ground<sup>k</sup>
And lick the dust of your feet,<sup>k</sup>
And you will have to know that I am Jehovah;
Those hoping in me will not be put to shame.”<sup>l</sup>

Or can the captives of the tyrant be rescued?

And all people* will have to know that I am Jehovah,<sup>d</sup>

- 50 This is what Jehovah says:
“Where is the divorce certificate<sup>h</sup> of your mother, whom I sent away?
Or to which of my creditors did I sell you?
Look! It was because of your own errors<sup>i</sup> you were sold,

Why did no one answer when I called?<sup>k</sup>

Or is there no power in me to rescue?<sup>l</sup>

And they die because of thirst.

49:22 *Or “signal pole.” <sup>a</sup>Lit., “bosom.”

- 4 The Sovereign Lord Jehovah has given me the tongue of those taught,<sup>*a</sup> So that I may know how to answer# the tired one with the right word.<sup>△b</sup>
- He awakens me morning by morning;
He awakens my ear to listen like the taught ones.<sup>c</sup>

Let him approach me.

 The one saying to Zion:
 "Your God has become King!"<sup>c</sup>
- 8 Listen! Your watchmen raise their voice.
 In unison they shout joyfully,
 For they will see it clearly* when Jehovah gathers back Zion.
- 9 Become cheerful, shout joyfully in unison, you ruins of Jerusalem,<sup>d</sup>
 For Jehovah has comforted his people;<sup>e</sup> he has repurchased Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup>
- 10 Jehovah has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations;<sup>g</sup>
 All the ends of the earth will see the acts of salvation* of our God.<sup>h</sup>
- 11 Turn away, turn away, get out of there,<sup>i</sup> touch nothing unclean!
 Get out from the midst of her,<sup>k</sup> keep yourselves clean,
 You who are carrying the utensils of Jehovah.<sup>l</sup>
- 12 For you will not depart in panic,
 Nor will you have to flee,
 For Jehovah will go ahead of you,<sup>m</sup>
 And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.<sup>n</sup>
- 13 Look! My servant<sup>o</sup> will act with insight.
 He will be raised up high,
 He will be elevated and greatly exalted.<sup>p</sup>

14 Just as there were many who stared at him in amazement

—For his appearance was disfigured more than that of any other man
 And his stately form more than that of mankind—

15 So he will startle many nations.<sup>a</sup>

Kings will shut their mouths* before him,<sup>b</sup>

Because they will see what they had not been told
 And give consideration to what they had not heard.<sup>c</sup>

53 Who has put faith in the thing heard from us?<sup>*d</sup>
 And as for the arm of Jehovah,<sup>e</sup> to whom has it been revealed?<sup>f</sup>

2 He will come up like a twig<sup>g</sup> before him,* like a root out of parched land.
 No stately form does he have, nor any splendor;<sup>h</sup>
 And when we see him, his appearance does not draw us to him.<sup>i</sup>

3 He was despised and was avoided by men,<sup>j</sup>
 A man who was meant for* pains and was familiar with sickness.

It was as if his face were hidden from us.<sup>k</sup>

He was despised, and we held him as of no account.<sup>j</sup>

4 Truly he himself carried our sicknesses,<sup>k</sup>
 And he bore our pains.<sup>l</sup>
 But we considered him as plagued, stricken by God and afflicted.

52:15 *Or "will be speechless." 53:1 *Or possibly, "in what we heard?" 53:2 * "Him" could refer to an observer in general or to God. "Or "there is no special appearance that we should desire him." 53:3 *Or "who understood."

52:8 *Or "eye to eye." 52:10 *Or "the victory."

- 5 But he was pierced<sup>a</sup> for our transgression;<sup>b</sup>
He was crushed for our errors.<sup>c</sup>
He bore the punishment for our peace,<sup>d</sup>
And because of his wounds we were healed.<sup>e</sup>
- 6 Like sheep we have all wandered about,<sup>f</sup>
Each has turned his own way,
And Jehovah has caused the error of us all to meet up with him.<sup>g</sup>
- 7 He was oppressed<sup>h</sup> and he let himself be afflicted,<sup>i</sup>
But he would not open his mouth.
He was brought like a sheep to the slaughter,<sup>j</sup>
Like a ewe that is silent before its shearers,
And he would not open his mouth.<sup>k</sup>
- 8 Because of restraint* and judgment he was taken away;
And who will concern himself with the details of his generation?<sup>l</sup>
For he was cut off from the land of the living,<sup>m</sup>
Because of the transgression of my people he received the stroke.<sup>n</sup>
- 9 And he was given a burial place* with the wicked,<sup>n</sup>
And with the rich<sup>o</sup> in his death.<sup>o</sup>
Although he had done no wrong<sup>p</sup>
And there was no deception in his mouth.<sup>p</sup>
- 10 But it was Jehovah's will* to crush him, and he let him become sick.

53:8 *Or "oppression." "Or "his manner of life?" ^Or "was struck dead."
53:9 *Or "And one will give his burial place." ^Lit., "a rich man." ^Or "no violence." 53:10 *Or "But Jehovah took delight."

- If you will present his life* as a guilt offering,<sup>a</sup>
He will see his offspring,# he will prolong his days,<sup>b</sup>
And through him the delight^ of Jehovah will have success.<sup>c</sup>
- 11 Because of his anguish,* he will see and be satisfied.
By means of his knowledge the righteous one, my servant,<sup>d</sup>
Will bring a righteous standing to many people,<sup>e</sup>
And their errors he will bear.<sup>f</sup>

You sent your envoys far off,
So that you descended to the Grave.<sup>h</sup>
- 10 You have toiled in following your many ways,
But you did not say, 'It is hopeless!'
You found renewed strength.
That is why you do not give up.*
- 11 Whom did you dread and fear
So that you started to lie?<sup>b</sup>
You did not remember me.<sup>c</sup>
You took nothing to heart.<sup>d</sup>
Have I not kept silent and

So you showed no fear of me.

And they will not benefit you.<sup>h</sup>
- 13 When you cry for help,
Your collection of idols will not rescue you.<sup>i</sup>
A wind will carry all of them away,
A mere breath will blow
them away,
But the one who takes refuge in me will inherit the land
And will take possession of

- 16 For I will not oppose them forever Or always remain indignant;<sup>e</sup> For a man’s spirit would grow feeble because of me,<sup>f</sup> Even the breathing creatures that I have made.
- 17 I was indignant at his sinful pursuit of dishonest gain,<sup>g</sup> So I struck him, I hid my face, and I was indignant. But he kept walking as a renegade,<sup>h</sup> following the way of his heart.
- 18 I have seen his ways, But I will heal him<sup>i</sup> and lead him<sup>j</sup> And restore* comfort to him<sup>k</sup> and to his mourning ones.<sup>l</sup>
- 19 “I am creating the fruit of the lips. Continuous peace will be given to the one who is far away and the one who is near,”<sup>m</sup> says Jehovah, “And I will heal him.”

58 “Call out full-throated; do not hold back!

Raise your voice like a horn. Proclaim to my people their revolt,<sup>a</sup> To the house of Jacob their sins.

- 2 They seek me day after day, And they express delight to know my ways, As if they were a nation that had practiced righteousness And had not abandoned the justice of their God.<sup>b</sup> They ask me for righteous judgments, Delighting to draw close to God:<sup>c</sup>

3 ‘Why do you not see when we fast?’<sup>d</sup>

And why do you not notice when we afflict ourselves?’<sup>e</sup>

Because on the day of your fast, you pursue your own interests,<sup>f</sup>

And you oppress your laborers.<sup>f</sup>

- 4 Your fasting ends in quarrels and fights, And you strike with the fist of wickedness. You cannot fast as you do today and have your voice heard in heaven.

- 5 Should the fast that I choose be like this, As a day for someone to afflict himself,* To bow down his head like a rush, To make his bed on sackcloth and ashes? Is this what you call a fast and a day pleasing to Jehovah?
- 6 No, this is the fast that I choose:

57:15 *Or “resides.” 57:18 *Or “make compensation with.”

58:3 *Or “our soul?” “Or “delight.”

58:5 *Or “his soul.”

- To remove the fetters of wickedness,
To untie the bands of the yoke bar,<sup>a</sup>
To let the oppressed go free,<sup>b</sup>
And to break in half every yoke bar;
- 7 It is to share your bread with the hungry,<sup>c</sup>
To bring the poor and homeless into your house,
To clothe someone naked when you see him,<sup>d</sup>
And not to turn your back on your own flesh.
- 8 Then your light will shine through like the dawn,<sup>e</sup>
And your healing will spring up quickly.
Your righteousness will go before you,
And the glory of Jehovah will be your rear guard.<sup>f</sup>
- 9 Then you will call, and Jehovah will answer;
You will cry for help, and he will say, 'Here I am!'
If you remove from among you the yoke bar
And stop pointing your finger and speaking maliciously,<sup>g</sup>
- 10 If you grant to the hungry what you yourself desire<sup>h</sup>
And satisfy those who are afflicted,#
Then your light will shine even in the darkness,
And your gloom will be like midday.<sup>i</sup>
- 11 Jehovah will always lead you
And satisfy you* even in a parched land;<sup>j</sup>
He will invigorate your bones,
And you will become like a well-watered garden,<sup>k</sup>
Like a spring whose waters never fail.

- 4 No one calls out for righteousness,<sup>a</sup>
And no one goes to court in truthfulness.
They trust in unreality<sup>*b</sup> and speak what is worthless.
They conceive trouble and give birth to what is harmful.<sup>c</sup>

5 They hatch the eggs of a poisonous snake,
And they weave the cobweb of a spider.<sup>d</sup> Anyone who eats their eggs would die,
And the egg that is crushed hatches a viper.

6 Their cobweb will not

Nor will they cover themselves with what they make.<sup>e</sup>
Their works are harmful,
And deeds of violence are in their hands.<sup>f</sup>

Their thoughts are harmful thoughts;
Ruin and misery are in

8 They have not known the way of peace,
And there is no justice in their tracks.<sup>i</sup>
They make their roadways crooked;
No one treading on them will know peace.<sup>j</sup>

9 That is why justice is far away from us,
And righteousness does not overtake us.
We keep hoping for light, but look! there is darkness;
For brightness, but we keep walking in gloom.<sup>k</sup>

Like those without eyes we keep groping.<sup>a</sup>
We stumble at high noon as in evening darkness;
Among the strong we are just like the dead.

11 We all keep growling like bears
And cooing mournfully like doves.
We hope for justice, but there is none;
For salvation, but it is far away from us.

12 For our revolts are many before you;<sup>b</sup>
Each of our sins testifies against us.<sup>c</sup>
For our revolts are with us;

We have turned our backs on our God.
We have spoken of oppression and revolt;<sup>e</sup>
We have conceived lies and muttered false words from the heart.<sup>f</sup>

14 Justice is driven back,<sup>g</sup>
And righteousness stands far off;<sup>h</sup>
For truth* has stumbled in the public square,
And what is upright is unable to enter.

15 Truth* has vanished,<sup>i</sup>

- 11 For as the earth brings forth its sprouts And as the garden makes what is sown in it sprout, So will the Sovereign Lord Jehovah Cause righteousness<sup>a</sup> and praise to sprout<sup>b</sup> before all the nations.
- 62 For the sake of Zion I will not keep silent,<sup>c</sup> And for the sake of Jerusalem I will not keep still Until her righteousness shines like a bright light<sup>d</sup> And her salvation burns like a torch.<sup>e</sup>
- 2 "The nations will see your righteousness, O woman,<sup>f</sup> And all kings your glory.<sup>g</sup> And you will be called by a new name,<sup>h</sup> Which Jehovah's own mouth will designate.
- 3 You will become a crown of beauty in the hand of Jehovah, A royal turban in the palm of your God.
- 4 No more will you be called an abandoned woman,<sup>i</sup> And your land will no longer be called desolate.<sup>j</sup> But you will be called My Delight Is in Her,<sup>k</sup> And your land will be called the Married One. For Jehovah will take delight in you, And your land will be as one married.
- 5 For just as a young man marries a virgin, Your sons will marry you. With the rejoicing of a bridegroom over a bride, Your God will rejoice over you.<sup>l</sup>

6 Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have commissioned watchmen.

Continuously, all day long and all night long, they should not be silent. You who make mention of Jehovah, Do not rest,

7 And do not give him any rest until he firmly establishes Jerusalem, Yes, until he makes her the praise of the earth."<sup>a</sup>

8 Jehovah has sworn an oath with his right hand, with his strong arm: "I will no longer give your grain as food to your enemies,

Nor will foreigners drink your new wine, for which you have toiled.<sup>b</sup>

9 But those gathering it will eat it and they will praise Jehovah; And those collecting it will drink it in my holy courtyards."<sup>c</sup>

10 Pass through, pass through the gates. Clear the way for the people.<sup>d</sup>

Build up, build up the highway. Rid it of stones.<sup>e</sup>

Raise up a signal* for the peoples.<sup>f</sup>

11 Look! Jehovah has proclaimed to the ends of the earth: "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Look! Your salvation is coming.'<sup>g</sup>

Look! His reward is with him, And the wage he pays is before him."<sup>h</sup>

12 They will be called the holy people, those repurchased by Jehovah,<sup>i</sup>

62:10 *Or "signal pole."

- And you will be called Sought After, a City
Not Abandoned.<sup>a</sup>
- 63 Who is this coming from E<sup>b</sup>dom,
From Boz'rah<sup>c</sup> with bright-colored* garments,
This one with splendid clothing,
Marching in his great power?
"It is I, the One speaking in righteousness,
The One with great power to save."
- 2 Why is your clothing red,
And why are your garments like those of one treading the winepress?<sup>d</sup>
- 3 "I have trodden the wine trough alone.
No one from the peoples was with me.
I kept treading them in my anger,
And I kept trampling them
in my wrath.<sup>e</sup>
My garments were spattered with their blood,
And I have stained all my clothing.
- 4 For the day of vengeance is in my heart,<sup>f</sup>
And the year of my repurchased ones has come.
- 5 I looked, but there was no
one to help;
I was appalled that no one offered support.
So my arm brought me
salvation,<sup>g</sup>
And my own wrath
supported me.
- 6 I trampled peoples in my anger,
I made them drunk with my wrath<sup>h</sup>
And poured out their blood on the ground."

The many good things he has done for the house of Israel,
According to his mercy and my people, sons who will

- 9 During all their distress it was distressing to him.<sup>d</sup>
And his own personal

In his love and compassion

And he lifted them up and grieved his holy spirit.<sup>i</sup>

He then turned into their enemy,<sup>j</sup>
And he fought against them.<sup>k</sup>

From your lofty abode of holiness and glory.*
Where are your zeal and your mightiness,
The stirring of your compassions<sup>c</sup> and your mercy?<sup>d</sup>
- They are withheld from me.
- 16 For you are our Father;<sup>e</sup>
Although Abraham may not know us
And Israel may not recognize us,
You, O Jehovah, are our Father.
Our Repurchaser of long ago is your name.<sup>f</sup>
- 17 Why do you, O Jehovah, let us* wander from your ways?
Why do you let<sup>g</sup> our hearts become hard, so that we do not fear you?<sup>g</sup>
Return, for the sake of your servants,
The tribes of your inheritance.<sup>h</sup>

We are the clay, and you are our Potter;<sup>c</sup>
We are all the work of your hand.

And do not remember our error forever.
Look at us, please, for we are all your people.

Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a wasteland.<sup>e</sup>
- 11 Our house* of holiness and glory,<sup>f</sup>
Where our forefathers praised you,
Has been burned with fire,<sup>f</sup>
And all the things we cherished lie in ruins.

Will you remain silent and let us be afflicted so severely?<sup>g</sup>

It was because of Jehovah, Because of his burning anger.

 And I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.<sup>e</sup>
- 12 Who is wise enough to understand this?
 To whom has the mouth of Jehovah spoken, that he may declare it?
 Why has the land perished?
 Why is it scorched like the wilderness,
 So that no one is passing through?"
- 13 Jehovah replied: "Because of their rejecting my law* that I set before them, and because they have not followed it and obeyed my voice. 14 Instead, they stubbornly followed their own hearts,<sup>f</sup> and they followed the Ba'al images, as their fathers had taught them to do.<sup>g</sup>

And I answered: “Amen,* O Jehovah.”

I saw that the belt had been ruined; it was completely useless.

17 And if you refuse to listen, I<sup>b</sup> will weep in secret because of your pride. I will shed many tears, and my eyes will stream with tears,<sup>b</sup>

Because the flock of Jehovah<sup>c</sup> has been carried away captive.

Where is the flock you were given, your beautiful sheep?<sup>g</sup>

They sink to the ground dejected,

For our acts of unfaithful-

And it is against you that we have sinned.
- 8 O hope of Israel, his Savior<sup>d</sup>
in times of distress,
Why are you like a stranger in the land,
Like a traveler who stops only to spend the night?
- 9 Why are you like a man who is stunned,
Like a mighty man who cannot save?
For you are among us,
O Jehovah,<sup>e</sup>
And your name has been called on us.<sup>f</sup>
Do not abandon us.

concerning this people: "They whole burnt offerings and grain

14 Jehovah then said to me: “The prophets are prophesying lies in my name.<sup>b</sup> I have not sent them or commanded them or spoken to them.<sup>c</sup> A lying vision and a worthless divination and the deceit of their own heart is what they are prophesying to you.”<sup>d</sup> 15 Therefore this is what Jehovah says concerning the prophets who are prophesying in my name, though I did not send them, and who say that no sword or famine will occur in this land: ‘By sword and by famine those prophets will perish.’<sup>e</sup> 16 And the people to whom they are prophesying will be cast out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword, with no one to bury them<sup>f</sup>—them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters—for I will pour out on them the calamity they deserve.”<sup>g</sup>

17 “You must speak this word to them,

‘Let my eyes stream with tears night and day, let them not cease,’<sup>h</sup>

For the virgin daughter of my people has been completely crushed and broken,<sup>i</sup>

With an extremely severe wound.

18 If I go out into the field and look,

I see those slain by the sword!

19 Have you completely rejected Judah, or have you* abhorred Zion?<sup>a</sup> Why have you struck us, so that there is no healing for us?<sup>b</sup>

There was a hope for peace, but nothing good came, For a time of healing, but there is terror!<sup>c</sup>

20 We acknowledge our wickedness, O Jehovah, And the error of our forefathers, For we have sinned against you.<sup>d</sup>

21 For the sake of your name, do not reject us;<sup>e</sup> Do not despise your glorious throne. Remember, and do not break your covenant with us.<sup>f</sup>

22 Can any of the worthless idols of the nations give rain, Or can even the heavens send showers of rain on their own?

Are you not the only One, O Jehovah our God?<sup>g</sup> And we hope in you, For you alone have done all these things.

15 Then Jehovah said to me: “Even if Moses and Samuel were standing before me,<sup>h</sup> I would show no favor toward* this people. Drive them out from before me. Let them go. 2 And if they say to you, ‘Where should we go?’ you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah says:

- But his leaves will always and is desperate.<sup>#b</sup>

Who can know it?
- 10 I, Jehovah, am searching the heart,<sup>c</sup> Examining the innermost thoughts,*
To give to each one

According to the fruitage of his works.<sup>d</sup>

All those who abandon you

Those apostatizing from

Because they have aban-

For you are the object of my

- 16 But as for me, I did not run away from following you as a shepherd, Nor did I long for the day of disaster.
You well know everything my lips have spoken;
It all took place before your face!
- 17 Do not be a cause of terror to me.
You are my refuge in the day of calamity.

But do not let me be put to shame.
Let them be struck with terror,
But do not let me be struck with terror.
Bring the day of calamity on them,<sup>c</sup>

24 ““However, if you strictly obey me,” declares Jehovah, “and you bring in no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, and you keep the Sabbath day sacred by not doing any work on it,<sup>b</sup> 25 then kings and princes who sit on the throne of David<sup>c</sup> will also enter in through the gates of this city, riding in the chariot and on horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem;<sup>d</sup> and this city will be inhabited for all time. 26 And people will come from the cities of Judah, from the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin,<sup>e</sup> from the lowland,<sup>f</sup> from the mountainous region, and from the Neg’eb,* bringing whole burnt offerings,<sup>g</sup> sacrifices,<sup>h</sup> grain offerings,<sup>i</sup> frankincense, and thanksgiving sacrifices into the house of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup>

18 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah: 2 “Rise up and go down to the house of the potter,<sup>m</sup> and there I will cause you to hear my words.”

3 So I went down to the house of the potter, and he was working on the potter’s wheels. 4 But the vessel that the potter was making with the clay was spoiled in his hand. So the potter reworked it into another vessel, just as he saw fit.*

5 Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying: 6 “Can I not do to you just as this potter did, O house of Israel?” declares Jehovah. ‘Look! As the clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.<sup>a</sup>

7 Whenever I may speak about uprooting and pulling down and destroying a nation or a kingdom,<sup>b</sup> 8 and that nation abandons its wickedness that I spoke against, I will also change my mind concerning* the calamity that I intended to bring against it.<sup>c</sup> 9 But whenever I speak about building up and planting a nation or a kingdom, 10 and it does what is bad in my eyes and does not obey my voice, I will change my mind concerning* the good that I intended to do for it.

11 “Now say, please, to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ‘This is what Jehovah says: ‘Here I am preparing* a calamity and devising a scheme against you. Turn back, please, from your bad ways, and reform your ways and your practices.’’”<sup>d</sup>

12 But they said: “It is hopeless!<sup>e</sup> For we will walk after our own thoughts, and each of us will act according to the stubbornness of his wicked heart.”<sup>f</sup>

13 Therefore this is what Jehovah says:

“Ask for yourselves, please, among the nations.

Who has heard anything like this?

The virgin of Israel has done a most horrible thing.<sup>g</sup>

17 So I took the cup out of the hand of Jehovah and made all the nations to whom Jehovah sent me drink:<sup>b</sup> 18 starting with Jerusalem and the cities of Judah,<sup>c</sup> her kings and her princes, to make them a ruin, an object of horror, something to whistle at and a curse,<sup>d</sup> as it is today; 19 then Phar’aoh king of Egypt and his servants, his princes, and all his people,<sup>e</sup> 20 and all their mixed populations; all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of the Phi-lis-tines,<sup>f</sup> Ash’ke-lon,<sup>g</sup> Gaz’a, Ek’ron, and those remaining of Ash’dod; 21 E’dom,<sup>h</sup> Mo’ab,<sup>i</sup> and the Am’mon-ites;<sup>j</sup> 22 all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Si’don,<sup>k</sup> and the kings of the island in the sea; 23 De’dan,<sup>l</sup> Te’ma, Buz, and all those with hair clipped at the temples;<sup>m</sup> 24 all the kings of the Arabians<sup>n</sup> and all the kings of the mixed populations who reside in the wilderness; 25 all the kings of Zim’ri, all the kings of E’lam,<sup>o</sup> and all the kings of the Medes;<sup>p</sup> 26 and all the kings of the north near and far, one after the other, and all the other kingdoms of the earth that are on the surface of the ground; and the king of She’shach*<sup>q</sup> will drink after them.

27 “And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: “Drink and get drunk and vomit and fall so that you cannot get up<sup>r</sup> because of the sword that I am sending among you.”’ 28 And if they refuse to take the cup out of your hand to drink, say to them, ‘This is what Je-

"You will not go unpunished, for I am calling for a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth," declares Jehovah of armies.

30 "And you are to prophesy all these words to them and say to them,

'From on high Jehovah will roar,
And from his holy dwelling he will make his voice heard.
He will roar loudly against his abiding place.
Shouting like those treading

He will sing triumphantly

31 'A noise will resound to the ends of the earth,
For Jehovah has a controversy with the nations.
He will personally pass judgment on all humans.<sup>c</sup>
And he will put the wicked to the sword,' declares Jehovah.

32 This is what Jehovah of armies says:
'Look! A calamity is spreading from nation to nation,<sup>d</sup>
And a great tempest will be unleashed from the remotest parts of the earth.'

33 "And those slain by Jehovah in that day will be from one end of the earth clear to the other end of the earth. They will not be mourned, nor will they be gathered up or buried. They will become like manure on the surface of the ground.'

Wallow about, you majestic ones of the flock,

35 The shepherds have no place to flee,
And there is no escape for the majestic ones of the flock.

And the wailing of the majestic ones of the flock,
For Jehovah is devastating their pasture.

26 In the beginning of the reign of Je-hoi'a-kim<sup>b</sup> son of Jo-si'ah, the king of Judah, this word came from Jehovah: 2 "This is what Jehovah says, 'Stand in the courtyard of the house of Jehovah and speak concerning* all the people of the cities of Judah who are coming in to worship* at the house of Jehovah. 7 And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 8 So when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that Jehovah had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him and said: "You will surely die. 9 Why have you prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying, 'This house will become like Shi'loh, and this city will be devastated and left without an inhabitant'?" And all the people gathered around Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these words, they came up from the house<sup>j</sup> of the king to the house of Jehovah and sat down at the entrance of the new gate of Jehovah.<sup>e</sup> 11 The priests and the prophets said to the princes and to all the people: "This man deserves the death penalty,<sup>f</sup> because he has prophesied against this city just as you have heard with your own ears."<sup>g</sup>

16 Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets: "This man does not deserve the death penalty, for he spoke to us in the name of Jehovah our God."

17 Furthermore, some of the elders of the land rose up and began saying to the entire congregation of the people: 18 "Mi'cah<sup>b</sup> of Mo'resh-eth was prophesying in the days of King Hez-e-ki'ah<sup>c</sup> of Judah, and he said to all the people of Judah, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says:

5 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Han-a-ni’ah the prophet in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of Jehovah. 6 Jeremiah the prophet said: “Amen!* May Jehovah do this! May Jehovah fulfill your words that you prophesied by bringing back from Babylon to this place the utensils of the house of Jehovah and all the exiled people! 7 However, hear, please, this message that I am speaking in your ears and in the ears of all the people. 8 Long ago the prophets who were prior to me and prior to you used to prophesy concerning many lands and great kingdoms, about war, calamity, and pestilence.* 9 If a prophet prophesies about peace and the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that Jehovah truly sent that prophet.”

10 At that Han-a-ni'ah the prophet took the yoke bar off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it.<sup>a</sup> 11 Han-a-ni'ah then said in the presence of all the people: "This is what Jehovah says, 'Just like this I will break the yoke of King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar of Babylon from off the neck of all the nations within two years.'<sup>b</sup> And Jeremiah the prophet went on his way.

12 After Han-a-ni'ah the prophet had broken the yoke bar from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, this message of Jehovah came to Jeremiah: 13 "Go and say to Han-a-ni'ah, 'This is what Jehovah says: "You have broken yoke bars of wood,<sup>c</sup> but instead of them you will make yoke bars of iron." 14 For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "I will put an iron yoke bar on the neck of all these nations, to serve King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar of Babylon, and they must serve him.<sup>d</sup> Even the wild beasts of the field I will give him."<sup>e</sup>

15 Jeremiah the prophet then said to Han-a-ni'ah<sup>f</sup> the prophet: "Listen, please, O Han-a-ni'ah! 17 So Han-a-ni'ah the prophet died in that year, in the seventh month.

Lord Jehovah! Look! You made the heavens and the earth by your great power<sup>a</sup> and by your outstretched arm. Nothing is too wonderful for you, 18 the One showing loyal love to thousands, but repaying the error of the fathers to<sup>b</sup> their sons after them,<sup>b</sup> the true God, the great and mighty One, whose name is Jehovah of armies. 19 You are great in counsel<sup>c</sup> and mighty in deed,<sup>c</sup> you whose eyes observe all the ways of men,<sup>d</sup> to give to each one according to his ways and according to what he does.<sup>e</sup> 20 You have performed signs and miracles in the land of Egypt, which are known down to this day, and thus you have made a name for yourself in Israel and among mankind,<sup>f</sup> as it is today. 21 And you brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt, with signs, with miracles, with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with terrifying deeds.<sup>g</sup>

22 “In time you gave them this land that you swore to give to their forefathers,<sup>h</sup> a land flowing with milk and honey.<sup>i</sup>

23 And they came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey your voice or walk in your law. They did not do anything you commanded them to do, so that you caused all this calamity to befall them.<sup>j</sup> 24 Look! Men have come with siege ramparts to capture the city,<sup>k</sup> and because of the sword,<sup>l</sup> the famine, and the pestilence,<sup>m</sup> the city will certainly fall into the hands of the Chal-de'ans who are fighting against it; what you said has all happened, as you now see. 25 But you have told me, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘Buy for yourself the field with money and call in witnesses,’ although the city will certainly be given into the hand of the Chal-de'ans."

26 At that the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying: 27 "Here I am, Jehovah, the God of all mankind.* Is there anything too wonderful for me?

28 So this is what Jehovah says, 'Here I am handing this city over to the Chal-de'ans and into the hand of King Neb-u-chad-nez-zar* of Babylon, and he will capture it.<sup>a</sup> 29 And the Chal-de'ans fighting against this city will come in and set this city on fire and burn it down<sup>b</sup> along with the houses on whose roofs the people offered sacrifices to Ba'al and poured out drink offerings to other gods to offend me.'<sup>c</sup>

30 "For the people of Israel and of Judah have done only what was bad in my eyes, from their youth on;<sup>d</sup> the people of Israel keep offending me by the work of their hands,' declares Jehovah. 31 'For this city, from the day that they built it down to this day, has been nothing but a cause of anger and wrath to me,<sup>e</sup> so that it must be removed from before my face,<sup>f</sup> 32 because of all the evil that the people of Israel and of Judah have done to offend me—they, their kings,<sup>g</sup> their princes,<sup>h</sup> their priests, their prophets,<sup>i</sup> and the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 They kept turning their backs to me, not their faces;<sup>j</sup> although I tried to teach them again and again,* none of them would listen to receive discipline.<sup>k</sup> 34 And they put their disgusting idols in the house that bears my name, in order to defile it.<sup>l</sup> 35 Furthermore, they built the high places of Ba'al in the Valley of the Son of Hin'nom,*<sup>m</sup> in order to make
